Well I vaugely remember George F [located in FLA and into mil comms?] but have heard no details of this case.
But if the SS was involved a good guess would have to be forgery/counterfeits of some nature .... Assuming there was no plot to overthrow the U.S. government.

Bill was a good guy, very knowledgeable and creative.
I corresponded with him quite a bit back in the day, and he will be long remembered by old school scannists.

SC has been bragging for quite some time now about No-Coders - but has "yet" to show where "he" has ever been licensed as a ham at all let alone "with" code. I don't care to give my call here - but have in the past and will again if asked. It doesn't prove a thing one way or another. My call - though I'm an extra - happens to be my old KA Novice Call sign. Been an extra quite a while. Went from Novice - Technician (80s) - Advanced - Extra.

It is amazing you guys keep him in entertainment by acknowledging his ridiculous remarks. GET A LIFE - SC -whether we like it or not - CODE IS GONE. You're beating a horse that has been dead quite a while. You've been on this stupid kick for about 5 months now. Don't you have anything better to do?

I Love how some people assume the worst.

I know George and have had him in my home.
I think (personally) this is a case of a few things blown up out of proportion.
The filed complaint was for 31 people for $5k. Hardly worth the SS white collar dividison being involved.
Just look at him Ebay ID. 38k feedbacks with 98.3% ++

It would be in the SS jurisdiction if a counterfeit penny is involved, $$ amount is not a factor, and whether it is worth it or not is certainly not for me to judge.
I know no details at all about this, just saw fit to lay fourth some relevant observations. Lots of folks think you have to be hatching a plot to murder the Prez for the SS to get involved, just pointing out that is not the case.

38,000 feedbacks, or was that a typo ?

You can try the Radio Reference page. They have lot's of info there.
Unfortunately it has in my case been wrong for over a year so they seem to be way behind change at times, but it's free so it makes a good start.
If they do not have the info, or what they have turns out to be wrong, you can probably search for it with your scanner, but this a time consuming way to do it.

It is Wed, 3:53pm EST (2053z).
Moments ago E-4B "Biggs 25" landed at Patrick AFB.
I heard him coming for quite a while. Heard him burning 356.15 WBFM carrier while he was over GA and all the way to Patrick. As he was landing on Patrick's Rnwy 30 (via 133.75), the signal on 356.15 disappeared suddenly, as if a switch had been turned off.
All the time he was arriving, I also had an open carrier on 311.0, which remained until he was on the ground here.

Betsy,

Congratulations on the new radio, and here's hoping you'll get plenty of enjoyment out of it.

There's somewhat of a learning curve when going from scanning conventional systems to scanning trunked systems. I recommend you Google up some info on the basics of scanning trunked systems and acquaint yourself with that. As for help in getting started on programming trunked systems in your area, depending on where you live, you may (or may not) be able to find basic frequency and talk group info at:

http://www.trunktracker.com/states/database.html

The primary difference between programming conventional and trunked systems into a scanner is this: When you sit down to program a conventional scanner, about the only thing you're concerned with is programming in the right frequencies. You conjure up a list of freqs from somewhere (from the Internet, a local radio club, the store you bought the scanner from, or wherever), and if it's a good list, it lists all the government freqs in town: the police, fire department, EMS, the water department, the dog catcher - all have their frequency or frequencies listed. With conventional systems you simply program them in, hit SCAN, and start listening. When a police officer keys his radio, you'll hear him on (where else?) the police frequency.

With a trunked system, though, EVERYBODY can be on the same trunked radio system and they ALL will use ALL of the frequencies in the system. This is because in a trunked system, when a cop keys a radio, a computer at the control site decides which frequency to send it to,
and at the same time sends the other police radios to that frequency to listen...and you'll hear him on that frequency. THIS time. The next time the computer sends somebody to that frequency, it might be the dog catcher instead, while the cop you just heard a minute ago is on another frequency in the same system. Therefore, with a trunked radio system, you have to learn about fleet maps and talk group IDs, which are what allows that computer to tell the difference between the cops and the dog catcher - and which is how you (and your scanner) tell the difference, too.

It takes some getting used to, but keep after it and you'll get the hang of it - and I think that once you do, you'll find that the effort will have been worth it!

Hope this helps.

I'm not the OP, but thanks a ton for that excellent explanation.

I'd kind of like to get a scanner, but I'm afraid that soon after I shell out the $500 they will come along with yet another newfangled technology that is incompatible with the scanner I just bought.

What's the real danger of that? And if I were to get a scanner, what is the latest tech I should look for?

Is "trunking" the only thing I need? Is all trunking equal?

I have an ICOM IC-R7100 receiver/scanner that has a problem. I can receive nothing below 250 mhz. There is no hiss or noise, just like if the squelch was fully turned up, and it is not. It works fine from 250 mhz+ to 762 mhz where it sometimes cuts out as described above. Any idea of what is wrong with it??? Does anyone have a schematic or repair handbook for this radio? Thanks for the help.

If the reset does'nt work I would suspect the VCO/PLL for the lower bands is going out of lock. Usually an unlock indication will mute audio.

36. How critical is antenna tuning?

I have an AV-5 airband antenna [1] hooked-up to my scanners, and it just struck me that (doh!) I didn't tune it before I installed it. Looking at their docs, I was horrified to see that the supplied length of the elements is such that it's way off tune. From my math, it'll be tuned to around 95MHz instead of the 125MHz that would be the rough center of the airband. How big a deal is this? Do I have to get the ladder out again? Or will the losses be managable in an rx-only application?

I don't think I'd worry about it all that much. It seems to be fairly broadbanded, so I doubt that in a receive-only environment you would notice any difference. I would believe that you would only have an issue if you were on the very edge of the receiving range for whatever particular station you wanted to monitor. In that case, having it "properly tuned" MIGHT get you that extra tiny bit of signal to make the difference between hearing and not, but even that is iffy.

I don't think you need to worry about new tehcnology coming out for scanners... maybe a super advanced antenna, but then still, they would have to include old adapters w/ it. Other than antennas, I don't think there really any other acessories that COULD be updated.

Could be wrong..

From my experience, the more 'metal' you get in the air for receive the better.
If you doubt this try attaching a long wire to your receiver and see for yourself
'tuned' antenna's sound good on paper and as great advertising 'gimicks' but an 8 inch tuned antenna will not out perform a 120 feet of long wire (for receive).

and before any of you 'howl' about antenna design, etc etc .... go try it then leave me a message

Yeah, I would have thought that while a properly tuned antenna will help you, it is nowhere near as critical as if it was hooked up to a transmitter where a bad SWR can be costly / lead to bad transmission performance.

However because you aren't transmitting, I wouldn't say it is a critical issue but still an issue that could matter in the longer term.

I've been using poles geared for lower end frequencies and while they do a great job for those frequencies, even the stock standard antenna that came with my handheld does a better for the 400MHz+ range that I've been focussing on in recent weeks. I guess I'm just hooked on the awesome look of lower frequency antennas!!

However if I was you I'd wait for advice from others before you get the tinsnips out.

Hey, a couple years back I had a QSO with a guy using a 49 MHz Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtle walkie talkie, recrystalled for 6M.
He was getting out pretty well too.

Somewhere in my papers - I have an article that came out specifically dealing with taking a "Space Patrol" type walkie talkie and placing it on "6 meters" as a QRP rig. I bought a pair to do it - and things got hectic. That became a back burner project. I still have the walkie talkies but have to dig out the paperwork.

Cecil,

Code "isn't" dead "completely", I think we all know that. I believe I am safe in saying that what this guy was getting to was - SC's vigilance to keep insulting No Code Hams OR Ham want to bes. There really IS no reason to keep that up. There is nothing we can do to bring it back - the decision has been made - whether we like it or not. Insults can only help "kill" the hobby.

I've said it before, I'll say it again - if you like it - USE IT. If not - so what!

The horse has been beaten to death - past death, now into the dust. Give it a break. I've blocked all that have supported "his" stupid remarks and argument. It has been going on for at least 6 months. IT IS OVER!

It shouldn't be that big a deal.. I know a lot of the newer ones are basically one IC with a crystal for the transmitter and an RC tank for the receive, so you'd have only two things to change.

"Space Patrol" looks good on a QSL card equipment line, but not as good as "Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles."

There was a group of us back in Boston in the late 80s doing that a lot ... we had a big bin of the xtals, and were tuning them up for a local 6m repeater.

I also had a simplex pair that I used to build a fun 2400 bps packet rig.

Imminently hackable, and amazingly cheap.

Good memories.

Yeah - the biggest deal of it was changing the crystal. I think the coils and so on - were pretty much there within reason to oscillate. Been a while since I read the article though.

LIfe of a flourescent bulb is measured more in on/off cycles than on time. I keep a small lamp on in the kitchen it has been on ever since we moved into this house which is now over 15 years, only going off during power failures.
On the other hand the other florescent lights in the kitchen are switched

This brings to mind... the military has lots of those horrible little AN/PRT-4A transmitters selling dirt cheap on the surplus market. They are kind of neat because they have a 455 KHz oscillator to shift the frequency of the crystal up, allowing you to use the same crystal for the transmitter as you did for the (seperate) receiver.

NOBODY has documentation on these things. The LOGSA database has them still listed as unavailable except within the military. Does anyone have a schematic on these?

As I recall, these were issued in Vietnam for communication within units, but were mostly famous for drawing fire with their large antennae and for poor signal quality.

First of all - no, all trunking is not equal. Different trunked radio systems use different technology to accomplish their tasks. However, for me to explain them all here, I'd be writing for hours and the resulting post would be so long as to infuriate people. Instead, I recommend that you (and anyone else interested in this subject) visit the Trunked Radio Systems page on The RadioReference Wiki:

http://wiki.radioreference.com/index.php/Trunking

That page has links to other pages on the Wiki that explain the various TRS types in much greater detail than is practical for a Usenet posting.

The answer to whether or not "trunking" is all that you need depends on where you live and what your listening interests are, and of course, how much money you have in your wallet.

For example, the average scanner will cover ham, business, commercial aircraft, government, industrial, public safety, utility companies, and weather. Your scanner may need additional frequency coverage if you also want to be able to listen to things like the AM/FM broadcast bands, HF worldwide ham/broadcast/utility stations, TV audio, and (especially) military aircraft comms.

One example of the "latest tech" you may want/need, depending on if it is in use in your area, is the ability to monitor APCO Project 25

(a.k.a. "P25") digital voice systems. There are now radios on the market that can handle P25 systems. Some require installing an optional circuit board, which of course costs extra. Only you can decide if you want or need P25 capability, based on what's in use in your area and the cost of having it.

As to the real danger of your scanner becoming obsolete as soon as you buy it - it seems to me that even though they can invent "yet another newfangled technology that is incompatible with the scanner I just bought" every day, that doesn't immediately make your scanner obsolete and unusable. That doesn't happen until your local police and fire department start using a new radio system that utilizes the new technology, and radio systems using the latest high-tech bells and whistles usually cost top dollar for the local government to purchase. If the scanner you buy has everything you need at the time you purchase it, that scanner should remain quite usable for a long time.

So my advice would be:

1. Determine what it is you want to listen to.
2. Do some research and find out what kind of radio systems are in use in your area relative to what you want to listen to.
3. Refer to the RadioReference Wiki and other sources (such as scanner specifications on manufacturer's websites, and websites that cater to scanner hobbyists) to find a radio that does what you want it to do.
4. Find one of those at a price that's agreeable to you.
5. Buy it and start enjoying this facet of the radio hobby!

Hope this helps...

If it wasn't stolen, then he earned it selling a book that emphasized the power of positive thought to make slot machines hit jackpots.

I cannot believe people would pay money to such a con artist.

R51 on the main board may be out of adjustment. On the bands where the unit is working, the squelch shouldn't mute the noise until you advance it to the 10:00 position of rotation. If it mutes the receiver at a less advanced position, R51 may require adjustment.
One way that you can check if the PLL is in lock is to tune the receiver to a frequency where it "goes dead" and inject a signal of around 100uV with an RF generator. If you don't have this type of equipment, tune in to a local weather band frequency and see if you can hear one of these stations.
Another thing you can do is tune in one of the local stations on the 88 to 108MHz FM band. If you don't hear any stations in any of these ranges, your PLL could indeed be out of lock.

As for insider secrets.....
The secret is you lose money and he (the insider) makes $30K.
At least the payment agency has stopped taking orders for that crap.

He is selling his timeshare on a golf resort on a Deer Island in central Florida.
He first offered at $7,000, and was lowered to $5,000.
It is probably worth $1000.
He has a big lawyer bill by now. Hopefully that bill will be punishment enough when it is over.

A few years back it seems -- he was ripping some folks off for some GPS equipment? I had a few conversations with a fellow whose friend "Curtis" went and paid George a visit. George got shook up (literally) a bit.

That is most excellent. That little pencil neck probably crapped himself. I loved the booking photo of him- he looks so scared..

I wonder if that email is still active? A bunch of his websites (god knows he had a few) and his ebay account are dead. Hopefully he is being monitored 24/7 to protect other folks from getting scammed.

If you want to read some funny stuff on old George do a goggle search on his newsgroup activity.. I especially enjoyed his posts asking for recommendations on a good church in vegas to get married at... then about a year later he posts asking for divorce advice.

Real sharp dude.

My wife and I are going to Aruba in March, and I am trying to find out that countries scanner laws.
Haven't had much luck googling it, anybody been there...do they dispatch in English or in Papiamento, the native language
Even a url that has scanner laws in other countries would be helpful
Thanks

yes. Here, I hear long time hams who know and passed the morse code test, singing on the ham bands. These hams don't report the other hams for violating FCC rules by singing on the ham bands, yet these very same hams report cb operators they hear singing on the cb bands.

That shows what kind of people the hams are.

and in the verb form, I think he's also calling him a cocksucker.

They are awash in their self-proclaimed glory after they posed as an underage person and agreed to do all sorts of sex acts wioth adult males, and they are adults posing as teenager themselves. They make themsleves into liars by falsely impersonating underage persons and by not fuilfilling the words they tell the victims online in their chats. Why don't you read it where they tell these victims of their deceit about how they have been with grown men and such? Why don't you read it where they say, "That would be cool." after someone makes an advance towards an adult who is posing as a teenager? And, where they agree to meet the person, etc.
Lost control, didn't you?
Is that why you feel as if you need to lie so much now? I see where lots of these false impersonation games are not sticking. They feel as if they can lie and then order the victims to get counseling in the gayblade, governmental, pro-choice tax leech counseling centers. True, search for anything on Aruba these days and you'll just get links about missing blondes and drug deals.
I believe the official language there is Dutch.

Yes, according to the CIA Factbook: Languages: Dutch (official), Papiamento (a Spanish, Portuguese, Dutch, English dialect), English (widely spoken), Spanish.

Well, Florida had Punce de Leon, and "show-na-to-va" is a tennis player, but he's too stupid to put two together in his own hand, so can you blame him for having to find friends on cognet?

Perhaps he'll find Tommy, who doesn't know what the Fountain of Youth is, either.

There was an old Bishop whose clucking Confessed he knew nothing of fucking;
Forget a good boff,
He can't even fuck off,
So he just has to settle for sucking.

TEH WAY OF THE K00K
Never learn from your mistakes.
Always practice your mistakes; you may get them right.
Always pick on those smarter and tougher than you.
Always believe that only you know the TRVTH.
Never allow logic or reason get in the way of a good k00k.
When being overwhelmed by logic and reason: k00ksuit!
If you are going to be wrong, do it at the top of your lungs.
When caught in a lie: LIE!
When in doubt: Order the Crab Won Ton
Plagiarism is your friend. Use it.
Whenever contradicted; morph, start calling people names, and make false accusations. Include the children of your target in your allegations, even if they don't have any.
(06-Jun-05) When nobody else will listen, post to your own fan group.
(06-Jun-05) Obviously, since you have your own fan group, this must mean that you have fans. Post prolifically to your fan group - you wouldn't want to disappoint them!
(10-May-2005)Everyone reads usenet. Approval here means approval everywhere.
Post numerous blank posts, or posts containing only a message id.
Post numerous copy&paste web articles from crackerpot websites.
Never forget to call kookologists "k00ks."
If there are several, call them "sockpuppets" too

When all else fails, accuse various and sundry kookologists of e-mailing viruses to you. This is a sure-fire method of garnering sympathy and ensuring that the General Public will always see things your way. An especially effective sub-strategy here is to accuse them of infecting you with the 'Sasser' worm via e-mail.
Quote notorious scientists or writers - it makes it look as if they approve the drivel you are writing!
(9-Jul-05) Anytime your computer is infected with a virus, bogged down by spyware, attacked over your internet connection, or otherwise suffers from preventable problems, government agencies are responsible and are trying to silence you and are monitoring your computer files.
Ignore all traffic signs and feel free to trespass, you don't have to obey any rules.
Scare your enemies with lawsuits, police escorts and whines.
Always back up your empty (albeit noisy) threats with phony LARTs, false police reports, and harassing letters to the FBI and other gubbermint agencies.
Be vigilant in your redundancy. The more you repeat yourself, the more likely others will believe you!
If you can't find anyone as crazy as yourself to support you in the flamewars you start with the normal population, create sock puppets and use anonymous remailers that shamelessly hang on every word you write.
(17-Mar-05) When dealing with law enforcement, remember that it is they who have the problem, not you. Be sure to inform them of this at every available opportunity, as they will surely appreciate your constructive criticism. Be sure to make them aware that YOU KNOW YOUR RIGHTS! ("The cops like that, when people know their rights. That way they don't have to read them to you on the way to the station." - George Carlin)
The more your fake personalities adulate you, the more respect you'll get!
When confronted with a reality that you don't like: Announce loudly that you are departing, never to return as long as there's an Internet. Come back in three or four days and claim you were drunk, hacked, abducted by alience, or forged. Alternately you can just not even mention your prior departure, and if anyone asks you about it, either ignore them or respond with something along the lines of "YOUR NOT THE BOSS OF ME! PLONK!" People really know you mean business then.
Always remain clueproof.
(20-Mar-05) Anyone who does not believe that you are the reincarnation of [$DEITY_OR_PROPHET] is obviously an infidel lacking in faith whose soul in in peril of everlasting damnation.
When responding to one line challenges, post paragraphs of rants and screed in response.
Incoherency is not a roadblock to poasting.
Neither is illiteracy.
Delusions poasted often enough become fact.
Claim you will destroy <insert newsfroup> for attacking you.
When spnaked, send cmsg for Fanboi newsfroup(s).
Find your Lame, Use your Lame, Be your Lame!
Post Edit when the TRVTH hurts.

Always sneck the offending newsfroups.
Always poast pictures of yourself so you can be admired in all your k00ky glory.
Always accuse others of the very acts you are guilty of.
Post lots of boasts about your high IQ and incredible talents.
(20-Mar-05) If you repeat a lie often enough, it becomes the truth.
Anybody who fails to understand this is engaged in a deliberate campaign of misinformation and character assassination.
Always <plonk> somebody just before replying the plonkee!
The k00k considers itself the most intelligent person in any conversation, possibly on the planet. Other people are benighted and ignorant, and have been waiting their whole lives for the k00k to rescue them from intellectual darkness.
Write a self-published book and claim it a success. Bonus points for comparing it to "Mein Kampf" and/or the Bible.
Declare yourself equal to a deity of your choice.
Claim that you've come from other planets.
Claim thousands of past lives.
Frothing complaints carry far more weight when you send them from "legal@" some domain.
Nothing strikes terror into the hearts of your detractors more than telling them that you're archiving their messages for possible use in the future.
Never forget that everyone else posting to Usenet is a paid disinformation agent looking to discredit you.
Usenet is governed by US law. If a poster in Romania killfiles you, he's obviously violating your 1st Amendment rights and can be sued.
Every news admin in the world hangs out in NANAU, and they're just dying to nuke the account of that meanyhead who just called you "fucknozzle". Drop 'em a line - that's what they're there for, after all.
AUK will be closed down. Just you wait and see.
They've nuked hundreds of accounts in the name of free speech and yours will be next.
The k00k will, without any trace of irony, lie, manipulate, impersonate, censor, and declare themselves powerful in ways ranging from the ability to have an account shut down to being God Herself, in order to convince people that they are not liars, manipulators, censors, or insane.
Abuse women while telling how many hundreds you've loved. Nevermind that you're one ugly motherfucker and that there were 30,000 femininas that thought you were a scumbag with bad teeth.
Remember that your ko0ky klaims are 'facts', and that 'facts' do not require proof.
Do not neglect to poast your responses to forums that the originator doesn't read. This will make the people in that forum very impressed with how you tear him to shreds without him being able to respond. They like it even better if you are off-topic for that forum.
Keep in mind that lack of evidence supporting your konspiracy theory actually _is_ evidence, of how effective the konspiracy is in hiding.
(06-Oct-05) When spanked, always retreat to the safety of the Ad Hominem.

(04-Aug-2005) When spanked mercilessly for days on end, proving with each poast just what an illiterate and ignorant fool you are, ALWAYS claim ownership of [person(s),froup(s)]. This works on so many levels. It inspires dread in your opponents that they will no longer be able to poast in their home froup and that they will eventually have to pay rent, to name just two.
Any problems with your poasts are the fault of the konspirators, who are trying to stop you from preventing the extinction of humanity.
Konspiracies that are able to subvert whole governments are always unable to silence konspiracy ko0ks.
The entire United States government is willing to spend millions of dollars for the sole purpose of harassing you.
Hollywood is making movies based on your personal life.
Do not consult psychiatrists or other mental health professionals. They are part of the konspiracy, and will sedate you and lock you away and keep you drugged if you tell them the truth.
Numerology and Astrology are respectable sciences and are useful for proving your case.
Everyone is Tim Hill, or David Green, or...
There is a fine line between trolling and kookery. Find that line and cross it repeatedly. When you are killfiled and/or LARTed for net.abuse as a result, claim victory. If you lose multiple accounts, this merely proves that you are indeed a world-class troll, with a black-belt in manipulation.
If you respond to every post someone else makes, they're obsessed. If they respond to less than 1% of your posts, they're even more obsessed.
Publishing people's real names, addresses, and phone numbers when there's no other way for you to come out of a flamewar with any dignity is cool, and proves that you are a master of secret internet information stores, and absolutely not to be fucked with.
Everyone is out to get you. You can put a stop to this by telling everyone that they're out to get you at every available opportunity.
You are the only sane one.
Those that give you a hard time about morally bankrupt things you yourself admit to are just persecutioners of the new inquisition.
Yelling in all caps and cursing at your detractors is debate. Your detractors laughing at you with sarcastic remarks is obvious anger and jealousy.

This is a very clean Uniden BC780XLT scanner. Used only to create the AFS780 software. The AFS780 source code comes with the scanner. That is right, the whole source code for AFS780 (http://www.barghis.com/bc780xlt) comes with the scanner and you will get all the rights. You can modify, change the name, claim it as your own. I made it, now it's yours.

Here is what you will get:
Uniden BC780XLT scanner clean and in perfect working conditions.
Headphones (the ones from the picture)
Null modem cable (to connect the scanner to a computer)
Outdoor antenna + long coaxial cable (4 shield)
Magnetic car antenna
AFS780 software source code with all the rights.

Have anyone got the January, 2007 issue of Scanning USA in the mail yet? I haven't received mine! It must be the holidays when the mail delivery got slow.

Maybe, the magazine has gone out of business! It'll be sad for Scanning USA to go!

I would like to see the proof of that.
Does anyone personal know of a person or news article that gives names of people he "scamed"

Funny how the news uses the name xbox and ipod.
Perhaps its because the general public can understand that.

http://feedback.ebay.com/ws/eBayISAPI.dll?ViewFeedback&userid=auctionwholesaler&iid=330040
684875&ssPageName=VIP:feedback:2:us
This WAS his ebay ID.
With almost 32k feedbacks, not a bad 98.2% rating.
AND 10% of the negatives have been within the last 6 months, the time when he had his visit from the SS.

Still, I want to see proof of the xbox/ipod being sold.

I'm sure when the judge sees the ebay feedbacks he will quickly dismiss the charges. And UPS lost a bunch of the packages too.

And pigs will fly...

If you think a judge is going to base his/her decision on eBay feedback in this case you are in serious need of some counseling.

What a lowlife!!!
Thank you Brad for your research.

If you do a serious search on the Internet, you will find out that someone somewhere has always looking for him for some product that no longer exists or hasn't arrived. His name is mentioned as far back as 1997 of all things model rocketry stuff in Pennsylvania.

You can only hope that he goes away, and if he ever reappears that someone stands up and lets others know about him and what he has done to others.

I think he was having a little cash flow problem (how many slot-machine trick books can you sell) and got desparate. Asking for a check to be sent an unoccupied office spells (HI-I-AM-A-CON-ARTIST).

Well I did not know that!
Happy 42 George.

For your birthday, if decide to go to trial (pleading guilty could be a lot less painful) I offer my services at my own expense to be a character witness at your trial.
It would be an honor to tell a jury exactly what you try to do to others that attempt to cross you.
After hearing my testimony, the jury just wouldn't decide that your guilty as hell, but that you are potentially dangerous.

Any stay in a minimum security summer resort will be out of the question.
May you have a happy, peaceful, loving, and blessed birthday before you see Rhoul again.

Thanks. I noticed that there are frequencies listed under "Falls Church Talkgroups" as police ch. 1, police ch. 2, etc (listed under the Arlington County System). At the risk of sounding dumb these would be the frequencies I would tune to in order to listen to my PD, right? I also noticed something at the top of the Arlington County System page that said that PD units were having a their radios retuned which probably involved changing frequencies as part of the 800 MHz and switch to the P25 system. Would the switch to the P25 system (which I understand is some kind of standard for wireless digital communication) mean that I would be unable to listen in to the police department with a store bought scanner?

Depends on what kind of scanner that you have. They operate on a trunking system so you would need a trunktracking capable scanner. If they are switching to P25 then you would need a digital scanner to listen in. The Radioshack Pro-96 is an example. If Arlington is rebanding then I think you would still be able to listen to them if you had a crossband capable scanner like the Pro-96 or Unidens BC396, Im assuming that the scanners software would need to be updated. I havent learned much about rebanding yet.

141. MI5 Persecution: Dirk Gently on the Toronto Case (885)

Dirk was on the West Coast when he got the call. An old friend at the Toronto police department thought he would like to fly up and take a look at a homicide which had occurred the previous evening. He decided to skip the last day at the World Holistics conference and take the next plane out of San Francisco.

The flight was bad; Dirk had been hit on the back of the head by the Newspaper trolley, the drinks trolley, the dinner trolley and now the gift trolley. When the hostesses weren't trying to tear his arm off they pestered him to stop leaning into the aisle - ignoring the fact that the guy next to him was taking up one and a half seats. Air Canada used to be the flight which was so good you just didn't wanna get off - on this occasion Dirk would be glad to see the back of the plane and the over sized alternative comedian wedged into the window seat.

After breathing in a couple of lungfulls of crisp Canadian air Dirk took a taxi into town. There was a small group of demonstrators outside the MacDonalds and the taxi driver insisted on stopping on the opposite side of the street. "Don't Eat Meat" the placards read and the demonstrators chanted. A couple of policemen where stopping the crowd entering the restaurant itself - one held up his arm and challenged Dirk. A wave of the fax he had been sent and the policeman pushed open the door.

There were few customers in the restaurant. Not surprising really with a demonstration going on outside, half the dining area roped off with tape and a dead body seated at one of the tables. "Mr Gently sir" the officer in charge called out as he peeled one end of the tape off a column "We were told not to touch anything til" you got here".

The body of the man slumped awkwardly in a chair. Then even a dead body would start getting uncomfortable in a MacDonalds chair after twenty minutes - and this one had been there for at least eighteen hours. Two back legs and the tail of a cat hung out of the man's gaping mouth. Dirk turned to the officer, "I suppose you are going to tell me this is the darndest thing you ever saw?"

"Ain't this the darnd...". The officer seemed annoyed that Dirk had second guessed him. "We're removing the body in a few minutes, so if you can get through as quick as possible�

�Many people eat cats in fast food restaurants?� Dirk asked and without waiting for an answer leant over the table to pick up an untouched burger. �And what�s this?� he asked waving it in front of the officers face.

�It�s a Vedgie Burger� The waitress, who was cleaning one of the adjacent tables, shouted across. She walked over to Dirk. �We started doing them because of that lot out there� she nodded towards the protesters who were pressing there faces against the windows �They�re called Linda McCartney Vedgie burgers - ever heard of them?�

Dirk suddenly felt faint, perhaps a combination of hunger and jet lag. �This is deja vu all over again� he thought to himself. He glanced at policemen - at the badge on his shoulder �OPD� but this wasn�t Ontario this was Toronto. OPD - Officially Pronounced Dead. It dawned on Dirk what was happening, he knew what he would see if he looked out of the window. Sure enough, there it was, the Volkswagen Beetle parked across the road - number plate 28IF - 28 IF Paul McCartney had lived. And amongst the lyrics of the song blaring out into the restaurant he could pick out the words �I buried Paul�. Now it was though Dirk was viewing the whole scene though a TV screen. This was conspiracy. Not -a- conspiracy, or -the- conspiracy, but just plain conspiracy.

�You look faint - are you OK mister? The waitress asked.

Dirk shook his head �Probably a bit hungry� Then to economise on dialogue took out a pack of cigarettes and held it out towards the girl. She was about to take one but Dirk snatched the pack away, held it up to his mouth and drew out two cigarettes. He lit both then passed one of them to the girl. It was the closest he had come to a sexual encounter in three months.

Dirk looked down at the Vedgie Burger on the table. �No thanks - just a plate of fries�

The waitress walked away and Dirk looked around the room. Apart from a family seated in the far corner there was only one other person in the restaurant - and he wasn�t eating. The guy was about mid twenties and had straggling, shoulder length hair. On the table in front of him were lots of pieces of paper cut into squares. Every so often he would pick up a camcorder and pan it around the room and then, when he was finished, speak into a microphone which was attached to a tape recorder. Dirk walked over to where the man was sitting.

The small pieces of paper had paragraphs of text written on them and were stuck to the top of table with blobs of mustard. Lines had been drawn, some solid some dotted, on the table top with a marker pen. The lines ran from one piece of paper to another.

"What are the lines for?" Dirk asked, realising straight away that "What the hell are you doing?" would be more appropriate.

"You see" The man replied nervously "The dotted lines are weak links and the solid lines are strong links. The dotted lines are things which are happening in the rest of the world and the solid lines are things which are happening to me. Now you see I draw over a dotted line, replacing it with a solid line, when I can link something back to me. Like this" The pen squeaked over the Formica and before Dirk could interrupt the man added. "You see I lost my short term memory and, as a consequence have a very short attention span. I write down, record and film everything then put it all together later"

"So" Dirk interrupted. "You filmed what happened here?"

"Yes, yes, it"s here on this tape" The man pushed the cassette across the table. On the label the words "Grassy Knoll" had been crossed through and replaced with "MacDonalds".

Suddenly the man sprung from his seat. Dirk turned and saw that the body was being removed on a stretcher. As it passed the man picked a small object off the edge of the stretcher itself. "This is important" he said, laying a blood stained bullet on one of the small pieces of paper on the table.

Suddenly the room was filled with a deafening throbbing sound as a Black Helicopter landed in the street outside. Two men in United Nations uniforms got out and collected the stretcher. Back at the table the long haired man was replacing all the dotted lines with solid ones. Dirk panicked and began to walk backwards at some speed. Barging through the swing doors he stumbled into the kitchen, tripped and felt himself sink slowly into a large vat.

"The guys fallen into the batter" Dick heard someone shout before he sunk below the surface. He came to sitting in a chair with the batter solidifying all over his body. He surveyed the room through two eye-holes someone had cut. Suddenly the chair on which he was sitting was picked up carried through the restaurant and out of the building. As the chair was being lifted and put into the back of a van, Dirk caught a glimpse of the waitress following him. "Your fries mister, your plate o..."

The doors of the van shut and Dirk tried desperately to steady himself as it sped across town. Eventually the doors flew open and Dirk was flung into the road at which point the solidified batter shattered and set him free. Standing up he found himself outside the international departures terminal of Toronto airport.

In the departure lounge Dirk had time to reflect on the day's events. He had got caught up in the conspiracy theories and the haphazard welding together of pieces of irrelevant information. It was time to catch the person who was operating the bizarre cognitive engine which appeared in front of him like a fairground mirror, distorting any flaw it could find in his own, fragile, map of the real world.

Dirk leant into the aisle of the plane as it took off for London. The oversized person next to him swung his arms violently as he complained about every thing from the supper in a plastic tray to the state of British politics. With a shaven head and a badly fitting suit the man looked as though he could have worked behind the reception desk of the Kremlin. However when he spoke he did so in a Liverpudlian accent. "Me I blame the Con-serv-a-tive government, me. The Tour-rees. That-cher. Me. They need a good kicking" He jerked his feet forward and struck the seat in front with his Doc Martins. "With these. Me Doc Martins. Doctor Martin's, Doctor Martin's, Doctor Martin's Booots!" The phrase was now being sung over and over again as the man writhed in his seat and clicked his fingers.

Dirk looked down at the boots and thought of the reaction most people used to deal with the paranoids at the end of the wire. A nice quick kick. "Oi nutter - get some therapy". This is the easy way out and perhaps the safest. After all there you are sat, alone, in front of the screen. No body language between you some paranoid. No way of telling if he really is some gibbering psycho. Look at it too long and you be drawn in. Fall into the tangled database of weird links with him. Who knows he may be watching you, reassembling and linking your experiences with his. How sure are you of you own cognitive threads. After all cognition is only a bug fix for a neurological system which was designed in a hurry - it's abused by everyone from politicians to advertisers. If people really can convince each other that a bottle of washing up liquid is as exciting as an orgasm using just television God knows what they can do with a computer. Better to avoid the risk. A swift kick. After all if you're Homophobic you put the boot in because you are scared of any ambiguity in your own sexuality - why not be Nutterphobic as well.

Although Dirk would have liked to devoted time to tracking the culprit down he decided to let it rest. The Internet changed over the next twenty odd years. A lot of the people who used it went out and got lives. And those who already had lives burnt them away. The number of users had dwindled after someone had invented a C++ program, with truth as a variable, to deal handle politics and government. Dirk had already retired from finding old ladies cats with the help of obscure science when he got another call from Toronto.

It was 4th March 2025 when he booked onto the Air Canada flight from Heathrow. The silver haired woman in the seat next to him painted bright red lipstick around her mouth. "Of course it was no surprise to be offered the job after Claire Raynor retired" she sneered" After all I used to be a psychiatric nurse... Now if Blokes had periods they would understand..."

By chance the taxi ride to Toronto mental hospital took him past the MacDonalds - where the whole thing had started. Of course it was barely recognisable having become a Church Of Scientology Vedgie Bar. Police in riot gear kept the two sets of demonstrators apart. Dirk didn"t really know what to expect when he got to the hospital. The girl at the reception desk directed him to a row of chairs in a wide well lit corridor. There was a strong smell of disinfectant, the furniture and the carpets were immaculately clean and behind the rows of teak veneer doors the "nutters" were all safely locked away. For some reason Dirk started thinking about CompuServe forums.

A tall blond woman in a white coat approached. "Mr Gentle, I assume"

"Yes" Dirk replied shaking her by the hand. "You"re the nurse who..."

"Doctor" She interrupted, "Doctor Killfile" She led Dirk across the corridor towards one of the doors then stopped with her hand resting on the handle. "Now you know about this person don"t you?" and after Dirk nodded she continued "Don"t tell him anything about yourself - don"t let him get into you head. If he does he"ll screw it up"

The door opened to reveal a frail man sitting in from of a TV screen. He had a keyboard on his lap and next to the television was a computer screen. Dirk glanced at the walls of the room and remembered that his settee at home need upholstering. The nurse left the room and the man looked up "So you come to my daughters wedding and ask me to kill a man" he said in a dry cackling voice. "Look" he continued, pointing at the screen, "I know that man. They"re talking about me now - listen&#65533;. The man stared at Dirk. &#65533;What&#65533;s your name? Are you one of my friends from the Internet? - Are the lambs still screaming Dirk?&#65533;

Dirk, at first recoiled in horror, then felt a sense of anti climax. So this is what they hyped up to superstar status on the back of their own fears of madness. Dirk was reminded of the film &#65533;A day on The Beach&#65533; where a submarine had set off to search a post nuclear World to track down a signal coming from a remote military base - only to find it was being sent by a Coke bottle half balanced on a Morse tapper. Outside the room the nurse waited for him. Because his nicotine craving had returned - and to avoid an awkward piece of dialogue - Dirk turned to her and asked . &#65533;Patch?&#65533;

Dirk took two nicotine patches from his wallet the first of which he stuck onto the inside of his arm. Stepping closer to Doctor Killfile he opened her white coat and slid his hand into the opening at the front of her dress. He pressed the patch onto her leg as close to the top of her inner thigh as he dare. She took a deep breath and then slowly breathed out. &#65533;What Bogart could have done with these things&#65533; Dirk thought to himself.

&#65533;Who knows&#65533; Doctor Killfile replied &#65533;We let him type away. He sees something on the TV in the morning and it keeps him busy all day. What he types doesn&#65533;t go anywhere it just stays on a mainframe in the basement. It can be read by anyone else in the building but that&#65533;s it. We got them all in here conspiracy theorists, racists, nationalists. They&#65533;ve created a world within a world really...&#65533; Her voice trailed away and she stared down the corridor for a while then added &#65533;So long are two things are different neither will come to be in the other and so become at once both one and two.&#65533;

Dirk gave her a puzzled look &#65533;You mean their brains are fried?&#65533;

&#65533;Fried?&#65533; Killfile smiled at Dirk &#65533;No that was Plato&#65533;. Then the smile fell from her face. &#65533;You must remember, mister, plate o...&#65533;

Mike Corley FAQ version 0.1
first edition 5th May 1996
last updated 5th May 1996
Iain L M Hotchkies iain@XXXXX.demon.co.uk

Mike Corley is a 'net personality' who has been active on the following newsgroups (uk.misc,uk.legal,uk.politics,uk.media,soc.culture.british) since....? Well, at least as far back as the summer of 1995.

He posts long tracts, the tone of which approximates that which one might expect from a reasonably intelligent paranoid schizophrenic.

No details are known of Mike's 'real' personal life or background. Once would presume that he came from a reasonable family and was reasonably well educated before the first symptoms of schizophrenia began.

Schizophrenia: Clinical features
(from the Oxford Textbook of Psychiatry, 2nd Edition)

The acute syndrome

Some of the main clinical features are illustrated by a short description of a patient. A previously healthy 20-year-old male student had been behaving in an increasingly odd way. At times he appeared angry and told his friends that he was being persecuted; at other times he was seen to be laughing to himself for no apparent reason. For several months he had seemed increasingly preoccupied with his own thoughts. His academic work had deteriorated. When interviewed, he was restless and awkward. He described hearing voices commenting on his actions and abusing him. He said he believed that the police had conspired with his university teachers to harm his brain with poisonous gases and take away his thoughts. He also believed that other people could read his thoughts.

This case history illustrates the following common features of acute schizophrenia: prominent persecutory ideas with accompanying hallucinations; gradual social withdrawal and impaired performance at work; and the odd idea that other people can read one's thoughts.

In appearance and behaviour some patients with acute schizophrenia are entirely normal. Others seem awkward in their social behaviour, preoccupied and withdrawn, or otherwise odd. Some patients smile or laugh without obvious reason. Some appear to be constantly perplexed. Some are restless and noisy, or show sudden and unexpected changes of behaviour. Others retire from company, spending a long time in their rooms, perhaps lying immobile on the bed apparently preoccupied in thought.

The speech often reflects an underlying thought disorder. In the early stages, there is vagueness in the patient's talk that makes it difficult to grasp his meaning. Some patients have difficulty in dealing with abstract ideas (a phenomenon called concrete thinking). Other patients become preoccupied with vague pseudoscientific or mystical ideas.

When the disturbance is more severe two characteristic kinds of abnormality may occur. Disorders of the stream of thought include pressure of thought, poverty of thought, and thought blocking. Thought withdrawal (the conviction that one's thoughts have been taken away) is sometimes classified as a disorder of the stream of thought, but it is more usefully considered as a form of delusion.

Loosening of association denotes a lack of connection between ideas. This may be detected in illogical thinking (knight's move) or talking past the point (Vorbeireden). In the severest form of loosening the structure and coherence of thinking is lost, so that utterances are jumbled (word salad or verbigeration). Some patients use ordinary words in unusual ways (paraphrasias or metonyms), and a few coin new words (neologisms).

Abnormalities of mood are common, and of three main kinds. First, there may be sustained abnormalities of mood such as anxiety, depression, irritability, or euphoria. Secondly, there may be blunting of affect, sometimes known as flattening of affect. Essentially this is sustained emotional indifference or diminution of emotional response. Thirdly, there is incongruity of affect. Here the emotion is not necessarily diminished, but it is not in keeping with the mood that would ordinarily be expected. For example, a patient may laugh when told about a bereavement. This third abnormality is often said to be highly characteristic of schizophrenia, but different interviewers often disagree about its presence.

Auditory hallucinations are among the most frequent symptoms. They may take the form of noises, music, single words, brief phrases, or whole conversations. They may be unobtrusive or so severe as to cause great distress. Some voices seem to give commands to the patient. Some patients hear their own thoughts apparently spoken out loud either as they think them (Gedankenlautwerden) or immediately afterwards (echo de la pensee). Some voices seem to discuss the patient in the third person. Others comment on his actions. As described later, these last three symptoms have particular diagnostic value.

Visual hallucinations are less frequent and usually occur with other kinds of hallucination. Tactile, olfactory, gustatory, and somatic hallucinations are reported by some patients; they are often interpreted in a delusional way, for example hallucinatory sensations in the lower abdomen are attributed to unwanted sexual interference by a persecutor.

Delusions are characteristic. Primary delusions are infrequent, and difficult to identify with certainty. Delusions may originate against a background of so-called primary delusional mood - Wahnstimmung. Persecutory delusions are common, but not specific to schizophrenia. Less common but of greater diagnostic value are delusions of reference and of control, and delusions about the possession of thought. The latter are delusions that thoughts are being inserted into or withdrawn from one's mind, or broadcast to other people.

In acute schizophrenia orientation is normal. Impairment of attention and concentration is common, and may produce apparent difficulties in remembering, though memory is not impaired. So-called experiences result from illness, but usually ascribe them to the malevolent actions of other people. This lack of insight is often accompanied by unwillingness to accept treatment.

Schizophrenic patients do not necessarily experience all these symptoms. The clinical picture is variable, as described later in this chapter. The table below lists the most frequent symptoms found in one large survey.

The most frequent symptoms of acute schizophrenia (World Health Organization 1973)

Various theories exist about Mike Corley:

1) he exists and is disturbed and has net access and for reasons uncertain spams a selected number of newsgroups on a regular basis - if you are reading this FAQ then you will almost certainly have seen one of his posts.

2) Mike Corley is a 'virtual schizophrenic'. Mike displays the relevant features so well that some people think he may be a construction of one or more people with intimate knowledge of mental illness and the mentally ill. Perhaps they wish to monitor the effects on the internet of the posts of a schizophrenic. Moving into X-Files territory a bit, ourselves, here.

Mike's posts attract different responses:

1) cruel, humourous, dismissive posts from those who've seen his posts many times and have become generally irritated by his behaviour while accepting that he probably has a mental illness.

2) posts from Corley-newbies - those who have come across relateviely few of Mike's posts. These may be humorouous or disbelieving.

3) posts from people who have been sucked in (for one reason or another) into Mike's Wild & Wacky World (TM)

That's enough for now.

Persecuted by the Security Service

Since June 1990 the British security service MI5 has waged a campaign of harassment against a UK citizen, through the broadcast and print media, verbal abuse at work, and molestation in public and during travel.

Despite widespread knowledge of the campaign in the UK and discussion of its characteristics on Usenet for over three years, it continues today both in Britain and North America. Its cause and basis is xenophobia on the basis of the genetic accident of mental illness, coupled with discrimination against an inferior "foreigner" whom they condemn as "not up to British Standards".

If this is your first visit to this site, please read the FAQ first. Feel free to contact the author with any questions.

Frequently Asked Questions article outlines the parameters of the persecution. Who is involved, and why?
What technical and social means do they employ? What response have I made, and why has their campaign yet to be exposed?

The UK Security Services which are believed to be behind it all. Domestic security is the province of MI5 while the secret intelligence service MI6 combats foes (and its former employees) on foreign shores.

Usenet archive chronicling the (sometimes very enthusiastic) exchanges which have taken place on UK-local newsgroups since May 1995. Make your mark on the continuing discussion!

Believe it or not, a few items of evidence have been recorded. Although none of them is particularly conclusive, by presenting them I hope to explain what I understand from some television and radio programmes.
Most of the "clinching" material was aired in 1990-92, and no recordings exist now, which is quite unfortunate.

My complaints to the BBC and MI5 (via the Security Service Tribunal and Interception of Communications Tribunal), and their response to my challenges, are recorded here. Basically they deny everything, they have put their denials (mostly - Buerk and Lewis refused) in writing, and I don't believe them. Part of the website also documents media coverage of my campaign to expose the persecution.

Faxed articles to, and responses from British organisations including Parliament and UK media. Over 24,259 faxes in all were sent from 1998 to 2000. Their aim was to boot discussion of the persecution into the public domain, and that aim was not accomplished.

20,000 Reward Offered to Expose the Conspiracy

I am making a pledge for information directly leading to the exposing of the "BBC Newscaster Conspiracy". The exposing would specifically need to lead to a legally binding admission from Martyn Lewis or Michael Buerk of the BBC they they were watching me through the TV set.

I would be happy (delighted, in fact) to pay GBP 20,000 sterling in reward for the above admission.

Greetings Kim!
I have had this scanner and the Radio Shack version of it and I liked to use it for scanning through bands and finding some agencies on air that I did not know about. I like it for general use of the nature you are wanting as well as for listening to the Air Band. The only bad thing I can say about this particular scanner is that it is very susceptable to interference from computers, monitors, etc. With that said just try to place it somewhere where you won't have those kind of things close by and for what you want it for it should do you a great job. Have a great week! Jon in Upstate South Carolina.

164. $100 New or Used Scanner

Looking for either a new or used scanner, for mostly police and fire, for around $100. New or used - if I can find one on eBay. Going to give it as a starter scanner to a friend who currently doesn't scan. Radio Shack has a few new models in the $100 range but thought 1) someone might have a better idea for new or 2) someone would say you can usually find used Model X on eBay for around $100. Thanks for your help. Looking for a base scanner and not handheld.

For what kind of system? Where? You need to make sure the scanner you get will work for the type of system they want to listen to.
I have looked at them on Ebay before but they went for so close to the price of a new one I was never tempted. Unless you can get one that is claimed as working fine for less than half what it goes for new, I would just buy a new one with a warranty. If you by a used one and it dies, the cost of repair will have you spending as much as it would have been to just buy it new.

Despite an orchestrated campaign of attempted censorship by UK-resident newsgroup readers, TFN did not bow to demands for a suppression of freedom of speech. TFN general policy on the matter is as follows;

Draft Policy on Account Deactivations due to News Group Postings
==========

News group postings occasionally take the form of a message which goes against the "topic" of the conference.
For example, a derogatory message about Canadians in the soc.culture.canada.

Members of such news groups then may send a message to the system administrators asking that a user's account be terminated because of such posting.

The Toronto Free-Net Board of Directors has taken the position that the only postings that will get a person's account terminated is material that is illegal under Canadian law. Otherwise, the Toronto Free-Net will not take any action.

Freenet Executive Director Mike Anderson had this to say regarding the continued attempts of a minority of usenet participants to have my account on his system deactivated;

The TFN's policy is not to take action against members unless they contravene the Criminal Code of Canada, or engage in practices such as forgery, attacks against other computer systems or mailbombing.

Mr. Corley, while possibly being very annoying, has not contravened the TFN's policies. The TFN believes strongly in freedom of expression, while recognizing that the price for such freedom may be a high signal-to-noise ratio in Usenet.

If Mr. Corley breaks the law, we will take action -- until then, he has the same rights as any TFN member to post to Usenet newsgroups. Actions such as mailbombing the TFN in protest will be met by strong complaints to the originating site's postmaster. The best defense against unwanted postings may be simply be to ignore them and deny the poster an audience.

TFN Executive Director Toronto, Ont CANADA

Personally, I find it gratifying that my contributions to usenet discussion are recognized as being conducive to a high signal-to-noise ratio by their quality and thoughtfulness.

Remember the two-way televisions in George Orwell's 1984?
The ones which watched you back? Which you could never get rid of, only the sound could be turned down?

Well the country which brought Orwell into the world has made his nightmare follow into the world after him.
Since 1990 the British have been waging war against one of their own citizens using surveillance to invade privacy and a campaign of abuse in the transmitted media in their efforts to humiliate their "victim".

And the most remarkable thing about it is that what they do is not even illegal - the UK has no laws to protect the privacy of its citizens, nor does it proscribe harassment or abuse except in the case of racial abuse.

A lot of people in England know this to be going on,
yet so far they have maintained perfect "omerta";
not a sound, not a squeak has escaped into the English press, and for all the covert harassment absolutely nothing has come out into the public domain.

Have the British gone mad? I think we should be told.

Mmmm.

Who, exactly is this victim you're talking about?

First up, Britain or the UK (not 'England' - England is a part of Britain, like Kansas is a part of the USA) does have laws that protect the individual from harassement - you can't just threaten people willy nilly. There are laws against that. And if someone lies about you in the press or tv then you have recourse to libel/slander etc. laws.

True, Britain has no 'privacy' laws as such, but isn't that a good thing? As of this moment, the govt. are considering a privacy law, but it is unlikely to succeed. Why? Because any such law would benefit the priviledged and those in power.
Privacy laws, while supposedly protecting the individual, help those in power hide their mistakes/scandals. They stop the press etc. investigating. Privacy laws are undemocratic - they prevent the people from keeping an eye on govt.

And stop looking for some kinda conspiracy in the British press. It's hardly perfect, but your notion that they don't cover/campaign against press legislation, harrassment, discrimination, human rights etc. is plain wrong. You've never seen a British paper in yr life.

You clearly have a specific case/individual in mind. Speak up!
The thought police aren't coming round just yet.

Douglas.

Confession time - the victim is/was me (except my name isn't Corley, but that's irrelevant). What happened was not threats; just invasion of privacy, in a partiicularly flagrant and shocking way, in a way which most people would consider to constitute harassment.

You know there's a particular category of person with mental illness to whom TV and radio "talk", ie they feel the broadcast is directed at them in particular? This happpened to me, quite some time ago in the UK (I'm originally from London, so I've seen plenty of British media print and other).
They invaded my home with their bugs, they repeated what I was saying in the privacy of my home, and they laughed that it was "so funny", that I was impotent and could not even communicate what was going on. Who did this? Our friends on BBC television, our friends in ITN, last but not least our friends in Capital Radio in London and on Radio 1.

How did they do this? I'll give you an example. About a year ago,
I was listening to Chris Tarrant (Capital Radio DJ among other pursuits) on his radio morning show, when he said, talking about someone he didn't identify, "you know this bloke? he says we're trying to kill him. We should be done for attempted manslaughter" which mirrored something I had said a day or two before (I'm not paranoid, honest!). Now that got broadcast to the whole of London - if any recordings are kept of the shows then it'll be there.

You mean the category where they think that everyone is after them ? that one ? So lets get this straight you know you are paranoid and you think that they are out to get you ? Uh huh, try putting the two together and see what you come up with.

>quite some time ago in the UK (I'm originally from London

Oh yeah, I can see it now. All of them banding together, in a united effort against one man. So ITN, the BBC, and Capital all decide to sit round the table and they come up with idea of breaking into someones house, putting bugs everywhere, listening in to his conversation, and shoving it out on the news everyday. This someone has nothing to do with politics, or business, or entertainment, just an ordinary Joe Bloggs who seems to be extremely paranoid.

Have some sense, grow up and smell reality. What you are talking about would take loads of planning, tens of thousands of pounds and lots of people involved in the planning, execution and maintenance of it. You must have a very high opinion of yourself to think you are worth it.

>How did they do this? I'll give you an example. About a year ago,

Of course you are not paranoid, just slightly mad. Did you ever look for the bugs in your house ? If not, why not ? I mean if I thought that was happening to me, I'd search the place from top to bottom, I mean I live there I would know if anything was out of place. If I was really paranoid, whoops I mean suspicious, I would call in one of those bug detection teams which have those machines that pick up the transmitted radio waves. This reminds me of BUGS, that new programme on BBC1 on saturdays which is all about this kind of stuff, but, shown as a drama / thriller. I suppose thats based on you as well is it ?

>is that there is a conspiracy in Britain, that it encompasses the >broadcast media, and there is no way of breaking the conspiracy.
>The people who are involved in it will not open up.

What a load of jolly hollyhocks, I would say something else but, apparently students are not allowed to swear on newsgroups in case it damages the reputation of the university or some such jolly hollyhocks.

This guy is extremely paranoid to suggest that the entire British media is after him in such a big way. He gives no real reason as to why they are after him, just that he suffers/suffered from a slight mental disorder, could it be paranoia perhaps ?? No surely not.

I put it to the house that he has never recovered from this mental disorder, lets come out with it and call it paranoia, and thinks everyone is after him. Remember just because you aren't paranoid, doesn't mean they aren't after you.

This guy has a serious problem to suggest that the media would go to such lengths just to single out and ridicule one person. I mean apart from anything else, we (the listening masses) wouldn't be interested unless it concerned the royal family, politicians or showbiz personalities. e.g. the camillagate tapes. I would think that almost everyone, no matter how much they went on about infringements of privacy read the transcripts with interest. I really don't think that Joe Bloggs ordinary guy or paranoid nutter would have the same appeal. Well actually I dunno. :)

Paul.

That is what happens in big cities. Hell, it scared me to death when I first started working in Manchester. People keep talking to me on the streets, even if its just to say hello, and I've no idea who they are. This happens to most people, don't worry about it.

Exactly. All you have offered so far as proof of your harrassment by these people is:

1) Someone on radio said something that you had recently said
and
2) People on the streets seem to recognise you.

These are both perfectly normal occurences and happen to lots of people every day so it is unsurprising that people here, and the police, are not taking you seriously.

Trying to always keep an open mind about things I would say that one of three things is likely.

Either there is a lot more to this that you are not telling us, or you are messing about or you have some genuine delusions. I'd like to think that in two of the three cases you would find some real support here, but it seems unlikely I'm afraid.

The key is the pattern, or a change in the pattern. I've lived in London almost all my life, and just walking around the streets, I never got hassled by anybody. All of a sudden, people start harassing you, throwing abuse at you, behaving as if they know you personally, as if they've seen you before somewhere. I read in the papers that this happens to Colin Stagg and people like that Eastenders actress, but they've had their picture in the paperes, so that is understandable. In a couple of cases people have even known my name - when I was in London over Easter I was walking down Shaftesbury avenue in the West End when somebody (no idea who they were, just some bloke with his girlfriend) called me by name - quite clearly, and my name is distinctive. This also happened once about four 1/2 years ago, onn the tube - some blokes I had never seen started chanting my name and a term of abuse.

It's the pattern which convinces me there's something to it - and would convince any impartial abserver who could see things tyhrough my eyes.

>Doesn't this suggest to you that there are, in fact, no bugs to be found?

There's a little story behjjind this. First iof all, in 1992 I worked for a company where the people made clear they knew what was going on, first of all directly (the very first evening I was there I went out to the pub with them and the Technical Directpor said to another guy, "is this the bloke who's been on TV?" "yeah, I think so") and also indirectly, by rep[peating stuff I was saying at home in London and in my rented accomodation there (I moved several times in the course of 1992 and they followed me each time). Now, if "they" (the buggers) knew their bugs could be found easily, they wouldn;'t be keen to make their existence known, would they?

Also, in summer 1992 I went on a trip abroad to Europe by coach, and on the way out there were a couple a little younger than myself on the coach a bloke and hius girlfriend. He said things about some bloke who was never named, who sounded exactly like me - and he made explicitly clear that our house was bugged, and that a neighrbours house was bugged (and at work they'd been rep[earting what was said at the neighbours, so this looks like independent corroboration).
They also said stuff like "at school he was always really streesed, they found someone from his school and he was a real psycho" and that "he was in a B&B for one night and they got him", dead right again, I had been in B&B for once night a few days before this trip and weatching the news again got a reaction from the newsreader.

Yeah, but this is the point. Each incident is easily and automatically deniable along the lines you're taking. But when this happens every time, and when you get independent corroboration from other people, then there's no escaping it. For example, immediately after I lost my job in 91 I went into the local garage to get some work done on the car, and one of the blokes there said to the other, "so what do you think of it then? it's getting killed on the radio isn't it" Now again, you look at that and no proff; you can ask them what they're referring to and they can say they're talking about something else.

>I know you may be a little paranoid, but I suggest you sit down >and work out rationally what possible reason anyone off television, >or radio would have for listening to your conversations. After all >it must be hard enough to present a show to millions of people >without the added burden of watching and listening to a single >person and slipping their phrases into the programme.

These presenters are clever people. They wouldn't be presenters if they weren't - they're easily capable of reacting to an individual in this way.

What possible reason? I guess because they think it's amusing to do so. They know that if you ever tell anybody, without being able to show any evidence, then the reaction you'll get from just about anybody will be the one you're showing now.

I realize there are loads of people in England and elsewhere with the sort of thoughts I've described in these postings; and almost all impartial observers would say that nothing other than an go after their private conversations (if they did it to me then I can do it to them, it's a questions of technical competence and money).
If you were lucky, you might be able to entrap them into admission.
You could of course harass or threaten them back (any coppers reading this?) but that would be illegal and might get a result quite different to the one you're trying to achieve. Of course, it might come out of its own accord given time - if so many people know, if they have an escape valve in their "subtext" through the media, will it not cease to be at a covert level, given time? Surely it is in my interest for it to become overt, since the transgressions at this time are on their side and not on mine?

Thoughts? There must be some way of breaking the secrecy. This isn't the first time in human history that a conspiracy has taken place on this scale, but the truth tends to out. The situation now is they think they';re "winning" hence have little stimulus to change the rules - if they started seeing themselves "losing" things could change drastically.

Mike, if that is your name,

I'm going to try to rationalise what you're telling us. I can think of three possible explanations for what you are experiencing.

One is that there _is_ a conspiracy against you. As a previous writer said, though, a lot of these programmes are taped, so it really isn't possible in some of the cases you've named. Further, why were no bugs found in your house? Finally, unless you are a political figure or someone else in the public eye, why would anyone bother? People like me (and I assume you) are small fry; our contribution to society is likely to be minor. Why would anyone spend so much money and effort on you?

Another possibility is that you are developing some kind of paranoia. There's no stigma attached to this; we're all paranoid to some extent, although perhaps not to the extent that a doctor would call us paranoid. I think paranoia is quite a straightforward explanation here - you really do believe that all these things are aimed at you; you see people everywhere trying to get at you. Logic suggests that this cannot really be the case.

The third possibility is that not even you really believe any of this, and that this is a "troll". I'm not sure I believe this possibility, but it's possible.

Anyway, if you want to be sure that you're _not_ going mad, I'd go and see your G.P. if I were you. If you don't trust him/her, why not see someone recommended by a person you can trust? If you don't trust anyone any more, don't you think it's time you got help?

For a troll, the posts are remarkably well-informed on paranoid behaviour.. you'd need to be one, or be reasonably well-informed on the subject to sustain the tale... which lead me to my theory...ahem...:

An extension to possibility 3 (Number 3.5, perhaps?) is that the original poster may be somehting like a psychology student writing a term paper on the net community's reactions to this tale. (Now, there's paranoia for you! Not only are they listening to/watching us, they're writing reports about us too...:-)

More likely, though, is that the poster is genuinely in need of professional help (he has intimated as much, himself) and, as such, he should be encouraged to seek it.

You haven't yet given any examples of anything concrete to suggest that this is really happening to you. This, I would imagine, will be the stumbling block for the police. How can they possibly help you when your only evidence is a jumbled mess of TV presenters saying things that could be construed as answers to your comments and the 'feeling' that people are talking about you and watching you?

I seem to recall that last time this was being discussed someone asked if you had been to see a psychiatrist about this - after all if this is really happening then you have can only benefit from being given a clean bill of health. I don't recall an answer.

So you are no longer in the uk? And this is not happening anymore?

Then let it go. Just leave it alone and get on with your life. Its just not worth it. There is nothing you can do to prove that this happened whether it did or did not. So forget it. Go and explore the net - when people aren't spamming it with useless repetitve posts there's a lot of interesting and worthwhile things out there to see and do. Likewise real life (I'm told *&).

Once again we're running into a brick wall. The reason I started posting was because I couldn't figure out a way out of the situation, and thought that saying it out into the open would provide a catalyst for one of those "in the know" (there are plenty in this category, and it's a fair bet that some of them are reading this) to speak up.

It hasn't worked, yet. A little more aggressive shit-stirring (excuse expletive) might do the trick. Perhaps Usenet posting is the wrong arena for this sort of activity; although obviously it does have the advantage of rapid feedback.

Thing is, for people to open up, you would have to provide them with a reason why it would be in their interest to do so. There's no obvious way of doing that; to get thinking people to incriminate themselves when they're safe in denying all knowledge is not a trick I can figure out how to do.

>But whenever anyone makes any good suggestions you ignore them and start >posting from the begining again. You don't want us to help you - so what do

A "good" suggestion would be one which had the effect of halting the persecution, which so far hasn't happened. If you make a "good" suggestion then damn right I'll stop posting - because then I won't have to.

>You haven't yet given any examples of anything concrete to suggest that this

>and watching you?

Because, as said previously, concrete proof does not exist. If it existed then I wouldn't be talking to you - if it could be proved, or if those doing it could be found, they wouldn't be able to continue.

What's happened is all conversation. You can't prove conversation, not without a tape recorder, and even then you would have to prove that what they meant corresponded to what you understood.

The psychopath who manages the Applics group at my previous employers played little word games, not only with me but with at least one other person in the group; words which rhyme with swear words, words which are ambiguous, eg "bent", words which rhyme with wank, "sheet" rhymes with shit, end (how was your weak end? being the standard salutation on a Monday morning). Sounds childish, most people would easily tell him to fuck off; except to people with predisposition to depression and the inability to express themselves (this was before I started taking medication), that sort of nastiness is not bearable. After ten months of this I was so ill I was crying constantly, eventually I went into hospital and started on medication. Somebody else he did this to (over a year later!) got so depressed he took an overdose of pills, had to go on antidepressants and left.

And where does the "concrete proof" of this trouble exist? NOWHERE. Even if you had physical evidence, even if you had the presence of mind to record what was said, how could you prove what he actually meant by what he was saying? In some cases of harassment you can prove what was done, because it's undeniable. But when the harassment is done with any presence of mind whatsoever, it becomes difficult. In the case of the wider harassment, the people doing it obviously know what they're about - they must have done similar things to other people before in one form or another, and they know what they can get away with, they know what the police will do nothing about.

>I seem to recall that last time this was being discussed someone asked if you >had been to see a psychiatrist about this - after all if this is really

Yes. The reply was of the "neither confirm nor deny" variety. Not much else they can say, is there?

>Well how could they? Who would you sue? The country?

Hmmm, now there's a thought... :-)

>If this gets out then that will be the time to bring your claims to the >foreground.

Wrong way round. It won't get out unless I do something to bring that about; remember, it isn't in THEIR interest for THEIR criminality to be exposed. Yelling loudly on Usenet might nudge things along in the right direction.

>The only thing ruining your life right now is you, Mike. And the only thing

Ignoring them would be bliss, but it's not a winning strategy.

There are going to be more of these posts. Sorry. That's the way it is.

Mine, mainly. The reason for putting that episode at the top of the posting is that they tried to kill two birds with one stone at the Beck trial - they simultaneously put words into the mouth of their invented "witness" to smear Janner, and repeated exactly, word-for-word, stuff which had been said by and about me.

That was the only occasion (the only one recognizable to me, anyway) when they went after another target at the same time.
And it's quite lucky they did that - because it could give some pointers to who they might be.

Presumably there are people still around who were involved in that trial, and know what happened. Beck might be dead, but the "witness" would still be around, as would Beck's solicitor.

Well, your guess is as good as mine. But what newspaper would You'd have to look at a corporate entity which would indulge in

I can't remember if this was mentioned in the "regular" posting, but on a few occasions they set me up with people nearby to talk about me, or more correctly, to talk about somebody who (in their minds) "resembles" me, with actually naming me.

One such occasion was a coach trip to Europe in June 1992.
The "set up" comprised a guy talking to a vacant giggling female about "this bloke", who was never named. Apparently "they" (also never named) "found somebody from his school", "they" "got" him at his house and at a neighbours, and at a B&B where their target was for one night.

Apart from that, yeah, from "what I hear on the radio". And from what I see on TV. (I wouldn't be doing my job as a

This is the problem, and there doesn't seem to be any way around it.
If a clearly sane person reported this persecution, you might believe him, but probably you'd tell him to go see a doctor to "verify his sanity". If someone with the illness of which you could argue these things to be symptomatic says these things, again, you might believe him, but it would be unlikely - the easiest route is the one you are taking in the above paragraph. The only way I can convince you of what I am saying is by giving precise details of what, when, how - and for most of that stuff is based solely on memory.

To prove it would require an admission from somebody, or else hard proof in the shape of physical evidence such as tape recordings.
Of course, I don't have that.

>The idea of a "pattern", and the notion that if anyone could look >through your eyes they would see the same thing is very indicative of >the onset of a psychiatric illness. Schizophrenia and manic depression >have similar symptoms. I'm not trying to be disrespectful here.
>This may be an illness and it can be managed by the use of medication.
>If it _isn't_ treated, it can lead to terrible tragic consequences.

I'm quite aware what the symptoms would be, and that the reality corresponds to those symptoms.

But if anything, that is an argument which could convince you of the truth of what I'm saying. If they deliberately set out to simulate the symptoms of schizophrenia - in other words, if they know through observation that their target is either suffering from the illness, or is on the borderline and could be pushed in with an appropriate stimulus, then they can feel safe in what they do, since once you are registered as suffering from the illness, people will assign less credibility to assertions that persecution is based in reality.

That this can happen, and people collude by silence, is absolutely horrifying. It is all the more horrifying that it can happen in a country such as Britain which has no history of repression.
Perhaps its happening in the UK is due to the arrogant assumption of moral superiority on the part of those in the media and others involved - we won the last war and we can keep harping on about

German and Japanese war crimes, so we can do whatever we like and we'll be right, up to and including destroying the lives of our citizens (as long as we're not caught doing it).

Those are pretty much the sort of calculations that went through my head once I stopped to consider what it must be costing them to run this little operation.

The partial answer is, there have been periods when the intensity has been greater, and times when little has happened. In fact, for much of 1993 and the first half of 1994, very little happened. Although I don't think that was for reasons of money - if they can tap into the taxpayer they're not going to be short of resources, are they?

The more complete answer is in the enormity of what they're doing.
When countries kill their own people, as a rule, they get found out and all hell breaks loose. This isn't some para shooting Irish teenagers in the back. This is something which permeates English society, which they are ALL responsible for, and which they cannot escape responsibility for.

Relative to the cost to British pride of seeing their country humiliated for the persecution of their own defenceless citizens, isn't is worth the cost of four or five people to try to bring things to a close in the manner they would wish? To the government a million or two is quite honestly nothing - if they can convince themselves of the necessity of what they're doing, money is not going to be the limiting factor.

>>What possible reason? I guess because they think it's amusing to do >>so.

See the above.

Sure, it "leans" towards it. But please at least admit there is a POSSIBILITY of it being very real. And once you've done that, can you come up with some thoughts on methods of proof? I may be missing something in my assessment - there may be a way of proving it, in the face of non-cooperation from the "players".

When you are tracking a moving object, aprspoint will record all its positions on the map, and optionally connect them with lines to form a track. If you are tracking multiple moving objects at the same time, the map could get cluttered quickly. In this new version, you can choose to selectively remove an individual object's track, or remove all tracks on the map. This version also includes fixes for several bugs reported by the users. We have also tested it extensively on the Vista platform as well. Old keys will no longer work on this new version, please refer to the web site http://www.aprspoint.com for upgrade details.

Space shuttle astronaut arrested at OIA on attempted kidnapping, battery charges
Henry Pierson Curtis, Sentinel Staff Writer
Posted February 5 2007, 7:11 PM EST

A NASA astronaut is charged with attacking her rival for another astronaut's attention early Monday at Orlando International Airport, the Orlando Sentinel has learned.

Lisa Marie Nowak drove from Texas to meet the 1 a.m. flight of a younger woman who had also been seeing the male astronaut Nowak pined for, according to Orlando police.

Nowak -- who was a mission specialist on a Discovery launch last summer -- was wearing a trench coat and wig and had a knife, BB pistol, rubber tubing and plastic bags, reports show. Once U.S. Air Force Capt. Colleen Shipman arrived, Nowak followed her to the airport's Blue Lot for long-term parking, tried to get into Shipman's car and doused her with pepper spray, according to reports.

Nowak, 43, is charged with attempted kidnapping, battery, attempted vehicle burglary with battery and destruction of evidence. Police considered her such a danger that they requested she be held without bail in the Orange County Jail, reports show.

Nowak told police that she was "involved in a relationship with," Bill Oefelein another NASA astronaut, and categorized the relationship as "more than a working relationship but less than a romantic relationship," according to the charging affidavit.

Nowak told police that she found out Oefelein was involved with Shipman and planned a trip to Orlando to talk to Shipman about their relationships with Oefelein. She told police the BB gun "was going to be used to entice Ms. Shipman to talk with her," the affidavit said.

Shipman told police that when she arrived at the airport and was waiting for the airport satellite parking shuttle, she noticed a woman wearing a trench coat near the taxi stand. The woman boarded the bus after Shipman, according to police, and followed her to Shipman's car.

When Shipman got into her car, reports show, she heard "running footsteps" coming toward her. Nowak tried to open the car door, then claimed she needed a ride, or use of a cell phone. When Shipman rolled down her window a couple of inches, Nowak "sprayed some type of chemical spray into the vehicle," reports show.

Shipman is an engineer assigned to the 45th Launch Support Squadron at Patrick Air Force base, near the Kennedy Space Center. A 2002 graduate of Penn State University, she began working at Cape Canaveral in May, 2005, according to air base Public Affairs Officer Ken Warren.

Police said that along with the weapons and other items in Nowak's car, they found e-mails from Shipman to Oefelein, Mapquest directions from Houston to the Orlando airport, and diapers, which Nowak told police she used so she wouldn't have to stop on the drive.

Monday's arrest is the first-ever on felony charges for an active-duty astronaut, that the space agency was aware of, according to a spokesman.

"Her status as an astronaut with NASA is currently unchanged. I cannot speculate on what might happen beyond that," said James Hartsfield, a NASA spokesman at the Johnson Space Center in Houston, where Nowak and Oefelein work.

Nowak's biography shows she is a 1985 graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy at Annapolis with a degree in aerospace engineering, and a former test pilot who has logged more than 1,500 hours of flight in at least 30 types of aircraft.

She joined the space program in 1996. Three members of her astronaut class died in the 2003 in-flight disintegration of Shuttle Columbia.

A former test pilot, Nowak has logged more than 1,500 hours of flight in more than 30 types of aircraft. Married and a mother of three children, her interests include running, playing the piano and collecting African violets, according to her NASA biography.

Hi,

Just curious if anyone would like to discuss a bit on Yupiteru radios and scanners.

Who are they ? I Googled them, and found many sites, mostly old, that sell some handhelds of theirs.

But couldn't find the company web site itself.

Are they still in business ?

How do they compare to RS and Uniden, e.g. ?

Do they offer Trunking capable units ?

Only scanners, or other types of radios also ?

etc. ?

Bob

Yupiteru makes great scanners, but you won't find them in North America. They have refused to make the mods to produce an FCC type accepted USA version of any product. In my experience, they beat the living daylights out of RS and Uniden. At least my 9000 does. (I was living in a country where you didn't have to have blocked off bands, and unmodifiable receivers). I also own an unblocked ICF-8500 with the high precision oscillator, also bought when I living in a country where such a beast is legal to own.

They do indeed have a web site... www.yupiteru.co.jp

but unless you can read Japanese, it isn't very useful

I bought one of these from Bandercom in 2002 and played with it for a couple of days, then put it in a drawer where it's been sitting for years unused. I sell items on eBay once in a while but this is a prohibited item. Anyone know where I could find a buyer? It seems like a waste for it to go unused.

They used to be readily available mail-order from Canada and the UK. I just don't know if they still are, or how easy it is to import them any more. I have sold off several Icom's but I won't let go of my Yupi 7100...

Yupi's are great receivers, on a par with AOR, Alinco, Icom and other high end scanners.
The down side is that [In the USA at least] if you need customer service, repair or parts, you are pretty much on your own.

You can sell them on ebay, I did a couple months ago [went for over $350 plus shipping].
Just do not trumpet the fact that it is "cellular capable" "unblocked" "full coverage" "no gaps" ect, especially in the title.
In the description I said it was purchased in Canada and thus was not frequency hobbled, I left it for people to draw their own conclusions. Listed the frequency coverage as 0.495-2450 MHz with no qualifying buzz word like "uniterupted" or some such.
Some who did not get the hint emailed asking about coverage and I told them yes indeed, it had full coverage - I even published one of these questions on the auction page on the last day.
I see at least one up right now, the only give away is "Government/Export version: 0.495-2450.095 MHz", and ebay generally does not look for stuff like that unless someone rats them out.
Still, your auction could get shit canned I guess, all I am saying is that it likely won't if you can refrain from buzz words and outright give aways.
Also, I would not advise advertising your auction here, except maybe in the last 2 hours.
Its happened more than once here that within hours of these unblocked scanners being advertised here for ebay auctions, they get pulled off.

If the worse should happen and the auction gets yanked, you get a refund on auction charges and a warning to not do it again or else, so theres not a whole lot of risk as far as risking your account or something.

Craigslist is an option also [thats where I got mine, got it for $200 and sold it for over $350].

Hello, I'm new to scanning, and I need a very high-range, roof-mount antenna. The antenna will probably be going up over 30 feet, not including the mast. I'd like to receive communications from a small town over 78 miles away (as the crow flies), including mobiles. The area I want to receive from has an elevation of 415 feet. I'm thinking about getting the Scantenna, but I'm not quite sure it will do the job for me. I've read great reviews about it, but I'm still not totally sure. I'm stuck between Scantenna and the Grove Beam II (http://www.grove-ent.com/BEAMII.html). My scanner receives 30-50MHz, 146-174MHz, and 416-512MHz.

Has anyone any experience with these two antennas? How far away can you receive communications with them (and can you receive mobiles)? I'd like to spend less than $60 for a good antenna. I'm just not sure if the beam or the Scantenna would be better for my case.

A few years back I read about another approach which was to photograph it while tuned to a cellular frequency. Knowledgeable buyers will get it right away without having to use tricky language. It's easier to search for keywords in the listings than to process the images for anyone trying to screen these units out. Of course, that also makes it a little harder for potential buyers to find it with a standard search.

I don't know if that will fly on eBay, but maybe worth a try.

Yes, I did that in my listing also, among the half dozen pics were a couple with cell freqs tuned in.
No matter what you do though, there will always be the clueless, curious or doubters who will enquire if the scanner has any gaps ... As if the cell band really matters these days - But no doubt a no block scanner will fetch a better price.
I suppose it might some time in the future if they reallocate these freqs for other use.
From what I have seen, most people get away with it no prob unless they are too bold on their title or someone rats them out ... You have much better odds of having a listing of a Nazi war relic pulled than a full coverage scanner.
I listed a Nazi war time magazine, I thought historical paper items were allowed, but it got canned within an hour, and I was told no listings of propaganda would be tolerated.

Update..
I am sad to report that George has not had to sell off all of his equipment to pay his lawyers.
He is back among the living. He has made updates to the Mil-Air-CONNS site.

He has also updated his profile on one of the Ham radio websites.
He has converted to CW operating and much lower frequencies so that no one on VHF voice modes that he operated can call him out if they him speak.

Be aware he is back on. At last check, any attempt to buy his gambling books still do not work. At least there is some justice out there.

Watch Out!!!

Hi everyone... I missed your new posts and had posted on the old topic..

Update..

I am sad to report that George has "not" had to sell off all of his equipment to pay his lawyers.
He is back among the living. He has made updates to the Mil-Air-site. The weather station is working again.
CONNS

He has also updated his profile on one of the Ham radio websites.
He has converted to CW operating and much lower frequencies so that no one on the voice modes and frequencies he operated can call him out if they hear him speak.
He has a voice that is easy to recognize. He sounds like Richard Simmons.

Be aware he is back on. At last check, any attempt to buy his gambling books still do not work. At least there is some justice out there.

I still would love to show up in the court room when he goes to trial.
If anyone finds out, tell the others.

There is a BCT 8 manual listed on Uniden's site.....would that be the one you're looking for? At first I thought you was referring to the little 8 track looking thing they made several years ago...don't remember what the model number was on that.

This is not factual as I have not confirmed this:
But supposedly George was able to settle out of court.
So this is now almost behind him as I dont belive there will be any more jail time. Community service I am sure of and big fines, not to

I am glad to see this over.

would be nice.

Ok, I need an antenna that performs equally well on VHF-lo and VHF-hi... that's all I need. I've love to get the Scantenna, but I've heard people say that it's performance is "so-so" on VHF lo. I need great performance on both. A beam would probably be preferred.

Anyone have some resources where I can build my own antenna? I'm wondering, however, if it would be better to purchase an antenna if I need good performance on all of VHF-low (30-50Mhz) and VHF-hi (148-174MHz).

I can confirm that he is on 160m CW.
As I have had several people tell me this.
He did have his Icom 910 and 1296 transverter for sale.

George, I know you are out there.
Give me a call!!!!!

Hey dxAce.
Remeber he got arrested in Holly Hill if Volusia County doesn't work.
I might try to get hold of the buliding owner for that SHAM office he had.
They can at least share what they know. I am sure they aren't getting a rent check.

I got to admit that if George gets away with this, he is one smooth talking son-of-a-bh.
Mr.Meglomaniac strikes again.
He sure has a few people fooled ... or maybe the people around Daytona dxAce.. I am with you on this. George needs to pay a heavy cost (even if it is just lawyers fees) and his Ham license revoked, if for anything being a CON and a JERK.

The public needs to be protected against people like him.

Pretty bad. What I saw originally were just cheap CD's and books for gambling tips. Not iPod ripoffs. I wonder why he did that. Maybe he got taken into a scam. I got an e-mail from the UK claiming to be from a furniture outlet doing business in the US(!!!). They wanted to hire me to accept payment from distributors in the US. I was to deposit the checks and send to them less "my" commission. It was obviously a scam, but a well constructed one with links to "their" UK homepage. I am just naturally suspicious (to a fault) and won't fall for this stuff. I could see where someone might get scammed into the middle of a bigger scam like taking payments for iPods. It will be interesting to see how this plays out.

As I mentioned once before, I think he was having a cash flow problem and needed some money to cover some debts. There are 10 years of posts from people that questions what he was selling.
That stuff in that room wasn't cheap.

Remember if it looks like it, smells like it, feels like it, and tastes like it.
DON'T STEP IN IT!!!

His attack on the local TV stations on his WebCrap is his way of trying to get back and how he handles confrontation and adversity. He has some real personality disorders. Someone other than me called him a meglaomaniac.
It describes him very well and he can be dangerous. Don't be surprised that he continues on a tirade and it becomes more personal, contains individual's names, and hopefully threats. Why???
When he threatens, that is when one of us emails the TV stations and names he is mentioning and let them take the necessary actions to the authorities.
I am sure the Holly Hill, FL police department and Volusia Co. authorities still has him on a watch list.

Give him time, he will make a wrong move. His best bet is to be silent and reclusive.
I do not think that is like him. His grandeur ego is starting to get the best of him.

Beauty is skin deep and ugly goes to the bone.
People like him gives this hobby a bad name.

forget about building it ..... it's too big and too complicated of a job for what you want. better is to get a low band / high band TV antenna (channels 2 and up) , the bigger the better and turn it vertical for scanner use.. then get a suitable rotor and the highest mast you can install , for any hope of success for the distance you want to cover. a low noise stridsberg preamp and 50 ohm to 300 ohm balun are probably in the mix as well.

any serious multi element beam for 30 - 174 mhz and up is gonna be a huge antenna . 12' to 16' long would be in the ball park for all the freqs and distance you want . the antenna above is still not large enough for perfect operation below 35 - 45 mhz or so ..... but more realistic than a dedicated 30 mhz 5 element beam.
(ie: 20' boom at 30 mhz)

APRSPoint 4.2 is uploaded,

1. This new version has improved tracking support by adding separate track lists for stations to be tracked over either RF or TCP link.

2.It also added a new reject field in the filter dialog, where you can specify a list of stations to filter out using multiple strings that can contain wild card characters.

3. It allows you to selectively remove stations from the tree view list. This combined with improved filter operation, enables you to dynamically adjust what gets displayed on the map.

Please visit http://www.aprspoint.com for details and download.

Allan:

A bit new with this.

Is this 6640 USB freq. devoted to Continental, or is it an ARINC freq that any of the airlines can use ?

I've been trying to find an up to date listing for company airline freq's for some time, but all the ones I have are, for the most part, quite old, and apparently out of date. Might you know of any ?

How about Arinc freq's for the NY/Boston areas that are in frequent use (both USB or just regular AM)?
BTW: Are these "always" USB ?

Thanks,
Bob

No simple and easy way just by setting the controls of the scanner.

It can be done if the scanner can be set to the AM mode and a signal from a seperate source is used. That is you can use a signal generator that is very stable and tune it to the frequency of the incomming signal . The signal can also be injected at the IF frequency of the scanner.

258. Loss of radio signals on scanner in certain areas and McDonalds.

I am just curious, because I understand but don't 100% understand why. I know that some things can block radio signals but does anyone know why this is.

If I take a local transit bus in my area, whether it is a big or a small bus, on a walkman or scanner, their is usually little to no AM at all. Some FM stations go haywire. Shortwave, on the bus dead. When I go into my college, shortwave dead.

When I am in my house, I can easily get AM stations and shortwave, why do some buildings just kill the signals?

Also, does anyone know, did McDonalds go encrypted or something with their drive-thru? I have a Uniden BR330T scanner that includes drive-thru ranges, and in my area of my college, there is 3 restraunts with drive-thrus. One KFC, One McDonalds, and one Wendys, all right next to each other. Now I have always been able to get KFC and Wendys with usually only a search. No matter what I do, I can never seem to get McDonalds on my scanner even trying known frequencies. I know for a fact they use wireless headphones because when I went in to give an order, I saw a pair behind the counter. Why is McDonalds the only place I can never get on my scanner?

nvm my first question, I think I need to do a WFM search on the 900 range for McDonalds because that's the only one I didn't do, so that's probably why I never heard them.

That's not the fun part. The fun part is the other channels they use for internal communications. Lets just say that some people would be quite upset if they heard what was being said about them "off the air".

There is a seller (not an auction) on eBay that has several ICOM PCR-100's at $50.00/ea.! It is the radio minus the 12V AC adapter, software, and serial cable. However the software is free on the web, the other items are inexpensive, and easily obtainable. This is a heck of a deal! He has sold tons of these with 100% positive feedback. I bought two myself.

LoL, I know it's not a huge deal, it's just that, I was bored one day and was annoyed they were the only thing I couldn't get. I don't want to listen to them every day and record them, just something when I am bored.

They were mounted in 19" rack units. Eight radios per unit. They had one common power supply per unit for all eight radios. They were used to monitor AM/FM broadcast stations, and record commercials for paid commercial time verification. He attempted to sell some of the assembled rack mount units starting at $350.00, but was not very successful. As soon as he parted them out, they began to sell. Several members on Radio Reference purchased 1, 2, or more. He ships via U.S. Priority Mail for only $5.00.

You will need a 12VDC 1000ma (1amp) AC adapter. A standard DB9 RS232 serial cable. As for software, there is the original ICOM PCR-100 software available on the web, TalkPCR, TrunkPCR, SpectrumGM, PCRScope, and possibly others.

Performance is par with Icom's big brother, the PCR-1000, minus SSB mode. The PCR-100 has stereo FM output as well, where the PCR-1000 does not.

I have one station that I like to listen to, except where I live, it comes in, but you have to be careful where you place the scanner to pick it up.

Thanks for any suggestions.

Hey the courts were fast !!!!!!!!

George appeared in a Volusia Co. Court on January 30,2007, filed on February 5 & 6.
He was smart and pled "nolo contendere" to "attempts to defraud".
He was fined, paid other court costs, has to pay restitution to 38 victims, is on probation for 3 years, and will serve 20+ more days in jail in the future. Some of his computer equipment belongs to Florida now.
The terms of his probation is specific.....NO INTERNET BUSINESS
His gaming book site is not operating. (licensed2con...sorry ..4fun)

As for his ham license, if he keeps quiet and behaves himself they will won't probably act on it. I think they revoke licenses of only real skumbags, not megalomaniacs.
But....George has had a problem keeping quiet. He is his own worst enemy. I am sure there are authorities watching him closely. If he steps out of line, one call to his probation officer should be all it takes.

Lets hope he complies with the wishes of the court, closes or better yet gives away his RadiosOut-Of-Line and Mil-Air-CoNN websites, goes into recluse, gets a real job, and one day learns to become a decent human being.

I leave it now to the fine officials of Florida to handle it. If they can handle probate for Anne Nicole Smith, they can handle George.
I am praying for him. Bad news though... My prayers aren't answered much.

So long my fellow radio enthusiasts. You all do give this hobby a good name now and then.

Thanks for the update. He certainly didn't get what I thought he deserved.

I know this probably will sound like a newbie question but I have actually been using scanners for a long time. I currently own a Uniden BR330T.

I do not 100% understand Squelch. I know it's pretty much a noise control, but I don't really get when you set it to a lower number and when you set it to a higher number. By default my scanner program sets my BR330T to 4. I noticed if you have no squelch, every station basically becomes static but no squelch on an older scanner, doesn't make it do anything.

Anybody know how to tap out the IF from a Uniden BC-760XLT scanner? Or know where to get a schematic for the radio?

For FM scanners what you hear without a signal is random noise the radio is amplifing. The signal is filtered so the higher audio freqeuncies (usually just above the hearing ranfe) are tapped off and sent to the squelch circuit. When a signal comes on frequency the noise starts to get less . Once the signal gets to a certain point the noise goes away. This is the full quietning point. The noise going to the squelch circuit is controled by the squelch control. This just determins at what point an electronic switch in the scanner trips and lets the audio go to the speaker and the scanner stops scanning.

To set the squelch you usually want to turn it just past the point the wideband noise stops. If a weak signal keeps the scanner stopped on one frequency you can turn the squelch up more and maybe eliminate that problem at the expense of loosing the weaker signals.

The squelch setting does nothing to actually reduce the noise or anything else to the signal. It just determins at what signal level the switch trips.

If you were looking for the unfiltered audio out, I could take a picture and email it to you.

Good luck on the schematic and the IF out.

Think of the squelch setting as a threshold for allowing modulated signal through to the audio amplifier.

The higher the squelch setting, the stronger the modulated signal (voice) has to be in order to "break through" to the audio amplifier. If the squelch is too low, it takes very little modulated signal. If the squelch is off, everything comes through as noise.

Normally the squelch should be set just above where the noise stops so that any desirable signal above that level will get through.

Not sure if this made it the first time since I never got it back...

Radio Enthusiasts,

This posting is to invite radio entusiasts to investigate Internet Relay Chat (IRC), a free realtime multi-user chat medium that allows users to connect to a network of servers and chat in realtime with other users connected to any of the servers on the same network.

IRC uses "channels" similar to the chat rooms on AOL for those familiar with those. Anyone who connects to any server in an IRC network can join any channel on that network and chat with any and all other users in that channel regardless of what server in the network they have connected to.

Using IRC, it is possible (for example) for radio clubs, ARES/RACES or other EmComm groups, etc. to have a realtime online chat forum where members can connect and have sort of an online clubhouse or meeting. This is great for groups with members in widely separated geographical areas who can't otherwise have a "meeting" in the usual sense.

The IRC network IRC-GLOBAL is one example of an IRC network, and it happens to be operated by radio hobbyists. Feel free to check out the network's website at http://proxemic.net - this network is now inviting radio enthusiasts of all stripes to use the IRC-GLOBAL network as a forum for realtime multiuser chat with other like-minded individuals. Hams, CB operators, scanner and shortwave listeners, whether individuals or clubs, are welcome to use this network.

IRC-GLOBAL offers five open public IRC servers using active connection ports 6661-6669 (and also, 6697 for SSL connections). running full modern services (ChanServ/NickServ/MemoServ/BotServ/HostServ). Secure client connections are available using SSL. Channel owners have full founder control of services tools and security options. All of this is free, there is no charge of any kind for the use of any IRC-GLOBAL servers or services.

There are already some radio-related channels formed (#monitor, cross-linked to the #monitor channels on four other IRC networks as well, is the busiest right now), or you may of course form your own channels - about radio, or anything else as long as it's not illegal or just for the purpose of harassing others.

I hope nobody will consider this "spam" or be offended by it, if so, I apologize - I'm posting this as a network administrator on the IRC-GLOBAL network, I have no financial axe to grind since the use of the network is totally free to any and all who wish to use it. I'm one of the radio hobbyists who has helped put this network together and just want to invite other radio people like myself to make use of it.

Hope to see you on IRC-GLOBAL soon!

Well, that's good advice that should be followed before you even connect to the Internet, even to download your e-mail. I do know, however, that I've used IRC regularly since 1996 and have never, ever gotten any kind of virus or other infection as a result of my IRC activities. Thoigh I suppose other people's mileage may vary.

The audio is already available on two connectors.

Unfortunately, the BC-760xlt only has an envelope detector.
I need the signal before the detector.

 Welcome to rec.radio.info! ***

Welcome to rec.radio.info, a group that aims to provide a noise-free source of information and news for the entire rec.radio hierarchy.

Two introductory articles about rec.radio.info are posted to the group every month. You are now reading the first article, which explains what rec.radio.info is, and answers some Frequently Asked Questions. The second article is titled Posting Guidelines, and you only need to read it if you want to submit an article to rec.radio.info.

You can skip to the next section of this article by searching for the next
" -- " string. The sections available are:
- What is the purpose of rec.radio.info?
- Why are messages almost always cross posted to rec.radio.info?
- What is a 'follow-up', and what does 'moderated' mean?
- OK, so now I know what 'moderated' means. Tell me more.

rec.radio.info?
- Will the material appearing in rec.radio.info be archived somewhere?
- I have a regular posting with timely information, is there a way to speed up it's delivery, or automate for more convenience?

-- What is the purpose of rec.radio.info?

The purpose or charter of rec.radio.info is to provide the Usenet community with a resource for information, news, and facts about any and all things radio.

All the other rec.radio groups are intended for discussions and general chit chat about radio. Rec.radio.info will contain informational, factual articles only. Follow-ups are redirected to an appropriate other group, and further discussion (if any) will not take place in
rec.radio.info.

In order to ensure that rec.radio.info contains only appropriate articles, it was decided to create the group as a moderated newsgroup.

-- Why are messages almost always cross posted to rec.radio.info?

It provides a "tag" for each article to be assembled into a filtered presentation in rec.radio.info (even with cross-posting, only one message, with a unique Message-ID, is propagated across the net). This tag also facilitates a pre-existing method of dropping or canceling the articles locally within the discussion groups if you don't want to see them. This accommodates individuals who want to separate the bulletins from the discussions, discussions from the bulletins, as well as those who are adamant about not reading another newsgroup and wanted to see everything all in one basket.

With the total size of Usenet (in number of newsgroups and total traffic) doubling every year or so, this is no insignificant contribution to reducing information noise and chaos. Making the discussion groups a catch-all, and making extra newsgroups filters on that catch-all, is also the most realistic way to implement such a scheme (It's not intuitively obvious what the charter, contents, and general appropriate topics for each and every newsgroup are. Seeing FAQ's and charter/intro postings in the home newsgroup is beneficial for new readers).

By cross-posting one only is adding a few tens of bytes to each bulletin (to specify the extra group on the Newsgroups line), but are adding the capability for very powerful filtering features available on most news servers, listservers and readers. Your local news guru could probably explain these features in more detail.

/Newsgroups:.*[,]rec\.radio\.info/h:j

either in ~/News/KILL (if you don't want to see rec.radio.info articles anywhere) or ~/News/rec/radio/amateur/misc/KILL (if you don't want to see them just in rec.radio.amateur.misc). The latter method means your kill file will only be consulted during rec.radio.amateur.misc (and hence runs more efficiently), and will probably work for most people.

In nn, according to Bill Wohler in his nn FAQ, add a line of the form:

rec.radio.info:!s/:^

in ~/.nn/kill (if you don't want to see rec.radio.info articles anywhere), or put the following lines:

sequence
rec.radio.info
rec.radio.

at the end of ~/.nn/init in order to see all the rec.radio.info bulletins first, then read the remaining rec.radio.* without the bulletins.

-- What is a 'follow-up', and what does 'moderated' mean?

If you are new to Usenet and are not familiar with the terminology, you might want to read the general introductory articles found in the newsgroup news.announce.newusers. Doing so will make your life on the net much easier, and will probably save you from making silly beginner's mistakes.

If you think that at this moment you are reading an echo, a conference, or a bulletin board, I'd also strongly suggest a trip over to news.announce.newusers.

For the rest of this article, we will assume you have a basic knowledge of Usenet terminology and mechanics.

A moderated group means that any article that needs to be posted to the group has to be accepted by the moderator of the group. Since we need to ensure that followups to an article (discussion) do not show up in the rec.radio.info newsgroup, the `Followup-To:' header line contains a newsgroup that is appropriate for discussions about the specific article.

-- OK, so now I know what 'moderated' means. Tell me more.

Rec.radio.info is a moderated newsgroup, which means that all articles submitted to the group will have to be approved by the moderator first.

The current moderator of the group is the rec.radio.amateur.moderated Moderation Team. Submissions to rec.radio.info can be posted, or e-mailed to:

rec-radio-info@panix.com

Comments, criticisms, suggestions or questions about the group can be e-mailed to:

rec-radio-info-request@panix.com

But before you do so, please be sure to check out the "Posting Guidelines" article.

The influence of the moderator should be minimal and of an administrative nature, consisting chiefly of weeding out obviously inappropriate articles, while making sure correct headers etc. are used for the appropriate ones.

-- What type of material is considered inappropriate?

There are three broad categories of articles which will be rejected by the moderator:

1) Requests for information: rec.radio.info is strictly a one-way street. We receive information in our mailbox; we then post it to rec.radio.info. Requests for specific information belong in the normal discussion newsgroups. If your request gets answered, you might consider passing the answer on to rec.radio.info, though. Especially if you can edit it into a informational, rather than a discussion, format.

2) Obvious discussion articles, or articles that appear unsubstantiated.

3) Commercial stuff: a relatively unbiased test of a radio product would be accepted, but any hint of for-profit might be reason for rejection. For three reasons: This is not the purpose of the list, for-profit is a controversial topic, and this list may be passed onto Amateur Packet Radio (where for-profit is prohibited except under certain provisos).

Similarly, copyrighted material generally cannot be used. If it's TRULY worthwhile to the net, We would recommend obtaining permission from the copyright holder. Please note the source, and if permission was given. We reserve the right to make the final decision concerning appropriateness in all situations. In most cases, a brief summary of, or pointer to, the copyrighted information may be all we can allow.

-- I do not have access to news, how can I get the information posted to rec.radio.info?

Google has an excellent web interface to Usenet newsgroups. It is available at:

http://groups.google.com

It supports both reading and posting.

-- Will the material appearing in rec.radio.info be archived somewhere?

Yes. See Google Groups above.

Effectively this means that anything you post to rec.radio.info will be permanently stored, so your work will not be lost.

-- I have a regular posting with timely information, is there a way to speed up it's delivery, or automate for more convenience?

Yes, there is! It may take a bit of chatter with the moderator, but we are willing to take responsible people and provide them the means of posting the articles directly from their site. We will try everything we can as we fully realize that DX (distant signal) and astronomical data can be somewhat transitory. We are also willing to allow regular posters of information the same courtesy, even if the information is not as time critical.

We refer to this as self-moderation, which is partly based on the model for rec.answers/news.answers. This requires co-operation and goodwill to be beneficial to the community in the rec.radio hierarchy.

Please direct any comments, questions, or criticisms about this article to rec-radio-info-request@panix.com.

 rec.radio.info - Posting Guidelines and Etiquette ***

Two introductory articles about rec.radio.info are posted to this group and to rec.answers/news.answers every two weeks. You are now reading the second article, which explains how to submit something to rec.radio.info, and which answers some Frequently Asked Questions about the submission process. The first article is titled "Welcome to rec.radio.info", and it might be a good idea to check it out as well.

-- How do I submit something to rec.radio.info?

Two possibilities. You can use your newsreading software to just post the article to rec.radio.info, as you would do with any other newsgroup. The difference is that the software recognizes the special status of rec.radio.info as a moderated group, and will e-mail your article to us, the moderation team, instead of posting it to the group.

Alternatively, you can mail your article directly to us at the following address:

rec-radio-info@panix.com

Mailing us directly is probably (a wee bit) faster, but using the transparency offered by the newsreading software is probably more convenient.

If you have any questions, or wish to deal with some administrivia with the moderation team, we suggest mailing to the following address:

rec-radio-info-request@panix.com

-- How soon will I see my article appear?

It depends on how busy we are. Your article reaches us as mail, we have to read it first, give it the stamp of approval, and finally send it on to the group. We will attempt to read and decide on all submissions within 72 hours at the very least, though we will probably be able to process submissions much faster in actual practice.

The site from which we moderate this newsgroup, "Public Access Internet and Unix, NYC" (Panix), is directly connected to the Internet, and

articles posted at that site should appear at most major news sites, including Google Groups, the same day. The principal delay, therefore, will be the wait in the moderator's submission queue.

If you post a periodic article, and have shown to be trustworthy, we may allow you to post directly if the article is of a timely nature. See the section below on direct posting.

-- Should my article be in a specific format?

No. If it is not totally illegible, we will accept it, and if it does not have a correct subject-line we will correct it with your permission -- that's what a moderator is for.

However.

You could do us a big favor by making sure your article conforms to these simple requirements:

1) The article must present information, not discussion or requests, We will reject the article or require you to change the wording if it is worth it.
2) A good, descriptive Subject line.
3) Always mention what source you got the information from.
4) Don't forget to include a Followup-To header, at least if you don't want further discussion to automatically be forwarded to you, the poster, which is the default if the article is only posted to rec.radio.info.

As we said: if your article is appropriate we will post it even if you don't follow these guidelines, but then don't blame us for not processing it immediately. 'Perfect' articles we can send on with a couple of keystrokes. Stuff that needs minor editing is going to have to wait until we have time to do so.

Please do not waste both our and your time by posting requests, as this is an information only news group.

-- What about crossposting?

If you send something to rec.radio.info, just name any group you'd like to cross-post to in the Newsgroups field. Then, when we approve the article for rec.radio.info it will get automatically cross-posted to any other groups mentioned. This will also override the default Followup-To: poster, replacing it with the groups you cross posted to.

We would prefer if the group be cross-posted to the various discussion groups in the rec.radio.* hierarchy that are appropriate:

rec.radio.amateur.misc Amateur (ham) radio and related matters
rec.radio.amateur.packet Amateur Packet Radio discussions
rec.radio.amateur.policy Amateur Radio practices, rules, etc.
rec.radio.noncomm Non commercial radio discussions
rec.radio.shortwave International broadcasting on the 'HF' bands

rec.radio.cb Citizens Band (27 MHz) discussion
rec.radio.scanner Scanner discussions (unsupported group)

or in one of the moderated groups:

rec.radio.amateur.moderated Amateur radio practices, rules, etc.
rec.radio.broadcasting Discussion of domestic radio broadcasting

We will leave it up to the poster to decide which group(s) are appropriate, but reserve the right to add groups if we feel it has broader interest. We will consult with the poster first.

Notes on crossposting:

- rec.radio.broadcasting is also a moderated group. The rec.radio.broadcasting moderator prefers to review all articles himself before posting. Placing rec.radio.broadcasting before rec.radio.info on the Newsgroups line should accomplish this. We will typically abide by the rec.radio.broadcasting moderator's decision whether the article is appropriate for rec.radio.info.

- rec.radio.amateur.moderated is also a moderated group. As the rec.radio.amateur.moderated Moderation Team manages both rec.radio.amateur.moderated and rec.radio.info, we can manage crossposting and approvals for both newsgroups. The rec.radio.amateur.moderated group does not allow crossposting to other discussion newsgroups, whether moderated or unmoderated. However, we would like to manage rec.radio.info as consistently as possible with how it was done by previous moderators, including the grandfathering of existing regular postings. Therefore, the submitter can choose rec.radio.amateur.moderated or the other unmoderated rec.radio.amateur.* discussion newsgroups for crossposting, but not both.

- Any FAQ or informational posting approved by the rec.answers/news.answers moderation team that is also crossposted to any rec.radio.* newsgroup (besides just rec.radio.info) is also automatically pre-approved for rec.radio.info. See below for more information.

If you post to another moderated group, it may be better to make special arrangements with both moderators before posting by contacting us at our administrivia addresses.

In addition, cross-posts do not take up extra space; modern newsreaders can be configured to show you cross-posted articles only once anyway; not everybody reads rec.radio.info; and rec.radio.info was never meant to reduce the volume of the regular discussion newsgroups. But keep in mind that some of the mail gateways may filter out the informational postings (at request of the subscribers) to keep the load down.

You decide.

-- I have a regular posting with timely information, can I make arrangements to help speed up delivery by posting directly from my site?

Yes, there is! It may take a bit of chatter with the moderator, but we are willing to take responsible people and provide them the means of posting the articles directly from their site. We will try everything we can as we fully realize that DX (distant signal) and astronomical data can be somewhat transitory. We are also willing to allow regular posters of information the same courtesy, even if the information is not as timely.

If you are currently maintaining (or plan to maintain) a radio-related periodic information posting, you may wish to consider crossposting it to rec.answers/news.answers. Postings that are approved by the rec.answers/news.answers moderators for this treatment are automatically pre-approved for crossposting to rec.radio.info (as the news.answers requirements are far more rigorous than the requirements this newsgroup ever plans to use). For more information about this option, consult the appropriate information articles and posting guidelines in rec.answers/news.answers.

Realize also, that even if your post is not approved for rec.answers/news.answers, it can still be approved for rec.radio.info. The intention is not so much to get every last bit of radio-related information on rec.answers/news.answers, but rather to provide an alternative avenue of approval (as well as grandfather existing maintainers of radio-related information and spare them additional bureaucratic hurdles). Again, crossposting to either rec.radio.info or rec.answers/news.answers, both, or neither, is at the discretion of the poster (subject to the approval of the moderators). You decide what is most appropriate for your article.

Please remember that as an information maintainer, you are not alone. There are many others on the net who maintain and post periodic information postings, using various intermediate-to-advanced features of Usenet (usually via automated tools). Various degrees of technical support and general hand-holding are available from many Usenet veterans. Send us some E-mail describing your needs to our administrative address below, and we'll try to help, or at least refer you to the right knowledgeable individual(s).

-- And Follow-ups?

If the only newsgroup you have specified is rec.radio.info, then the Followup-To: field will always be set to poster. If you do not want this, you must supply a Followup-To line of your own, and we will honor that one, as long as it is a subset of the original Newsgroups line.

If you specify newsgroups to cross-post to, then the Followup-To field will be set to include all the cross-posted groups, excepting rec.radio.info itself. Again, if you do not wish this behavior, supply your own Followup-To line.

We maintain other standards on the various RFC-1036 (news transport) header lines. For example, if the article is appropriate for passing into the Packet Radio Information Network, we encapsulate the Packet Bulletin Identifier (BID) in the Message-ID: news header line indicating the machine of origin as the ampr.org domain:

Message-ID: <$opa.55.1994@ampr.org>

where the Packet Radio BID, in this example, is `$OPA.55', and it was posted in the year 1994, because some of the Bid numbers are cycled yearly. Hopefully, this can be used as a key to re-introduce the articles for the Packet Radio network. Also, if the article is a repost of an already existing information article in the rec.radio heirarchy, we ensure that the References: header line is linked to that previously posted article. This also helps to tag articles, and may be used for additional filtering if needed.

Since the articles are archived, please use the Summary and Keywords header lines to help one search for your article.

-- Why have I received no reply from you?

We never reject anything in silence, and we make a point of it to answer all our mail. However, E-mail, like a brain cell, can and does get lost, every now and again.

So, if you send us something, and you don't see it appear it rec.radio.info, and you still have not heard from us in reply after say, five days, you can be pretty sure that either your mail never reached us, or that our answer has never reached you. In that case, please try again (We will filter out duplicates).

Is that normal for scanners to sometimes just miss messages even though a scanner next to it is getting the message and the one is just sitting there doing nothing? My mother has a 10-13 year old radio scanner desktop that sometimes seems to get messages in our house before my scanner gets it or my scanner will repeat it (Uniden BR330T). I noticed when I listen to my local bus, it seems my Uniden will sometimes miss a part of all of a message but my other scanner doesn't seem to miss as much with it. I know it misses because when I sit on a bus, the driver's radio hears everything but while a message is playing on the driver's radio, my scanner is picking up nothing or waits a while to hear anything. Can the bus be blocking my scanner and the bus antenna be outside? I noticed AM radio and shortwave is almost dead on the bus, why? You can hear scanners in cars I believe, so why not buses?

Does the more channels worsen the scanner?

Speaking of the Uniden BR330T, does anyone know if it charges the batteries with the scanner turned on and plugged in instead of being off where it says Normal Charging? Also what is on 589-595MHZ range? Every time I put on close call or search this range, my BR330T stops and just leaves a static channel that I have to lock out. It's all static on every channel in that range.

If he is not actively using tactics to avoid or sabotage killfiles

It does seem that the frequency and the size of his posts are his postmaster were to act in this instance, it would raise troubling

There is an eBay seller that has a crystal for sale which is supposed to increase the PRO-34 scanning speed as well as restore the cell frequencies. Here's the link if you want to have a look:

Grove Enterprises sells a telescoping whip antenna for $14.95 that's advertised as having 3 dB gain over a stock rubber duck. I've bought several of these from Grove, and my opinion is that the Grove antenna performs as good or better than the telescoping whip available from Radio Shack. The Grove antenna also seems to have a better build quality than the Radio Shack telescoping whip. If you read the reviews of the 20-006 antenna at Radio Shack's web site, you'll notice that the main customer complaint about the antenna is that it breaks rather easily.

I think it also shortens the delay length too. The one I had for a while had almost no delay, and scanned a lot faster than a stock one did. And the crystal has NOTHING to do with cell restore, that's removing a diode.

All in all, the negatives outweigh the positives.

Desktops tend to have better sensitivity than handhelds, but thats a general statement.
The only way to really compare would be to tap into the same antenna feed.
Turn down the squelch as far as you can, make sure theres no ATT engaged, and thats about all you can do with a handheld ... Though frquently upgrading stock antennas helps too.

This is the start to a long and difficult answer. I'll shorten and dumb things down a bit so that you can understand fundamentals.

First, scanners need to cover very broad ranges of frequencies. This means they can often go deaf in the presence of strong nearby signals. It's like trying to hear someone speaking softly on the other side of a very noisy room. If you had some way of reducing the ambient noise (such as filtering the extraneous sounds out) then you might hear more.

There are receivers which can do better, but they use more power and they need more filters. Thus, handheld scanners with limited battery life and little space available for filtering typically do worse than a table top scanner with more power and more filters available to use on the first few stages of the receiver. This feature is known as dynamic range among radio enthusiasts and engineers. It is a major consideration when purchasing a scanner. I could go in to the methods for describing how this works, but people write books about this stuff.

Second, there are issues of scan rate and squelch reaction time. If your scanner only passes by your frequency once every three seconds, it's possible to miss an entire message on a channel. There is also an issue of how weak the signal may be. It may be weak enough that while scanning, you'll set the squelch such that the scanner triggers spuriously on stray signals. Again, you'll miss signals when the scanner gets "stuck" on a channel where it thinks there is a signal. And meanwhile, the traffic on another channel goes by unnoticed.

Third, there is an issue of spurious signal reception. Most scanners have what are known as "birdies." Birdies are the result of spurious mixing products generated in the scanner itself. All scanners have them. However, in the better scanners, the microprocessor takes measures to hide them. You could get stuck trying to hear a birdie on older scanners.

> Does the more channels worsen the scanner?
It can. That largely depends on how fast the scanner scans and how long the signals stay on the air. I usually set up banks on my scanner for specific purposes. For example, I'll set up a bank for air traffic scanning. A bank for monitoring my local fire frequencies, and a bank for monitoring County and State Police in my area. I don't usually leave all banks on all the time. First, it's pretty confusing. Second, there is too much to listen to, and the scanner doesn't get through all the channels in a timely fashion.

Think about what you're going to listen for, and then customize the scanner's behavior for that purpose. You can't hear everything all the time. It's confusing, there will be gaps when more than one group is talking at the same time, and you'll have a hard time keeping track of it all.

Good luck, and happy monitoring!

Look under radios in the phone book. Here locally there is a "police scanner" section. If it was me, I would call Scanner World, and order one. They are amazingly fast on shipping, and would probably be cheaper than buying locally, but it's your choice. They're in Albany, so it wouldn't take long to get.

My college uses standard two way radios that look like normal business two-way radios. They only have like 3-4 channels. Not sure of brand but the almost have the look of a scanner but yet it's a two-way.

I have a Uniden BR330T scanner, I try searching and using close call, but I don't think I am getting the correct frequency. Is there a list of two-way radio frequencies to search for or something else? Anyway to find it with out them actually talking at the time?

Also, I forgot in my last post, repeated searches on the FCC site both new and old database, yield no results for my college, so apparently their frequency is not registered like the other schools in my area.

Neither. That's the problem. A college is a "non-individual", and as such does not qualify for a GMRS license.

You need to look on a commercial radio database. The FCC database should tell you something as long as the search isn't too narrow. You may want to look in the database for any licensees in the city where the college is located. You'll get a lot of responses; but it is more likely you'll find the frequency.

If you drop a portable scanner and there is no scratches, no cracks, no nothing, just the same as it was, and it only fell 2 to 2 1/2 feet, is there anything to worry about?

While tuning through the 28.3 to 28.5 MHz portion of the 10m band in USB mode, I get what sound like carrier tones very evenly spaced every 15 kHz starting at about 28.3 MHz.

I am using an AOR AR8600MkII receiver with an AOR SA7000 antenna mounted on a mast outside. I am located in central NJ in the Princeton/Trenton area.

What is the source of these tones?

Thanks,
Doug

The horizontal sweep of television sets is 15750 Hz.
Switch mode power supplies operate anywhere from 10 kHz to 100 kHz.
It is not uncommon for either of them to ring and generate harmonics in HF.

The mains frequency has little to do with the noise that a switcher can generate. A switcher rectifies and filters the mains to DC then uses a switching transistor to drive a transformer at a much higher frequency. Tens of kHz typically. The higher frequency allows the "magnetics", i.e. the tranformer, to be much smaller physically than a 60 (50) Hz transformer. That plus the on-off and not linear nature of the switch allows switching power supplies to be smaller and more efficient than linear supplies.

It is the switching, with sharp edges, that generates high frequency components. I've seen poorly designed switchers generate harmonics into the hundreds of MHz.

Winder 65 in comms on 225.35.
"Nickel 11" was just up with Screwtop 10 on 278.775, advising that they are departing the area.
Earlier, I heard Screwtop 10 in comms with "Mauler 17" (S-3B) on 283.15 while Mauler 17 was at Pinecastle Range; Screwtop 10 is now discussing Mauler 17 with Sealord on 267.5.

332. Alternative interface for Icom PCR100 scanner ?

Hello, I have had my Icom PCR-100 (computer based scanner) for a while now and love it. I was just wondering if there were any other interfaces out there apart from the one that ships with it. I have used TalkPCR and one or two other ones. I have done a Google for other interfaces out there but just keep drawing a blank.

Does anyone have any links to other interfaces which would work with this scanner (preferably Freeware, but i'd be willing to pay)..

Many Thanks,
Andrew

Join the 396T yahoo group. There are hundreds of questions and answers on there.
Sounds to me like you're trying to listen to an encrypted transmission, but it could also be a digital system that the radio won't decode (like the Cleveland Ohio digital system)

"Motorola has sold digital systems that use a different type of vocoder, known as Vector Sum Excited Linear Prediction (VSELP). Cleveland, Ohio, and Memphis, Tennessee, are two cities that use VSELP. These systems also use the Motorola 3600 bps control channel but are not interoperable with the digital voice features of APCO-25 radios."

You didn't say where or what you were trying to listen to so until you're more specific this is the best 'answer' I can give you.

I understand about the noise and harmonics a switcher can generate, but the thing is that my antenna is mounted outside on a mast 25 feet up. All the wiring in my neighborhood is underground. It's not clear to me how I could be getting such strong interference in this case. What about harmonics from wireless routers? Could that explain this interference pattern? - Doug

It seems very unlikely to me. That stuff is up in the GHz.
They don't tend to make subharmonics.

My computer monitor has a 62 kHz horizontal sweep.
There are various places on HF that I pick up "carriers" evenly spaced at 62 kHz. (Antenna is outside, connected with coax.) When I switch off the monitor the "carriers" disappear.

One thing to try is to remove power from everything in the house. You can't just turn them off, you have to disconnect the power. I have a Sony stereo that makes RF noise if it is just plugged in.
You can switch off all the circuit breakers to everything but the radio. (And unplug anything left on the live circuit.)
Or if you can power the radio with batteries then switch off all or the main breaker.
See how much noise goes away then.

The carrier frequency is around 2.4 GHz, sure, but the data bursts are quite a bit slower. What I don't know about is whether wireless routers broadcast data bursts at regular intervals that somehow may be getting demodulated in my receiver.

I use an LCD panel. Turning that off makes no difference, as expected.

I've gone through this process when chasing down a nasty buzz in the AM and SW broadcast bands. I found that the light dimmers on my outdoor spotlights caused a nasty buzz all across the bands, not at any kind of regularly spaced frequencies. That sound was also quite different than what I am getting now. I'll have to explore that idea some more.

Thanks, and keep the ideas coming...hopefully we'll figure it out.

It is the wireless router, a NetGear WGR614. I don't know why the hell I didn't try that earlier. It does the exact same thing to my Icom IC-R20.
Maybe the power supply in the router? Or is it a wireless signal

They don't transmit at regular intervals.
They transmit only when there is data to transfer.

Congrats on finding the problem.

I've got a NetGear WGR614. It worked for a year then developed a heat problem. It will only run for about an hour. I openned it up.
(Pry open the rubber feet and there are four little torx screws.)
The Broadcom chip gets hot enough to burn your finger. Other people have reported the same thing. I bought a Linksys a few weeks ago to replace it.

And I see the little transformer for the switcher in the NetGear. There is virtually no doubt that the problem is the switcher and not the wireless part.
1. The wireless is bursty and not regular. (Certainly not 15 kHz regular.)
2. Problems are almost always with harmonics and almost never with subharmonics. (How are you with Fourier transforms and convolution?)
3. TV broadcasts would be giving you fits too if your radio were sensitive to 15 kHz components of VHF/UHF signals.
4. Probably no other 802.11 device you have causes the same problem.

There is a way you can test it. On the router's control page there is an option to turn off its radio while still being able to use the router with wired connections. You might try that.

Another thing. It is almost always long wires that do the actual radiating. The switcher can generate noise but it won't go anywhere unless it gets coupled into the cables that attach to the router. Try unplugging the eithernet cables too to see if the noise goes away.
That will leave the power cable. You could then try putting ferrites on the power cable, or wrap it up in a tight ball to keep it short.

cheers,
rb

Folks, be awared of that flatscreens (PLASMA) is a highly annoying
"jammer" noicetransmitter on the whole HF-band.
As that is NOT for the LCD.

345. Add a Serial Port to the back of the 996T

I added a serial connection to the rear of my 996 scanner. I disliked the front one as it was in the way while in the car connected to a PC and the rear has the GPS. This is only the first step. I'm open to anything that will improve this.

1: Hit "Manual" on keypad until you reach the channel (1 to 16) you desire.
2: Enter the frequency (e.g., 144.390) on the numerical keypad and hit
"E" (enter) key.
Repeat step 1 and 2 to set up all 16 channels.

To set up for scanning between two frequencies limits use the numerical keypad:
1: Enter beginning frequency (e.g.,154.00) then hit the "LIMIT" key, enter ending frequency (e.g., 162.00) and hit "LIMIT" key again. Start scanning by hitting "SRCH" (search) key. "HOLD" will hold the scan.
To scan thru all 16 preset channels just hit "SCAN" after you set them up. You can also 'LOCKOUT' some channels during this scan.

Someone in my neighbourhood got a new toy for Christmas, and when they play with it I get a noise repeating precisely every 200 kHz from about 4 MHz though to 30 MHz - some places worse than others - i.e. around 8 and 15 MHz they exceed S9. I have sent audio and spectrum recordings to a specialist in RFI, who was able to determine that it is a switcing power supply, but just which one and for what is still unknown.

All wiring in my subdivision, including telephone and cable TV is underground. Other than satellite TV antennas the only visible antennas or feedlines within at least half a mile are mine. When spring comes I'll try to localise it with a portable receiver. It is definitely none of my immediate, within 200 feet, neighbours. I suspect a plasma TV.

In the meantime I just have to avoid multiples of 200 kHz when whatever it is is being used.

352. Thinking about the Pro-94 scanner. In Austin. Others?

Hello, I would like to get a scanner to listen to police, EMS, etc.
here in Austin Texas.

I currently have a BC350A (bought in 2004), but I cannot seem to get nearly as many channels as my previous BC250D scanner would get.

What I'm curious about is if I would have the same problems with the Radio Shack Pro-94 scanner.

The frequency list that it supports seems to be very broken up and missing a lot of frequencies. Would this be a problem for Austin scanning??

Are there any non-Digital channels that I should still be able to pick up in Austin?

Any other scanner you would recommend around the $100, $150 range?

Do I need an APCO-25 system to do any good? I'm mainly interested in police/EMS frequencies.

Thanks!

I just got the Pro 97 from radio shack on sale for 149.99. Great scanner and highly recommended by all the sites i visited including radioreference.com. 1000 channel triple trunking comes in handy also check sales for this scanner. It is in my opinion the best non digital scanner radio shack sells.

Because the Radio Shack Pro-90 was the BC235, you can get some accessories that will work with the BC245 from them. This includes a leather case (catalog #12047163) and the battery pack. However, I doubt if they will have it in stock, you'll have to order it and have them mail it to you. You can probably get a better price from a battery wholesale outfit than from Radio Shack.

It could be a land mobile frequency and you may be hearing a Diagnostic you need 'help' learning how to post a question only ONCE :)

I'm assuming that you NEED trunking since you have an 895 (great weather alert system on that radio) If you don't need 'digital' and just trunking and conventional scanning at the same time, a BCT-8 or BCT15 will do. If however you need digital I'd spend the extra cash for the BCD996T (does more tricks, than a flea circus).
Been VERY impressed with mine. Be prepared to do alot of reading & re-reading of the 140 page owners manual. And be sure to get the FREE software off of Unidens site to control / program it via computer.

At last, the alt.fan.art-bell awards for Fall 2006 and Winter 2007 have arrived! On the ballot this time are such usenet notables as: Andrew B. "You would no longer be here if I were to stop praying for you," Chung, Alexa "Screed Queen" Cameron, Gerald "real-lifing lover of usenet's freedom"/"I'll get you, Sean Monaghan" Newton, Ken "diploma-mill lawyer"/"ChasNemo has never been to Cuba, _I_ have!" Pangborn, Alan "Use my innovative 'challenge and response' email system" Connor, Azure the Pixie, Bloxy the forger/bot-runner, Ray "the Living Christ" Karczewski, my very own pet PorchMonkey, Jacky the post-editing nightbat, Commander of the saucerheads, the scaaaaaaared widdle Wabbit (who may or not be Woger Wiseman) of rec.radio.amateur.policy, Vito "Why can't you jerks be more polite?" Kuhn, Painius the saucerhead, Michael J. "Dogfucker" Cranston attorney kook, Robert "Mop Jockey"/"net.KKKopping stalker" Wolfe, Joey "Colonel Jake" Jimenez, Jayne "Chump of the Summer" Kulikauskas, Skeptic/Septic/Your Logic Tutor/"Deities don't exist, that's axiomatic!", Joseph "Three years and counting since Cujo accepted his challenge" Bartlo, and Richard "Nuked" Scoville.

For the rec.radio.* groupies, take note that the Wabbit is up for the Sir Robin Award for Bravery, and the Office of the Viagra Junkie. You still have a few days left to vote...

You might try this:

http://www.radioreference.com/modules.php?name=RR&sid=126

This is old data, but maybe the frequencies are the same and you can try programming it was a Motorola Type II rather than having to deal with programming a fleet map. It also references http://www.n2nov.net/which may be more up to date.

I use a Pro-92 and have no problem with listening to talk groups now that I have it properly setup.

Good luck,

Well, this is what I did for Plano

866.06250
866.15000
866.17500
866.65000*
866.67500
866.96250
867.06250
867.15000*
867.17500
867.65000*
867.67500
867.96250
868.06250
868.27500*
868.30000

I press PGM and set the banks as follows
P101.T...-MO
866.0625 MHz
Bank 1 Ch 01
MOT: none

P102.T...-MO
866.1500 MHz
Bank 1 Ch 02
MOT: none

Including the control channels. I only hear static on the control channels apart from 867.15000 which is data sounding.

When in PGM mode I can press TRUNK and that will let me enter the code for the talk group which I can then lock out. There are almost 250 talk groups in these frequencies, I really have no need for Plano City Irrigation Data.

So, make sure the frequencies are stored in contiguous banks and see if that helps.

Regards
Nigel

Hello

I recently moved house and am having a problem with some interference which cuts in in bursts across most of the airband. There is no regularity to it nor can I really work out what is causing it, and I was hoping someone on here may recognise it or would be able to help me through try to get rid of it. I've posted two mp3s, in case they might help, however I can't post an example of this with a transmission on when it it more noticable:

http://www.reevery.net/interference/2.mp3
http://www.reevery.net/interference/3.mp3

My equipment is a GRE PSR-282 and the interference occurs with my short telescopic aerial and my loft-mounted discone. In case it helps, I live about 500m from a TV repeater, which is 12kW and pointing almost in the opposite direction. The nearest mobile telephone mast is about 1km away. There is a TV aerial and a satellite dish on the side of my building but I would have thought any interference from anything TV would be continuous.

Would any of these be a factor, and if so do you think an airband filter might get rid of this? It's definitely something local as I had no problems at my previous address, and it sounds like it could be a data pulse. Any help would be greatly appreciated!

Thanks

Matthew

not central heating ignitor is it?
thats the usual culprit of wideband rasping noises at very random intervals?

Airband being about 150 MHz?

Interesting. Sounds like a QAM, QPSK, or PSK data signal.

Right. All of those should be continuous.
Maybe the TV repeater also has a control data link?

Hmm. I see your receiver is portable. Maybe walk or drive around the area and see if the signal strength varies.
Maybe try a directional antenna in order to locate the source.

OK, today I got two batteries from Radio Shack for my BC245 for $17.95 each. Look just like the ones I got Uniden and cost a lot less I think. I got five years out of the other two batteries so lets see how long these last.

ALSO, they are the same battery that works in a lot of cordless phones.

Approximately. I'm mainly interested in the 118 to 138 section and it seems to be stronger in the 130s.

Sounds like a plan. I don't have a directional antenna but I'll have a prowl round the area over the next few days and see where it's strongest. If it sounds like PSK etc then I guess it could be a neighbour's WiFi, I doubt it will be the repeater having a data feed but I'll wonder over that way and have a listen. I was slightly inaccurate above - the repeater is 12W and not 12kW.

Hi folks!

I've been using an old Radio Shack handheld scanner for ten or so years and I'd like to replace it. I live near an Airforce Fighter base and I'd like to be able to hear the chatter.

Honestly, I am not sure which frequencies this new scanner should have and what I've read about them, unfortunately, confuses me (and I'm not afraid to admit it).

I've looked at the "BC" handhelds and they seem to be a quality item. Which should I choose?

Your advice would be greatly appreciated!

I'd suggest, you sit down and think of all the stuff you might like to listen to, make a list. Bear in mind that trunking systems are now common place, and digital is being mandated by the FCC in the years to come.
Alot of military bases have gone to trunking in the 400 mhz band (so make sure what you get will have this feature along with military air, and civilian air frequencies).

Each scanner made has its good and bad points, Uniden makes good scanners and so does Radio Shack, I've had both and find things I like and dislike about both. After you determine, WHAT you want to receive, go to each one's site and read about the scanners and see which ones fit your needs, make a list. Then a little more research, reading product reviews, from various sites should narrow down the list. Price, depending what you want to spend can reduce the list even more.

One point I'd like to stress here, is that there will be a Band Restructioning in the 800 mhz band, some time in the next couple years, SO..... make sure the radio you select can be firmware upgradable to what ever they decide upon. Computer control / programming is also a 'must' since the radio systems are becoming more complex and programming by hand can be a very confusing and tedious job even for the best of us.
The programing cable and software should be figured into the price if they are not included with the radio.

I know you were looking for a more direct answer like ' buy this scanner model XXXXX' but, with things changing as fast as they are, and not knowing EXACTLY what you intend to do with it (which could, change as your listening interests change) its hard to give a direct answer.

Thanks for the reply!

I understand I will need trunking. That's certainly understandable as is computer programmable. I don't believe I will need anything REAL fancy as this is a very small town. The airbase is Mountain Home AFB and I guess I was really wondering which frequency bands to look for.

most scanners have pretty much the same coverage 30-50 mhz, 144 -170 mhz, 420 - 512 mhz, 800 - 999 mhz these are pretty standard.

check here for more information as to specific frequencies, look around at the trunking area and aircraft / military area Mil-Air is located in the roughly 200 -388 mhz band (quite large) make sure the scanner you look at / for has this band included.

Well that would put him in an area where "T band" Channel 14 is used for LMR. And 476 MHz is T band. He is hearing a DRT from a system being

 Welcome to rec.radio.info! ***

Welcome to rec.radio.info, a group that aims to provide a noise-free
source of information and news for the entire rec.radio hierarchy.

Two introductory articles about rec.radio.info are posted to the group
every month. You are now reading the first article, which explains what rec.radio.info is, and answers some Frequently Asked Questions. The second article is titled Posting Guidelines, and you only need to read it if you want to submit an article to rec.radio.info.

You can skip to the next section of this article by searching for the next
" -- " string. The sections available are:
- What is the purpose of rec.radio.info?
- Why are messages almost always cross posted to rec.radio.info?
- What is a 'follow-up', and what does 'moderated' mean?
- OK, so now I know what 'moderated' means. Tell me more.
- What type of material is considered inappropriate?
- I do not have access to news, how can I get the information posted to
rec.radio.info?
- Will the material appearing in rec.radio.info be archived somewhere?
- I have a regular posting with timely information, is there a way to speed up it's delivery, or automate for more convenience?

-- What is the purpose of rec.radio.info?

The purpose or charter of rec.radio.info is to provide the Usenet
community with a resource for information, news, and facts about any and all things radio.

All the other rec.radio groups are intended for discussions and general
chit chat about radio. Rec.radio.info will contain informational, factual articles only. Follow-ups are redirected to an appropriate other group, and further discussion (if any) will not take place in
rec.radio.info.

In order to ensure that rec.radio.info contains only appropriate articles, it was decided to create the group as a moderated newsgroup.

-- Why are messages almost always cross posted to rec.radio.info?

It provides a "tag" for each article to be assembled into a filtered presentation in rec.radio.info (even with cross-posting, only one message, with a unique Message-ID, is propagated across the net). This tag also facilitates a pre-existing method of dropping or canceling the articles locally within the discussion groups if you don't want to see them. This accommodates individuals who want to separate the bulletins from the discussions, discussions from the bulletins, as well as those who are adamant about not reading another newsgroup and wanted to see everything all in one basket.

With the total size of Usenet (in number of newsgroups and total traffic) doubling every year or so, this is no insignificant contribution to reducing information noise and chaos. Making the discussion groups a catch-all, and making extra newsgroups filters on that catch-all, is also the most realistic way to implement such a scheme (It's not intuitively obvious what the charter, contents, and general appropriate topics for each and every newsgroup are. Seeing FAQ's and charter/intro postings in the home newsgroup is beneficial for new readers).

By cross-posting one only is adding a few tens of bytes to each bulletin (to specify the extra group on the Newsgroups line), but are adding the capability for very powerful filtering features available on most news servers, listservers and readers. Your local news guru could probably explain these features in more detail.

/Newsgroups:.*[,]rec\.radio\.info/h:j

either in ~/News/KILL (if you don't want to see rec.radio.info articles anywhere) or ~/News/rec/radio/amateur/misc/KILL (if you don't want to see them just in rec.radio.amateur.misc). The latter method means your kill file will only be consulted during rec.radio.amateur.misc (and hence runs more efficiently), and will probably work for most people.

In nn, according to Bill Wohler in his nn FAQ, add a line of the form:

rec.radio.info:!s/:^

in ~/.nn/kill (if you don't want to see rec.radio.info articles anywhere), or put the following lines:

sequence
rec.radio.info
rec.radio.

at the end of ~/.nn/init in order to see all the rec.radio.info bulletins first, then read the remaining rec.radio.* without the bulletins.

-- What is a 'follow-up', and what does 'moderated' mean?

If you are new to Usenet and are not familiar with the terminology, you might want to read the general introductory articles found in the newsgroup news.announce.newusers. Doing so will make your life on the net much easier, and will probably save you from making silly beginner's mistakes.

If you think that at this moment you are reading an echo, a conference, or a bulletin board, I'd also strongly suggest a trip over to news.announce.newusers.

For the rest of this article, we will assume you have a basic knowledge of Usenet terminology and mechanics.

A moderated group means that any article that needs to be posted to the group has to be accepted by the moderator of the group. Since we need to ensure that followups to an article (discussion) do not show up in the rec.radio.info newsgroup, the `Followup-To:' header line contains a newsgroup that is appropriate for discussions about the specific article.

-- OK, so now I know what 'moderated' means. Tell me more.

Rec.radio.info is a moderated newsgroup, which means that all articles submitted to the group will have to be approved by the moderator first.

The current moderator of the group is the rec.radio.amateur.moderated Moderation Team. Submissions to rec.radio.info can be posted, or e-mailed to:

rec-radio-info@panix.com

Comments, criticisms, suggestions or questions about the group can be e-mailed to:

rec-radio-info-request@panix.com

But before you do so, please be sure to check out the "Posting Guidelines" article.

The influence of the moderator should be minimal and of an administrative nature, consisting chiefly of weeding out obviously inappropriate articles, while making sure correct headers etc. are used for the appropriate ones.

-- What type of material is considered inappropriate?

There are three broad categories of articles which will be rejected by the moderator:

1) Requests for information: rec.radio.info is strictly a one-way street. We receive information in our mailbox; we then post it to rec.radio.info. Requests for specific information belong in the normal discussion newsgroups. If your request gets answered, you might consider passing the answer on to rec.radio.info, though. Especially if you can edit it into a informational, rather than a discussion, format.

2) Obvious discussion articles, or articles that appear unsubstantiated.

3) Commercial stuff: a relatively unbiased test of a radio product would be accepted, but any hint of for-profit might be reason for rejection. For three reasons: This is not the purpose of the list, for-profit is a controversial topic, and this list may be passed onto Amateur Packet Radio (where for-profit is prohibited except under certain provisos).

Similarly, copyrighted material generally cannot be used. If it's TRULY worthwhile to the net, We would recommend obtaining permission from the copyright holder. Please note the source, and if permission was given. We reserve the right to make the final decision concerning appropriateness in all situations. In most cases, a brief summary of, or pointer to, the copyrighted information may be all we can allow.

-- I do not have access to news, how can I get the information posted to rec.radio.info?

Google has an excellent web interface to Usenet newsgroups. It is available at:

http://groups.google.com

It supports both reading and posting.

-- Will the material appearing in rec.radio.info be archived somewhere?

Yes. See Google Groups above.

Effectively this means that anything you post to rec.radio.info will be permanently stored, so your work will not be lost.

-- I have a regular posting with timely information, is there a way to speed up it's delivery, or automate for more convenience?

Yes, there is! It may take a bit of chatter with the moderator, but we are willing to take responsible people and provide them the means of posting the articles directly from their site. We will try everything we can as we fully realize that DX (distant signal) and astronomical data can be somewhat transitory. We are also willing to allow regular posters of information the same courtesy, even if the information is not as time critical.

We refer to this as self-moderation, which is partly based on the model for rec.answers/news.answers. This requires co-operation and goodwill to be beneficial to the community in the rec.radio hierarchy.

Please direct any comments, questions, or criticisms about this article to rec-radio-info-request@panix.com.

 rec.radio.info - Posting Guidelines and Etiquette ***

Two introductory articles about rec.radio.info are posted to this group and to rec.answers/news.answers every month. You are now reading the second article, which explains how to submit something to rec.radio.info, and which answers some Frequently Asked Questions about the submission process. The first article is titled "Welcome to rec.radio.info", and it might be a good idea to check it out as well.

-- How do I submit something to rec.radio.info?

Two possibilities. You can use your newsreading software to just post
the article to rec.radio.info, as you would do with any other newsgroup. The difference is that the software recognizes the special status of rec.radio.info as a moderated group, and will e-mail your article to us, the moderation team, instead of posting it to the group.

Alternatively, you can mail your article directly to us at the following address:

rec-radio-info@panix.com

Mailing us directly is probably (a wee bit) faster, but using the transparency offered by the newsreading software is probably more convenient.

If you have any questions, or wish to deal with some administrivia with the moderation team, we suggest mailing to the following address:

rec-radio-info-request@panix.com

-- How soon will I see my article appear?

It depends on how busy we are. Your article reaches us as mail, we have to read it first, give it the stamp of approval, and finally send it on to the group. We will attempt to read and decide on all submissions within 72 hours at the very least, though we will probably be able to process submissions much faster in actual practice.

The site from which we moderate this newsgroup, "Public Access Internet and Unix, NYC" (Panix), is directly connected to the Internet, and

articles posted at that site should appear at most major news sites, including Google Groups, the same day. The principal delay, therefore, will be the wait in the moderator's submission queue.

If you post a periodic article, and have shown to be trustworthy, we may allow you to post directly if the article is of a timely nature. See the section below on direct posting.

-- Should my article be in a specific format?

No. If it is not totally illegible, we will accept it, and if it does not have a correct subject-line we will correct it with your permission -- that's what a moderator is for.

However.

You could do us a big favor by making sure your article conforms to these simple requirements:

1) The article must present information, not discussion or requests, We will reject the article or require you to change the wording if it is worth it.
2) A good, descriptive Subject line.
3) Always mention what source you got the information from.
4) Don't forget to include a Followup-To header, at least if you don't want further discussion to automatically be forwarded to you, the poster, which is the default if the article is only posted to rec.radio.info.

As we said: if your article is appropriate we will post it even if you don't follow these guidelines, but then don't blame us for not processing it immediately. 'Perfect' articles we can send on with a couple of keystrokes. Stuff that needs minor editing is going to have to wait until we have time to do so.

Please do not waste both our and your time by posting requests, as this is an information only news group.

-- What about crossposting?

If you send something to rec.radio.info, just name any group you'd like to cross-post to in the Newsgroups field. Then, when we approve the article for rec.radio.info it will get automatically cross-posted to any other groups mentioned. This will also override the default Followup-To: poster, replacing it with the groups you cross posted to.

We would prefer if the group be cross-posted to the various discussion groups in the rec.radio.* hierarchy that are appropriate:

rec.radio.amateur.misc Amateur (ham) radio and related matters
rec.radio.amateur.packet Amateur Packet Radio discussions
rec.radio.amateur.policy Amateur Radio practices, rules, etc.
rec.radio.noncomm Non commercial radio discussions
rec.radio.shortwave International broadcasting on the 'HF' bands

rec.radio.cb Citizens Band (27 MHz) discussion
rec.radio.scanner Scanner discussions (unsupported group)

or in one of the moderated groups:

rec.radio.amateur.moderated Amateur radio practices, rules, etc.
rec.radio.broadcasting Discussion of domestic radio broadcasting

We will leave it up to the poster to decide which group(s) are appropriate, but reserve the right to add groups if we feel it has broader interest. We will consult with the poster first.

Notes on crossposting:

- rec.radio.broadcasting is also a moderated group. The rec.radio.broadcasting moderator prefers to review all articles himself before posting. Placing rec.radio.broadcasting before rec.radio.info on the Newsgroups line should accomplish this. We will typically abide by the rec.radio.broadcasting moderator's decision whether the article is appropriate for rec.radio.info.

- rec.radio.amateur.moderated is also a moderated group. As the rec.radio.amateur.moderated Moderation Team manages both rec.radio.amateur.moderated and rec.radio.info, we can manage crossposting and approvals for both newsgroups. The rec.radio.amateur.moderated group does not allow crossposting to other discussion newsgroups, whether moderated or unmoderated. However, we would like to manage rec.radio.info as consistently as possible with how it was done by previous moderators, including the grandfathering of existing regular postings. Therefore, the submitter can choose rec.radio.amateur.moderated or the other unmoderated rec.radio.amateur.* discussion newsgroups for crossposting, but not both.

- Any FAQ or informational posting approved by the rec.answers/news.answers moderation team that is also crossposted to any rec.radio.* newsgroup (besides just rec.radio.info) is also automatically pre-approved for rec.radio.info. See below for more information.

If you post to another moderated group, it may be better to make special arrangements with both moderators before posting by contacting us at our administrivia addresses.

In addition, cross-posts do not take up extra space; modern newsreaders can be configured to show you cross-posted articles only once anyway; not everybody reads rec.radio.info; and rec.radio.info was never meant to reduce the volume of the regular discussion newsgroups. But keep in mind that some of the mail gateways may filter out the informational postings (at request of the subscribers) to keep the load down.

You decide.

-- I have a regular posting with timely information, can I make arrangements to help speed up delivery by posting directly from my site?

Yes, there is! It may take a bit of chatter with the moderator, but we are willing to take responsible people and provide them the means of posting the articles directly from their site. We will try everything we can as we fully realize that DX (distant signal) and astronomical data can be somewhat transitory. We are also willing to allow regular posters of information the same courtesy, even if the information is not as timely.

If you are currently maintaining (or plan to maintain) a radio-related periodic information posting, you may wish to consider crossposting it to rec.answers/news.answers. Postings that are approved by the rec.answers/news.answers moderators for this treatment are automatically pre-approved for crossposting to rec.radio.info (as the news.answers requirements are far more rigorous than the requirements this newsgroup ever plans to use). For more information about this option, consult the appropriate information articles and posting guidelines in rec.answers/news.answers.

Realize also, that even if your post is not approved for rec.answers/news.answers, it can still be approved for rec.radio.info. The intention is not so much to get every last bit of radio-related information on rec.answers/news.answers, but rather to provide an alternative avenue of approval (as well as grandfather existing maintainers of radio-related information and spare them additional bureaucratic hurdles). Again, crossposting to either rec.radio.info or rec.answers/news.answers, both, or neither, is at the discretion of the poster (subject to the approval of the moderators). You decide what is most appropriate for your article.

Please remember that as an information maintainer, you are not alone. There are many others on the net who maintain and post periodic information postings, using various intermediate-to-advanced features of Usenet (usually via automated tools). Various degrees of technical support and general hand-holding are available from many Usenet veterans. Send us some E-mail describing your needs to our administrative address below, and we'll try to help, or at least refer you to the right knowledgeable individual(s).

-- And Follow-ups?

If the only newsgroup you have specified is rec.radio.info, then the Followup-To: field will always be set to poster. If you do not want this, you must supply a Followup-To line of your own, and we will honor that one, as long as it is a subset of the original Newsgroups line.

If you specify newsgroups to cross-post to, then the Followup-To field will be set to include all the cross-posted groups, excepting rec.radio.info itself. Again, if you do not wish this behavior, supply your own Followup-To line.

We maintain other standards on the various RFC-1036 (news transport) header lines. For example, if the article is appropriate for passing into the Packet Radio Information Network, we encapsulate the Packet Bulletin Identifier (BID) in the Message-ID: news header line indicating the machine of origin as the ampr.org domain:

Message-ID: <$opa.55.1994@ampr.org>

where the Packet Radio BID, in this example, is `$OPA.55', and it was posted in the year 1994, because some of the Bid numbers are cycled yearly. Hopefully, this can be used as a key to re-introduce the articles for the Packet Radio network. Also, if the article is a repost of an already existing information article in the rec.radio heirarchy, we ensure that the References: header line is linked to that previously posted article. This also helps to tag articles, and may be used for additional filtering if needed.

Since the articles are archived, please use the Summary and Keywords header lines to help one search for your article.

-- Why have I received no reply from you?

We never reject anything in silence, and we make a point of it to answer all our mail. However, E-mail, like a brain cell, can and does get lost, every now and again.

So, if you send us something, and you don't see it appear it rec.radio.info, and you still have not heard from us in reply after say, five days, you can be pretty sure that either your mail never reached us, or that our answer has never reached you. In that case, please try again (We will filter out duplicates).

Hmmm. When a scanner lists frequencies like "25-54, 108-174, 216-225, 400-512, 806-956, 1240-1300 MHz Coverage" does that mean it will not receive frequencies in the 250-388mhz range? The range I'm looking for?

It seems most handhelds have this particular gap.

Thats why your 'LIST' will shrink.

usually only the higher end scanners, have 'full coverage" (all legal frequencies).

Uniden BR330T
.1MHz - 1.3GHz Coverage* - *Excluding Cellular

TrunkTracker III - EDACS, MOTOROLA, E.F. JOHNSON

2500 Dynamically Allocated Channels

But no digital.

i have it now! New, $70 on ebay. What are some good freqs for Austin? Most of the lists online that I've seen are very old or difficult to understand.

What are some freqs that you could recommend for Travis County/Austin Police and EMS?

Are these "trunked" if so, do I need to put them in my scanner a special way?

Thx from the newbie. :)

I just got a Bearcat BC250D with digital card from Ebay. Thought I was getting the most modern equipment but with rebanding (just heard about it) now I'm not so sure. I also thought that being computer programmable setup would be simple..wrong...not for me anyway. I've tried the radio reference site(seems to be most up to date) and I've tried the bearcat sites to download files to program in. I'm trying to get Apopka PD(digital) and I get nothing. I have no idea what DEC or HEX means or what to do with that info.
I also have no idea how to "Import" the .pdf files into either E-Scanner Plus or ARC250 Basic. I'm getting very discouraged, I don't know whether it's my lack of progrramming skills or if the radio is obsolete.
Can anyone help me or better yet send a ready made file for the Central Florida Area or even a link to "Scanner Programming for the Inept" ?
Thanks In Advance,
Helpless In Apopka

Find a local scanner group and take your radio to the meeting. You have to know something, the 250D will not decode all the currently used digital baud rates. That's one of the reasons it's been discontinued for some time now.

What you should have done is find the group or local expert first, and then buy the right radio. You can always ebay the 250D, if you have to.

We all screw up in the beginning. Live and learn.

There are only two digital handhelds worth buying right now, used or new, the RS Pro-96, and the Uniden 396T. That's my opinion, and they are the only models currently available. I went with the PRO-96 for several reasons, better audio, easier programming, and an intimate knowledge of past Uniden quality control issues on previous models. Some of them amazingly poorly put together. I fixed a lot of Unidens with speaker wires not soldered, and a few had major soldering issues. I got all but one going, and used several parts from it to fix other ones.

I just want him to avoid what some friends of mine went through when starting out. They had no idea what they needed, and a couple of them went out and bought used scanners without 800MHZ, right before the city switched over, so they had to sell them, and then buy the only trunk tracking handhelds at the time, the Uniden BC235 and it's RS clone, the Pro-90 (I think that was the model number), and start over. I was able to help them out, after the frustration kicked in and one guy, without telling me, just listened in normal untrunked mode for years until the radio fell down the stairs and he had to buy a new one. He was amazed when his new Pro-95 was up and trunking in about 10 minutes, after I cloned it over to my PC, added a few things I didn't have, and loaded it up. He's pretty much an expert now. He has a Pro-96, a Uniden 396, and two Pro-2096's, one for home and one for work. His wife, who thought scanners were "stupid" got hooked after a couple of big chases came over the radio, and that was that, she's a ham now.

Same goes for shortwave radio. I had gotten into it again in the mid 80's and had moved up to pretty high end stuff at that point. A friend I don't see often had bought junky portable after portable over the years, and never really was happy with them. They didn't last long, so he kept buying them, never with SSB (he didn't understand it at all), and then one day he comes over for help with a mike for his CB he bought and couldn't get wired up. He sees my stuff and is mesmerized. Next thing you know, he's buying all kinds of receivers, decoders (Fax and RTTY, not much out there to decode anymore)antennas, etc. He went from a junk portable to a 1100 buck receiver in one day, and soon had an entire room full of nice stuff. All it takes is being in the right place at the right time. I got hooked at Universal Radio in 1984. Before that, I had a series of fair to poor portables, never happy with them at all. I've had one of my SW radios for over 20 years now.

Thanks BD,
I guess I'll try re-listing my radio on Ebay. The way it was being bid on when I "won" it maybe I'll get most of my money back. I do feel a little guilty doing that but maybe whoever bids on it won't be bidding blindly like I was. I remember several years ago this radio was the hot new one to have. I guess the radio biz changes quickly, somewhat like computers. Would you happen to know where I might find a side by side comparison of the Pro96 & BCD396T? I really want to get back into listening to the scanner again but haven't done it since my old Pro-62 became obsolete. Radio Shack currently has the Pro96 on sale for $399 but now I'm leary of making another expensive mistake. You seem well informed about the radio biz. Do you happen to know if major changes are on the horizon for the Central Florida Area?
Apopka(which is one I'm trying to receive) is the only city around that is digital other than Winter Park(Encrypted digital) But I'd like to be able to also hear Orange County S.O. and Seminole County S.O. Any help/info you could share would be greatly appreciated.
Thanks Again
PJT

Well, I've done a bit of driving around the area, ableit with the whip on the antenna. I think I've traced the source to a number of antennae on top of a nearby tower block. Parked underneath it there is very little signal, however within direct sight of these antennae there is a continuous high-pitched tone. As I move further away from this in any direction this gets weaker and eventually peters out. The broken sound I recorded still exists over most of the region when the continuous tone is unnoticeable.

I'm going to put the problems down to something on top of this block. There are mobile phone transmitters on there, that I know, and another long whip which could be UHF or VHF. I haven't looked into what effect this is having on FM or AM radio so I will have another trip up there soon. However it doesn't affect me from the flat. I also made a point of driving near a number of mobile transmitters and they don't have an effect on the scanner.

I've got an airband filter on order, hopefully this might clear up some of the noise but whatever it is I guess won't be completely legitimate...

I wonder if they have the same source then.

It's good to eliminate possibilities too.

If it it an image response by your receiver that should work.

A dipole is a directional antenna. Not as directional as some but a dipole is easy to make. At 130 MHz a half wave dipole would be a little more than a meter long.
But I hope the filter works for you.

Well, you really need to talk to one of the local scanner groups, they will have all the info you need. I really can't tell you anymore about your area than what is in the database section of www.radioreference.com. Someone living 1000 miles away just can't have 25% of the info the locals have. There are people here that know what's going to happen years ahead of time.

I don't think there is a side by side 396T/Pro-96 review, but a search on Pro-96 reviews will probably come up with one. I think one guy tested them separately and didn't like either one, saying they were deaf. I haven't seen any problems with either radio being deaf at all.

I wish I had better answers for you but you'll do better looking locally for help..

I retired and moved from Ca. to the Philippines!

I have a great SW LW slopper with an "L" and it works great!

I am ready to work on the scanners (BC895/245) and need to think of some options for antennas.

The people around here think I am a spy now with the short wave antenna (for sure) if I put up a dipole they are going to go nuts for sure so I need to know what other antenna I can put up.

About the only thing I will be able to understand will be the planes coming into Manila and maybe a American ship with work radios or American aircraft carrier working in the area and maybe something from the US Embassy.

Will a Long Wire work on a scanner? you guys tell me what I can put up that doesn't look to wild!!!

No they will not. Many people there use a large antenna to get broadband. No one would think twice about a huge antenna.

Abilene Reporter News

Public has almost no access to new police radios

By Blanca Cantu / cantub@reporternews.com
March 27, 2007

A new police and fire communications system designed to help emergency crews stay in touch also means the news media has less access to information about incidents affecting the public.

Abilene police and fire departments recently ditched an 18-year-old dispatch system for a new $14 million system that has better encryption capabilities and keeps many of the conversations people using police scanners are accustomed to hearing off the air. Police and fire officials began using the new system this month.

New radios purchased by the Reporter-News, KTXS-TV, KRBC-TV and KTAB-TV that can pick up transmissions from the new system were programmed by the city's communication services department. Abilene media can listen to a police and fire dispatch channel and eight tactical fire channels.

Before the city upgraded its communication system, the media and the public could hear police and dispatchers chatter on multiple channels. Now, the media has limited access - but the public has almost none. Traditional police scanners cannot pick up transmissions on the new system, meaning it must rely more on the media to report police and fire news at a time when less information is available to the media on police radios.

Jim Berry, assistant chief of the Abilene Police Department, said the media no longer has access to the police service channels because the department decided ''it's best for operations.'' Service channels are used when officers in the field ask dispatchers to make a call for them or check a license plate number.

Berry said the media's inaccessibility to the service channels helps the department comply with an agreement the department has with the Texas Department of Public Safety.

Information transmitted over the service channel can contain information extracted from DPS' Texas Law Enforcement Telecommunication system - and that is not public information, he said.

''As a law enforcement officer, I cannot provide you with any information that comes out of the TLET system,'' Berry said. ''Due to the nature of police operations, there is information and communications that you should not have access to.''

Berry, representatives of the fire department and the media met last year to discuss radio accessibility. Berry said in the interest of maintaining a good relationship with the media, the police department granted the media access to the primary dispatch channel for patrol.

''We felt like that would meet your needs,'' Berry said. The agreement was more than media in Wichita Falls initially received (see below).

At last year's meeting in Abilene, Scott Martin, chief photographer for KTXS, said he asked for more access. But his request was denied.

News director Iain Munro said KTXS would like to have access to all channels so that his staff can hear everything and judge things more clearly.

''The last thing we want to do is get in the way of the police force doing their job,'' Munro said.

The news station's photographers were concerned they wouldn't hear certain things, he said. Not hearing chatter over the scanner forces more calls to dispatchers, further tying up the lines of communication.

''We want to be able to cover the story and do it so we're not interfering with the police officers' jobs,'' Munro said.

Tom Vodak, news director for KRBC and KTAB, said the change in access to police and fire communications hasn't affected the stations' news coverage.

Is there a basis for complaints?

Joe Larsen, board member of the Freedom of Information Foundation of Texas, said media outlets can't argue for more access to police chatter on the basis of the Texas Public Information Act.

''Access has to rest on a statute or the Constitution,'' Larsen said. ''There is no statute that gives you access to a police scanner.''

When the Wichita Falls Police Department in 2005 upgraded from traditional police radios that many people could hear with a police scanner to the same digital radio system Abilene is using, it left the media and the public in the dark and denied them access to all police communication.

Two months later, the police department and the media in Wichita Falls came to an agreement that allowed the media to listen to fire and general police traffic, according to the Times Record News. The Times Record News is owned by The E.W. Scripps Company, parent company of the Reporter-News.

Abilene Assistant Police Chief Jim Berry said the decision to allow the media to listen in on police dispatch calls would be in the best interests of both the department and the media so that the good relationship they have established with each other could be maintained.

How do police communicate?

Abilene Police Department officers use about 25 ''talk groups'' when they use their radios to talk to each other. A combination of digital and traditional analog transmissions can be heard on police scanners.

Each police radio is programmed with a particular ''personality.'' Radio personalities have access to specific talk groups. Each channel on the dial represents different talk groups. Talk groups are accessible by officers in particular departments. For example, detectives in the Criminal Investigation Division have multiple talk groups that are not available to every police officer. Detectives, patrol officers and other divisions have their own groups.

Well it is not totally clear from the article- are they encrypting all but a few talkgroups? If that is the case it certainly is one of the more restrictive public safety radio systems around.

I read it a couple of times and I can't tell if they think digital is encrypted, or it really is encrypted. www.radioreference.com would have the info, if I could figure out what county Abilene is in.

423. Good antenna for Uniden BR330T?

I have a Uniden BR330T. I have the stock antenna, the Radio Shack 20-283 800MHZ Antenna, and the Radio Shack 20-034 Deluxe Antenna for Handheld Scanner. They all seem to give the same reception. Tons of working channels no not seem to be picking up, including local prisons. The weird part is, I don't know in this case if it's just the prison, but when I am down the street, from the prison, I can pick them up if the squelch is like 2 but it's like they are extremly far away but yet I can pick up an even further prison that comes in even clearer. How can that be?

Is there some other better mobile antenna for the Uniden BR330T? I don't really want to get the 20-006 Center-Loaded Telescoping Whip Antenna because it's a monster to carry around especially if you carry a mobile scanner in your coat pocket. Tons of frequencies will not pick up unless the squelch is down to 2. If it's 0 or 1, every channel just starts coming through.

Thanks for any suggestions.

I know where Abilene is, but I can't seem to find the county, and without the county, radioreference is pretty useless.

My best advise is to find a local scanner group in the area, they can get you all set up.

Looks like an EDACS Pro-voice system which needless to say there isn't a scanner on the market to monitor that type of system. They have that here in Johnston County, NC.

Family there. Have pictures of it when they were putting up the mast for their broadband. Was quite a thing to see. Guy climbed up the mast made out of 1" pipe using his bare feet to climb. It did have all the people passing the fun part. If the original poster has not heard or seen this then they

RR is great for info but often is WAYYYY behind on changes. The system here changed a couple years ago and RR still does not have the info right. A couple people I know of tried to get them to update it, but it still shows the wrong info. So they may or may not have the right info.

Call To Arms, means, you will inspect your weaponry and prepare to do battle. Duty Stations, means, all men and women must assume their duty stations, weapons at the ready. Fire When Ready, means, man or woman your weapons, sight the target, finger the trigger, and fire when ready. Cease Fire Procola, means, continue fireing until the enemy targets are dispatched, and there is no sight of an enemy anywhere on the horizon. Procolas means, after ending all possiblities of any lingering survivors staying alive. It means to wipe them out, and leave no survivors.

This means, it is time to kill all Lesbianists, and all other enemies in my universe, the many groups of naughty kids in my universe, rascaleers and others, and we will continue this fight, untill they are all dead, and in my Epcot Centers, or untill they have surrendered. Rascaleers are evil people who wish only to harm others.

Religious Practices

This is a little confusing, but hold on, and I'll try to explain it. There are many parts to my religion. We call them, parts, but we can also call them, practices, some of them, but not all of them.

We have the fundamental 'root' practice, which is sexaling. From the root practice, comes all other practices.

There are side practices, and there are derived practices. There are also, accompanying practices. There are many other types of practices, but I don't remember the names for them all, right now, as I'm still amnesiatic, and will be for a long time.

Fistiker Practice

Bringing about orgasming in another person is a fistiker practice. A fistiker practice is a side practice, but it is also something a little different from a side practice, depending on how you bring the orgasming about, and depending on how many people are involved, and depending on who is the primary person, the person whom we are working on, and who are the helping people, the people who are joined together, to help the primary person to orgasm. There are a number of other dependencies as well.

What Is A Dependency?

A dependency is some thing that is needed that will help to define something else.

As in the case of an accident victim, we have a crutch to define one level of severity of an accident victim's situation. But we might also have a wheel chair to define another level of severity for the same, or other, accident victim. These objects help to determine how badly or miserably a person is injured.

A crutch can help define a level of severity in the injury. A wheel chair can help also to define a higher level of severity. These are both dependencies. They help us to define something, and they are used to help us to define an accident victim's level of severe injuries.

When Sexaling

You can use your lips, for example, or your tounge to twiddle the toes of a woman, and the woman begins to orgasm. That twiddleing of your tounge on her toes to help her to erotem, and to experience erotistical orgasming, can be any number of things, depending on the involvement and complexities of dependencies.

Rubbing the vaginal face, the vaginal wall, or rubbing to either side of the vaginal crevice, the labial folds or felates, can help a woman to erotem and erotistically orgasm, and depending on the involvement and complexities of dependencies, the dependencies can be any number of things, if we try to define the sexaling activity more fully and completely.

We'll skip this for now, as it is a little too difficult to remember, right now. Just remember, the primary practice is sexaling, and that sexaling is like the roots of a tree. All other religious practices grow out of the 'roots' of the tree, sexaling, and can be defined in many different ways, such as a helping practice, a side practice, a subsidiary practice, a canceling out practice, an accompanying practice, and there are many many other terms for what kind of practice some thing is, depending on what dependencies are involved.

Labia And Felate

What is the difference between a felate and a labia?

A felate is the skin tissue of the outer surface, and some of the tissue of the tips and edges of the labia. It does not include the inner side of the labia, but only the outer side, and the surrounding edges, as far as I can remember.

A verb, or action word, as I call it, is 'felate' as in 'Felate that woman's or girls' left felate'. That means to suckle on the left felate of the woman or girl.

Felate is a verb, but it is also a 'nominal' word, or naming word for objectifying an object.

Do we say 'Labialize that woman's felate!' To labialize something is to make something into a labia. We wouldn't, unless we were a doctor, say that about a felate. But we might say it if we were doctors, and we had a woman who met with a bear, and the bare clawed at her genitals, and the sharp claws ripped her labial skin up, then we might say in a surgeon's room 'Labialize that woman's ripped up labia.' That would mean to stitch it up, and make it nice and neat, and clean and well stitched up, and then useful to her, again, and it would involve a lot of surgery, as many nerves would need to be connected, as they had been ripped apart, and the wiring was all dislocated. But in the end, we would be able to fix her labia, and her genitals, if they were also hurt, and then we could dismiss the patient from the hospital, after the labia healed, and after she recovered from her trauma of having her labia shredded by an impolite, rude, mean, uncaring, and hungry bear.

Genitals, Titties, The Labia, And The Many Sexaling Organs

The labia is not the genitals, but some people do consider them as a part of the genitals. The genitals are inside the woman's vagina, in my way of thinking. The vaginal wall is not part of the genitals. The vaginal orifice is part of the genitals of a woman. This seems odd, doesn't it. Well, that is how it works, in my brain, and I designed women, as well as men. If you notice, in my writings, I've talked about the draft table, and the throttle. These are major parts of a woman's genitals. They are inside the vagina, and you can reach them through the vaginal orifice. Before you get inside of the vaginal orifice, there are a few things outside, such as a pee tube, and an ejaculate tube, and the clitoris, as well as the labia. These are not part of the genitals, but are working parts of her sexaling organs. A woman's or girls' sexaling organs are not equal to her genitals. Genitals are for baby making, and for other purposes. Titties are not part of the genitals, but they are part of the womans' sexaling organs. This will require a long discussion to clear up, so I will save it for another day.

Bears In The Woods

That's the way it happens some times, when women or girls go out into the woods, and sexal with their female friends. They can get hurt by bears, if they are not accompanied by men, who are tough, and strong, and who stay alert, to guard and watch out for dangerous animals, such as bears, wolves, cayotes, bobcats, puma, and even racoons. Racoons do attack humans, if they smell some thing that will taste good to the racoon. If a person has a skin tear, and is bleeding, even a tiny bit, the racoon will smell it, and come running, and then find the person, and so will panthers, and all kinds of animals will come, and it's just like a bunch of sharks and fishes of different kinds, and Moray Eels, they like the smell of blood, and they come and investigate, when they smell it.

Women and girls have periods, and it is not every twenty eight days, as I've explained about before, and blood runs down, out of their vagina, and they generally do not know it, as it is only a tiny drop of blood, or less, most of the time, and the blood is often wiped from the skin surface, when the woman or girl is on the potty, or toilet, and the woman or girl will not even see the tiny drop of blood that comes out of the vagina and drips down the labia, on the inside, and then falls or dribbles down to the felates, and then falls off the felates, while she is on the toilet into the toilet, or while she is out doors, and walking about, onto the earth, if the woman is walking on a park walkway, or bicycle path. If she is wearing underwear, it will not fall onto the earth, but it will dry up on the panties, or underwear, and the smell of the dried blood will attract wild animals if she is out doors, walking or jogging in a wooded or regional or rural area, where there are lots of, or even just a few, animals.

Pumas can smell the blood, from miles away, and so can tiny oselots, and bears, and many animals can. They can smell blood, because they know they need meat to survive. That is built into their brains, that are located throughout their bodies, and not only in the skull, and animals are very sensitive to the smell of blood, as well as to the smell of urine, and to the smell of poop. Some animals, such as racoons, will come up from behind a woman, and grasp at her panties, as the racoon may smell the odors of fecal matter, from her butthole. Men may be raked by the claws of raccoons from behind, as they smell the odors of fecal matter, and try to find out more about it, as the racoons know that there is something delicious hiding behind those odors from the buttholes of women, girls, men, and boys.

Expecate

When women and girls go out hiking, it is best to wash out the vagina, first, and then use a fermented oil, as a douching agent. The oil will help to slow the flow of the blood down the inner walls of the vagina, and it may help to trap the blood, and make it difficult for it to leak out, unless the amount of the flow of blood, is very large. In that case, it is best to stay home, and not go out, when a large amount of blood is expecated from the vagina. Expecated means to expell outwardsly. Expectate can also be used, as it is generally the same word, that is, and it also has generally the same meaning, but perhaps it has a few more uses, maybe, but it is from a variant language of the English language, and is basically the same word.

You should expecate your fluids in your vagina, from your vagina, before you go out hiking. If you know when your period is, and there are ways to tell when you have a period, or when you know when you are about to have a period, than if you normally have a large amount of blood flow from your vagina, as that has been your experience, it is probably best to go and sunbath at the beach, far away from wild animals and their habitats, or by the pool side. Racoons sometimes come out of the woods, to the shores of beaches, and trumbel along, listening and watching, and sniffing the air, when they smell dried blood, or wet or moiste blood, inside of the swim suit lining in the groinal area.

How Do You Tell When Your Period Is?

To learn when your period is, you need to look into the toilet bowl that you pee into, and then see if there is any red droplets. You can place a piece of toilet paper onto the surface of the water, and it might help to show the redish color mixing with the urine.

Another way is to take a piece of toilet tissue paper, and wipe your felates, in the morning, or during the day, or at night. Night is a good time, but during the day, it is just as good. Some women like night time because they feel the day is finished, and they are now going to make a final check. Well, it doesn't always happen the way we want things to happen. You might start leaking blood fluids, at two or three or four or five, a.m., or at six, or seven, or eight, or while you are in the shower, or in the bath tub, bathing, before you plan to go out for the day.

It may take you several years for you to find out when your period begins, and when it ends, by checking for blood flow. When you have determined the number of days between one period and the next, and you are absolutely certain of it, and you have confirmed it, many times, and you have checked to see if there might be something you didn't notice, at other times, when you checked, eventually, you'll learn when your blood flow begins, and how long it lasts, and when the next blood flow begins. Once you know, then you can time your excursions to the woods, or to the beach, with your friends, both women and men.

Bears, Wild Animals, And People

Men are needed to help scare bears away, if they come to close, and pepper spray is a good way to get them to leave the area. Bears do not like the small of pepper spray, and you need a cannister of pepper spray that will fire fifty to eighty to one hundred and eighty five feet or more, to scare away a bear, safely.

Loud noises surprise bears, but hungry bears get angry and feel challenged by you, and may come at you at a fast pace, and not stop, once they are angered. If you are a good shot with a rifle, and you see a bear, from a few hundred feet away, and it is moving slowly, towards you, following you, you can shoot it with a good fifty calibur weapon, from that distance, and it will go down, in an instant, if you hit it square in the noggin, about one inch or less above the nose.

You need to be a good shot, and several people should aim, and fire at the same time, to kill the bear, to be sure some one hits it, and then puts it down, and kills it.

Do not think that because you have one rifle, or two handguns, and a rifle, that you are safe. If you do not know how to shoot, and if you are an inexperienced marks woman, or marks man, than your chances of hitting the bear are near zero, for all three of you, at three hundred feed.

You need years of practice to become a good marksmen, and you can start with the lower calbur weapons, to get a feel for weapons that fire projectiles, and that make loud noises.

There is no such thing as a friendly bear, and people think, 'Oh, look! Isn't she cute, that bear.' If they think that way, they might as well have left their last will and testament behind, and signed all their assets over to another person.

Bears are animals that need to eat just as humans do, and just as all animals do. If you are so foolish to think that bears are cute, you are a lame brained idiot. Bears are dangerous animals. And so are all wild animals. If you think a racoon is a cute animal, you get the lame brained award for the year award, and trophy to sit on your desk at home to remind you of how stupid you are.

Brad Pitt, And Angelina Joline

Only idiots would think that wild animals, that eat people, are cute. They need remedial training, as they do not understand that their lives are in danger, every time they walk out the door of their home. Even in the cities, there are nasty people, who smile, and pretend they are your friends, and these same people, such as Hillary Clinton, Brad Pitt, Cheryl Davis, a friend of Brad's, but that's his current girl friend, Angelina Jo-line. She is not a Lesbianist, and Brad pretends to be her friend. He likes to watch her get eaten by bears, my abominant kids, when the Lesbianists feed humans, one at a time, to the bears, or to the crocodile abominant children of mine.

Abominant Elephant Kids

I have carniovorus, human being abominant elephant kids, and they are rude, mean, nasty, and really terrible. They scare people, and then they pick them up with their trunk, and place them on their head, and then they tell them not to move, or they will stample on them, or tromp downwards, and crunch them, painfully, from the foot, to the shin, to the thigh, to the pelvis, to the waiste, to the lower tummy, to the mid section, to the chest, and then the neck, and then the head, finally killing them. They will take a person, pull the person up and lift him or her up into the air with his or her trunk, and then pull the person into his or her mouth, and then crumple up the person, and then spit the person out, and the person is all broken up, and chewed up, with all the bones, broken, in the legs, and in the arms, and in the waiste, pelvis, torso, neck and shoulders, and head.

The Lesbianists use lots of these elephants. They are pretty to look at, but they are mean, and nasty. When strangers see them, they think, 'Oh, what a pretty elephant.' They don't know that the elephant is my abominant kid, and can speak English, as many people recently found out near Africa, in Sri Lanka, and then also in New Guinea.

They were very surprised at the talking elephant. But they didn't know that the Lesbianists had let the Elephant, my abominant kid, lose from the cages that they kept him sealed up in. There were one or two, or maybe eight of them, in Sri Lanka, and eight or nine in New Guinea. Lots of people got eaten up, and killed. The elephants are still lose in New Guinea, but in Sri Lanka, they herded them into the pens, and brought them to New Delhi, to then begin a rampage in New Delhi.

Well, the Lesbianists are doing this, daily, because they feel they have lost this battle, and that they are just wasting time, doing nothing, as they can not get to me. So they want to have a lot of fun. Now they are releasing lots of my abominant kids, in many places, and in New Delhi, Bombay, Sri Lanka, and New Guinea, many people have been hurt and killed by these idiot kids, these abominant elephant kids of mine. The Lesbianists have thousands of animals they want to release, out into the public, in England, in Switzerland, Georgia, South Carolina, Paris, and many other places.

The Lesbianists think they are going to have a lot of laughs watching the abomniant kids of mine, tear people up, and rip them to shreds. They also think that the animals, who are not abominant kids, but are just bizarre animals, that catch people in very large, nets, that have threads as thick as ropes, and that are very sticky, are going to do a lot of wierd and crazy things, no one here on this planet, other than them, have seen. They think they are going to get a lot of laughs when they see the mayhem and havoc, the disruption to society, and frustration on the faces of people who get caught in the nets, and then turned into living mummies sealed up in a type of pulpyish paper so the person can slowly disolve, but stay alive, for up to a year or more. Maybe as long as ten to thirty years, in some cases, and I'm not kidding.

You may think I'm kidding, but I'm not. This began a few days ago, and the Lesbianists are intent on continuing this, for the next few years. Isn't that surprising. I never expected that. They are very strange people, aren't they. They are real sicko's aren't they.

I think you should all go and meet my kids, with a day pass, and ask them about it. Other wise, you might find your self in a very large spider's web.

Labiating A Labia

To labiate is to suckle the labia, and to take one or the other of the labia into the mouth, and tickle it with the tounge, or twist it gently with the lips.

'Labiate that woman's left labia!' 'Felate that womans left felate!' The difference is, labiating is to suckle the entire left labia, inside or under the edge of it, on the inner side, and the edge of it, and the outside of it.

Felateing the felate, is to suckle the edge of the labia, the upper exposed edge. It does not include the labia, in its entirety. Only the upper, protruding skywards, or in which ever direction it is pointing, that portion of it that is extending outwards. If you lift it up between your finger tips, you'll pull up on the entire structure revealing the underside, or the unexposed underside of the labia. There is also the outer side of the labia.

The Felate is the top tip edge of the labia, generally speaking, and it is itself an isolated system, and not part of the labia. It's connected to the labia, but it serves a different function. It droops downwards, to seal out the possiblity of any thing entering the vagina from below, in an upwards moving manner. Bugs can not fly up into the vagina, as the felates prevent them from flying up into it. Without the felates, the vagina would be unprotected. The labia would not protect the vagina, as the labia is merely the skin tissue mass that the felates are attached to, and in an instance of removing a felate from a cadaver, or dead body of a woman, or girl, once the felate is removed, the labia have no closure over the vagina, in most women and girls.

There are exceptions, as we've had many animals in our heritage line. There are many differences when we line up ten women, and inspect their vagina, their felates, and labia, their bumbey pack, as children are encouraged to call the lower hanging sexual organ of the vaginal cape, as it is also called by doctors.

On this planet, the bumbey pack may not be called a vaginal cape, with the inferior texts with unadvanced, primitive, witch doctor level sexual sciences that do not help any one along, such we find with the myth that women and girls have a period every twenty eight days.

That is total nonsense, as I've explained about it, before. The truth is, every few days, to every eight to fifteen days, to even eighteen days, or evern thirty two or fifty five days, depending on where the woman has grown up and where her ancestors have grown up, the number of days between one period and another period can be very dissimilar, from one woman to another woman. Some women have a period every two or three days, or even every day. There is no reason an ovary can not fall, every day, several times a day.

An ovary is so small, no one can see it, without special optical technologies, such as pass through see through technologies, and other optics, and other videoing technologies. A microscope is an out moded, ancient, and novel device, fit for only museum use on display shelfs. It's like an old car of the twenties, or there abouts, or even earlier, of course, depending on how sophisticated it gets. Micron microscopes, the so called, 'electron' microscopes, are a misnomer to begin with, as an 'electron' is not a fictious concept, but no one knows what an electron is, generally speaking except for the Lesbinists.

An electron is a small bit of electrically heated plasma, that you can heat, with the right technologies. It can fit on the tip of a pencil or pen. This is a big joke to the Lesbianists, as are also their jokes about protons, and neutrons, and nuclei, or the so called combined nucleus, as in 'nuclear' family. Nuclear family, is not a 'tight' organization of two persons, and their children.

A nuclear family is a family that has been nuclearized, that is, exposed to radiological salts kiddies, and their radiative or radiological energies. That's another one of the Lesbianists' jokes on all of the scientists who the Lesbianists could get to swallow it.

What Causes A So-Called "Nuclear' Explosion Or Detonation?

A vast number of children are making babies at a very high rate of speed, and the energies that they give off, as they make babies, and then peel off from the area where they made their babies, one after another, as they rocket away, is what causes a nuclear blast. The tummy mommies and tummy daddies are making babies at such a frantic pace, they make millions and billions, and trillions, and more, before you can even send a signal to your eye lid to blink, from your brain part that sends the signal out. The signal will travel just a very short distance across a crupture, not even half way, more like, one or two feet in distance, if we are to look at the size of a crupture as the same size as our current universe. It travels about not even one foot, not even one inch, and not even one millimeter, and not even one millionth of a millimeter, and far smaller than that still, before the parents are already through making babies, and they have retired, and passed on, and several kabillion generations of families, and multiply that by a very large number, and you'll get how many generations of families lived and died, and passed on their DNA to their sons and daughters.

It's a hail storm of erupting magnitude when the tummy mommies and tummy daddies begin making babies, and making their families larger.

It all happens so rapidly, with more than that number of successive generations of families, in less time than the energy pulse will travel down an optic nerve, across a crupture, that very minute or very tiny distance, as I stated above.

That kind of frenetic baby making activity, makes for a lot of heat, as well as, it generates a lot of stresses, and a lot of energies go flying off in all directions, as the sexaling couples experience many nice orgasms and eroticisims, together. Temperatures, their body temperatures, collectively, and the incredibly vast number of movements, which also generate temperatures, by the animals, the tummy mommies, tummy daddies, tummy babies, the relatives, and the many generations of families, go skyrocketing, and the magnitude of numbers, and the intensity of all the activities the animals are busy with, as they make tummy babies, simultaneously, or nearly simultaneously, is of phenomenal proportions. There are also types of animals that we are not familiar with, who are also busy making babies, and they help to account for the brilliance of the light that is generated, along with other types of animals, that also help to account for the brilliance and light, as they are busy baby making, too. There are energies kids of all kinds busy making babies, and that is also a major important factor in the overall sequences of activities, to successful birthing by all the tummy mommies, and it is also important to help to get them all 'gyrated' or motivated, and to wake every one up from their slumber, or their condition of deep sleep, or stagnassis, to get them feeling alive, ready, and able for making lots of babies.

If we slow them all down, to our pace, and then compare them to our pace of life, they would be just like us, and things would move slowly for them, and not much would change, for many kazillions plus years, and then many, many more years.

However, they are moving so much faster than we are, and the length of time they live, to them, it is a long time, four or five, or eight or nine hundred years, in our time, maybe, in some cases, depending on the type of radiological salts kiddies and other types of animals, including the energies animals, who are all making babies.

On their scale or pace of life, they live that long. But on our scale, the length of time they live, is so tiny, we can not measure it, unless we have a very high level of advanced mathmatics that can account for such a small time period, or span of life.

Anyway, the frenetic adventures of the colonies of radiological animals, when they start to make babies, after they are woken up, and prompted to make babies, with a detonating surge of heat energies, light wave energies, pressures energies, trampolining energies, zespertudial energies, castikilial energies kiddies, and other types of energies kiddies, as well, which help get them all started, with the right combination, of heat, light, atmospheric temperatures, atmospheric pressures, food sources avaiability, drinking water availablity, trampolining energies, and a number of other types of energies, that awaken them, and then get them turned on, and sexaly active, they will suddenly erupt into a frenetic, mass of baby making furor, to us, any way, and with that, we have our so called, 'nuclear' detonation.

Cleansing Your Self With Your 'Built-In' And 'Attached', Cleansing And Washing, Clearifying And Erasing Energies Producing Genitals And Sexaling Systems, Eroteming And Orgasming Nervous Systems, And Baby Making Related Purifying Energies Generation Stations Aparati, Or Apparatuses, And Armatures

You women and girls, your vagina is your Holy instrument for assisting you to cleanse your self, and wash away the dirt and grime of daily living, the insults to you from strangers, the verbal abuse you experience in your arguments and conversations with friends and family, neighbors, relatives, work associates, and community acquaintances.

Your holy body, and your normal body are weapons to fight back against all the negativities you experience in your life, as you orgasm and erotem, showering off purifying energies, and lots of other beautiful other things and dings, as you vibrate your entire body concordially, in harmonic rythym, cadence, and rapture, while orgasming, in sequence and in timed rythym, with my GODLY Holy Body and many of its features, or parts, that are similar to your holy body and your holy body's parts and features. These are all activated while you are orgasming, and eroteming, and you become purer and holier, the longer you orgasm and erotem, and convulse, orgasmically.

Your breasts, your butty butt, your butty butt hole, your vaginal hole, your groin, your throes, your vaginal cleavage or labial folds as they are called here by these nitwittish doctors on this planet, who do not know any thing about the human body, your chest, your back, your legs, your arms, your hands and fingers, your ankles, feet, and toes, your ears, lips, mouth, tounge, cheek, your rectal cavity, your tummy button, your stomach, throat, your brains, and you have many more than just one in your body, but many millions and more of them in your body, and that is not an overstatement, and every part of your body, inside and out, your many nervous systems and all your organs, they are all set to orgasm and erotem, and generate purifying energies with the help of the power company, as I've explained about them, before.

Men and boys, and their bodies, both their normal bodies and their holy bodies work in the same way, and there is no disparity, when it comes to sexaling, orgasming, and eroteming, and showering off lots of wonderful energies, that purify men and boys, and the people who the men and boys are sexaling with.

Ticklement Tuning Forks

You have ticklements, tuners, or pitch fork tuning forks, that chime, in every cubic millimeter to every cubic inch, and in even tinier places, you have tinier ticklements, or tuning forks, and in larger areas, you have larger ticklements, or tuning forks, and they are all set to vibrate in various patterns of sexual thrilling eroticisms, and orgasming ecstacies, as you pump up the levels of sexalating energies you have available to you, in you, and showering off from you, and those patterns and focal points change, slightly, minutely, as every micro second goes by, as we change our location in our universe, and our relative location or position to every thing else in our universe changes, from night to day, and from day to night, ongoingly, non-stopingly, never repeating the same set of tuning focal patterns. Focal patterns are frequencies.

Focal Patterns

These frequencies, or harmonic consistencies, are harmonic displays or the 'in rythm' with GOD, consistencies that allow you to be united with GOD, me, my devine and holy body, and my devine and holy mind, and my being or GOD SELF and GOD BEING, every moment, as you are orgasming, and eroteming, and convulsing orgasmically.

Men and boys have the same kinds ticklements, or tuning forks, and they are located in every organ of their bodies, too, just as they are in women's bodies and in girls' bodies, in every single organ and cell, and they allow all of you children of mine to stay in frequency with me, as you sexalate, erotem, and orgasm, and convulse orgasmically, practicing my religion, and as you sexal together with each other, and go about living your daily lives.

These many ticklements and tuning forks are all connected to your brains and to your nervous systems, and each living being in your body, has them as well, and every living being, and animal, has them as well.

All my children, animals, living beings, and human beings, are all connected to me, through these tuning forks, and they are connected to me in many ways, such as through the holy bodies all of my children have inside of them, and also through a myriad of other mechanisms that I have functioning in your bodies, in your astral 'energy' bodies, and the many millions of energies bodies each of you have in you that help to keep you all connected to me and my Holy GODLYNESS existence. My animals children and living beings childrens have fewer connectivities and fewer energies bodies, as they do not need as many as my human being daughters and sons. This is because you, my human being children, need to be more connected to me, as you are the only ones who can actively sexal and practice my religion, with your own self determination, and desire to sexal and practice, to become closer to me, GOD, as you become purer, and holyer.

I'm connected to all of you, day and night, three hundred sixty five days a year, in countless many fold untold numbers of ways and manners, and with countless many fold untold numbers of mechanisms. All of my children are likewise connected to me, in similar ways and manners, and with similar mechanisms, though the numbers and types of mechanisms may be different among my living beings children, and my animals children, compared to my human being children.

As you women, girls, men, and boys sexually rapture, erotem, orgasm, convulse orgasmically, and reach sexual peaks, and then sustain them, you grow holyer, as you become purer, brillianter, and closer in GODLYNESS to ME, GOD.

Obviously, then, the primary means for you to grow pure and holy is to sexal together with each other as sexaling is the basic way to become pure and holy, and as you continue, over the days, and weeks, then months, years, decades, hundreds of years, thousands of years, millions of years, and more, you slowly grow more pure and holy, and closer to me, GOD.

Sexaling is my primary and most fundamental religious practice and your primary religious practice for you to become cleansing machines, washing machines, purifying and sanitizing machines, so that you can clearify and erase your karmic markups, and purify your lives, and purify the lives of those around you, with your selfless actions of grace and serenity, sexaling and showering purifying energies in all directions for the sake of your self, and for the sake of others.

You women and girls need men and boys to assist you to become the powerful cleansing and purifying machines that you are capable of becoming.

Men and boys used to be somewhat nearly as useful as purifying and cleansing machines, as women and girls, but men and boys have different jobs, and different priorities, and there fore, the burden of work to purify my universe, and to clearify the karmic markups of all my children rests on the shoulders of all women and girls, with men and boys assisting women and girls.

You men and boys need women and girls to lead you, and to help you to become more proficient, powerful, and more capable cleansing, washing, purifying, and sanitizing machines.

Assistive Religious Practices

The practice of praying Nam Myeo Ho Ren Ge Kyeo is an assistive practice that allows you to become in touch with my GOD SELF, equally as well, but the time it takes, is much longer, as very little purifying energies are produced, merely by using your brain, muscles, ligaments, sinews, bones, mouths, tounges, and jaws, as energies sources.

There are many other assistive practices, from meditation, to breathing techniques, to yogic techniques, to ballet like techniques, to dance techniques, to body movements of various kinds, to help you to increase and or also store up your energies, and then for you to release them, for you to then become more firmly and closely connected to ME so that you can eventually begin to gain a higher appreciation of ME, GOD.

My many religions teach many ways to do this, and before my many religions were corrupted by the Lesbianists, they worked to varying degrees of success.

Therefore, sexaling is the primary fundamental religious practice, and all other practices in my religions that I've taught over time, spanning all of my previous teachings from the begining of our time together, since I, my GOD SELF, created you as my children, are assistive practices, of one kind or another.

Sexaling, eroteming, orgasming, phlumetting are important practices, and as you orgasm, you are purifying your self, and others by pushing out and spraying your self with purifying energies as your holy and sacred energies shoot out to cover you and emmerse you in full body coverage, from head to toe, showering and shattering energies every where around you. They then build up and cover over all others who are around you, as well, with your purifying erototistic and orgasotistic purifying energies, clearifying yours and their karmic markups.

Astral traveling is another type of practice, but we'll define it, another time. Experiencing hyper trance states of mind and being, and a nearness to GODLYNESS are also a practice, and we'll define it, when I can remember every thing I need to remember about it.

Participating in my religious ceremonies is an assistive religious practice you can enjoy, as you become purer and holyer, and after you recognize that I am your Mother and Father, and your CREATOR, and that you exist because of me, as I made you from pieces and parts of me, your CREATOR.

After you realize this, you can enjoy participation in ceremonies with me, as training priestesses and priests, and you can make your way up the purity ladder, the more you participate with me, GOD, in my religious prayer hand signaling ceremonies.

Praying Nam Myeo Ho Ren Ge Kyeo to my Holy Body, or to the Gurkian Mandala, as I've explained about, is an assistive practice that will bring results.

It will not bring results as well and as effectively and as quickly, as sexaling, which is the most holy and virtuous practice, along with eroteming, orgasming, phlumetting, astral traveling, peaking, and so on.

I've spoken about peaking, before, and women and girls can peak, and experience wonderful feelings. Men and boys can peak and experience wonderful feelings, too, but I haven't discussed that, yet. We'll talk about that, another time.

In any case, do not confuse assistive practices, with the fundamental and primary practice of sexaling. We'll get back to all those other things, to define them, betterly, another time, after my brain heals, a little bit more, and after I erase more karmic markups that keep my brain karma from improving, fast enough for me.

How To Make Prayer Statements

Remember to include a prayer statement, such as 'I pray to the holy ephemeral body of the Creator, John Francis Ayres, for the [insert private prayer statement]', such as, '... for the serenity of mind, and the gratefulness of heart, for all those around me, who have helped me to become the person I am, and can become.' or, '... for the peace of mind, and serenity of heart, for the love of all men and boys, and the cooperation of all women and girls.' These prayers said by a woman or girl. Men can pray, similarly, '... for the grace and deviness of the women and girls who surround me, I am greatful to them, and I pray for their continued good health, and prosperity'.

You can also say, 'I pray to the holy body of the Creator, John Francis Ayres, for the [insert private prayer statement]', but only when I am in the middle of a religious hand signaling prayer ceremony, i.e., while I am doing a prayer ceremony, and saying my prayers with religious holy hand prayer signals that my special kids who are religious kids, can pick up and then act on, in concert with other groups of kids of mine, who also are religious kids, most of them, I think, and who work together with my primary groups of religious kids.

I have lots of kids, and some are normal kids, who go about their jobs, as expected, for earnings, just as most people we know. But I also have lots of other groups of children, who are more, religiously oriented, to varying degrees, and who are very religious as their work is all for the sake of my religious self, my GOD SELF. My religous kids catch my hand signing, and then they pass the messages along to others of my groups of children, and with all of the different groups of children I have doing 'good' works for me, as well as groups of children who do 'religious' works for me, as well as groups of children doing normal work for me, but for the sake of my religion, nevertheless.

They all coordinate themselves, somehow, I have yet to figure out how they do it, but between them all, they get the jobs done, that I ask them to do, while I am religiously - and the prayer statements I am signing are very holy - hand prayer signaling, i.e., hand signing.

So, unless you know for a fact, by seeing me on a tv, such as during a live broadcast, once I get my religious conveyance set up, and built by my children, after all the conditions are met, for securing this world from the grasps of the Lesbianists, and after killing all the Lesbianists, and / or after making the remaining Lesbianists surrender, and then after all other conditions are met, as I don't know all the conditions, I've set, as my memories are still foggy, as I'm amnesiatic, as well as mentally retarded, but in any case, if you see me on tv, on a live broadcast, doing my hand signing, you'll know I'm in the middle of one of my prayers, and then you can say, 'I pray to the holy body of the Creator, John Francis Ayres, for the [insert private prayer statement]', and you can omit the 'ephemeral' if you like, as it will work better if you omit the word 'ephemeral' as while I'm praying, I'm my normal, GOD, self, though I may not look to you, on the surface, to be any different, over the video links, or even in person. It never the less works better if you use my recommended methods of making prayer statements, this way, for you to maximize your private prayer statements.

All of my groups of kids have lots of friends, and they do lots of work for me, and I do not remember how many groups of them there are, and how many children I"ve got, as yet, but in time, I'll be able to give you a better idea of how they work together to get the work done, that I ask them to do for me, with my religious hand prayer signals, or hand signals, as in hand signing, or signing.

My kids use signing for all their work assignments, so I use hand signing that they can catch, pick up and read, and it is all pretty much very religious in nature, and it is very solemn, as I am GOD, and when I'm signing, they know I'm GOD, and do not doubt it.

When I am not signing, they might now and then, doubt that I am GOD, but never the less, I am GOD, and my signing proves it to them - when I am saying my religous hand prayer statements, by hand signing - with out any room for doubts in their minds.

In other words, I'm a typical person, just a little mentally retarded, brain smattered, or brain damaged, after my many youthful and other brain bashings I recieved, the wiring is a little scrambled up, upstairs, and after many poisonings by the Lesbianists - from makeing coffee from kerosene, diesel fuel, gasoline, and motor oil contaminated coffee beans and then from drinking that coffee, without knowing it was contaminated with petrol fluids, as often happens to people - and with ill health karma that has me on disability, and I've been through a lot, life after life, and sometimes, my children may have had a thought or two, 'I wonder, if he is going to make it, like he said he would?'

Well, to dispel all doubts, I sign, and when I'm signing, I remind them of my old self, back in the old days, when I used to sign, religiously, and they know how serious a guy I was, so they do not harbor any doubts, so long as I am hand signing.

What To Say, When You See Me Using My Dick Or Other Parts Of My Body To Purify Others, And So Forth

You can say, 'I pray to the holy body of the Creator, John Francis Ayres, for the [insert private prayer statement]', also while you see me praying, Nam Myeo Ho Ren Ge Kyeo, or also while you see me in a ceremony, using my dick and scrotum, or other parts of my Holy Body to purify others, during the middle of a prayer ceremony, and I need not be hand signing, or praying Nam Myeo Ho Ren Ge Kyeo, as I am in the middle of prayers and activities ceremony, which is just as good as a religious hand prayer signaling ceresony, any day.

My dick and scrotum package is very Holy, and it has a very useful function, and that is, it purifying others. My lips do, too, and my butt hole, does as well. They all purify others very effectively and efficiently during my religious ceremonies.

My entire body, during a religious ceremony, butt hole, mouthal hole, lips, tounge, cheeks, legs, knees, feet, toes, butt, chest, back, arms, elbows, hands, fingers, head, neck, throat, ears, nose, and so forth, is entirely the body of GOD, as I am GOD, and therefore, while I am useing my body, during my religious ceremonies, and for my religious ceremonies, and you see me on tv doing so, then after you have verified that I am in the middle of a prayer ceremony, you can say your private prayer, in the manner as I've explained, 'I pray to the holy body of the Creator, John Francis Ayres, for the [insert private prayer statement]'.

I only use my dick and scrotum package for prayer ceremonies, except when I need to pee, so if you see that I am using it, during a prayer ceremony, or if you see me using any other part of my Holy Body, during a live broadcast prayer ceremony, then you'll know right away, that I am in the middle of a prayer ceremony and it is okay to use the statement, 'I pray to the holy body of the Creator, John Francis Ayres, for the [insert private prayer statement]'.

The same is true, pretty much, for any priestess or priest, who practices with me, in my religious holy body prayer circle, their bodies become very Pure, Holy, and Devine, but only after many life periods, that is, after many, many aeons, as they do not attain the same level of purity for a while, the same level of purity as I am at by my good old self, or the same level of pureness that is of ME, GOD, since I'm GOD, and they are not.

That means, it takes priestesses and priests longer to become pure, holy, and devine. I happen to be pure, holy, and devine, but that's because I'm GOD, and it is only during my religious ceremonies that you can understand that as you make your prayer statements, and sexal, etc.

After a long, long while, priestesses and priests will also become pure, holy, and devine, as their holy bodies, energies bodies that are pure, holy, and devine, but on a lower scale than are MY energies bodies, since I'm GOD, and I'm in charge of keeping things tied together, here in my universe.

After many aeons plus years of practice in my holy body praryer circle, the priestesses and priests become pure, holy, and devine, and then their bodies, their normal bodies, become very purifying, just as mine is, now, when I am in a prayer ceremony. I am in a prayer ceremony, daily, a few times, to a number of times, a day.

I've gone eighteen hours straight, once, and no sooner than I go to sleep, and then wakup, right away, I begin again, and I've gone many days, straight, praying, continuously, non-stop.

This is nothing, though, and is all preparatory, as in the future, when I get my health back, as I haven't been too healthy, for quite some time, I will be praying around the clock, some days, and for many days at a time, taking a break only to eat, drink, poop, pee, and clean up.

When priestesses and priests join with me, we will go for years without stopping, and with the priestesses, and with the priests, the both of them there, present, doing the prayer ceremony on my behalf, they can represent me, while I take a nap, go and shower, get some food, nourish myself, drink some fluids, read a book or news paper, or watch the news, or a movie, game show, video, or play a video game, and so forth. I won't be taking long breaks, and that is very funny sounding, but anyway, it happens that priestesses and priests will lose their attention, and then get lost, somehow, and then go and watch tv in their bed room, or whatever, and then we have to go and look for them, and they will get a few markoffs, and with enough markoffs, they will be asked to leave the religious conveyance, and they will be put on a type of vrobatiton, or under survielance, to see if they are good or not. My kids do all my survielance work, and they keep track of every one, so 'you'd better be good, you'd better be nice, you'd better look smart I'm telling you why, Santa Clause is coming, to town'.

Who Was Kris Kringle?

Did you know that Kris Kringle got its start from me? What a coincidence. I don't think he was wearing anything, though, or rather, I don't think I was wearing any thing, but you never know, as tolerances have changed over the long aeons of time, as they pass.

When priests and priestesses become that pure, holy, and devine, as pure, holy, and devine as I am, after their many aeons of religious practice in my holy body prayer circle - pure and devine on the exact same level as I am at - then they can represent me, as Mr. mini-GOD, and Mrs. mini-GOD.

You can not represent me as Kris Kringle, and whoever my wife was, back then. I think I had a lot of guys on that team, and a lot of women and girls, too, since sexaling was a part of that religion, too. You can learn more about it, if you're interested, by getting a day pass, and checking in with my kids, and then, signing up and joining our country, and then by becomeing a citizen, as I've spoken about, before.

You can include any good prayer, that comes to mind, that you feel is needed by you, to improve your life, and to level up your life.

You are the only ones who can pray, and practice, you women, girls, men, and boys, and there fore you are connected to me in many more ways than other living beings, the animals, and the amoebes, cells, and other living beings.

There fore, you are, both genders, the ones who will clean up the mess you have made, and you will continue to keep my universe clean, as you sexal with your genitals, and with your bodies, and with all your gizmos, igniters, trigger mechanisms, love bumps, love patches, tuning forks or ticklements, and so forth, as you are sexaling beings, who I, GOD, created, and you will sexalate, erotem, orgasm, phlumett, astral travel, peak, hyper tranceate, and so forth, just as I intended you to, from now till forever.

You will become virtuous and worthyable beings, worthyable tummy mommies, and worthyable tummy daddies, with your practice of my religion, who will bring into my universe, my many children who will join with you, and assist you and me, in cleaning up our universe, and the mess you have all made of it.

Is that understood? The answer had better be, "YES SIR!".

Lesbianists' Torment Campaign Under Way

Lesbianists are clearly releaseing wierd, ghastly, horrible, and dangerous preditorial animals, giant insects, giant spiders, giant lizards, snakes, and reptiles, ghastly, preditorial sea animals and sea mammals, winged, preditorial and horrific, aggressive scavenger and killer buzzard like creatures and other winged and destructive animals, and other horrible creatures, as well as my abominant kids to kill, maime, torture, and cause major disruptions and suffering to people, around the globe, in many locations.

Apparently, the whole world is now affected, or will be affected, by this dischordance and disharmonic display of defeated lunacy.

The peace has been shattered by the Lesbianists. It was not good before, the situation in the world, with the balooneying governments of the world, doing what they wanted to do, and torturing, and canabalizing people, and feeding people to my abominant cave bears kids, and to my crocodile people kids, and mistreating people, like Bill Gates, Steve Hawkins, Steve Irwin, many women, young girls, and men.

The war in Iraq, the phoney Saddam Hussein Trials, and all the bogus manipulation of the press and media, and the suppression of what is actually the case, with our being used and abused, poisoned, and maltreated by the Lesbianists, was a rotten situation. That was normal, or normality for us. Our karma is very poor, and we have the karma to suffer this abuse, and these torments, daily, unknowingly, in most if not nearly all cases.

But, it is becomeing really bad and there is need for serious concern, and action, to correct this situation. It has gotten out of hand, completely, and there is no stopping the Lesbianists in their wanton, and coldly miserable wish and lust for chaos and disturbances to others.

Now, more clearly than ever, as the Lesbianists rampage, the Lesbianists are causing major disruptions, suffering, anguish, and there is just an awful discordance of shock, dismay, and misery, that is growing, every moment. This is as real as the sunlight shining from the sun on a hot day in summer.

I don't have a clue what people are doing, and what is happening to them, as they are captured, tortured, and caused miserable sufferings, in many places. There must be horrible agony for many people, at this moment, and as each moment passes.

Our reality as it was has suddenly been shattered and torn up, and replaced with the lunacidal, Lesbianistic, mayhem and chaos.

Reuters reports a Lesbianists' joke for the Lesbianists, sarcastically and ironicly stateing, "New Perils Push Doomsday Clock Closer to Midnight" "(Reuters) Scientists have advanced the clock 2 minutes closer to midnight."

http://us.rd.yahoo.com/my/today/new_perils_push_doomsday_clock_closer_to_midnight;_ylt=AmUXlewr5ev2kNK_SfOHDFAL1vAI/*http://news.yahoo.com/s/nm/20070117/us_nm/doomsday_clock_dc_4

This is their private joke, to make this scenario more laugable than before for them. They could not care less, as they are manipulating every thing, and that statement is completely meaningless to them, as they are in control of every thing, in their conspiritorial lunacy to rule human beings, and to trash every one.

We'll see what the coming days, weeks, months, and years bring, and maybe there will be hope for change, when people begin to take action, to correct this situation, globally, united in spirit, permanently.

These are the most evil of evil people and abominant kids, in our immediate vicinity in our universe. We must begin our cleanup campaign here, as it begins where I am, and will continue from here on out, till we have rid my universe of all of these horrible people, and all others like them, and have made them surrender, or have sent them on to my Epcot Center.

I will establish my relgion in my universe, and begin my ministry, and they are not going to stop me, as my religion will bring positive change for all of us, forever.

I must establish myself outside the bounds of this Lesbianistic society, so your efforts and concern for our future, and your selfless giving of donations to my ministry, to allow me to set up my ministry, outside the bounds of this Lesbianistic society, non-dependent on Welfare, Supplemental Security Income or SSI, Medicaid, and non-reliant on the supported and financed Housing and Urban Developement or HUD subsidized apartment that I live in.

Once I receive in the mail, the 'Gift' donations to set up my ministry outside the bounds of this society, I believe things will gradually begin to positively change for us all, and the shift to positivity will begin, and a new universe for us all, will become for the first time, ever, a potential reality with the sincere religious practice by all of my followers, all of you, who are practicing my religion, diligently, and daily, or as much as your health and your time permits.

There in, with your efforts to practice, will bloom your flowers of dignity and hope, justice and freedom, willingness for sharing, cooperating, and participating with others in our new age of enlightenment, the Gurkian Age, and your new found respect for self and others.

It Is Now Time To Kill All Government Workers, Public Workers, Preachers, Islamic Clerics, Christian Bible Teachers, Bible Thumpers, And All Other Persons Who Support The Lesbianists And Their Lesbianistic Societies Around The World - 'Fivers' To Kill Lesbianists And All The Lesbianists' Supporters - Coma Patients - All Persons Who You Kill Will Transel To My Epcot Center - Japanese And List Keeping - Surrendering And Pledging To Serve All People In My Universe - What Does This Mean? It is now time to kill all retired military personel who support the deranged, crazed, insepient, and corrupted Lesbianistic societies we live in, around the world. It is also now time to kill all persons who in any way support the governments of the world, including but not limited to, all school, university, kindergarden, missionary, day care center workers, nursery school teachers, teachers aids or teachers assistants, United Nations workers, United Nations teachers, substitute teachers, catholic school teachers, Irish protestant school teachers, parochial school teachers, all religious denominations around the world school teachers and their school support workers, government funded school teachers, tuition assistance by the government school teachers, all personel who work for the United Nations, all civil service agents, all DEA agents, all FBI agents, all FDA agents, all EPA agents, and workers, BLM agents who are Lesbianists as well as those BLM agents' who are Lesbianists as well as those friends of theirs, who support the Lesbianists.

It is time to kill all officials of all government organizations, and all the people who work for them and or even only support them, such as restaraunt workers who feed them lunch, coffee shop workers and owners who feed them coffee and food, bars and restaraunt personel and owners of bars and restaraunts who support and feed any and all persons connected to the governments of the world and who work for them in any capacity at all.

It is also time to kill all the money lenders who loan money to the Lesbianists, the mortgage company owners who provide the Lesbianists with house purchasing loans, and all the supermarket workers and supermarket owners, who supply food to the Lesbianists, as well as all of the druggists, the pharmacy workers, who supply medicines to the Lesbianists. It is time to kill all the taxi cab drivers who give rides to the Lesbianists, and to every person who supports the Lesbianists in any way, at all, unless those people surrender to my kids.

It is also now time to kill all civilian or civil servant or state civil servant worker who supports in any way, any Lesbianistic organization, such as the police departments, federal agencies, fire departments, libraries, schools, and so forth. It is also now time to kill all persons who maintain or provide services to any of the above listed organizations, and to all of the similar organizations in every country in the world.

This is my order to all of you, and you are all ordered, by me, GOd/ GOD, to kill all of them, unless they surrender. People also call me, 'Allah'. I'm the same person. Just do as I tell you.

You are to take my fuels' bombs with chlorine plastics' explosives formulas, and all other explosives formulas I've explained about on my bulletin board and the fuels' bombs explosives formulas including but not limited to radiological 'fracturable' rocks that provide so-called 'nuclear' explosions, all of my bombs' formulas, and all other bombs' formulas derived in part or in whole from what we have learned as I've explained on my bulletin board and to take them, and make the bombs and explosives, and to then use them, and then destroy and kill all of the Lesbianists, and all of the Lesbianists military bases, buildings, and kill every last one of them, all of them, leaving no one alive.

'Fivers' To Kill Lesbianists And All The Lesbianists' Supporters

You are to then make certain they are all dead. If they are not dead, you are to kill them with a 'fiver'. A 'fiver' is a bullet with five lines drawn or scored with a knife or sharp instrument into the tip of the bullet, to form a 'five' line pattern, so that the bullet will fracture into 'five' parts.

You are to take three 'fivers' and shoot each person who has not stopped breathing, and who is not dead yet, and shoot the three fivers into the head of the person, to make certain the person dies.

Three 'fiver's will destroy enough brain material, to kill any person if the bullet is large enough, and the handgun, rifle, or weapon is powerful enough.

The handgun bullet size must be at least larger than a .22 calibur, and at a minimum, 7 millimeters. You may use .38 calibur, 9 millimeter, 10 millimeter, .45 calibur, or any other, large sized bullet to make certain they are dead. Buckshot, 8 guage to 10 guage, or any comparable rifle load or handgun load, or home made weapon load, will work equally as well, with three shots into the skull. A machete or similar instrument should then be used to chop the head off of the person at the neck line. If you have a machete or hatchet, or axe, and if you prefer to chop off the head of the person, then by all means, you are to do so. The point here is to kill the person one hundred (100) percent, and not leave the person in a coma.

Coma Patients

A person in a coma is perfectly alive, and can hear every word you are saying, but can not respond. People in a coma after severe accidents, such as near fatal traffic accidents, where their limbs were broken into pieces, or war victims, who are on life support in Veterans' Hospitals, can be in agonizing pain, and no pain medications are given to the patient as the patient has no way of communicating with the doctors, nurses, or staff members to complain about the pain, in many or in most cases, if not nearly all cases. Some patients can write or scribble out a note about the severe pains, or make gestures with their hands, pointing at painful spots they are able to point to, and then making squeezing motions, to indicate as best as they can, that there is something wrong in the area. Some people may catch the meaning of the gestures, but others do not, and may just wonder what is going on with the patient and they may wonder what the patient means by the hand gestures. Others, doctors and nurses, and staff members will merely find it amusing that the patient is making the gestures. Some doctors and nurses, and possibly staff members, will figure out the patient is in pain, and then steps can be taken to alleviate the pain, but it is an ordeal for the patient, and it may take months, or in some cases, years, before staff, cleaning persons, food servers, orderlies or assistants, nurses, or doctors figure out what the hand gestures mean.

The coma patient, after healing from the injuries, may still have residual pains, such as residual spinal pains, or neck pains, or ligament pains where ligaments were twisted, or ruptured, or severed, partially or wholly, and the ligaments didn't grow back properly, or didn't grow back fully, or much, or perhaps, in some cases, not at all, which does happen a lot, and each time the patient is moved in her or his bed, the person experiences extreme pain as no medications for pain are given to the coma patient, unless the patient has been successful in communicating that there is pain felt by her or him, in her or his body.

Leaving coma patients on life support systems is the cruelest thing you can do to a person in a coma as there is no such thing as being 'brain dead'.

It is a cruel and abominable Lesbianists' joke on humanity, and on all persons, that the Lesbianists have perpetrated with their teaching doctors and nurses that coma patients are brain dead, and do not feel, hear, taste, or sense, anything at all, and it is just another one of the Lesbianists' ways to hurt and torture people, and cruelly and ruthlessly abuse human beings, in this case, in most of these cases, by proxy. There are doctors who are Lesbianists, and I have one who is one, that I am aware of, and he knows exactly what causes my health problems, but he sits there, non-responsive, and with a vacant stare on his face as if he doesn't hear, see, or know of any thing that is going on, something like the three monkeys with hands clasped over their, ears, eyes, and mouth, who represent 'hear no evil, see no evil, speak no evil' and then 'therefore, every thing is alright'.

All persons with brains, whether in a coma, or other sleep like state or condition, is perfectly brain alive as the brains and nervous systems, auditory, taste, touch and sense nerve systems, never die, until the patient stops breathing, and passes on.

All nurses and doctors are to remove all life support systems from all persons in a coma, immediately and confirm the persons have died. That will allow them to transel into my Epcot Center, and then be born again, as a tummy baby to a tummy mommy and to tummy daddies.

All persons in a coma, whether in a hospital, or in a nursing home, or at a private home or apartment, or in a group home, or group care center, are to be told the truth of this, and are to be told that you just leared it, and are to be told that I am GOD, and that I have an Epcot Center staff waiting for them to come in, to be treated for their traumatic condition, of not being able to do any thing about their condition to end it, as it is a miserable situation for these people who are in a coma, or in any trance like state or condition that resembles a coma, or a sleeping person, who can not wake up. The person is perfectly brain active, and there are no measuring devices to prove it available to hospital staff or to doctors, as none are made, and the technologies to detect a person's brain activeness and aliveness are kept secret after they are bought up, and then after the records of them are destroyed, and the information on them are kept secret and locked away, in vaults, and in storage facilities, hidden from view so that no one can get the information, and build a device to detect a person's brain alertness status.

After they are told the truth, and that you just became aware of it, you are to tell them to not be afraid, and that all measures to relieve them from their present condition, and all measures to assist them to transel to my Epcot Center, where they can recieve personal care, and then helped to recover from the trauma of the coma, or coma like state of not being able to wake up, speak, and talk to people. They are then to be injected with a powerful sleep sedaditive, or induced to swallow several strong sleeping pills, as they may become afraid, and then, you are to help them to pass on, and to transel over to my Epcot Center.

In some cases, if you pull on the large toe of a person, or on the thumb, the person may have control to pull in the opposite direction. That is an indication that they are awake, and fully aware of what is going on around them. Please check patients to see that they have soundly fallen asleep, and snoring or breathing quietly, in relaxed manner, may be the only sign that the person is asleep.

Any sign of movement, mentally driven by the patient, no matter how slight, is nearly most always, nearly one hundred percent of the time, a sign that the person is completely brain alive, and that the person is completely aware of what is going on around her or him and can hear every thing. Even passing or expelling gas or farting, can be 'mentally' driven, and a sign the person is awake, and alert, and brain alive. Opening one's mouth is almost always, one hundred percent of the time, mentally driven.

Persons's in a coma, who have Eplilepsy, or other similar brain or neuro muscular disorder, and other conditions where patients experience spasming, whether the condition is diagnosed or not, these patients who spasm, may make some spamodic movement, now and then, and that is only a sign that the person is haveing a neuro muscular muscle spasm. Knee jerks or other similar movements, are not always muscle spasms and can be labored, mentally driven actions. These actions show the patient has control to that extent over her or his muscles, body, skeletal system, and other body systems related to the movement.

In any case, after the patient has fallen asleep, you are then to kill the person, and let the person transel to my Epcot Center, so that the person can recover in my Epcot Center, and then be born as a tummy baby, to a tummy mommy, and to tummy daddies.

All Persons Who You Kill Will Transel To My Epcot Center

Once you are certain all of the police, fire, teachers, and all others who support the Lesbianists' societies around the world are dead, they will transel to my Epcot Center.

It is now the time to bring an end to the lives of these people who support the crazed, insepient, bogus Lesbianists, and to destroy them all, leaving no survivors. Kill all of their family and relatives, and leave no one alive. Kill them all.

My Epcot Center will not be in any way, inconveinced by your brave and heroic actions. All doctors must be killed, all nurses must be killed. All medical techinicians must be killed. All library workers must be killed. All school teachers must be killed. All art museum and gallery museum workers must be killed. All workers for all of these institutions must be killed. All of them, in every country of the world, unless they surrender and plead for mercy, and then are allowed in to my kids' place, for swearing in and for joining as civilians, my country.

Further, it is time to kill all media corporations personel, such as news casters, news men, news women, anchor persons, cameral men and women, talk show hosts, administrative persons, Hollywood's movie actors and actoresses, all radio broadcasters, and all personel of all radio companies. It is time to kill all news paper company owners, and publishers, editors, and all workers of these companies, unless they surrender to my children and plead for mercy.

It is time for all of you to kill all of them, and make sure not one of them is left living, including and most importantly, all politicians, who must all be killed, without any further delay. It is time to kill them all.

It is now time to kill Oprah Winfrey, Geraldo Rivera, Sarah Jessica Parker, Judge Judy, Jerry Springer, Liz Taylor, Michael Jackson, Clint Eastwood, Cher Bonno, Morgan Freeman, Steven Spielberg, Al Gore and his family, Hillary Clinton and her family, all of them, Jeb Bush and his family, all of them, Nancy Reagan and her family, all of them, former president of the United States President George Bush, Sr. and his family, all of them, including all persons related to him in any way, and all persons who work for him, in any way, and all persons who work for any of his associates, in any way, unless they surrender to my kids, and then plead for mercy.

We are not going to allow the Lesbianists to continue their illegal, inhumane, and horriblesome practices and activities on my planet, and in my universe, a moment longer. They must all die, now.

Is that understood?

I hope the answer is, "YES SIR! Mr. John Francis Ayres, GOd", as a 'negative' reply to my question is not acceptable.

Japanese And List Keeping

I haven't confirmed it, but from what I know, so far, the Japanese are very good at keeping lists, and they know about all the foreign people in Japan, and they keep lists of names of all of them, and they keep lists of names on all of the Korean people, and the Singaporean people, the Chinese people, the Ainu people, and the cast outs or 'burakumin' a group of meat cutters and fish sellers who some how got on a list of people who were felt to be 'unclean'. The 'burakumin' was a group of people who no one in Japan wished to talk about. The Japanese also, apparently, had lists on groups of people, who they didn't know much about, but they knew they were always doing things with each other. Those groups of people were the Lesbianists, so the Japanese knew all along, who I was talking about and were nearly one hundred percent certain those groups were the Lesbianists living in Japan.

They read what I wrote, and the notes of mine were passed to many people on an e-mail mailing list, and when they heard that Steve Irwin had been killed, they felt they had heard enough and they told all their friends about my notes, and then the Japanese killed all the Lesbianists in Japan on that list they kept.

It's something I heard, and I haven't confirmed it, but I think the Japanese are fully capable of handling that, as they were fully prepared to deal with each one of the Lesbianists, and they knew who they were, and once the Japanese united, and decided to take action. The Japanese escorted all the Lesbianists to a meeting place, to which the Lesbianists were not happy to go to, but had no choice but to agree to follow the Japanese citizens who escorted them there, with the military or Japanese Self Defense Force, the Coast Guard, and National Police, and all other police agencies in Japan, plus the national organization of fire department workers, backing and supporting all the Japanese citizens.

As to what they did with the bodies of the Lesbianists, I'll leave that to them to explain to you, as it was quite brilliant and they had many very good ideas for dealing with the bodies of the deceased Lesbianists, who are apparently now in my Epcot Center.

The Japanese country side is now peaceful and quite, and things the winds are blowing, peacefully, and gracefully over the Japanese country side, cities and towns, across the ponds, marshes, lillies and lotus flowers swamp lands, bogs, bays, estuaries, lakes, streams, rice paddies, fields, mountains, and islands, from what I can understand and gather about the situation in Japan.

Surrendering And Pledging To Serve All People In My Universe

If the Lesbianists and their supporters surrender to my children, and then promise to devote their lives for the sake of others, serving man kind, and all human beings, and all people on this planet, and in my universe, for the rest of their lives, they will be allowed to surrender to my children, and my children will then arrest them and put them in a prison cell. If they are not willing to serve others, despite the fact that they say they will serve others and devote their lives for the sake of others, serving all people in my universe, then my children will ignore them, and my children will not arrest them because my children know they are lying. They must promise to do all they can that is humanely possible, for the sake of others, and devote themselves to the prosperity of others, for eternity. If they are not willing to do that, then please, just send them on to my Epcot Center, and we'll straighten them out, for there. My staff at the Epcot Center has training programs to straighten them out and make them nicer people, so that next time they are born as tummy babies, they will behave and be nice to others, doing nice things for other people, after they are retrained, a little. The retraining program takes a while, but the results are very good to excellent.

If my kids decide that the person who is surrendering, is telling the truth, my kids will use the special teletransportation technology, something like what we see in Star Trek on tv, with Captain Kirk saying, 'Beam me up, Scotty!', as many of us have seen on daytime tv, or in the movie theater, and my kids have very good teletranportation technology or 'beam me up, Scotty' technology, and the person, once he or she pledges honestly to serve others, will instantly dissappear.

Do not be surprised if when the person surrenders and promises to 'serve others', promising to devote her or his life for the sake of others, the person suddenly dissappears, and instantly, the person is no where to be seen. The person was 'beamed' into a prison cell that my kids have constructed, using other technologies, and we have many prison cells waiting for the Lesbianists and for the Lesbianists' supporters, and for other bad kids in my universe, as well.

For each person you kill, my kids will keep earning points scores on your efforts to send them to my Epcot Center, and you will be paid, when you have finished your job, and then finally, go in to visit my kids. My kids will pay you in the monetary currency that is used in the underground cities my kids have built, for protecting people from these horrible Lesbianists and for protecting people from the abominant kids of mine, and the ghastly and naughty animals and very large bugs and spider like creatures, that the Lesbianists use to help them torture people with, to make the Lesbianists laugh, and to amuse themselves, as I've explained a little about, already. The more Lesbianists and Lesbianists' supporters you send to my Epcot Center, the more earning points you will score, and the more money you will earn, and you will be paid that money, when you go to visit my kids after you have finished your work, killing the Lesbiansts and the Lesbianists' supporters.

If the Lesbianists and the Lesbianists' supporters do not disappear after they surrender, and after they promise to serve others, and pledge to devote their lives for the sake of others, the Lesbianists and the Lesbianists' supporters are lying, and you can then kill them, and send them on to my Epcot Center.

My children will escort the deceased Lesbianists and Lesbianists supporters, once you kill them, into one or an other of my Epcot Centers, and will make sure that the Lesbianists and the Lesbianists' supporters get in for a meeting with one or another of my managers, or with one of the staff members who work with my managers to arrange retraining programs for rehabilitating the Lesbianists and the Lesbianists' supporters.

The Lesbianists and Lesbianists' supporters will not qualify as tummy babies, until they are finished their retraining and rehabilitating programs. After they finish, they will be out, again, to join the rest of you, once again, but this time, as nice, kind, courteous, and polite people.

What Does This Mean?

It means, I want all the Lesbianists dead, but if they will surrender, and if they promise to serve all human kind, all people, and work and strive to enrich the lives of all others, dedicating their lives to others, then, you do not have to kill them, and you do not have to send them to my Epcot Center. If they are honest when they surrender, and when they promise to serve all people, devoting their lives to all people of the world, then my kids will 'beam' them in, using the teletransportation technologies that my children use. If they are lying, then my children will not beam them in, and they will be stuck where they are. If they are stuck where they are, after they surrender to my kids, and after they promise to dedicate their lives to the welfare of all others in the world, and to all others in my universe, then they were lying, and you may then kill them, and send them on their way to my Epcot Center, for retraining, and for rehabilitation.

It also means to kill any person who works for the Lesbianists, if he or she is supporting the Lesbianists to try to stop you from killing the Lesbianists. Also, it means that you should kill any person who tries to interfere with you, while you are trying to kill the Lesbianists.That's what it means.

Fermenting Oils - Fracuses Kiddies - Slugs, Snails, And Other Bottom Feeders - Feeding Everybody In Our Bodies - Putting An End To The Global Menace Of The Lesbianists - Changing Our Societies, And Our Universe, Forever Updated: 22-01-07 Rev.x.00.a 07:45 PST

Mix raw sugar, ocean salt, sessame seeds, dried fermented berries you have taken from a mix of berries fermenting as a flural hydrate liqour, or as a plain fermenting liqour, and make sure you dry them out in the oven, before useing them.

Mix the items together in a container, and mix in a drop or two of apple juice, pear juice, papaya juice, kiwi juice, banana juice, cherry juice, cranberry juice, strawberry juice, peach juice, nectarine juice, or plumb juice, and let the moisture settle into the mixture to allow it to become only partially and only very slightly moiste, and not wet or liquidy.

Allow the mixture to sit in a warm or cool place for a week or two, to eight to fifteen weeks, or even a few years, and it will grow molds in it, and with the longer the duration up to a point of sitting and molding, the more useful it will become.

It might develop a pungent, unpleasant odor, like a dead animal smells, which may mean that a fungus that is not very suited for you to use as a starter mold for starting a fermented oil batch has developed in the container, and in that case, you can throw the whole mix out, or use it for fermenting beans or something. Cheeses can be made with these kinds of growing funguses and molds, if you are the daring type, who likes to experiment with new and different tastes from variously fermented mixtures.

You can add some ocean salt, and make a soury vinegar, and then try to rescue it with the combination of the soury vinegar, ocean salt, and a little raw sugar, and some honey.

It may be that some bacteria is in the mix, and it needs to be eaten up, before you can use it safely for a healthy mold mix for starting a nice cheese molds and funguses mixture.

Ocean salt can be added in slightly large amounts with raw sugar. Once the odors have stabilized, and once they have developed a more pleasanty odor of a fermenting mixture, with a slight alchohol ferment odor that will indicate that it is alright to use, and that it will not be harmful to you.

In some cases, the bacteria in the base mix, may be a result of hairs or particles of skin from the body of a dead rat or mouse, that some how found his or her way into the sessame seeds, or into the dried spices, or into dried berries that you used, and then died.

In that case, you might as well throw it away, unless you have a lot of patience, and do not mind waiting and working with it, for several years, for it to become something you can use.

One way to make it into something you can use is to mix in a high potency liqour brew, and let it sit for a number or years, and ferment it, and then after it smells nice and rosy smelling, after ten to fifteen years, to thirty to fifty years, you can evaporate the liquids out in a pail on an open porch that has a net covering to keep animals and animals' hairs out of it. Make sure there is good ventilation, and it should evaporate out, safely after a number of days on the porch in the sun. If there is no heat to make it hot enough to combust, and if there is good ventilation, it will not combust, and it will evaporate out, safely. Adding ocean salt and raw sugar to the mixture so as to fill it up with raw sugar and acidic ocean salts, will further help to safely evaporate out the liquids and prevent the liquids from combusting, accidentally.

Once the liquids have evaporated out, safely, you can use the materials that remain in the pail or container, to start a fermented oils brew mixture, or to start a cheese molds and funguses mixture, if you wish to make a nice cheese molds and funguses mixture.

The particles of skin or hair from the dead rat or mouse, or pidgeon, or other animal, will have been eaten up by all the ferment fracuses kiddies, and will no longer pose a threat to your health.

Fracuses Kiddies

Ferment fracuses kiddies are just plain old ferment kiddies who like to devour large bits of human or animal tissues, mites, or cockroaches, or their body parts, and then poop them out, and pee them out into the liqour brew.

You'll always have some of these kiddies in your brew mixes, and they are useful to you, as they eat up the things that you do not want in your tummy. Also, there are other kiddies, such as snails, and other bottom feeders, that find their way in, in the skins and pulp material as tiny animals, or the eggs of animals, and they hatch, and they develop, and they grow big, and they then bottom feed, and they eat any dead rats, and dead rat parts from rats that might have fallen into the brew. These are useful pets, that you want in your rum and liqour brews, as they will keep the liqour brew healthy to drink, and they will keep you from getting ill.

Slugs, Snails, And Other Bottom Feeders

In the old days of bucanneering, as I may have mentioned, before, this was a crucial part of keeping the sailors alive, on their long voyages, and if crew members fell ill due to an unhealthy brew, with a dead rat in the mix, making it sour, and making it unhealthy to drink, then if there are not enough snails, slugs, and bottom feeders in the barrel or rum to eat the dead rat parts, the sailors will get ill, and when they get back to port, they will hang the rummery owner, and give the business over to the son, or to a third party, often times, one of their fellow crew members, who is liked by all the people, locally, and on the ship.

This is the case, still today, with many rummeries owned and handed down in the same family, from such instances as that.

Bottom feeders, slugs, snails, and many types of bottom feeding earth worms, and other types of healthy bottom feeding worms, that cohabitate well with the slugs, and snails, and other animals that are too tiny for you to see in the rum brew mixture, without a powerful microscope like, optical videoing technology, are essential to your brews mixtures, and they may increase in numbers as they make babies like every animal and living being does, and so now and then, you need to reach into your brew container, with your hand, or with a fine mesh small aquarium use fish net, and scoop them out, and flush them down the toilet, or let them loose in a local pond, lake, mountain stream, or water springs fresh water well, where they will help to keep the water clean, ahd healthy.

Once you have the materials to make your fermented oils mixture, you can add them to your container of food oils, and begin to ferment them, or use them to make a nice cheese mixture, to ferment and then to make solid as it matures with age. You can also use the materials to make a fermented bean mixture, or fermented barley, or fermented rice, or fermented millet, or fermented wheat mixture.

You can also use them to make a fermented brew mixture, as there will be many healthy molds and funguses kiddies in and among the dried out materials. Your health will improve, and by adding different spices, nuts, berries, root particles, ground up kiln dried pine cones that were green to begin with, and then fermented for a few months to a few years, in a brew mixture, then dried out, and ground up into a saw dust powder consistency, you can then have lots of crystals cages salts kiddies of various kinds help you to make a nice regroverative brew, to help you to regroverate your amoebes.

Feeding Everybody In Our Bodies

You know, we need to eat foods to stay alive. We also need to feed all the living animals in our body, to help them to stay alive, so that they can help our health remain normal, from day to day. We also need to feed the amoebes all the foods and juices, salts kiddies, and the poopy liquids and pee liquids, and other liquids with other types of tinier salts kiddies in them, as well as other types of food kiddies, we haven't learned about, yet, but with all of them inside your tummy, you'll be able to feed every one who needs feeding, and then you'll be successful with your amoebe 'auto regroverate mode, on!' formula, so long as you have degunked your body of all the petro chemical oils, kerosene, diesel fuels, and other chemicals, the Lesbianists have been feeding you, from birth, in your diets, if you live in a society, where you are fed baby formula mixtures from Gerbers or Heinze, or any of the other baby foods manufacturers.

Putting An End To The Global Menace Of The Lesbianists

We need to put an end to this practice by the Lesbianists of poisoning us with their petro chemical industry oils and tars salts kiddies, which they use to rot our teeth out, and cause tooth decay, and which they use to cause ulcers in people's tummies, and which they use to cause lots of unpleasant illnesses, and diseases in human beings, and in farm animals. These petro chemical salt kiddies, and formaldehyic salts kiddies, all harm our amobes living beings children, and all the other animals that live inside of us. One day, we will have a lot of people practicing my religion, sexaling, and making prayer statements so as to help us to erase the karmic markups we have, that keep us living under the tyranny of these Lesbianists, and in their societies, suffereing the daily poisonings that cut our lives short. When we have erased enough of our karmic markups with my religion's religious practice of sexaling to purify our selfs and others around us, and to clearify and erase our karmic markups, we will eventually be able to say good bye to the Lesbianists, and their practices of poisoning us, and causing us major headaches, or problems in our lives.

Changing Our Societies, And Our Universe, Forever

At that time, we will be able to say hello to a whole new way of life, and that will be the beginning of our new, thrilling, and excitingly challenging, one world, unified, planetary, global culture, and it will be the begining of our new, thrilling, and excitingly challenging, one universe, universal culture for all of the people in our universe, who we have been living in our universe together with, since we first came out, and began living here in my universe, a very long time ago. We have to start somewhere, and so here we are, now, begining to prepare the foundation for our long and prosperous journey ahead of us, as we clean up our universe, together with each other, and clearify and erase all of our karmic markups, and all of the karmic markups of all my children, and of all living beings who live with us, together with us, in my and our universe. We need to take responsibility for this clean up campaign of ours, as we are the only ones, besides my many worker, unionized children, who can use our brains, and use our sexaling organs, to produce purifying energies of all types, to help us clearify and erase all of our karmic markups, and all karmic markups, and karmic things and dings, of all of my animal children, and of all of my living beings children, and of all of my human children.

My kids have built underground cities, to help us to get started, in learning about the new ways of living together, and of sexaling together, for practicing my religion together with each other, so that we will be able to prepare ourselves, for our new global, unified society, and for our new, universal, united, civilization. We have a long ways to go, but we are starting now, with your efforts to correct this situation by eraseing the karmic markups and karmic things and dings, that have us living in this truly awful situation on this planet, in our universe, that we are now, curently living in. One day, when all the Lesbianists are either dead, or have surrendered to my kids, we will be able to gradually educate ourselves, and change our understanding about women and girls, and about men and boys, to understand the truth about women and girls, and about men and boys, and then we will begin our new and exciting journey into our future, together, with my religion at the basis of our new, unified society, universal culture, and universal civilization.

Donations To GOd

Why can't anyone donate any thing to me? I am GOd. So, how come no one can send me a penny in the mail, or a box of cookies, or a pair of socks, or something? I don't think I'm asking for too much, but I'm just curious about why no one can send me anything in the mail?

I don't get any phone calls. No one sends me any e-mail. No one tries to visit me. I have a religion, and I'm asking people to practice it. Now, how come no one can contact me?

I once said that I am in a monastic mode, and it is a cloistered monastic mode. That means, no one can be contacted out side of my monastery by any one inside the monastery, and no one can contact any one inside the monastery, by any one outside the monastery.

If there is no legitimate monastery business then no person will be allowed to contact me, or for that matter, any one else inside my monastery, who is leading a monastic life, with me.

Well, there is only me, right now, but maybe in the future, some one will be in my cloistered monastic discipline with me, helping me with my religious duties of doing my religious ceremonies, as I've mentioned about, before.

Monastic Mode

What does my 'monastic mode' mean? It means that I am here as GOD. You know, there is only me. I of course never sent any one, such as the Lesbianists claim. Why would I? I don't need any one to do the things I need to do. That's sheer idiocy to think I would have a son or daughter, and send them to do my business. That's absurd. You've been snookered into believeing all those hogwash tales, and now you don't know who I am, and you don't have the karma to believe in me, as a result of your following and believeing all those hogwash tales. My kids are everywhere, and they are doing their jobs.

Who Works For Me, Anyway?

Now, as I've been saying, I'm going to have you do your jobs, and that is to use your genitals, and to use your body, and to use your brains, and then participate in my religion, using your genitals and your body and your brain, and sexalate with each other, and purify your karma? Does that sound like a joke to you? If it does, you are very mistaken because it is not a joke in any way, and I am absolutely serious when I say that you are going to use your 'equipment' and I almost want to call it, your 'field' equipment, because you are armed with it, day and night, and you are going to use that equipment, to clearify and erase your karmic markups, and to purify my universe. Is that okay with you? I hope it sure the hell is, as a "NO SIR!" at this point, would be an unsatisfactory reply. Do you understand me? I hope so. You are going to jump ship, as I order you to, or be thrown over board, if you have a problem with that. I hope you understand.

Well, as far as I can figure it, no one realizes that I am GOD, so no one can donate money to me. If some one realizes that I am GOD, than for the first time, that person will be allowed to donate money to me. That person will be allowed to visit me, or call me on the phone, or donate money or food to me, or practice my religious ceremonies with me, if that person believes, and understands, and realizes, that I am GOD.

Right now, there is no one who realizes or understands that I am GOD. No one of course believes I am GOD. Never the less, I am GOD, and I am sitting here, waiting for donations, to help my ministry get started.

So, that is the reason that no one can get through to me, or donate money to me, or send me a postcard with some kind of message of cheer and support in it.

There doesn't seem to be any body who believes that I am GOD. Well, that isn't surprising. People do not have the karma to believe that I exist, is one way of looking at it. They have ignored my existence, and have not had any real thoughts about me that would link them to me, in my monastic mode.

What does that mean? It means, that no one remembers me, as the guy who created all of you. It also means, that I am in a religious mode, and no one understands that, or believes that I am in a religious mode. That is peculiar, since I am giving you a religion, one of my oldest, for you to practice, that will assist you in purifying your life, and that will assist you in eraseing and clearifying your karmic markups. That's very peculiar, but it is not that peculiar, as you do not have the karma to realize and understand that I am GOD. In any case, there will be no donations, no telegrams, and no phone calls or letters to me, so long as you do not realize, understand, and then of course, believe that I am GOD. Well, any way, so it goes.

Obeying Orders

Now, I want all these people, killed. Hillary Clinton. Bill Clinton. Chelsea Clinton. Ted Kennedy. Al Gore. Tipper Gore. Harriet Gore. Cheryl Gore. Dave Gore. Bill Gore, and all people who call them selfs, Gore and pretend to be related to Al Gore, or to Tipper Gore. Mr. Al Gore has lots of friends, who are also Lesbianists, and I want them all killed. Oliver North. Monica Lewinsky. Eve Arden. Elizabeth Arden. Michael Jackson. George Bush Sr. and all other George Bushes. Do you understand what I mean? It means, that they are all Lesbianists and they are all going to die, and we are going to blow up Washington D.C., and destroy Capital Hill, and level that area, and make it sink beneath the waves of the Atlantic Ocean. That's how big a bomb I want you to make, with my fracturable rocks, to then blow that area out of the water, and make it sink below the waves of the Atlantic Ocean. You'll probably need more than one bomb.

Did you know that Washington, D.C. is lying on a fault line, deep down, and it is on an ocean shelf, that has the ocean under it, lapping at the earth, very far down. That means, that it is on a fault line, and it is on a shelf, that is hanging over the ocean's waters.

Now, if you hit Baltimore, and Maryland, and Northern Virginia, and Washington DC with a large enough bomb to blow Baltimore out of the ground, and level it, and with another bomb large enough to blow Washington DC out of the ground and level it, at the same time, and a few more bombs, large enough to blow Maryland, Virginia, and that whole metro area out of the earth, at the same time, you will sink the nation's capital, that is, Washington DC, below the ground, as it will break off the ledge that it sits on, and it will sink into the ocean, as the ledge crumbles below it. There will be water, from the Atlantic ocean, all the way out to West Virginia.

Now. I have every right to say that, and demand this, as it is a matter of self defense, as I know these motherfuckers are eating people, cannibalizing my kids, for their amusement, thrills, and fun, and they will continue to do that UNLESS THEY ARE STOPPPED! Do you understand that?

I hope so. I am going to see the whole of Washington DC and the area leveled, with Baltimore, and Northern Virginia, and Maryland, as well, and we are going to sink that area into the ocean, and make it disappear below the surface of the waters of the Atlantic. Now, that should be clear, shouldn't it.

This is not a joke. We will have to send a lot of my children to my Epcot Center, in the blasts that will occur, and in the after math of the blasts, but that is unavoidable.

We will have many people, drowning in the waters that come in from the ocean, and that stretch out to the hills of West Virginia, with only slight outcrops of land, hills, here and there, with a few people lying on top of them, blinded and in awful pain, but they will not live long, as they will not be able to survive for long, and they will pass on, die, and then they will transel to my Epcot Center, where they can get medical relief, medical treatment, therapy counseling, and rehabilitative therapies. That is what we will do to Washington DC and vicinity, so every one, please prepare for it, and get your pain medication in order, so you can take an over dose of pain pills, when your area is blown and shredded to bits, with one or more of my fracturable rocks bombs, as I've explained about.

Every Politician In The World To Be Executed

Next, I want every politician in the world, canceled out. I want their passports for living on our planet, canceled. That means, I want you to kill each and every one of them. Not only do I want you to kill them, all, but I want you to kill every single one of their associates, around the world. They are all Lesbianists, except for a few of them. If you happen to kill one of the non Lesbianists policitians by mistake, that is okay. They have the option of surrendering to my children, available to them, and once they surrender, they will not be killed, by accident.

Every Hollywood Actor And Actoress To Be Executed

After that, I want every Hollywood actor or actoress killed, and that includes all the actors and actoresses, around the world, and they must surrender to my kids, if they wish to not get killed. There are a lot of them, who are not Lesbianists, so those I've mentioned, who I've let you know are not Lesbianists, you can forget about them, and leave them alone. There are a lot more than thirteen billion Lesbianists living under the earth's surface, in underground cities. I did not realize there were so many. We need to kill them all, so we will, in time, unless they surrender. Is that clear, every body? I hope the answer is, "Yes, Sir!" as you had better not answer any other way, or you will get yourself on my shit list. Is that understood? Good. I am the boss of my universe, so if you do not like it, than jump overboard, now, sailor. Have you got that clear? Good.

Jump Ship, Explained

What does 'jump overboard' mean? It means you are going to have severe problems with me, if you do not obey orders, and that there will be difficulty and jail time, ahead of you, if you continue to ignore my commands to you. It means there is going to be trouble, if you do not obey me. My kids are in charge of handling all the details on that, and it is not a joke.

Fair Warning

We are not going to let these Lesbianists run their show, one more minute. We are going to put an end to them, and their activities, here on this planet, and every where else in my universe, and this is fair warning of that.

Particle Remis Technology And Particle Dismiss Technology

As I said, once before, there is a technology called particle remis technology. There is also a technology called particle dismiss. They are the technologies that you can use to feed 2.3 billion Lesbianists down under the surface of this planet, and on every other planet that they are on.

Dismend Technology And Remend Technology

It is easy to dismiss molecules, and to dismiss, or dismend all the beings who need to be dismended, and sent to my Epcot Centers. It is also easy to remend them, and then get them back into the foods that I need them to be a part of.

My kids keep track of every one who needs to be dismended, and then remended. That is a lot of work, keeping track of every one, but that allows us to dismend the living beings, and animals, that I can let off from duty, and from further service, and then send to my Epcot Centers for them to live in. I can then recall them to duty, and remend them, and then have them serve in an apple or an orange, or banana, or a brick. Do you think that is a joke? It is not a joke, and there is no joking allowed, on my shift. Do you got that? I hope so, because if you do not, you will have to learn how to swim a long ways, as it is going to be a long way from shore, after I ask you to jump over board, and I have sailors who practice, all the time, just to show the passengers how it is done, just in case. I will have you jump from ship, if you do not get along with me, and if you disagree with what I am doing, pretty soon, as we are departing, now, or just about now. That means, we are not going to play around, much longer, and we are going to set sail. That means, there are going to be a lot of people practicing my religion, pretty soon, as they will learn about it, and they will begin practicing it.

Mentalcosis / Mentaltosis And Comatosis

Mentaltosis is the state of a vegetable, like a stalk of cellery, or a plumb, or an orange. Comatosis is the state of complete awareness of self and others. Comatosis is not brain dead, i.e., more or less, mentaltosis, with no real significant brain activities occuring, other than the ones that keep you alive, and vegetative, and you do not need assistance to remain and function in a state of mentaltosis, and the Lesbianists know it. You are severely brainally handicapped, and when you come out of it, eventually, after you have your karma fully completed for being mentaltosically ill, and after it is then time to get on to something else, you will be very brainally handicapped, and you'll be an extremely retarded person, with little to nearly no brain awareness going on about self and others, but able to walk, barely, and later, after many many lifetimes as a mentally retarded individual, you'll begin to be able to mumble a little, or babble a little, for umpteen lifetimes, as you begin to get your higher brain functions, back, which takes a very long time to work out, and many many lifetimes to work out, karmically.

Comatosis is like a hit on the head, and when you wake up, your faculties are not all working, and you may not be able to speak, or move, or talk to your friends, but mentally, you are all there.

Mentaltosis is like a train ran over your brain, and every other nervous system in your body, nearly, and you are completely unable to think, or do any thing else, and you are reduced to a mere pumping heart patient, with not much else going for you, except you are breathing, and technically, you are alive. You can sit there for a million years, or a million or so life times, before you begin to come out of it, and then reveal your disorder of severe mental disorganization, mental disfunction, and mental retardation. There is a big difference between a bonk on the head, and a train running over it, and the rest of your body. Coma patients are fully aware of what is going on around them, and they may not be able to speak, but they are there, and they can twitch a finger, now and then, or flex a toe, or raise their tummy up a tiny bit, to pass gas, usually, and relieve the bloating sensation they are experiencing in their tummy, and in their intestines, or colon. They may be able to grasp your hand, and fully hold on to it, and not let go, for hours, if they have the strength for it. This horrible torture the Lesbianists are perpetrating on comatosic patients, needs to end, now. Person responsible for continuance of hospital policies, despite our informing them of the truth regarding this, are to be shot and killed, and sent to my Epcot Center, if they interfere with the removal of the life support and life support assitive devices, that are plugged into the comatosic patients mouth, or nose, or other orifice of their body, or any part of their body. If some one refuses to cooperate, you are to throw them out of their hospital unit, and give them a good whack on the head. Come back in a few days, and then disconnnect their life support assisitive pumps, and tubes, and so forth, and shoot them in the brain with three 'fivers', as I've explained about, and then send them on their way to my Epcot Center. That is an order. Now do it.

I want you to pull the plugs on all the GI's and civilians who are on a breathing assistance machine, and life support assistance equipment, and I want you to send them all to my Epcot Center, where they can get treatment, and therapy, and then get themselves ready for being born, again, as a fine and a healthy, tummy baby to a tummy mommy, and to tummy daddies. You had better comply, if you know what is good for you, as my kids are now keeping track of your records on this account, and you are not going to do very well, if you do not follow orders. Is that clear. I will not have any insubordination of duty on my watch, and that means, you had better learn to follow orders, or you will be asked to jump over board, and then go for a very long swim to shore.

Michael Jackson

Michael Jackson is the biggest joke in the world. He is a white boy, and he pretends to be related to Janet Jackson, a black woman, partially, and they pretend to be related, and he is as white as an elbow macaroni, or a white goose. He is not a black person, though he does have some black ancestry, but he is a primarily white person, and he pretends to have bleached his skin color, which is a crock of shit. Now, I want you to kill that mother fucker, as well as Sylvestor Stallon, and Arnold Schwarznegar, Clint Eastwood, Morgan Freeman, Kirk Douglas, Matt Damon, Robert De Niro, Anthony Hopkins, Gary Busey, and their Lesbianists' buddies.

Retractions

Mr. Jerry Springer is not a Lesbianist. I was mistaken about him, as he was already killed by them, in a previous lifetime, as he developed a desire to bad mouth them, and they didn't like him, and they kicked him out of their group, and they killed him, with their murderous torture routines. Penelope Cruz is not a Lesbianist, but she was, but they killed her, and tortured her, and she is off the list. Angelica Huston is not a Lesbianist. She was, but they killed her, after torturing her. She is a popular and prominent person, and if she hasn't been abducted yet, by the Lesbianists who will feed her to my abominant kids, like they did to Steve Irwin, and Jeff Corwin, then they will be gettting around to it, not too long from now, as they like to feed her to the abominant kids of mine, just as they do Bill Gates, and lots of other, former Lesbianists. None of the Baldwin brothers are Lesbianists, either, as they were already kicked out, and killed by them, and then grievously tortured by them. They continue to be main attractions for feeding to my abominant kids. Jack Nicholson is not a Lesbianist, now, either, but he was. Ben Affleck is not a Lesbianist, as he was also kicked out of their organization, after they tortured and killed him. Charley Sheen is not one, either, but he was. Martin Sheen is not a Lesbianist, but he works for them, and he was one, before they kicked him out, after they tortured him, and killed him, in a previous lifetime. Michael Douglas is no longer a Lesbianist, either, as they killed him, after their brutal torturing of him. He is up for being abducted, and for being fed to the abominant kids of mine, as he is a prominent person, and Kirk Douglas enjoys watching him get eaten up, and Kirk Douglas will laugh his guts out, as he watches Michael Douglas get tortured by the Lesbianists, which Kirk Douglas is a confirmed member of. Cher Bonno is not a Lesbianist, as I was mistaken in memory, though she was a leader for a while with Oliver North, she was killed by them, after being tortured, because she was getting "soft". Sunny Bonno was a Lesbianist, as well, but he was also killed after being tortured, officially kicking him out of the members league of Lesbianists. Sunny Bonno was captured, and abducted, and a body double was placed on a coroner's table, and Cher Bonno knew that the body double who was dead, who looked like Sunny Bonno, was not Sunny Bonno. The Lesbianists subsequently fed Sunny Bonno, after they captured him off the ski slopes, to my abominant kids. Elizabeth Taylor was thrown out of the corp of Lesbianists, after they heinously tortured her, and murdered her, and the Lesbianists have her slated, scheduled, after they find a way to abduct her, for feeding her to my abominant kids. Dennis Miller is not a Lesbianist. Though he was one, after torturing him, and sushi-izing him, please see my notes on that, the Lesbianist's sushi-izing of Dennis Miller eventually killed him.

It's hard to keep track of some people, as to whether or not they are currently Lesbianists. Others, are not so hard to keep track of, and I want all of those mentioned, killed, immediately.

On Praying, Fucking, Sucking And So Forth

You are rewarded for praying Nam Myeo Ho Ren Ge Kyeo. You are also rewarded for fucking, sucking, tounging, licking, fingering, dicking or massaging your dick against a woman's bun bun, or inside of her butt hole, where there are lots of sensitivities buttons that get her clicking and eroteming and orgasming, or against her titties to get her eroteming and orgasming, and so on, and for palming or massaging a pelvital button, or the love and joy stick, the dick, or a love button or love patch, igniter switch, or whatever nerve sending touch sensitive love joy button there is embedded into your body, in the pelvis, groin, vagina, and in the musculatures of the groin, pelvis, and vagina, with the palm of your hand, and so on. You also get rewarded for throating a woman with your dick, as there are lots of love buttons in her mouth, and throat, lips, and so forth. Men also have love buttons in their lips, throats, tounges, mouths, butthole, and on their body, and those buttons also get clicking, and turning on and off, and sending sensitivities messages or signals, nerve pulses, up the eroteming nerval system and up the orgasming nerval system. You get rewarded for dicking men and boys in the throats, and in the buttholes, and their bodies, just as you get rewarded for dicking women. There is no discrimination in this area, and every one is equally rewarded for their meritorious acts of dicking others, women, girls, men, and boys.

Why are you rewarded for praying Nam Myo Ho Ren Ge Kyeo, and for dicking, fucking, and sucking, bumbeying, or moving your vaginal bumbey package against a woman's sexaling body parts to erotemize your self, and the woman, and for breasting your titties, i.e, rubbing your titties against or flopping them against and massaging them against a woman's butty butt or against her other sexaling body parts to get you and your friend sexually erogenized i.e., sexually stimulated, erotemized, and orgasming, and for other sexaling activities that help you and your friend and friends to produce purifying sexaling energies?

You are rewarded for your praying and for your fucking, sucking, dicking, and so forth, for helping to get every thing and every body going at the right pace in synch with every thing and every body else, for every body in my universe who is working for me, to keep them moving in harmony, perfectly meshed and in synch and in a timed persuasive mosture, with each other, so as to keep my universe standing up, strong, wholesome, robust, healthy, well, and fine. You are rewarded for praying as well as for sexaling, as you help move my children along as they do their work, as you pray and as you sexal and spray out energies from eroteming, from erotistically orgasming, and from sexually orgasmically convulsing, i.e., phlumetting, while you shatter out and spray out purifying energies in all directions, that will clearify and erase your karmic markups, and the karmic markups of others, all around you, for millions and more of miles, way out beyond where you are activiating and religialing, i.e., sexaling.

Your dicking, sucking, licking, titty massaging others, and so forth, will get wonderful and wholesome, GODLY, purifying energies shooting out of your bodies, and the energies shoot out at rates of speed that also help my universe to keep synchronized, and to move along at the right pace for it to be able to stand up and remain stable and solid, durile, strong, wholesome, pure, and a nice place to live in.

Every one who works for me, has a rate of speed they work at, a life pace, or life spin. We all have a pace of life. In some cities, it is fast and hustling. In some places, it is slow and whimsical. My kids work according to a rate of speed that is metered, and they keeps every one moving as best as they can, according to this metered pace. The metered synchronized pace that my children work at the rate of is one thirty seventh and one fifth, approximately, on the metronome.

If you help to push my kids along at that rate of speed, or a rate of speed that is close to it, as you pray at a metered synchronized pace and rate of speed, and as you fuck, suck, and so forth at a metered synchronized pace and rate of speed, then you are rewarded with angel dusts, or purifying energies faerie dusts that my kids daub on your head, and throw buckets loads of over your head and body and that they wash your insides out with and that they wash your body, inside and outside, with as they shower them all over you on the outside of your body, and all around in your body on the inside of you, which then help to clean you up and clearify your karmic markups, cleanse your karma, and purify your life, making you a shining, radiant, pure and holy being, though you may not notice at first, as we are too filthy, karmically speaking, to notice the changes, as our karma is too thick and mucky to allow us to feel the changes that are taking place in our karma and life.

I have a gradient scale for how close you keep people moving, and at what rate of speed you help to push them along, and as you help to push my kids along, so that they can do their work, you are rewarded, in accordance with my gradient scale, with more angel dusts or purifying energies for better preformance, and with less angel dusts for poorer or less effective performance. You have to do some thing that will help my kids move along at a metered pace, so that they can get their work done. Praying Nam Myeo Ho Ren Ge Kyeo sets off a time frame synch. A time frame synch is the metered click, click, click, of the metronome. This time frame synch or metered pace, that you achieve while praying, Nam Myeo Ho Ren Ge Kyeo, will help keep every one moving, at the right pace, if you pray it in a rythym and at a rate of speed that will synch up with a metronome at one thirty seventh and one fifth, approximately. Your efforts to help keep my kids working and moving at a consistent rate of speed, will get rewarded, thus for praying, Nam Myeo Ho Ren Ge Kyeo, you are rewarded, with purifying energies, that my kids dump on you.

Your efforts for fucking, sucking, licking, tounging, titty whipping or banging your titty nipple against the vagina of a woman or girl, dicking, fingering, palming, and so forth, all get rewarded, if you try to keep every thing in synch with the metered pace of the metronome at one thirty seventh and one fifth, approximately. The gradient scale also applies, of course, as you are fucking and sucking, etc., so the better the job you do of keeping your pace at one thirty seventh and one fifth, approximately, the higher your rewards will be. Your rewards are the same, more or less, for both praying and for fucking and sucking, and my kids sprinkle and dump angel dusts, purifying energies, on you as a reward. You also get markups that are meritorious, and you are rewarded with a better and happier life.

Further, when you are orgasming, and eroteming, or pushing out energies as you orgasm, and erotem, you will be pushing out energies that shoot out at consistent rates of speed. These rates of speeds of these energies are in concordance with our pace of life, they all perfectly mesh with the paces of life that my kids keep. The energies as they pass out, and push along through time and space, at synched up and consistent rates of speeds, all help to keep my kids moving along as they do their work and tasks, and they all help to keep our universe, standing up, strong, healthy, wholesome, well, and fine.

Chaos breaks the legs off the foundation to our universe, and our universe begins to creak and moan, as it begins to crumble, slide, twist, and tumble downwardsly. Making chaotic noises, and chaotic movements, detracts from the harmonics of our universe. Your breaking glasses, and breaking skulls, and legs, and arms, are also chaotic events producing, in most cases, and they will detract from the perfect synch up of our universe, as leg bones and arm bones, skulls, fingers and toes, begin to splinter, as you apply pressures to them, you get negative markups for your actions. A record is kept of every chaotic action you take, or make, and if you make enough chaos, in your lifetime, and in your following lifetimes, then you will suffer from your poor records of performance for keeping my universe standing up, wholesome, healthy, happy, and well.

Every scream you cause to be vocated or vocalized, is recorded, and the intensity of the scream, and yell, and crying out in pain, plus a lot of other factors involved, are all recorded by my kids, and you get negative marks for that kind of performance.

The love making oooohs, and aaaahhhs you cause to be vocated, are harmonic appeals of soothing restfullness to the spirit, and to the mind, are also graded, and you are graded on how well you can cause others to produce them, and your scores are kept, and if you are a lousy performer, with more negatives than positives, you'll end up with a lousy life, as a result, as you are rewarded in accordance for your positive performance, as well as for your negative performance.

Helping to keep all of my children working in harmony, and doing their jobs and tasks, at a metered pace, will be rewarded, not only with angel dusts, but also with a better life with more positive fortune, as you recieve positive points or merit points for your collaborating with my children, and working to support them, and more fun as your life becomes graced with more positive merits and as your rewards begin to pile up, and more good things begin to go on in your life.

If you sit on the side of your chair and have a pair of drum sticks, or are using a bongo drum, or calypso drum, with the long tube belly, or stack, a long barrel tubed drum, or if you sit at your drum set, or set up your electronic drum pads, and begin pounding away, in a syncopated manner, for your pleasure, just drumming away, with no notion in mind as to any thing other than achieving a nice rythym for you and your friends to listen to, if you happen to be with friends, your merit points will be near zero, and your efforts will not rate on my gradient scale, as your actions will not be in accordance with my program for a better universe for all people, and for my kids to live and work in.

If, however, you have the attitude, "I wish to support John's kids, and syncopate myself while I'm drumming, so as to be supportive of John's kids, to help John's kids work in a syncopated manner, doing all I can to support John's kids", then, your merit points as you drum, will go sky high, through the roof, and you'll get meritorious benefits for your efforts, or merit points, and good marks, for your efforts. It's like helping kindly old women, who are frail and in need of a helping hand and support, cross the street. If you act in a kindly and charitable manner to help support those around you, you get meritorious points for your efforts. These efforts of your's, however kindly, regrettably, though they are kindly efforts, are not the kinds of efforts that we need, my kids and me, need to keep my universe standing up, and moveing strongly. For efforts that support my kids work environment, and that lend a hand to them to help them to get their work done, your meritorious efforts marks will go through the roof, and you'll be blessed with angel dusts, i.e., purifying energies that help to clean up your karma, and erase and clearify your karmic markups, or marks that record your bad and cruel, or negative actions towards others, and towards your self. You can kill your self, and cause grief to others, as a result of your departure, to my Epcot Center, and that rates negative marks and negative points markings or markups for you.

When you try to do any thing, that will help to syncopate my children, and to make my children's working environement more syncopated, and rythmical, with your concentrated mind, and determination to make that a reality, in other words, a prayerful attitude in mind, hoping to make John's children's working environments syncopated, and rythmical, and in rythym with every one elses', i.e., all of my other kids' syncopated working environements, then with that attitude of hopefulness, or a prayerful attitude, than, you are rewarded for your efforts, and determination, and as you drum away, or pound and beat on your calypso drum, or on your metal Bahamian or Tinian, or Haitian, or Jamaican, drums, or on your dresser drawers, if your mom does not mind, as you pound away, keeping your mind set on your determination to keep all of my kids working in unison with each other, and helping them to keep in syncopated harmony, all in perfect flux, and perfectly meshed in timing, with every one else, as they work for me, then your rewards and positive points markups, will be very high, and you'll be rewarded by my children, with angel dusts that they daub on your forehead, and dump all over you, from their barrels they carry full of angel dusts, or purifying energies to clearify your markups from your karmic markup piles, kept inside of your body, kept in storage in the molecules.

If you listen to music that is syncopated to the timing of one thirty seventh and one fifth on the metronome, or closely syncopated to it, you will be rewarded for merely listening to it, and you'll receive faerie and angel dusts, purifying energies, as my kids daub them on your head, and spray them all over you, inside and out.

Your markups are inside the molecules inside your body, but they are also out side of your body, in every molecule, nearly, going way out to the very farthest edges of my universe. We will eventually get to all of them, and purify or clearify and erase all of your karmic markups, the notations and records that my kids keep on you, and on your activities, and eventually, we'll get them all, and your life will then be full of grace and happiness. It will be a long time before we get to all of them, as you and I and every one in my universe, have been here, and enormous length of time.

As you drum, or skip, or dance, or do areobics, in syncopation, with the attitude that you want to keep all of John's kids in step, and in synch, and in unison and harmonicly meshed and in perfect flux with each other, or perfectly meshing with each other, and every one else who works for me, whether you drum, skip, dance, or do areobics, it does not matter, if your mind is set and determined to help my kids, with your efforts, you will be rewarded for your efforts, no matter whether you skip, jump rope, dance, or areobically excercise.

As you sexalate, if you keep in your mind that you wish to keep all of John's kids in syncopated harmony, perfectly in flux, and in unison, just as when you are drumming, or skipping rope, or dancing, or playing basketball, or playing tennis, or badminton, or any sport, with your movements all timed, and in perfect syncopation, when you sexal with the right attitude to keep John's kids in synch, perfectly meshed in perfect accordance and flux, with each other, and with every one else, you will be rewarded grandurally, that is, grandly, or in a grand or very great manner.

Excercising And Activiating To Music Timed To One Thirty Seventh On The Metronome

Music timed to one thirty seventh on the metronome, and one fifth, or as close to one thirty seventh on the metronome that you can get, is okay, and it will help you to dance, play tennis, play sports, do areobic excercises, and other types of activities, at that pace that we need to keep to help keep my kids working smoothly, and you'll be graded on your performance, and on your attitude while you are dancing, or excercising, and the more intently you concentrate and use your mental energies and mental control to stay in synch, and in step, the better will your scores be, and the higher your marks, and the greater your rewards of purifying angel dusts and purifying energies that my working and unionized kids will pour and spread all about you, inside and out, and all over you.

Sexaling itself is a religious act. Yes. That's true. But, if you sexalate with this powerful prayerful attitude, or hope in mind, with your determined mind, and your concentrated mind, as you sexalate, and help others to sexalate, and help others to erotem, orgasm, phlumett, and shatter off wonderful energies from orgasming, eroteming, and phlumetting, your positive points and merit marks, and many other types of scores my kids keep on your efforts and behavior, all of them will go higher than any one can see, way out beyond the furthest galaxy that you can possibly see from your bedroom window, with your telescope. They'll go out to the futhest edges of my current univerese, and even beyond the barrier walls, holding up our universe, that my kids put in, to keep our universe standing up, stable, strong, and durile or durable and with tensile integrity.

Any action for helping my kids do their work, syncopated, and in unison, and in harmony, will be rewarded, with angel dusts, and with positive marks and score points in your records that we keep on you and every one else in my universe. Your sexaling actions get rewarded, far more than any other activityating, as your sexaling actions are the most needed actions, to keep my universe, pure, durile, holy, sacred, free from negativities, healthy, wholesome, stable, and constantly in a state of improvementing.

Most people go around destroying things, and causing chaos. We, my kids and I, need people who are going to help improve the wonderfulness of our, my, yours, my kids, and all of my other kids, wether they work for me, or not, meaning, all of my guppies, who are like you, my relatively normal kids, as well as all of my abnormal kids, the abominants kids I've got, that go around thinking it is funny to eat people, and to pull them into their mouths, and crush them in miserable pain and agony, like my elephants abominants kids do to relatively normal human beings kids of mine.

Fisting And Punching People With Your Clenched Hands And Crasping Or Clasped Knuckles

You all have been bad kids, all of my guppies, all of you who do not work for me and go around thinking, 'Oh, gee. Aren't I special.' My guppies are these minded people, who are arrogant, who talk back to their mama's and to their papa's, and to their relatives, and brothers and sisters, and to their friends in school, and to their teachers. Later in life, they become worse, and they talk back with their actions of being mean to each other. As my guppies grow older, and become older people, they start fisting others, and that means, punching people, hitting them with their clenched fists and hard knuckles, and hurting them when they pound on their face, or on their stomach, or on their body some where, and break bones, and tear muscles, and stretch ligaments with their pounding each other.

Phlooching Out And Fisting The Vaginal Cavity, Rectal Cavity, And Mouthal Cavity

Fisting is a word used by some people to mean, to insert your hand into the vagina of a woman, and gay people, homosexually driven people, fist each other in the butt hole, if either men or women, or in the vagina, if women. Some people find it interesting to fist each other in the mouth, by sticking their fist inside the mouth of a person, pretending it is a dick or a dildoe. You need to phlooch out the neck muscles, and billow them up, or poof them up and out, and that will help them to gently relax, and then become expandable or stretchable, as when they relax, they will easily stretcth out, and there will be some give, or freedom of expandingness. The neck muscles then become easy to stretch and push on from the inside with out hurting the person. It then is easy to insert your fist into the throat, to massage the inside of the throat, and to use your hand, or fist, to tickle the igniters, and triggers that set off love buttons and bells, and whistles, that help women and men to erotem, orgasm, and phlumett.

Fisting by inserting your fist into the vagina of a woman, when it is relaxed, and after you've massaged if for many hours, and after it begins to billow out, or poof out, and then open wide, and then you can see inside of it, and from the entrance of the vagina, there is a clear gaping cavity, you can then insert your clenched fist hand into, to massage the inside of the vaginal cavity. Doing this is very nice, and is very exciting to do, to help women and girls to erotem, orgasm, and phlumett. You can phlooch out the butt hole, by massaging it, for several hours, and it will begin to poof out, and expand, and you'll see a nanny gate face on it, and that means, it will begin to look a little bit like a vulva, or the vagina of a woman or girl when at rest, or exposed between a woman's or girl's legs as she is sitting or relaxed with no panties on or with no or few clothes on and nothing covering her hips, pelvis, lower pelvis, pelvital ridge, crotch and groin, butt and butthole and lower back, there by exposing her butt and vagina. If you compare a vagina with a phlooched out butthole, you will see they resemble each other, slightly. There is no vaginal cleavage of course, around the butthole, but there is a slight resemblence between a phlooched out butt hole, and a vagina, or vulva, none the less.

The Vagina And Vulva Compared To The 'Nanny Gated' Butthole

What is the difference between a vagina and a vulva? They are more or less the same, but the vagina includes lots of parts, inside as well as out side. The vulva is outside, basically, only, as far as I understand and remember these things, now. When you massage a butthole, long enough, it will begin to look like a vulva, or vaginal face. That's called the nanny gate, or on the male, the male butthole vagina, as I've spoken about it, before. On the woman, it is the female butthole vagina, a double 'immitation vagina' for the real one, as I've mentioned. Men's and women's buttholes are the same, and they both look like 'immitation vaginas' as I've also mentioned, after you phlooch out the butt hole of either the female or of the male. Once you phlooch out the butthole of a man or of a woman, it will poof out, and expand, and the butthole entrance and cavity will become relaxed, and easy to insert your clenched fist into, to then push up your fist into the butthole cavity, and massage it, once the person has cleaned out the butt hole cavity and once it is clear and free from debris matter, or food matter, and rotting food particles, and fleshy foods, or hamburger meat and so on. Phlooching out the vaginal caivity takes a little longer, but with patience, you can phlooch it out, and then fist, in this manner. If you phlooch out the butt hole, and rectal cavity, you can fist your male friends, and your female friends, and every one, once they have cleaned out their poop hole, and made it free from rotting debris, will enjoy mutual, and reciprocal, fisting. Fisting in this way, for sexaling, is alright. Fisting in the other way, for beating people up, is not nice, and you are given poor marks for your actions of nautyness, meaness, and cruelty towards others.

Over the long course of time, you all have been naughty at one time or another. I have many ways to fix you, and to retrain you, and to rehabilitate you, but you always go bad, and sour, again, as that is your main drive, or driving internal force in your lives.

The Importance Of Kindlyness And Teamwork

Why have all of my guppie kids all gone south, or in other words, gone down the road towards unkindlyness? Because, as I've explained, you forgot what the Love Of GOD is. My religion will help people to understand what the Love Of GOD is, and that will help keep them on the correct path of kindly actions towards others, and it will help them to understand and remember that teamwork to help my working, unionized kids to keep our universe healthy, strong, durile, standing up, stable, a safe and happy place to live, and a wonderful place to live, is very important.

Doing things that support my kids working efforts, will be rewarded, and doing things that detract from the harmony and syncopation of the metered pace of my kids who are working, and that slows them down, and that causes dischordance, will not be favorably rewarded, and you'll become a female schmuck, or a male schmuck over the length of time, as you live on in my universe. A schmuck is an unlikeable person. Sexaling is the most important thing there is for us to do, other than feeding ourselves correctly to keep us healthy, and excercising, and leading a balanced, well regulated life, listening to your mama and to your papa. My religion is based on sexaling, as sexaling is the most holy and pure activity we can participate in, or do by ourselves.

All the bullshit propaganda of the Lesbianists, that Jesus said this, and that Buddha said this, and that God will save you if you do this, and so forth, is pure balooney, bullshit, and made up nonsense. I, GOD, will not do any thing for any body, unless you help me and my children to make this universe, a more kindly, and a more wonderful and prosperous universe for all of us. If you do, I will have my kids, bless you with angle dusts as they daub them on your forehead, and then pour barrels of angel dusts over you, as they dump barrels full over your head and body, for your extra good work, sexaling, in syncopation, with my kids working rythyms, and in rythym with their syncopations, flux, and their phenomenal elegance.

Phenomenal Elegance

What is phenomenal elegance? It is their keeping harmony with each other as they work and keep every thing in order, in my universe for me, GOD.

You can not escape from this reality of your good actions and your bad actions being recorded, as my kids keep records on every one, and we make certain every one is rewarded for their good actions, and we make certain that every one recieves as close to what they deserve, to help balance things out, in accordance with their markups, for their bad actions. If they are bad, they will not meet nice people, and they will meet naughty people, and not so nice things may begin to happen between them. If they are good, and if they try to help my kids, as I've explained about, they will get rewarded, and they will slowly begin to break away from keeping company with bad people, and they will gradually ascend to higher rankings or status, and then they will begin to lead a better life, and they will begin to escape from meeting with bad people, and the good kids' lives will become blessed by my kids, as my kids begin to sprinkle angel dusts on the good kids, and daub the heads of the good kids with purifying energies, and then dump purifying energies all over the bodies of the good kids who listen to their mama's and papa's, and sexal with them, and as they sexal with their mama's and papa's, and sisters and brothers, relatives, neighbors, and others, the good kids help my kids keep this universe running smoothly, in harmony, in flux, perfectly meshed, and in perfect syncopation. Mama's, papa's, sisters, brothers, relatives, neighbors, and others, all get their heads blessed with angel dusts, purifying energies, for their good actions along with the good kids, you, I hope, of course, too.

Plurlbalescent / Plurablescent Nature Of Negative Punishments And Positive Rewards

This is very important for every body to understand. I have my working, unionized kids reward the good people, and I have my working, unionized kids keep records on every action of every one of you, and I have my kids make sure the bad kids, meet with what they deserve, or some thing close to it, which may not be too nice, most of the time, and I have my kids make sure that the good kids, all meet with what they deserve, or something close to it, and that is usually always something nice. It may sometimes not be something conspicuously nice, but it is nice, usually, or positive in nature, always. The bad kids will get rewarded by something that is negative in nature, always, usually, or plurlbalescent. What does plurlbalescent mean? It means, it might not be noticably negative, but it is still negative, in nature, in essence. This is a topic we can discuss, another time, or you can ask my kids for more information on it, when you go in and visit them, with your mama's and papa's, sisters and brothers, relatives, school teachers, principal, costodians, janitors, school workers, and others.

We have had too much chaos of late, and for quite some time, and it is now time to slow it, and bring it to a halt. We are going to produce positive harmonic concordances that will assist my kids as they work, and that will help them to stay working in harmony with each other, with your fucking, sucking, eroteming, orgasming, your shooting out of purifying energies as you orgasm, and erotem, and with the increase of the oooohs, and aaaahs, you help to produce, with your practice of my religion.

We have to bring an end to the moronic violence of the Lesbianists. If that requires a lot of my children, making lots of babies, and lots of energies, and percussive forces, when you set off a fracturable rock bomb, then that is what it will take, as you blow Washington DC and the Baltimore metro area off its ocean ledge, and into the Atlantic, with that fracturable rock bomb, if it is big enough. Yes, there will be lots of painful, ouches, and screams, and so forth, but it is trite, compared to the violence these idiots have been perpetrating, over the long span of time that they have been in my universe.

We have been here for a very long time. It is nearly impossible to figure out how long, other than with mathmatical computations. Our brains will burn out, if we try to figure it out in our heads. It does not matter how long we have been here. It does matter what we do while we are here. You are not going any where else, and you are all staying in my universe, so you will all drop your pants, and your dresses, remove your shoes, socks, clothes, underwares, panty hosees, and panties, disrobe, and begin helping others to make lots of ooohs, and aaaahs, and lots of eroteming and orgasming energies. That will be the begining of your getting into line with the rest of us, here in my universe, my kids who work for me. As you eroto with each other, you'll get graded on your performance, and you'll get paid by my kids, once you join our country, as I've explained about, before.

Timed Persuasive Mosture

What is a timed persuasive mosture? It is just keeping every body in synch with each other, persuasively and accurately moving along, orderly, in an ordered fashion or manner, and with every body in rythm and syncopated with each other.

Mosture is a type of motus, or motion or fluidity of movement. The timed fluidity or fluidness of my kids working along in synch with each other, is critical to having every thing in my universe, standing up and sturdy, with every thing holding together, as it should be. Otherwise, if my kids and their work get out of synch, things can come crashing down, and things can come falling apart, and we do not want that.

This is a big universe, and we have a lot of people in it, my kids, and you wouldn't believe how many kids I have. Anyway, they all have to stay in syncopated, fluid motion, with their paces of life perfectly meshing with each other's paces of life, to accomplish their jobs and tasks, in an orderly, and in a fluid movement, harmoniously, and without delays.

The persuasiveness is accomplished with the help of your sexaling, and by your keeping pace, and synching your sexaling activities, and the movements involved in your sexaling activities, and by your spraying out your energies, as you erotem, orgasm, and phlumett. The persuasiveness is also accomplished by your keeping pace in unison with others while you are praying the syncopated phrase, Nam Myeo Ho Ren Ge Kyeo.

Every thing is timed, and so as you activiate, or carry out these activities of sexaling, eroteming, orgasming, phlumetting, as well as the movements involved in sexaling, and as you pray, your synching of your movements and sounds in time and in pace with the syncopated and metered metronome click, click, click, at the timed pace of one thirty seventh and one fifth, on the metronome, approximately, helps to persuasively move, or persuasively drive and push, every body about, and along, as they do their work for me, in their many syncopated paces of life, or life spins. I have many children working at different life spins, as I've mentioned before, and each group of them has a different pace of life, or time spin. Your activiating, as explained, helps drive them along, each at their own pace of life, or time spin, perfectly meshed with every other child of mine, also in his or her, and at his or her own particular time rate of speed, time spin, life spin, or, pace of life.

Every one and every thing must move along in perfect flux, or perfectly meshed with every body, and with every thing that is going on in my universe, on every possible level. There are many levels where activities are going on, and many people are working at different life spins. Every one, no matter what level they are on, and at no matter what life spin they are living at, must stay in flux, perfectly meshed and in perfect harmony, perfectly syncopated with every one, else.

You are rewarded for your helping to move my kids along, in perfect flux perfectly meshing with every one and with every thing that is going on in my universe, with your efforts at sexaling, and with your praying, as explained, earlier.

In our new society, which we will create, you will score earning points, and every thing you do, as you sexal, and so forth, and as you pray, is scored, and a record of your capabilities, or excellence, or lack of excellence, is kept. You are paid according to your work performance, as you sexal, activiate, pray, erotem, orgasm, and phlumett. Also, you are graded on how well you get along with others, and on how well you try to harmonize and then sexalate with others. You score earning points, accordingly, and you get paid, according to how well you perform.

Keeping Every Thing And Everybody In Harmony And In Synch

Explaining how this works, how praying, fucking, sucking, dicking and hugging, etc., helps keep every thing in synch and in harmony and how your efforts are rewarded, is a tiny bit more complicated than my simple explanation, but that is it in a peanut shell.

For those Lesbianists hiding among you who do not wish to surrender, you Lesbianists will find we are not going to be acting kindly towards you. All of you Lesbianists, where ever you are in Washington DC, or hiding underground, or in Paris, or in Rome, Peking, and so forth, you will be dealt with harshly, as we need to put a stop to your activities, and a "maybe" is not acceptable in this case. We are not going to allow you to continue your chaotic, nonsensical, violent activities one moment longer, and we will blow you up flying high up into the sky, and off the ocean ledge down below you, in Washington DC, as we sink your Washington DC area into the ocean, along with all of Northern Virginia, and the ocean coastal area of Maryland and Baltimore, along with large parts of the states of Virginia and Maryland, out to West Virginia, as that area settles down into and below the waves of the Atlantic Ocean, after we bomb it with one or more of my fracturable rocks weapons for mass removal of Lesbianists from the face of the earth and from their hiding places under the surface of the earth. The Lesbianists in the Washington metro area and hiding under it, had all better surrender to my kids, or they will all get their pants and clothes blown off and shredded from their bodies, if they do not, as they are given a free ride out and up into the upper atmospheres of our planet, and then, beyond. All other Lesbianists had better surrender, too, or they risk getting a free ride out, as well.

Deep Sea Ocean Trench Off The East Coast Of The United States

There is a trench that extends south wards from Washington DC, some times reaching 25 miles out in some places, and in other places, it reaches out to eight hundred miles from the shore. In the north, it reaches out in some places, 85 miles out to one hundred and twenty five miles out, to three hundred and fifty five miles out, to eight hundred miles out in some places, in the south.

It is fifteen miles deep when you go out forty five miles off the coast from Washington DC and from the Chesapeak Bay. The ledge bottom is found about three and one half miles down, and the mouth of the opening continues for ten miles, approximately, downwardsly, on the western side of the trench. The It has a gaping mouth, and it opens up and lets ocean water inland, under the continent, eighty five miles down below Washinton DC, three to six to eight miles wide, from top to bottom, from the underside of the top of the mouth, the bottom of the ledge, to the bottom of the mouth. From under the nation's capital, to the south, it travels to over eight hundred and eighty five miles. To the north, it travels three hundred and thirty five miles, to six hundred and fifty miles, to about nine hundred and fifty nine miles, inland under the continent, depending on where you wish to locate the edge of it under the continent, northwardsly. It travels to the west, inland, three hundred and thirty five miles, to just over eight hundred miles, depending on where you find the edge of it. It travels inland further westardsly, the further you travel north. It is slightly over one thousand and eight hundred miles from north to south, in total, as you'll discover, once you explode enough, and after you explode large enough fracturable rock bombs, over Northern Virginia, Maryland, Washington DC, Baltimore, covering the metro area vicinity.

The U.S. Navy, and the U.S. Coastguard know about the trench, or parts of it. They are not allowed to discuss it with anyone. No one is allowed out there, to research it as it is off limits to just about every one. Some navy personel of high rank, and coast guard personel of high rank, are allowed out to take soundings, every now and then, with their Lesbianists' staff members, and Lesbianists' personel in the Navy, and in the Coast Guard. The Soviets, at least, Boris Yeltzin, Vladmir Putin, Mikhael Gorbachev, and Zelda Gorbachev, know about it, and so do all the other Lesbianists. They can confirm it, if they wish to play ball with me, and if they wish to save their asses, after they decide to surrender to my children.

The Shelfs Systems And Trenches Systems

The shelf estends to under Lexington Kentucky, at about ten miles below it. It is five miles up under Chatanooga Kentucky. It is five miles below Washington D.C., in some areas. It is three miles below Baltimore Maryland, in some parts of the city. It is eight miles up below Pittsburg, Pennsylvania. It is fifty five miles up below, or under, West Chesterfield, New York. It comes up to eighteen to thirty miles below McLean Virgina. It is eighty eight miles below Norfolk, and the mouth, downwardsly, is five to ten to fifteen miles wide open, in a downwardsly direction. It some areas, it can be found below Ohio, and under Indiana. It crosses under the West of Kentucky, and into the south of Illinoise, five to ten, to thirty miles. It is a variegated trench system. It extends to Tennissee, parts of North Carolina, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, South Carolina, and to under parts of Northern and Western Florida, and is open out and into the Gulf of Mexico. The whole area of Eastern U.S.A., is sitting on an open shelf, trench system, and there is water passing below it, and out into the gulf, in several areas, over to eighty five miles west of Corpus Cristi, Glen Garden, population eight hundred and fifty, which south of Galveston, and north of Corpus Cristi, between the two cities. There is a mouth eigty five miles south of Tampa Bay, Florida, in the Gulf of Mexico. There are several openings or mouths to the underground fault line system, and deep sea ocean trench system, and shelfs systems, and water is passing from the Atlantic to the Gulf of Mexico. There is also a trench system in the north, under Niagra, that extends southwards, several hundred miles, and it has many branches to it, and it extends into this system of shelfs, trenches, and under continental water flows.

Side Bender Currents

What is a side bender? It is a current comeing out of the mouth of an opening, from under a continental shelf system, that allows waters to flow out. As the water flows out of the mouth, the outlet current of water, it flows very forcefully in an outwardsly direction, and it pushes the water out with great force, generally. If a submarine is traveling in the vicinity of a side bender, the submarine may get hit broadside, and that will often turn the submarine topsy turvy, and around facing the opposite direction it was traveling in, or another direction, not the one it was traveling in, most often. The crew will get swung about inside the submarine, and they will fly through the cabin, and pounce off the floor to the ceiling, and hit the ceiling, and then hit the sides of the corridor they were walking along in, and finally end up on the floor when the submarine rights itself, with its balast, and you'll get many sprained or stretched ligaments, and broken bones, arms, wrists, fingers, legs, knees, ankles, feet, toes, necks, backs, hips, spinal injuries, and other injuries. It can leave a crew of a submarine nearly one hundred percent, injured and in a ship's hospital, or a Navy or military hospital for recovery. Side benders are often called upwellings of currents by the Navy, but that is not generally the case as they are not upwellings, but they are side pushing currents, that come flowing out from under continental water flow openings, horizontally. There may be some upwards lift involved, if there is a reason, such as a mouth is angled at a slight sloping angle, as it releases the flowing waters out from its tube like cavity or hole.

Crew members and military passengers of Naval submarine vessels are generally told not to talk or discuss any thing about side benders with non Navy persons, and with persons unrelated to their ship or unrelated to their ships voyage, as the governments of the world, do not want any one to find out about side benders, and they do not want people, geologists, marine geologists, undersea deep sea ocean studies researchers, or others, to research and investigate side benders. It's a big secret, these side benders, and that's what the marines, and the navy personel are sworn to keep, or face a fireing squad, on insubordination, or on some trumped up charge of spreading naval secrets, acting as a foreign spy and receiving money, or something like that. Naval personel will generally obey orders, and not discuss side benders, or other 'secret' information, with any one, as they risk losing their job, and they might face a fireing squad, or a hanging patrol, sometimes called a marching platoon, or a hanging platoon, a group of soldiers commissioned to carry out orders to hang some one who is in the military. If you pay a naval officer or enlisted person, or other person with Naval submarine duty, such as some marines, and others, enough money, they may be willing to share some information on side benders, and information about what they know about side benders. Some persons who have had Naval submarine duty, may genuinely not know any thing, such as crew members who are never assigned to submarines that travel near side benders, on a regular basis. Some times family members of enlisted persons and of Naval officers, are allowed to travel on submarines, for fun and excitement, as a special reward for their papa's or mama's duty on a submarine. Some of these family members have also had some experience with side benders, such as those who have traveled on submarines along the Marianna's trench, or other trenches, not listed, neccessarily on global maps, but none the less, which are there, and that are near shelfs systems under sunken continental shelfs, or under sunken continents, but that eject streams of water, nonetheless.

Our maps and globes of the world are incorrect, the ones we buy through bookstores, or from map publishers, as nothing that would indicate sunken continents, large sunken islands, and related trenches, or other related features, are not going to be indicated on them. The Lesbianists do not want you to find out information that could provoke you into researching, under water features, that they do not want you to know about, as your fictious understanding they have taught you, of the surface of this planet, and its history, is bogus, and any thing that would conflict with that, is certainly not going to be indicated on a map they would publish, and the map will be wiped clean of all traces of any thing that conflicts with the 'global' history of the earth, as the Lesbianists teach it, in geology courses for high school students, and below, and above. The global geological history they teach must coincide with their fictious propaganda about Adam and Eve, and "Lucy" the ape woman, the supposed mother of all people living on this planet, and about this earth being only 9 billion years old, or thereabouts, which is a bold faced lie, and other such bullshit notions they have fed every one to swallow, and have forced them to accept, and that they force people to use as primal notions to base scientific research on. The geology of our planet is much more complex than the Lesbianists are letting on to, and there is much to learn about planetary geology, as these planets have been around a very long time, and many things have happened, over and over again to them, and many things have happened to our 'solar systems', and star formations, and star systems, that people need to know more about, to get a realisitic understanding of our universe, its history, and its many complexities. In time, we will learn much more about all these things, and you can attend courses that my children have set up for every one, to teach people about our universe. You need a day pass to visit, as I've explained about, before, and then you should swear in, and become a citizen of our country. We have yet to declare this planet ours, but in time, we will, once we have finished and put an end to the problems associated with the Lesbianists, all of their shenanigans, and their malarkying around. One day we will declare this planet ours, and my kids will take charge of everything, and they will appoint people to posts of duty, and to positions of responsibilities.

Making A Large Swimming Pool

People should begin moving off and out of the area, around the Nation's capital, Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, and North Carolina. We'll have a big swimming pool there, with lots of, mostly uninhabited, tiny islets, or hill tops and mountain tops, after all of the current residents die, and pass on and transel over to my Epcot Center, after one of our compatriots, or groups of them, detonate enough of my fracturable rock bombs. People will have to watch out for hungry sharks, after they swim inland, above the sunken landscape, looking for corpses to eat, and to scavenge, as lots of Lesbianists' corpses will come floating up from underground hangouts and cities of the Lesbianists, under those parts of the U.S., and from under the Gulf of Mexico, from under the sea floors of the Atlantic, from under the Niagra trench systems, and from under other trench systems in the Eastern U.S. This is not a joke, by the way.

Stagnasis

Salts kiddies in stagnasis is when the salts kiddies are in their salts kiddies crystals cages, in a hibernative state, in perfect equilibrium, to keep them alive and well, for as long as possible. Salts kiddies crystals cages sciences help you to understand many things about how things work in nature. Please read over my notes on my bulletin board.

Black Powder 'String' Fuses

Take a spool of sewing thread, and use Elmer's glue to coat the string, and run the string with a thin layer of Elmer's glue coated on it, through a bucket of black powder gun powder, which you can order in the mail, over the internet, or pick up at an antique musket or old style 'cap and ball' musket rifles and pistols retail stores.

Elmer's glue and gunpowder will combine to form a minor plastiques explosive, after the salts kiddies mix it up, eat each other up, pee and poop out lots of stuff that is highly explosive, as they get busy making babies, except when gunpowder is used in large quantities with Elmer's glue, to form a major plastiques explosive. Benzine will help this along, with diesel fuels, as well, and with chlorine, we can see some major plastiques explosives in the making, as mama's and papa's begin making lots of children, as they begin mixing it up, and as they all begin pooping and peeing out body fluids that is food for others, that will contribute to the powerfulness and explosiveness of the mixture.

After you make your string fuse, and let it dry out for a couple of weeks, then coat a rag or muslim cloth in oil, or grease, or a mixture of turpentine, gasoline, diesel fuel, and grease, with benzine, and make a paste, and use that paste to coat a thin cloth, such as a muslim cloth, and then let that set and dry for a few days, and then wrap a few sets of 'string fuses' together in a bundle, and place them inside the cloth. It will become a very powerful explosive, in itself, the more gun powder you use with it.

Test it, to see how fast it burns once it is wrapped in a cloth coated with a mixture of grease and fuels. The thicker the grease, the slower it will burn. The thinner the grease mixture, by adding more turpentine, or benzine, or paint thinner, the more rapidly the fuse will burn. You will have a very powerful explosives cocktail, with this mixture, so be careful. You have to be very careful with what you combine, as you'll be bringing together very explosive elements, when you mix these fuels and liquids together with gun powder on a string.

A few string fuses, wrapped in a well soaked cloth, with a mixture of these liquids and the axel grease, will make a type of plastique explosive, that can be used as a shape charge, or a mouldable, or shapeable, explosive, that is good for blowing doors off hinges, such as at pharmacies, or banks, and for blowing locks on private homes' fences to pieces, such as can be found at the White House, at 1600 Pennsylvania Ave. Washington, D.C., at the entrances and exits gates of the White House where guards are on constant duty patroling the area for security purposes. An initial explosive, a detonated fracturable rocks bomb, small in size, may cause a concusive force to cause the guards to black out, and pass out, and then sleep for a while. Be very careful with the size of the bomb, as we do not want to level the homes and buildings surrounding the White House, or across from it in Layfayette Park. After you put them to sleep, with your initial blast, you can test the shape charge on the nearby fences, at the White House.

Black Powder 'Cap And Ball' Pistols

Most black powder cap and ball pistols and rifles, muskets, sellers and retail outlets can be found on the internet, and some gun shops carry black powder, as well as the detonating fireing caps, for black powder rifles, and pistols. Many of them do, and you can purchase the black powder and copper detonating, ignition caps, for useing in your cap and ball pistol, or musket, or other, more modern, hunting rifle, that allows you to use black powder, and detonating copper caps that slip on a small round fireing ignition nipple that is made out of steel, and has a hole in it, to allow the percussive explosives in the firing copper igniting cap to ignite on impact with the hammer on the weapon, when it slams down on it, and the flames from the igniting explosives mixture, glued to the inside of the firing copper cap, then ignite the black powder, that was rammed down the barrel, or packed and tamped down in a cylinder of a percusive black powder cap and ball pistol. The caps are fairly useless, unless you wish to add them to a fuel oils, chlorine formula, and let them sit in the fuel oils mixture, and that will help develop plastique, as well.

Higher Temperatures Develop More Useful Energies For Making Babies

The copper in the cap will also allow for a higher temperature in burning, when the fuels mixture ferments after a few weeks. Magnesium in the cap as well, will also help to raise the burning temperature of the fuels mixture, and with some black powder added, and with some chlorine added, your plastiques recipe will become even more useful. These higher temperatures will help to produce energies that will be conducive to baby making among the fracturable, or rupturable, and percussive, rocks radiological salts kiddies. You can then add a handful or more of powderized amethysts, or turquoise, that you can purchase in bulk, on Ebay, for some small bulk quantities, and also emeralds are useful, as they all have fracturable rocks kiddies embedded in them, and fast asleep, in stagnasis.

Zircon Diamonds, And Other "Radio Active" Gem Stones, Etc.

Zirconium is a mineral that they use for the fake diamonds they sell with the trade name, Zircon diamonds, or Zirconium diamonds. You can powderize them, and use them for a good amount of fracturable rocks explosives, large and fast family making, salts kiddies, for a 'nuclear' party, and a send off to the eastern coast of the United States, before it is blown off the coastal ledge it sits upon, and then sinks below the ocean waves, if you strike it hard enough, with one or more of my fracturable rocks babies making, "nuclear" salts kiddies bombs. You'll need a few handfuls of Zicon diamonds, powderized, to make a nice fracturable rocks, babies making bomb. You can mix turquoise, emeralds that are mined and sold in bulk quantities on Ebay, amethyst, and the other rocks that I've mentioned, along with powderized 'sand' from the beach. Argentina, and Venezuela, Baha, and Southern California are good places to collect useful sands, full of fracturable rocks, salts kiddies, that a geiger counter will detect, if it is a sensitive enough geiger counter.

Geiger Counters And Their Usefulness

They are not too hard to build, but you will have to look in your Popular Mechanics magazines, for the details on how to build a "geiger counter". Some mining stores, and mining outfitters stores, may be a useful places to order or purchase a geiger counter, if you are on a family budget. You might find one on the cheap, on Ebay, that is still useable.

There are some kits available, if you look hard enough, to use to build your own geiger counter. A mining outfitters store, in South America, or in Central America, or in Utah, or in Nevada, may be able to help you locate a kit, to put together, if you go in there, and pretend you want to go out and look for interesting rocks, and you need some information on where to look for interesting rocks, so go to a mining outfitters store, or to a rock hounding club, or rock hounding retail store, for looking at beautiful stones that rock collectors, or rock hounds, have found, and made available at the store. Usually the store owner will have his or her suppliers, on name cards, and you can get in touch with them to get more information on where to look for interesting rocks to test with your geiger counter, since you are facinated by radioactive elements in rocks, and you are interested in finding some, for a collection you wish to start.

You might want to pick up some primer books, on minerals and rocks, gems, and gemstones, from Amazon online, or from a local book store, such as Barnes and Nobel book store, which has a few useful books on rocks, mineral rocks, gems, and gemstones, that you can find when you are out rock hounding. Desert Outfitters in Las Vegas, a miner's outfitters store, that also provides useful tools to rock collectors, such as rock hammers, and hand held pick hammers, for chipping away at rocks, to see what is under the surface of the rock, or under the peel of it, the outer layer, as well as terrain maps, and outfitting supplies, tents, and sleeping bags, and so forth, has these types of books, and lots of maps, and maybe they can help you find useful kits to purchase, to build yourself a geiger counter. They also sell geiger counters for about three hundred and fifty dollars or so. Sears used to sell Geiger Counters, and they still can order them for you, I think, through their catalogs. On Ebay, you can find many reasonably priced Geiger Counters. How well the geiger counters work, the ones people sell on Ebay, I can't say, so you'll have to talk with sellers, and see what they say about the geiger counters they are selling to others on Ebay, or read about them in old copies of popular mechanics, and in trade publications for the mining industry.

Novice And Amateur 'Rock Hounding' Rock Collectors Clubs

On Sahara, east of Las Vegas Boulevard, there is a rock shop, which is about two and one half, or so, blocks down from the intersection, on the north side of the street, and they have information, as well as lots of primer books, on rocks, and on geiger counters, and where you can find them. They are well connected to the local rock and gem, minerals and gems finding, or rock hounding clubs. You can meet their members, and go out with them, on excursions, as they know where to find just about anything.

There are similar clubs in every major city, and in lots of smaller cities. Mining towns of course have lots of mining outfitters stores, and they probably have geiger counters for sale, so you can use it to find some very nice, fracturable rocks, along coastlines, or in ancient dry lakes and seas, sediments filled, rock hounding areas.

Decontaminating Your Self With Ocean Salts

Acidic ocean salts in ocean water will help eat up the radiological kiddies that find their way into your bodies, and that make you feel ill. It might take several weeks for initial recovery, with you taking large amounts, several teaspoons or more, as much as you can handle, in your diet, every day, for up to three to eight years, to thirteen years, for severe contamination, and for full recovery. Other things, such as nutmeg, and oregano, in a salty tea brew, will also help you, and marijuana in the salty tea brew, will further help you. Berries can also be of great benefit for recovery from radiological salts kiddies contamination.

My kids have a recovery kit, that will help you recover from an overdose of radiological salts kiddies, after a major birthing event, and that kit will help you fully recover. You need to join our country, and swear in, and become a citizen, to be given one of these kits to help you for your recovery. They can provide you with information, of various kinds, once you swear in. They have you swear in as full time citizens, now, except in special cases.

Ancient Dry Lakes

There are many ancient dry lakes, up north, in the colder areas, of Manitoba, and around the edges of wet lakes, you'll find areas that dried out, a long time ago, and you'll find interesting things in the sediments deposits under the surface soils of the earth, that have covered most areas, and that come in to our atmosphere, and then deposit themselves onto the surface of our planet, as they are blown in on the solar winds. A few feet of top soil may cover the dry lake areas, around the edges of these lakes, and the soils depths may reach to twelve feet, to fifty feet, to sixty or to eighty of more feet, in some areas.

Once you hit the sediments layers, around the edges of these lakes, outwards to eight to fifteen miles, to thirty miles or further, out to up to eight hundred miles, as in the case of Lake Erie, and that lakes region, the Great Lakes, that all use to be one large salt water sea, but is now, a fresh water set of lakes, you can begin looking for the radiological bullets of the previous catastrophes in my universe, that shot out radiological salts kiddies, into the sediments rocks of mineral stones, and sand. Gravels might contain some "radioactive" fracturable rocks, and you can tell which are the useful ones, with a geiger counter. There are still salt water lakes up in Manitoba, Lake Huron, and some others, that used to be part of Lake Erie, and all part of the Great Lakes, when they were a large, salt water sea, but which are now, no longer part of that lake region system of lakes, as fresh water now fills up the Great Lakes from under ground water systems of fresh water flows.

Hydrolific Pressures From Water Falls

Hydrolific pressures, from water falls, primarily, help to erode and carve out and build the under continent open areas of water flows, that flow under the continents, and that dump their waters by traveling underground, in culvers, and channels, and in trenches systems, and then flowing out and into the oceans, resulting in side benders currents and flows.

Underground Lakes

Hydraulisis is one type of water pressures. Hydrolific pressures are those pressures created by water beating down, steadily, as water falls from higher to lower places, creating underground holes, and large open underground cavities, and water holding vessels, aquafirs, and underground lakes in the underground rock layers. Lots of cities sit on top of such underground lakes, on the crust of the surface of the earth, or very near to them. The lakes are often ovular and rounded in shape, from top to bottom. Many former water falls, are now low lying, and flat, and there is no water fall on the river, except for minor, cascades, such as found in the Grand Canyon Rift Valley down the Colorado River, and out into the Baha area.

Baha Mexico

Baha is a good place to go looking for interesting, "radio active", or radiological rocks, fracturable rocks with radiological salts kiddies sleeping soundly, embedded into other rocks, after colliding with them, in a hail of radiological rocks bullets, after a planet or a galaxy, or a large nebular star system, or a cluster of them, were detonated, by some fool with a huge and powerful, home made bomb. This happened, often, in the past, and still, today, it happens, now and then. Bits and pieces of the radiological rocks will come flying in, and then embed themselves into other rocks, as I've explained about, before. We've had so many catastrophes in my universe, that our ancient rocks, are peppered with radiological rocks that are embedded in them. Off the coast of Baha, is a good place to go diving, looking for rocks that were washed off shore, as waters flowed down the Colorado River, trinities of aeons ago, when this planet was still a young planet, maybe about one fifth the way through its infancy, after reforming, again, after its last major impact that shattered it to pieces, for the umpteenth kazillionth, plus more, time. This shattering and reforming, has been going on too long to count, and obviously, there is a large amount of mixturing going on, with debris from other star systems, galaxies, nebulas, and so forth, floating in, and becomeing part of our planets, all around and about, on solar winds. You'll find rocks on the inside of the Baha coast, and on the outside, as well, and along the Baha coasts. You might have to dig down thirty of fifty feet, to a few hundred feet to find them, maybe eight hundred feet, or sixteen hundred feet, or further, but you'll eventually find something useful with lots of radological bullets embedded in the rocks.

Finding Good Rocks With 'Radiological' Salts Kiddies Bullets

You can find interesting rocks, also on high hilltops, such as in the Andes, the Himalaya's, the Swiss Alps, high mountains in Austria, and in Germany, high hill tops and mountains in Iran, maybe in Afganistan, and the very high hill tops, that are generally old hills, in many countries. They will usually have, if they are very old hill tops, lots of rocks scattered about that are very old, and that have lots of fracturable 'radiological' salts kiddies 'bullets', from previous detonations around my universe, and other related kiddies in them, as well. You can also find them along ancient river beds, and along dried up desert gulley washes, in the valleys between the mountains, in areas where tall, old mountains exist. You might have to dig down into the underlying layers of rocks to find really ancient rocks loaded and peppered with ballistic radiological 'bullets', tiny fragments of radiological materials that went shooting out upon detonation of nuclear materials, elsewhere in my universe. Lava or basalt rocks, may also contain large numbers of radiological salts kiddies, and other types of kiddies related to radiological salts kiddies. Iron stone is a basalt rock, granites are also, and samples of them may be loaded with radiological salts kiddies, etc. Geiger counters will let you know if your sample rock material is pacted full and loaded with the tiny radiological 'bullets', or just partially loaded with them, depending on the response from the geiger counter. Many types of radiological materials, the bullets fragments, may not register on current day geiger counters, as they are not set to the correct radiological energies frequencies and currents settings to be able to detect them in the rocks. There are many types of radiological rocks in my universe, and current day geiger counters are set to pick up the currents and frequencies of the energies from only a few types of them, and there are thousands of types of radiological materials, so the older the rocks that you find, the more likely that the loads of radiological materials in them will be high in not only the types of radiological materials the geiger counter can detect, but also, in the types of radiological materials the geiger counters are not set to the frequencies and energies currents of. Such samples of rocks materials with large amounts of fracturable rocks, radiological 'bullets' inside of them, will yield massive explosive potentials, if you raise the heats energies of your explosives formula, to near solar temperatures, as I've mentioned about.

Plastiques, Explosives, Radiological 'Bullets', 'Nuclear Detonations', And Decontaminating Yourself Of Radiological Salts Kiddies

Please see my web pages for information on making plastique, along with metals fragments, and high temperature burnoff minerals mixtures explosives to produce the energies needed to produce nuclear detonations. Field chemists and explosives experts should be consulted, as they will probably know more about the temperatures at which different metals and minerals burn at and they will be more helpful in providing you with accurate information on different alloys mixtures, and the temperatures they burn at, such as the new US Mint US dollar coins, that will burn at extremely high temperatures, at about one fifth to one third the temperatures of solar temperatures, when ground into fine dusts fragments, and then after fermenting them, and then mixing the fermented particles in with the petrol fuels, chlorine, and gun powder, etc., plastiques explosives formulas, as I've explained about, to some extent, in my notes on my Gurkian Age Gurkian Way bulletin board. Be very careful when testing, as you may find the results extremely hazardous. See my kids, for more information, as I've explained about, on my bulletin board. Ocean salt will help to decontaminate you of radiological salts kiddies. A two hundred pound man will need about three pounds of ocean salt on a daily basis, to live healthfully. To decontaminate yourself, you will need more than that, to properly get rid of the radiological salts kiddies in your bodies, after you've been working with radiological salts kiddies, and testing the explosives potentials, for some time.

See my bulletin board for more information on the 'salts kiddies sciences' to help you to understand what is going on in so called, 'nuclear detonations'.

Sledgehammering Continents And Land Areas Where Lesbianists Live, Hiding Below

Here are a few places to place some other fracturable rocks bombs on, to make them fall in, and collapse down onto the layers of rocks, below, and then puncture the ceilings of the cavernous cities the Lesbianists have made, down below those lower rocks layers. Topango in the South Pacific near the Marianas, the area midway between the Ryukyu Islands and Haha Jima, Chichi Jima, and Iwo Jima, where you will find a sunken continent, Wellington New Zealand, Peking, Falklands, Urals Mountains, Chile thirty miles north of Concepcion and eighty miles east of it, near the Argentina border, and the Kamchatka pennisula, which will split and collapse in the center of it, midway down the penninsula, if you hit it hard enough. Lesbianists will come floating up, if their bodies can fit between the tons of debris that will fall in on them, as you smash the land sites that sit on top of ocean shelfs, and on open lakes below the land, some miles down from the surface, in some cases, and further down, in other cases.

It may be hard or impossible to deliver a nice bomb below the ocean above or onto the top of the sunken continent below the ocean, between the Ryukyu Islands, or Okinawa, and the islands of Japan, called, Chichi Jima, Haha Jima, and Iwo Jima. If one can be delivered there, you'll crush the continent below the surface of the ocean, and that will cave in on the cities, there are more than one there, that are below the protected shelf layer of rocks, above the cities the Lesbianists have there, below the sunken continent, to live comfortably in. The other places aren't so hard to hit. It is just a matter of local interest, and urging of the people there, to take the correct action to help us to resolve this problem, of Lesbianists living below us, all around the globe, in their honey comb, bee hive like canival of cities.

A canival of cities, is a large collection of cities that is located in such a way as to make it easy to get from one place to another. They are conveneint for them to live in as they are well placed, and spread out evenly, using the full extent of the area, as efficiently as possible. The Lesbianists have a canival of cities under the lower rock shelf layers, that are above them, and that help to keep them protected, warm, dry for the most part, but not always, and that are conveniety located each one in a bee hive like, configuration, well placed, with a well designed, layout, with central cities, and with satelite cities. It is well designed and resembles in part, Melbourne Australia, which was laid out, planned and designed as a modern city. The Lesbianists of course, think Melbourne is puny compared to their accomplishments, and of course, with the technologies they had and have available to them, from time to time, they made good use of every inch of space they have available to them, under the lower hard rock, but leaky rock layers above them.

My kids have places and locations maps of all the best places to locate your home built fracturable rock bombs, and so please pick up the information from them, after you have sworn in, as citizens of our country. Also, please see my earlier notes on the sciences that support a correct understanding of radiological particals based fracturable rocks explosives and other helpful and useful explosives you'll need to set off the fracturable, also called, rupturable rocks bombs, i.e., the so called 'nuclear' detonations.

Topsoils

Did you know that nearly 99.9999+ percent of the earth's crust, or mantle, is formed from space debris that has floated in on the solar winds? It's true. Only about 0.000001 percent of the top soil is from local vegetation, globally speaking. The rest of the top soil comes in from above, blown in on the solar winds, as debris from other planets that have been destroyed, crushed, or blown to pieces by idiots with very large bombs, that demolished whole galaxies, or multiples of galaxies, in a few milliseconds, as the instant they blew up, they were so well made, or constructed, and so powerful, they instantly blew up the whole area of galaxies the planet was located amongst.

If for instance, you fill up one third of the large tourist attraction, the meteor crater in Arizona, with one of these fuels and rocks bombs, and ignite it, you'll disentegrate all of the Milky Way, and some what more than that, in one attempt, by my estimation, if the fracturable rocks bombs were made well enough with the fuels bombs, to burn at near or close to, solar temperatures, and if there were enough materials in the fracturable rocks, to get lots of mama's and papa's making lots of babies, relatives, and others. There are lots of different types of salts kiddies in fracturable rocks, and there are other types of kiddies, the radiological kiddies, which are sometimes, but maybe are not always, grouped with the fracturable rocks kiddies. There are many types of kiddies living in radiological rocks. When we send high heats waves energies, and other types of energies into the fracturable rocks, we can get many types of kiddies to begin making babies. If we get enough of the different types of kiddies to begin making babies, we will have one fine and dandy, explosive shower of baby making events. You can get further information on this topic from my kids, and if you tell your friends to check in with my kids, and to swear in, and become citizens of my and my kids' new country, along with other people who are swearing in, and becomeing citizens of our new country, my kids will make certain that every one is protected, and no one is caught outside, when the bombs go off, as my kids will tractor you and all the other citizens in, with my kids advanced teletransportation technologies, before any one can get hurt by the bomb or bombs blowing up, locally, or in their areas. That means, my worker unionized kids are very quick on getting people into the encapsulated living environment every one is living in, below the ground, that my kids built for every one to live in, until we get this problem straightened out, and until it is safely over with. People can continue to live in the encapsulated living environment, after it is over, as we are going to start a new economic and social system, and we are getting started, down below, where my kids are keeping the encapsulated living environment, well taken care of and well managed.

Later on, we'll worry about who comes out, and when, as we have plans for every one, to begin working inside the encapsulated living environment, which is very well designed, and bomb proof, of course. Once every one gets accustomed to the new way of living, in accordance with my religious principals, and in accordance with our new working and living programs, when people have saved up enough money, they can pool their money, and acquire a lease for land up above, on the surface, and then with more money, they can have nice places designed for them, and built for them, with your input and with your instructions. You will need to study designing homes, and layouts of homes, for large numbers of people, as you will be required to live in groups of people, as the old systems of living, one husband, one wife, and so forth, is out the window, and now we are going for group living, with many members to your groups. When you have got the maturity together to live in large groups, and to sexal with many people in large groups, then you will qualify, and then with lots of earned income, pooled together, you and the members in your group, can then move up and live on the surface, in your well designed home, which my kids will use their technologies to build for you.

This is how we are going to clean up our planet, and get started with a whole new system for living and working with each other, as GOD's children working and living together, begining here, and spreading, slowly, across and throughout my universe, as we bring others into our program, all across the universe, from end to end, from top to bottom, and from side to side, and in every nook and cranny of my universe. All of my kids, you, who I am speaking to, will learn to live and work together, supporting my worker unionized kids, in our new global, united, and universal society, we will begin to build, on this planet, first, and then later, every where else. I am the mother and father of all of you, and of all of my worker, unionized kids, as well, all of my kids who work for me, of course, and of all of my living beings, and of all of my animals. We are going to get this big family of ours, together, and we, the human beings, will begin to clean up our universe, by sexaling for a living, and with many other living by the points systems programs, and other projects. We will also begin to get our heads on straight with religious activitiating, in other words, by participating in religialing, in groups, or by oneself, in the encapsulated living environment, first.

As we move along, in time, we will develop our working strengths, and character, and some people will qualify, eventually, for working in my religious brigade, once they realize and understand who I am, i.e.,

GOD. Others, who do not give a darn about what I am doing, may do as they like, as long as they are citizens of our country, and as long as they enjoy what they are doing, and as long as they add to the welfare of all people in our society, universal wide, as we build it, larger and larger, for all of my children, no matter who they are. We will one day have all of my children, working for me, and if they do not like working for me, they still have to pay the fees for the resources they use, just as I have to, and that means, there is a charge for every thing we use, and it is detucted from our pay checks. Every one gets a pay check, if they work, and if they are disabled, they will get earnings to support them, for as long as they need to be supported, until they are regroverated, healthy, fit, mentally prepared, and willing and able to participate. Those who do not wish to participate, will work in jail cells, and prison cells, sexaling for a living, with animals, as I've mentioned before, and at carnival and entertainment centers and districts, we will eventually set up, first on and also inside of this planet, in 'encapsulated' carnival and entertainment parks, and later on and within, other planets.

We are going to have all my children working for me, eventually, as I've spoken about before, and in time, most people will wish to work, and when they are mentally prepared to work, they will enjoy their working, most likely, as sexaling for a living, is not a unwholesome way to earn a living, and it is a pure and holy way to earn a living, and a pure and holy way to spend our time, as part of our new working ethics environement. For more information on this, please see my worker, unionized kids, who handle the information hot lines, in our, and your, and their, as well, encapsulated, living environement, which they have built, maintain, and manage, for all of you, and which they are continuing to build and expand on, for the rest of you, who have not checked in with them, yet. My worker, unionized kids have their own places to live, inside of the molecules that are used in building your living environment, and in your bodies, and in the molecules outside your living environement, as well. They live in all of the molecules, all over my universe, and they work in them, as well. They have their own universes, that they live in, which are all contained with in the molecules in my universe. It is a little more complicated than that, and so see them for more information on it, if you are interested in learning more.

Disintegrating The Milky Way

The Milky Way is made up of not one galaxy, but of several thousand, of different sizes. We don't have the technologies to see too clearly to distinguish the different galaxies that are within the borders of the Milky Way, nebular star system and nebular star cluster system, another way of saying that the Milky Way is a collection of many nebular star systems. Nebular star systems can be considered similar to galaxies, but maybe not always, as there are exceptions to every thing in most cases, any way. We are of course part of the Milky Way, I suppose you could say that, but we are far out on the outer fringes of it, and we are not any where near the center of it, and we have our own galaxy we are a part of, and it is not part of the Milky Way, so technically, we are not part of the Milky Way, although we might like to think we are, since it is an expansive set of star systems, and star clusters, nebular systems, and other types of solar bodies systems, and it covers over us, and beyond us, sort of over layering us. Be that as it may, we do not want to blow up or disintegrate the Milky Way, as we are in a way, part of it, or at least, we are encovered by it. Encover means to be covered over by something and encased within it, or to be encircled or surrounded by it.

Lay Order Of People

I have no lay order of worshippers, who participate with me, in any thing, or in any way. Why? Because, that's like me, the captain of the ship, coming into a town of persons who I don't know, and then saying that I'm the authority over them. No one is going to listen to me, and no one should be expected to listen to me. I wouldn't attempt any such thing, and so as the captain of my ship, my religious order, I have no authority over lay persons. I have nothing to do with lay persons, what so ever. I will never have any thing to do with lay persons, unless they realize that I am GOD, and that I am the mother and father of all human beings, and all animals, and all living beings. No one is going to recognize me as GOD, for a long time, as no one has the karma to recognize and understand that I am GOD. Lay persons are free to do as they like, and I have no regulations concerning them, in my religious order. My children may have many regulations, for non religious order people, but I don't have any thing to do with that.

Donations For The Sake Of My Ministry

The only thing is, that, as I said before, if a person recognizes and understands that I am GOD, and that I am the Mother and Father of all human beings, all animals, and all living beings, then they are free to donate cookies to me, or clothes, or wearables, socks, and scarfs, or coats, sweaters, or slacks, neckties, and so forth, cakes, or cupcakes, baked items, or financial contributions, or chairs, and furniture, beds, linens, tables, office furniture, phones, phone lines wiring, electrical wiring, plumbing items, housing items, for building up a house, paved drive ways, mason or rock walls, surrounding the property, or a set of dormitories, or a prayer sexaling room, or a prayer ceremonialing room, or a swimming pool, sauna, bath house, toilet facilities, bathing facilities, laundering facilities, a root cellar, a molds and funguses workshop, a brewery workshop, or any workshop for helping to educate others, the land to build these things on, or money, or whatever. If some one recognizes and understands that I am GOD, then it is perfectly alright, to donate any types of items, or any thing of value, that would assist my ministry to get up and get running. As yet, no one has understands or recognizes me as GOD, and that I am GOD, and the mother and father of all human beings, all animals, and all living beings, so as yet, I have not heard from one person, not a letter, or a phone call, other than an occasional wise cracking person, mischief maker, or a person or persons who are worried, and then complain to me, or rather, to my answering machine, typically, as I don't pick up the phone, now, as I had one person calling who was a bad kid of mine, and he was just looking for trouble, and since that, I just ignore all complaints, or wise crackers, or mischief makers, and so on.

Nollicking Foolish People

Some people do not like me wearing my GOd cap, that is one of those specialty base ball caps, but with 'GOd' written across the front of it, and they might hate me, especially some South American or Central American Hispanic types, who have primitive and backwards religions and filled with local lore and ancient tales of demons, and goblins, and gooney bears, or ghostly ghouls, or other superstitious ideas and notions of things that go 'boo!' in the night, and try to scare or hurt people, as there are plenty of folklorish tales of such things, in primitive cultures, that thrive, even at the current time, nowadays, in large cities, even, and these types of people might want to kill me, and when they knock on my door, with their gun in their pocket, or in their hand, machete or knife behind their back, I just ignore them, and I don't even bother to get up from my work bench, i.e., my bed, to see who is knocking at the door, as I know already, they have nothing to do with my monastic order, and because they have nothing to do with my religious ministry, or with my setting up my religious ministry.

Just last night, some group of people droped by, and banged on my door, with the tip or barrel of a weapon, and it was rather hard sounding, and I just ignored them, and after a few minutes, or so, they went away, and they haven't come back, yet. I don't think they will, and even if they do, I don't think it will amount to any thing, as I may have occaisonal visitors or harrasment calls, now and then, but that's all they are, and I just won't allow my self to be bothered by them as they are unimportant, and my goof ball kids, are just too nutty to figure out that I am GOD, and that they are my kids. Nevertheless, these goof ball kids are here or there, and I get lots of compliments about my hat, and usually, if not always, the person giving me the compliment wishes to steal the hat from me, and then rob me, in any other way, he or she can, and then beat me up, if he or she can. Well, I can't let these types of things get to me, and I just ignore them, as I walk by them, and I don't reply or return any statements to them, except a polite, 'thank you' if they gave me a compliment about my hat, but that's about all, and I might mutter something, like, and well, so that's just another one of my goof ball kids, or something to that effect.

Nollicking And Nollygaging

Nollicking means idiotic and foolish people who are wasting their time, for accomplishing nothing. It's like, nolly gaging, but nollygaging, is just wasting time, foolishly, and while you are nollygaging, you are looking for some way to make a profit, from your use of your time. Scanderously, you try to extort money from others, or force others to give you money, you do not have any right to. That's nollygaging, as I can recall, at the moment.

Goof Ball Kids, Their Mischievousness, And Maliciousness

Well, I have all kinds of kids, and many of them are malicious, if you give them a chance, so I just stay away from all of them, as I know most every one of my children, is malicious, from time to time, if given the chance, and I think that applies to all of them, regardless of their age, at some point in their life, they will commit crimes of one kind of another, against others, and not think much about it, except that, they just had to take care of that, as they wouldn't be happy, if they hadn't. Okay, so every one of my kids, at one time or another, will do goofey or goof ball things, and not think much about it. That's the way it is. There is nothing to be surprised about, as every one, and I don't care who they are, every one, does things they shouldn't do.

Me, personally, I get angry, and say nasty things, and make myself sound gruff, now and then, and maybe I shouldn't, but I just feel compelled to do that, when I have a righteous conviction that some one deserves my speaking up and telling them off. Well, you feel sorry about it, afterwards, if you hurt some one's feelings, but then that's the way it goes, and no one is perfect, so it's just. Let's try to live and let live, and live together in peace, and cut out the naughtyness, and stop the mischiefness, if we at all possibly can, and apologise if the opportunity presents itself. That's always the best way to handle things. Most people, after they kill someone, can't appologise, and young girls and boys, and older girls and boys, think nothing of killing people, or having some one killed, for them, and then of course, there is no way for any one to appologise to the dead person, since that person is in my Epcot Center. Well, we can't do too much about that, can we, but we can try to be kinder, and not kill as much as we feel we must to be happy.

More Than Ninety Five (95) Percent Of The Homicides In The World, Some Times As High As Ninety Eight (98) Percent, Or Even Higher, Go Unreported, And Are Therefore, Not Investigated

It's too bad that we kill others, and torture others, but that's the way my goof ball kids live in my universe, and despite what people might wish to think, to the contrary, it happens every day, in every city, town, hamlet, county, district, or where ever. My goof ball kids are killing people, right and left, and there are just so many deaths, the police don't hear the ninety five (95) percent of them, or so, as they never learn about it. The percentage of homicides the police do not hear about, is perhaps just a little higher, but in any case, no one should be surprised, as that is how my goof ball kids get along with one and each other, and they have been getting along with one and each other, that way, for a very long time, already, so it will not stop, any time soon, and that's just the way things are, for now. The Lesbianists are responisible for just about eighty five percent of those homicides.

Labrynthine Cities Below Us Where Lesbianists Live, And Laugh At All Of Us

The Lesbianists living below us, in their cavernous, labryinthine cities, that are below the hard rock layers, well below the oceans, and other bodies of water, far below the continents, go around, and mess with every one, and they play with people, and they think they have the right to amuse themselves by useing the citizens of this planet, any old way they like. They go around, and set up phoney wars, and they watch the citizens of each country, kill each other, on their commands. The Lesbianists enjoy playing these kinds of games, and they set up civilization after civilization, and they bring it along, and help to develop it, and when they get it to a high enough level, they feel a sense of accomplishment, and then they watch and amuse themselves as they destroy what they built up, and the people who are living, unawares of them. The Lesbianists think it is funny, that the Lesbianists feed the lies about our universe, and the lies about science, to every one, and the Lesbianists think they have the right to bafoonerize every person who comes into our world, as a tummy baby, who is on his or her way in, and in fifty to eighty or so years, is on his or her way out.

Why Do Continents Sink? Why Do Land Masses Rise?

Load transference technologies, and partical transference technologies, redistribute the loads on the internal network of underground cities the Lesbianists live in, to keep them perfectly centered, when ever there is a major uplifting, or down plunging, of continental mass, rocks, and earth, that would cause continents to sink and continents or land masses to rise. Movements of 'earthen matter' or rocks and dirt is accomplished with load transference technologies, and other technologies, such as partical dismissive technologies, and partical remissive technologies. This way, a planet can move, inwardsly, as a continent sinks, after the underlying rock layers are washed away due to hydrolific pressures, and not destroy the underground labrythine cities. My kids also use the same technologies, and other technologies, for maintaining the integrity of their underground encapsulated living environment.

The sinking of the continent pushes downwardsly, and as it falls, it exerts high intensity pressures on the underlying layers of rocks, stones, pebbles, sands, sediments, clays, metals, minerals, and so forth. The pressures will normally push downwardsly, and outwardsly, and shifting of materials, occurs, and land masses rise, as a result. When you have an underground city, or collection of them ringing the planet, when the pressures occur, and when the materials begin to shift, you redistribute the materials, using advanced sophisticated technologies, that will shift the particals in the directions they need to move, and distribute them so that they will not interfere with the structural integrity of the undergound labrynthine, and perfectly, geometricly laid out city dwellings and living habitats. It's high tech stuff, and so if you don't understand how partical dismissive technologies work, or if you do not understand how partical remissive technologies work, you will have a hard time understanding how this is accomplished. There are other technologies, that also must be employed, to work in an integrated manner with the partical dismissive and partical remissive technologies. All of these technologies, working in an integrated manner, will perfectly redistribute all the particals of rocks, and so forth, that need to be redistributed. The technologies keep the ring of cities perfectly centered within the earth. If there is a need for downsizing of the interconnected labrinthine layout of cities, that is also accomplished with these technologies. Downsizing may occur for any number of reasons. I've briefly explained what can happen as comets and asteroids pass by our planet, at amazing speeds, and that we can lose some or part of our planet, mountains, terrain, and lakes full of water, with a pass by, by a solartoid, or planetary sun, as it wizzes by at a phenomenal speed. Once the planet restabilizes, the downsizeing process begins. Even though there may be continental shifts, of uprising and down plunging events, and large, cometary passbys, with the technologies that are available to the Lesbianists to use, on a 'for lease' option, the integrity of the underground labrynthine layout of cities, is kept in tact, as best as possible. The technologies that accomplish this for the Lesbianists, that keep their cities perfectly situated, are not on lease, any more, and they have lost their lease on the technologies that would allow them to keep their cities perfectly protected, and perfectly centered. Some areas may not be too livable, for them, as leaky ceilings cause waters to accumulate, below, and they must trudge through salty ocean water, knee deep, in places, and in other places, the water is too deep to allow them safe passage down one tube, or trammel system transportation pass through tube, to a city or to cities which were previously accessable.

The Leases On Their Technologies Are Expiring

The leases on the technologies that they have been using, and that were assigned to them, after they swore in, and pledged to live on this planet, and pledged to sexal for a living have been expiring for some time, already, and will continue to expire for some time, to come. Because this was a newly formed planet, before they arrived, but after it recongealed, after it was shattered to pieces by a passing cometoid that ran smack into it, as I've explained about, or touched on, a couple of times, before, see my notes on the web, once the planet stabilized, and became a livable planet, they first needed to live underground, where they could live, and slowly over time, adjust to the types of solar radiations, and other factors that they would need to adjust to to be able to one day come out from down underneath the surface of the planet and begin to live above ground. The rock layers, land, and bodies of water above shielded them from potentially harmful radiation. The living area below, also had built in protection systems to help protect them from the radiative energies that could harm them. After they adjusted to the conditions of the planet, they could come out, and as they continued to sexal for a living, other technologies would allow them to build large cities, for them to habitate in, as they continued in the sexaling for a living program. The cities that my kids built for them, that my kids have the permissions to use for these programs, are now down under the rock layers, all crumpled up, or they have passed into the molten core, and have been spewed out, as basaltic lava, as the Lesbianists did not hold to their pledge, and they broke the law, and the maintenance of their above ground cities, was terminated. With continental uplifitings, and downplungings occuring, over the long period of time, they lost their cities, and now they have only the underground, initial landing zone area, dwellings and habitats, that have down sized, some what, since their initial landing for occupation of this planet, in the sexaling for a living program. They broke all the rules, and they developed their own sham governments on this planet, and they went about, causing mayhem and destruction, every opportunity they got.

The leases that they signed on to, and that were assigned to them, that they had on the initial landing zone technologies, as well as all their other leases, that were assigned to them are now in the process of being cancelled. That means, that, their underground cities are being shut down, slowly over time, - thus the leaky roofs - and they will have to move out, and move to the surface, as the underground systems, begin to falter, shut down, and fail, one after another.

This happens to them, repeatedly, life after life, and the end result is they destroy them selves. The hideous, hungry animals they illegally brought from other planets will get lose, and then they will help to hurry the demise of their world civilization, which means, every one of the Lesbianists will die on this planet. After the Lesbianists destroy themselves, they will end up in my Epcot Center, and they will come back out as tummy babies, to tummy mommies and to tummy daddies, who have karma that matches up with theirs, and then they will repeat their old mistakes, again, and again.

As the usefulness of the Lesbianists' underground labrynthine cities declines, as leases expire on the technologies that were assigned to them, and as other leases, will also be expireing, over the next few years, to ten or twelve to fifteen years, to thirty eight years, to fifty nine to sixty to eight five years, and then finally, when the last of their leases expire, some time, not too long after that, up to two hundred to eight hundred years, or so, and then there are still a few that will remain active, until every one is expected to move out, within a few thousand years, eight to eleven thousand years, as they must be given time to build up their own new civilization on the surface of the planet, where they can all live, together, now that the facilities below will be totally closed off, and shut down, and no longer useable to them, as they will be locked out, and prohibited from entering them. Once they are completely out, my kids will then remove all traces of the underground cities and underground facilities, so that there is no chance of any one ever useing them again. The Lesbianists will then begin living on the surface, full time.

Late Night Amusement Activities For The Lesbianists

Currently, as a regular sport or preoccupation, the Lesbianists go out regularly, at night on hunting parties, after exiting from below up through secret stairways, that lead up through police stations, and through fire departments, and through some military barracks, and through National Guard barracks, castles, buildings owned by royalty such as a king, or a queen, a monarch, dictator, despotic ruler, or by dukes, earls, princes', princesses', public buildings, government buildings, and through banks, hospitals, morgues, cemetary parks, schools, parochial schools, college campuses, college buildings, universities, university facilities, movie theaters, dance halls, auditoriums, disco-techs, sports stadiums, ball parks, parks, indigenous peoples' tribal reservations, port and harbor facilities, port authority landing zones, free trade zone districts, political districts such as Macau and Hong Kong, bordellos, brothels, drinking establishments, cocktail bars, lounges, late night restaurants, physical fitness centers that stay open 24 hours a day, YMCA's, YWCA's, Greyhound Bus stations, train and railway stations, air ports, national parks and forests, BLM lands, islands owned by Lesbianists, Riker's Island, Staton Island, Alcatraz, islands that have military forts' and bases that are active or semi active on them, private residences owned by Lesbianists, and through businesses owned by Lesbianists, through twenty four hour a day businesses owned by Lesbianists, Walmarts, K-Marts, 'Toy's 'R Us', Wendy's, Jack 'n The Box, McDonald's, In-'N-Out' hamburger chains, sushi restaraunts, late night restaraunts, hotels, motels, churches, mosques, synagogues, military bases, public and private museums, BINGO establishments, pachinko parlors, billiards halls, race tracks, gaming and gambling establishments, and many other Lesbianists' controlled facilities, buildings, and so forth, above ground, and they capture and abduct people, then bring them back into their underground lairs, and then the Lesbianists torture them, barbecue them, and then cannibalize them, for food, in their underground lairs. The Lesbianists enjoy torturing people, and eating them, and these abductions go on, regularly, all around the world, and the torturing, barbecuing, and eating of the above ground residents, below ground, goes on all around the world, beneath the surface of this planet.

There are over thirteen billion of them, and the number is even higher, still, as I did not have that number correct, either. It is higher than that, and that means there are a lot of hungry mouths to feed, in the future, after they lose their leases, unless they get a new civilization built, which they never do, as they do not like to work.

They will come out, at night, regularly, and abduct people, and then carry them into their underground lairs, and then cannibalize them. This will grow more and more busy, as they strive to remove every one they can from the surface of the planet. After they have removed enough people, they will begin to live on the surface in the homes, and cities that are there, already. There are too many Lesbianists to live comfortably on the surface of the planet, and they are too lazy to build their own civilization with homes, an economy, and so forth, so they will inevitably begin warring against each other, until there are only a few left, and then they will meet their end, when their exotic and deadly animals that they brought here for their personal amusement, strike at them, and kill them, for food.

The only way one can find a way out of this predicament, is for each one of you to join my country, swear in, and become a citizen. The Lesbianists in turn, must surrender. If they do not, at a certain point in the future, we will begin to dismend them, and sent them to my Epcot Center. When that will occur, I don't know, but it could be as far off as a few thousands of years from now, as we have to give them the time, and a chance to build a new civilization, with homes, and parks, etc., working together with the people who already live on the surface of the planet. We cannot cut short the allowance they must be given, in fairness - as the leases continue to expire, and the leases protect them, to some extent - to make efforts to mix with the people on the surface, and to come clean, and to tell it all, and to appologize, and then to work in peace and harmony with the people who currently live on the surface of the planet. They will have to share their knowledge of the sciences, and they will have to help to educate every one, and they will have to teach the people who are living on the surface, the sciences that will allow people to regroverate their amoebes, and other cells in their bodies, and to rejuvenate their bodies.

There is not much chance of that happening and of gaining their cooperation, so we will have to be on our guard, and we will have to look out for ourselves, and make sure none of us are abducted by them as they attempt to diminish the population living on the surface of the planet by reducing the numbers of normal people living on the surface of the planet, as the Lesbianists begin to get busier, abducting people, and eating them, one after another, to make room for them selves, on the surface of the planet.

Never the less, my kids are not allowed to act prematurely, and my kids are not allowed to begin dismending them, just to stop them from doing what they typically do, after they lose their leases. So, it will be several thousands of years, before this topic comes up for discussion, and action is taken. These are not normal circumstances, and so the dismending of these people, may begin some time after their final leases expire, if they present them selfs as a problem to the rest of us, living on the planet.

Our War On The Lesbianists Must Continue

This means, we have a few options, here, and the best option is to just get rid of them, and destroy their underground cities, and destroy the Lesbianists, world wide, before the Lesbianists get much more of a chance to abduct, torture, and cannabalize the citizens living on the surface of the planet. Thus, our war is now only begining, and we must continue to eliminate them, as they will only cause mayhem, and destruction, for those of us, living on the surface of the planet, as the Lesbianists abduct, and capture people, then torture and cannibalize them, in coordination with their Lesbianists friends, who run this planet. The Lesbianists' activities aimed at destroying the populations of the planet, is guaranteed to increase, as the years pass. That means, we must continue with our campaign to destroy the Lesbianists, and we must continue to work to bring an end to the control that they have, over every one on this planet. We can also concentrate on destroying the Lesbianists, underground, by dropping the home made 'radiological' explosives weapons down into the ocean depths, and down into the depths of the deeper lakes, onto the leaky ceilings below, where the Lesbianists are living, to crush them, and to drown them all. In the meantime, every one must join my country, and swear in, and become citizens of our new country, as I've explained about, before.

The Valderizing Lesbianists

The Lesbianists do not teach real science, or real geography, or real history, or real mathmatics, or real chemistry, or real anything, and they fool every one with their bogus religions that they either made up or corrupted, and valderized. Valderized means, they vandalized it, and sprayed grafitti all over it.

Well, that's the way the Lesbiansts get their kicks, and they are just a bunch of grown up children, valderizing every thing they can, and disrupting every thing, and every bodies' lives, just for their own amusement, and cruelish fun and games, such as feeding former Lesbianists to my abominant kids, who are need to be fed, and who are smart, and devious, and who destroy humans, and eat them up, and spit them out, and treat them terribly, while the Lesbianists watch on, in amusement, as they see people like Bill Gates, or Steve Irwin, and others, eaten up and then tortured, as I've mentioned about before. Valderize all they may, and be cruel all they may, we are all now finally finding out about their treacherous and horrid behavior, and now we are going to put a stop to it, permanently, and that means we will kill every one of them, and send them all to my Epcot Center, as I've explained about before.

Now we know we can cave in their cities, below the leaky hard rock layers, way down below, if we hit certain areas, hard enough, with a nice big hammer, such as one or more of my 'nuclear' bombs, the fracturable rocks kids bombs, with fuels oils, burning at extreme high temperatures, and with percussive shock forces, these, mixed together, will get my fracturable rocks kiddies, making lots of babies, and with a large enough fracturable rocks fuels chlorine, and metals that burn at high temperatures, nearing solar temperatures, we will see some very explosive 'family making' adventures, among my fracturable rocks kiddies, and their radiological relatives and friends.

We know where to hit some of their locations, to drop a few miles of more of continental shelf down onto the tops of their ceilings that will then fracture their ceilings, and cause massive damage, as oceans of water fill up their labrynthine and very well laid out cities, below us.

Who Do We Kill, First?

Mr. George Bush, Jr., Mrs. Barbara Bush, Jr., Mr. George Bush, Sr., Mrs. Barbara Bush, Sr., Mr. Ronald Reagan, Mrs. Nancy Reagan, and lots of their friends, and nearly the whole crew of politicians in Washington DC, are all Lesbianists, and I want you to kill every one of them, and send them to my Epcot Center, and I want you to place the fracturable rocks bombs, in the right locations, and then drop a thick layer of continental shelf, down onto their ceilings, their ceiling that are below the water that is between us and them, and that is below our continental shelfs that we live on.

We can hear the water down below, if we have the right types of listening devices, and if you find the right places to place your fracturable rocks bombs over, then it may be easier to drop your continental shelf, down through the water, below you, and down further onto their ceilings, the hard rock layers below the water, that is below your continent, swirling about.

Now I want you all to study this, and find the right places to drop your continental shelfs, down through the water layers below you, and onto their ceilings, so as to smash their ceilings. I've given you some hints, already, as to where you can place the fracturable rocks bombs, and my kids also have given some people more information on that, and so we have lots of people, who are interested in solving this problem of the Lesbianists toying with you, one life of yours, after the next life of yours. It is time we brought their mischief, and non sense, and cruelty to a halt, and it is time we put on the brakes, and slammed down on the brakes real hard, and at the same time, slam down on the ceilings of the Lesbianists labrynthine cavities, below you, their cities that they have laid out in perfect symetrical, geometric shapes, like perfectly shaped, honey combed behives, with central cities, placed symetrically around the globe, in a perfect geometric layout, and with spokes or corridors reaching out symetrically, to other central cities, and to satelite cities, that they have well planned out, and have well laid out, perfectly, below you.

Hydrolific Pressures And The Labrynthine Cities Below Us

Because of the hydrolific pressures, they can never keep the ceilings, perfectly dry, and they are always in trouble, trying to fix leaks, here, there, and every where. Now it won't take too much to bring the whole place down on them, flooding them like rats in a cage, below the water line, as a boat slowly sinks with a rats' cage on a table, with rats in it, slowly into and below the ocean waters.

The ones above, such as George Bush, Jr. the current president of the United States of America, and his wife, and his supposed family and relatives, and all his close Lesbianists' friends, should now all be killed, point blank, with your fracturable rocks bombs. I hope that is perfectly clear, and I hope you all understand what the situation is, and that it is an intolerable situation, and we are not going to allow them to toy with us, any longer, and we are not going to let them amuse themselves, any longer, and we are putting an end to their games, now.

DO YOU UNDERSTAND ME? I HOPE SO! AS A 'NO SIR!' WOULD BE UNACCEPTABLE.

Now that we know where we stand, we have nothing further to argue about, and so let's get to our tasks, as soon as we are ready, and prepared. Okay? Good.

Local Area Prayerful Collection Site

A collection site is where people gather to pray, and to sexal and to purify each other. It is not a site where people ask for offerings, or where people as for any thing else, involving money. It is a sexaling park, and a prayerful sexaling park. That is the meaning of collection site. A collection site is where people collect together, to sexal and purify themselves, and while they are at it, they make sexaling efforts to help to purify others, by shattering and showering out megawatts and tons of radiating, purifying energies.

We have a local area park, at the corner of West Tropicana Ave. and South Decature Blud., a local BLM piece of land, that some people like to camp out in, that I go out to, to bless, and to purify with my religious ceremonies, now and then. I claimed that area, and all other BLM lands that I could claim under Gurkian Law, and all other land on this planet, that I could also claim under Gurkian Law, such as other parks and forests managed by other government agencies, or private lands, supposedly owned by rich people, and lands around the world, that I have a right to claim, under Gurkian Law, and all that land, is now mine, under Gurkian Law, and I can use it in any way that I need to use it, regardless of what other people, think.

Aerobic Taichi Practice

I am busy, now and then, purifying that parcel of land, at the corner of West Tropicana Ave. and South Decature Blvd., with my religious ceremonies, that I conduct with my religious prayer hand signaling statements and with my use of my ability of arerobic Taichi, for religious ceremonies, as I seem to have recalled a lot of areobic Taichi, as well as some other forms of Taichi, that I knew, before, in previous lifetimes, but I am only interested in using it for practical purposes of religious hand prayer signaling.

I'm very clumsy when it comes to aerobic Taichi, but any way, I enjoy it, and it is good excercise for me, and the more I practice, the better I get, but it will be zillions of years, before I get any where near good at it. I practice the arerobic Taichi while I make my religious hand prayer signaling statements.

I don't teach Aerobic Taichi. I only use it for my prayer ceremonies, when I am on my feet, and not on my back, mostly, even though, I do use a short version form of it, while lying on my back, or, while I am on my side, I use a very short form of it. Anyway, it is fun to do Aerobic Taichi, and that makes my prayer ceremonies, for me, more fun. When other people learn to prayer signal, they will naturally pick it up, as well, as every one has studied to some extent, Aerobic Taichi, and other forms of the martial arts, and my kids will release the knowledge that is stored in your memory banks, as you need it, once you begin practicing, for women, as a priestess, or for men, as a priest. It is not like the Taichi you see people doing in China, or Taiwan. It is a specialized form of aerrobic Taichi for use while performing hand prayer signaling. It is not used for fighting, but it is the basis for Taichi, and you can train in martial arts, while employed as either a priestess, or as a priest, and it will be useful to you to know, before hand, as it will make practicing your martial arts, that much more interesting.

I'm not hiring any one, now, or just yet, or any time, soon, as far as I know, as my kids do all the interviewing, and I have nothing to say, about who comes knocking at my door, to be interviewed.

Campers, Camping, Sexaling And Purifying The Area, And Useing The Parcel Of Land That I Publicly Claimed For My Setting Up Of My Ministry

Now, on that parcel of land, there may be campers, now and then, who want to camp there, because they want to find out more about my religion, and so they come out to Las Vegas, now and then, and they camp out there, on that parcel of land, at the corner of West Tropicana Ave. and South Decature Blvd. Since that land is where I am going to set up my initial ministry, when the time for that comes, I am preparing it, with my religious purification ceremonies, and there doesn't seem to be any troubles, with any one telling me not to go up to my property, that parcel of land, and there is no one trying to tell me that I can not bless my property, that parcel of land.

Now, if other people wish to come to that parcel of land, and wish to sexal on it, and thereby purify that parcel of land, they are more than welcome to come to it, with their camper trailer, or caravan bus, and they can maneuver into the area, and set up a tent, and campsite, but there is no water, or any thing else, so you have to come prepared to rough it, if you wish to come in your camper van, or caravan bus, or in a camper trailer, or with a tent, or with other types of sleeping and living gear.

Straightening And Cleaning Up The Area

You can straigten up the area, and clean it up, and make it nice, for many people to pull into, to join together, and to sexal together, and with your purifying energies from your sexaling together, you are more than welcome to stay there, as long as you like, and as long as time permits, and as long as finances permit.

I have nothing there, except for my now and again, Aerobic Taichi practice and the energies that are imbued into the area, there, from my religious hand prayer signaling ceremonies. There are no structures of any kind, and I am sometimes there, busy purifying the area, with my religious ceremonies, so if you and your friends would wish to come to that area, and also help to purify it with your sexaling energies, than you are more than welcome to come and visit there.

Donating Your Sperm, Sexaling Spittle, Perspiration, Vaginal Juices, Titty Juices, And All Your Sexaling Juices

You men and boys may by all means, donate your sperm juices, sexaling spittle, and other sexaling juices, your perspiration you generate while you are sexaling, to the site, and you women and girls may by all means, donate your vaginal juices, your titty juices, your sexaling spittle, your perspiration you generate while you are sexaling, and all of your sexaling juices to the site, as they all will help to purify the property that I intend to set up my ministry on, as they all contain many, holy, pure, sacred, powerful cleansing energies, and GODLY energies in them, and they will help purify the land, and the environment for ages and aeons to come. All of your eroteming and orgasming energies will go shooting throughout your bodies, and they will find their way throughout your bodies, and out of your bodies and brains, and into the environment, and into your bodies' sacred and holy spillages, as I've discussed about before. Your bodies' spillages, as well as your perspiration, your pee, and your poop, not to mention all of your other juices that are produced as you sexal, erotem, orgasm, and phlumett, become pure, sacred, holy, powerfully cleansing, and GODLY, while you are sexaling, eroteming, orgasming, and phlumetting. Your pure, sacred, holy, powerfully cleansing, and GODLY energies find their way into all of your bodies' spillages, and so please donate them to the site, in appropriate manners.

Building A Latrine

Please employ some one to dig a latrine, and to fashion benches to sit on so as to be able to dump your poop, and pee your urine, into the latrine trenches. Manage the latrine, with care, and employ healthful, tactical, and sanitary techniques to use it safely. Provide hand rails, to grasp, so that no one will slip off and fall into the latrine. Provide barriers so that no one can accidentally fall into the latrine. Use your common sense when providing 'tactical' safety measures.

You need not fashion an over hang, as there is no rain to speak of, in Nevada. You do not need a supported roof, or enclosure, as they will only become stench ridden, and no one will enjoy useing them. There are to be no enclosure walls, or sides, or backs, so as to enclose the odors of the latrine, and confine them to an air tight area, where they can accumulate, and cause explosions, accidentally. They need only be deposited into a safely dug, latrine, and then allowed to filter down into the soil, and then allowed to vapor up into the atmosphere, freely.

No doors should be used, and no barrier walls should be employed, when fashioning the outside framing of the latrine facility, itself. That means, there are no hiding places in the latrine, where people can hide, and be prevented from entering, or exiting from the latrine. Only hand rails need be supplied, and only barriers that are suitable for keeping people from falling into the latrine, need by provided.

Steps may also be provided, to a raised platform latrine, which is more sanitary to use, than a level to the ground, latrine. There should be no walls, and no blind spots when either ascending up the stairs or when descending down the stairs. Women, girls, men and boys, should all use the same facility, and there is to be no fraternizing. Fraternizing is playfully tearing up at the opposition, or at people who you do not like.

Tearing up at the opposition means, you are trying to over throw the person, and dispose of that person, into the latrine. Over throwing the person means to be using reckless abandonment when dealing with another. Reckless abandonment means to be recklessly risking the life and limb of another.

There will be no frolicking at the latrine site. Frolicking is when little boys, and big boys, and little girls and big girls, play around and provide possible hazzards to others. You will not behave in a hazzardous manner towards any one, at any time, or you will be asked to leave, and to not come back.

There will be no play time allowed for children, as this is a collection site, and that means it is a holy site for holy activities, so leave brats at home, and do not bring any one who drinks alchoholic beverages, or who acts unwholesomely, to the collection site. This is a private site, and a prayerful collection site, and that means, you are coming there, to pray, and to make love, and to sexal, as GOD's children, so as to purify the site. You are not allowed to act randomly and with reckless abandoment. Randomly means, without proper self control and restraint. This is not a gay fashion, show or parade, and we will not tolerate reclusive, or unwillingly unwholesome behavior.

Reclusive means, unwilling to participate for the stated purpose of purifying the area. Reclusive means, caution and carelessness is thrown out the window, and you are acting in an irresponsible manner.

Unwillingly unwholesome means, first, unwillingly means, non cooperative, private, or sordid. Sordid means you are acting in a selfish manner, and you are not acting in a responsible manner for self and for others.

Unwillingly unwholesome means, thusly, that you are acting in a selfish manner, irresponsible manner, uncaring towards others, and unwholesomely.

Unwholesome means, you do not care about the life and limb of others, and you would just as soon shoot a person you argue with, as talk to them for a friendly chat. Many of my kids, are very unwholesome, and will just as soon, talk to a person, as shoot the person. You will not act in any such manner.

Any unsafe or prohibited latrine construction will be ticketed on detection, by me, and you will be asked to rework the facility. That will be on the ticket, and please comply, if you and your friends who built it, will be so kind. If you do not rebuild it, you will be asked, with your friends, to leave the site, as you are acting in an irresponsible manner. You will not be allowed back to the site, without your showing proper repensive behavior. Proper prepensive behavior is an attitude of appology, as well as the acts of appology which means, you will take appropriate steps to see that the work is or has been redone, in the manner as required by safety laws, as stated by my children, under Gurkian Law. Either me, or my children, will leave the ticket, and you will be required to fix what ever it is you need to fix, or you will be asked to not stay and conspiriate at the collection site.

Conspiriate means, to participate freely with caution and care for the sake of others. Conspire is also the same, as conspiriate.

You will be asked to not stay and conspire at the collection site, means, the same thing. It means, you will not be permitted to participate freely with caution and care for the sake of others. That means, you will be asked to leave, and you will not be allowed to come back, if we, my children and I, and other attendents, as well, can at all help it.

Attendents are people who participate in the collection site activities, and they are people who take responsibility to make sure every thing is done, properly, and safely, with the sake and safety of others, in mind.

The Home Depot has many nice and useful janitorial equipments, and so it will not be difficult to build a safe and luxuriously clean, and handy, latrine, that is safe to use, for all people, of all ages.

Luxuriously clean, means, it is kept sanitary.

How do you keep a latrine, sanitary? You keep it clean and sanitary by venting the air out, freely, with no blind spots, either underneath or above, where pockets of air, and vapors can accumulate.

No partitions will be installed that will create a blind spot. A blind spot is an area where light can not penetrate. Therefore, your construction materials, must be perforated wood, or grated steel. You can weld together, if you know how to weld, a very nice, grated steel, latrine, that will be safe to use, by every one, of every age. You will need the correct strength of supportive steel poles, to handle the weights of the persons accessing the latrine, and of the latrine, as well. You will make certain to build it well, and to support it well, with firm foundations, of concrete or steel plates.

Any deviation from safe practices for building latrines, will be torn down, disassembled, and the persons or person responsible will ethier be asked to leave, or will be asked to appologise to the memebers of the collection, sincerely. If the person acts in a responsible manner, and appologizes, sincerely, and appropriately, then the person will be excused, with out further, charges being leveled. Further charges will be leveled by my children, if my children detect further, reckless abandonment on the part of any person, participating and acting in a reclusive or recklessly abandoned manner.

Glue People Begun 'Cleaning' Agents

Cleaning the toilet seats of the latrine, will also help to keep the latrine luxuriously clean, and sanitary. You should clean the toilet seats and parts of the latrine, with common household detergent agents, as at this time, we have no choice but to use the unwholesome, Lesbianists' manufactured, ajax, spic and span, lysol, and other such 'glue people begun' agents. Glue people begun agents means, aerosols, and other unwholesome petrol fueled compacted or pressurized sprays, or detergents, that help the Lesbianists to begin the process of turning human beings into glue people. Glue people, in this instance, does not refer to glue, but it refers to tar. Tar is an adhesive substance, and their intent was and is to turn every human they can find into tar people.

We have no choice but to use the local distributors selection of cleaning agents, but in time, we will one day, have all that straightened out, after we demolish the Lesbianists' hideouts, under ground, and after we kill them all, or welcome them in, as 'surrenders', with appropriate, remorseful, penentant attitudes.

Removal Of Latrine Wastes And Disposal Of Latrine Wastes

Latrine wastes materials shall be removed, and supplied to local pig farmers, who can then use the materials, for feeding the animals. Pigs and hogs love to eat away at latrine wastages, and no one knows that. Chicken also enjoy eating human wastages, as well as ducks, geese, and other fowl. Horses and burroughs also enjoy human wastages, if it is healthy enough, with large amounts of vegetable mass in the diets of the human beings, whose wastages are carried to the farms for spreading about in the hogs and pigs, barrels. A barrel is a place where wastages are loaded, up into trucks for delivery to a sewage farm, or a place where farmers can use the wastages, that the hogs are finished with, as fertilizers.

Hogs and pigs use a roped off area, for eating wastages, and employees keep track of the unloaded wastages, and the spilled wastages from the hogs, and then the spilled wastages from the hogs, are then moved to a separate area, for pickup by carriers of farmers. Foods grown at farms using hogs and pigs wastages are useful and nourishing to humans, and other animals.

No fees of any kind for loading and for carrying away wastes to hog and or also pig farmers, should be levied by truck drivers, as drivers will earn a tokenous gratitude tip from the hog and or also, pig farmer. An appropriate payment to the driver and deliverer of the human wastes to the hog and or also pig farmer, should be paid by the hog or also pig farmer, unless the farmer is cash strapped. Cash strapped hog and pig farmers may be given money compliments by the people at the collection site.

Money compliments are small awards, or minor payments, out of gratitude to the hog and pig farmer, for his or her useage of the human wastes from the latrines. Money should be collected, regularly, if hog and pig farmers are cash strapped, and then given to the hog and pig farmer, out of gratitude to him or to her, and presented, tokenously, or as a gift payment. How much should be paid, depends on the expenditures of the driver, for his or her services, and for the use of his or her, vehicle, and for its whollyfied maintenance.

Whollyfied means, the regular maintenance that will allow the truck or vehicle to run at tip top conditon or shape, for the life of the vehicle, figuring it proratively.

Proratively means, spaced out, and paid proratively, or over the period, at regularly spaced points in time, over the given span or the useful life of the truck.

Discussions regarding this, and discussions for compensations, should be held at the collection site, and at the delivery site(s) for delivery of human wastes, by all parties, concerned, regarding all of this, and the primary collection site attendants, the persons elected by the attending or participating persons, at the collection site, who show the greatest interest and sense of responsibilities, at the collection site and with regards to the collection site, and with regards to the collection sites' safe, healthy, and wholesome management, must attend the discussions, and must deliver their sound judgements as to who is to be compensated payments for their participation in the removal and distribution of the wastes from the collection site, to the hogs and pig farmers, and as to how much should be dispensed, per each removal and delivery of human wastes.

Participating persons at the collection site, should elect attendants, and the attendants should regularly check on all points for the safe management of the collection site. Participating persons means, persons who are there for sexaling, and for depositing their holy, pure, sacred, powerfully cleansing, and GODLY sexaling juices at the collection site.

Nevada Power, and all other vendors, are not participating persons, and should not be construed as participating persons, regardless of what they might wish to think, and if they have any complaints, I authorise the killing of all persons who disagree, and persist in arguing that they are valid participants, despite their not participating in your holy sexaling, activities, as individuals, and not as company employees. No company employee, or personel of any kind, may participate, except as an individual, lone, and wholeseome, participating, sexaling agent.

A sexaling agent, is a person who is participating at the collection site to assist in the purifying of the parcel of land, on which I will build my ministry, with the assistance of my children, by their participating in sexaling activities, and by their depositing of their sexaling juices upon the grounds of the parcel of land.

How To Disperse Your Juices

Sexaling outdoors will normally require that persons are naked, and juices will naturally find their way to and into the ground. Men, boys, women, and girls, all must be naked, while sexaling outdoors, except for those persons who need to be on the move, such as male attendants, who will need to go around, periodically, checking on the points of interest, to maintain the soundness and integrity of the collection site, and of all things related to its operation and management.

Clothing

Clothes may be worn, at times while not sexaling, as particapating persons, decide.

Scarves, hats, and minor shawl like garments, Roman, Turkish, or Russian togas, or other comfortable sexaling apparel, for women and girls, to protect the dermal surfaces of the wearer of the scarve, hat, minor shawl, or other apparel, are allowed to be worn, while sexaling. We need every inch of dermal surface, bare and naked, if possible, or at least, accessible, to allow for maximum eroteming sensitivity, touching, massaging, tickling, and so forth, to heighten the erotic levels of excitement, and thrills, eroteming, orgasming, and phlumetting.

Men and boys may wear light weight garments, such as Roman, Turkish, or Russian togas, or other garments that do not interfere with access to sexaling buttholes, dicks, and so forth, for men and boys to be able to maximize their sexaling enjoyments, erotic attachments, their purposeful eroteming enjoyments, orgasming thrills, and pleasures.

Erotic Attachments

Erotic attachments refers to their titties, dicks, buttholes, mouthal holes, tounges, and other touch sensitive, eroticable and orgasmicable body parts.

Purposeful eroteming enjoyments means, their steady minded, determined, and sustained sense of attaining to the highest levels of eroteming enjoyments possible.

Leveling The Area

Some minor leveling of the area, for maximum use of the area, as an automobile and camper trailer, caravan bus, travel trailer, campsite park, will need to be done.

There are many tiny hills, and a few large ones. There is much dirt that can be removed, from the middle of the site, all the way back to the rear edge of the site.

There is a hilltop trailor park, past the edge of the rear of the parcel, and there will need to be built a very durable, and strong retaining wall, to keep that hillside, shored up, and to keep the trailor park from crashing down the hill side, after slide begins, and creep causes the trailor park to fall into the open area, that will be needed to be excavated, all the way to the rear of the park.

The grade or slope of the hill, need not be steep, but can be at a relatively low angle of ascent. An angle of between ten to twenty five, to thirty degrees, in graduations, from front to back, can be accomplished, with little difficulty, and with no disturbment to the trailor park, or disturbment to the integrity of the trailor park.

We need not seek any permits for construction, as I do not recognize the Lesbianists' governments, on this planet, and if any person shows up who says he or she is a county or city planner, inspector, or whatever, you are to immediately kill the person, and deliver three fivers to the persons' head, as that person is a Lesbianist attempting to interfere in my religious activities.

All activities at the site are to be done, without any interference from any public or other authority, and all costs for all changes and alterations to the site are to be financed by the local construction companies, who are working on the hotels industry, and they will cease immediately their work on all construction, private housing construction, casino construction, and all other towers construction, or work construction, other than the basic infrastructure needed to support the present population of Las Vegas, Nevada.

We are taking over this town and you all will begin to prepare to vacate this town and hand over all of your construction equipment, now, or face your companies and your private persons destruction with my fracturable rocks bombs, begining with the New Orleans Hotel, and all related hotels, and casions, bars, and restaraunts. That means, every gambling establishment is to shut down, stop construction, and vacate this town, now, immediately, post haste, if you wish to live.

You will be destroyed if you refuse to follow orders. We are putting a stop to the non sense of the Lesbianists begining with Las Vegas, Nevada, Henderson, Pahrump, and all parts of Nevada and the Southwest.

You will disband your operations and hand over your companies, such as the water bureau, the power company, the gas utility company, and every other company, including all supermarkets, grocery stores, malls, and so forth, every last business in Nevada, and the south west, to the participants at the collecting site, to take over and then properly manage, until all residents of Las Vegas, remove themselves, to my kids facilities.

Is that understood? You are all resigning and moving into my kids place, underground, surrendering, and moving on for those who are not Lesbianists, but who wish to vacate this area, as this area is in whole, now, a religious grounds.

That means, that I will require the participants at the collection site to take over every thing, and to bring the news reporting stations to their knees, and force them to report the news, that every one is to retire to my kids underground, fortress, and they are all to remove them selves from Las Vegas, now, post haste, immediately, other wise, we will have a fractuable rock bombs throwing contest, to see who we destroy, first.

You must surrender all your holdings, owned property, equipments, and every thing else you call your own, and hand them over to the participants at the collection site.

Is that understood? "YES SIR!" had better be your answer, or you will find yourself on a one way ticket to my Epcot Center, with no return ticket, guaranteed, for however long it takes, to find you tummy mommies and tummy daddies.

I don't think there will be many volunteers, in the near future, as you are all abominant kids of mine, and the only kids people will ever bare, for some time to come, are abominant kids, and animals, and animal humans abominant kids, so I do not think you'll be leaveing my Epcot Center any time soon, if you resist and if you force us to kill you.

Is that understood every body? Good.

The penalty for not complying is death. Do you understand what I am saying? I hope so.

The Party Is Over In Las Vegas, And In The World

The party is now over, in Las Vegas, and at all casinos and gambling establishments, as we know you are all cheating, and we will kill every single last one of you to close you all down.

Who Is Staying And Who Is Leaving, Etc.

You will close down all of your establishments, world wide, and lock the doors on them, and then demolish them, post haste. Is that understood? I hope so. Either you do it, or we will do it. Do you understand that, now? I hope you do, because we are going to demolish every one of your establishments in this town, if you do not demolish them, yourselves. Every last one of them, all houseing, except for those noted in my children's compliance statements, which you are all to recieve, all trailor parks, with some exceptions, all every thing is to be removed, with only the basic infrastrastructure for heating, lighting, water, sewage, medical, hospitals, medical clinics, pharmacies, and so forth, food markets, services industry, HUD, Welfare, SSI, and other operations for the welfare of persons who are here, who can not leave, or who will be staying for some time, and who will be needing the services of those agences, construction companies, lighting companies, electric infrastructure installation and maintenance companies, as well as gasoline supply and distribution vendors, diesel fuels supply and distribution vendors, restaraunts, and telephone. That means, all humans are leaving, except for those person who are to stay on, as indicated in my childrens' compliance statements, and except for those who wish to stay on and participate in spilling their pure, holy, sacred, purifying juices, and those wishing to participate in purifying my area, all of Las Vegas, Nevada, the valley and beyond, in time.

Rules For Hospitals And Clinics, Etc.

There will be new rules for hospitals, and clinics, and my kids will see to it, that the new rules, are followed. There will be other rules, as well, and my kids will see to it, that they are followed, as well, or persons who wantonly disregard them, will end up in prison, underground. My kids have not only a living environment, they have prisons, as well, jail facilities, and many other things. Check with them for a fuller list, of what all they have in the way of facilities, as many are very nice, and there are great possibilities for improving your health, and rejuvenating your bodies, etc.

My kids have a full list of who is to be leaving, who is to be staying, and by when people are to be leaving, and where persons staying, are to be moving to, as we clean up this area.

All of you had better check with my kids, especially, you Lesbianists, but not only them, you religious fanatics, as well, and every one else, of course, or you, especially the Lesbianists and religious fanatics are at risk here, but not too much, the others who are to check in with my kids, risk dying, perhaps, prematurely, and then ending up in my Epcot Center.

My kids also have lists of who the people are who will be recieving all the properties for taking them over, which properties need to be demolished, who will be demolishing things, and how to remove those things that you must remove, and to where you will remove them, and dispose of them, and in what manner you will dispose of them.

You will hand over every thing, and you will all comply, and those who are required to hand over their properties, after complying with removal demands, will hand them over, and then will move out and into my kids place, in accordance with the time schedule that my children have for you to follow. You are required now to check in with my kids, get every thing sorted out, and learn all the details, and then comply.

Those who do not follow these orders risk an early and, fortunate for us, timely meeting with death, and entrance to my Epcot Center for a long stay.

Erecting A Partition Blind On West Tropicana Ave.

The roadway, West Tropicana Ave. runs east to west, and west to east, and it is advisable to erect a pertition blind, so as to not disturb traffic, that comes down the side of the road, the parcel of land sits on, at very fast speeds, with people rubbernecking to see what is going on, as many people will possibly end up flying into the area, with their automobile, truck, gravel carrier, or eighteen wheeler spinnning and turning over, out of control, and then sliding off the roadway and into the collection site.

The traffic is very fact on West Tropicana Ave., and with the interest of the local area residents, who will learn about the collection site, and the activities at the collection site, there will be many hazzards arrising as a result. Some persons may decide to stroll through the area, to steal purses, or wallets, or cameras, and so forth, as there are many poor, indigent, or hopelessly poor, persons, in the area, who do not have any work, and who can not feed themselves, and they need to steal things, to sell, to earn a living.

Such people should be spoken to, and fed, and then warned not to act in an unrighteous manner, which means, please do not steal things, or damage the property, or any thing on it, and please do not get into fist fights, over insults, and disagreements with participants, about who is GOD, and so forth. There are many impoverished persons from South America, and Central America, who only know their local area witch doctor's teachings on voodoo men and voodoo women, and who know nothing but folklorish stories about gouls and ghosts, and people, or ghostly gouls, i.e., people immitating 'gouls', or mean and rotten people, who go 'boo!', or try to scare and rob people, in the night.

Electricity, Lighting, Etc., To Be Supplied By Nevada Power Free Of Charge, Or Else

The partition blind should be sturdy, tall, and break proof, so that vandals can not break it down, or climb over it. Lights for use at night, with the proper permissions for an electrical hookup from the Power Company, Nevada Power Company, will be granted, and provided by Nevada Power, along with all other neccessary, needed, safety lighting hookups, to illuminate the area, fully, at night, so that it looks just like, or nearly like, daylight, or a well lit soccer areana at night, or a well lit professional baseball field, or football field, at night, and it will be given for free, lest we burn down Nevada Power, and kill all of their Lesbianists employees, and meter men, and all of their tawdry workers, who we do not wish to deal with. That means, we will blow up their buildings, and kill them all, unless they give us the electricity that we require. If we need to kill them all, we will then acquire all of their holdings, and we will operate all of them, ourselves. Fair Warning has been given, and consider that as a done deal, unless you wish to visit my Epcot Center.

Meat Vendors And Hispanics From Central And South America

An air of friendlyness, but caution, should be used. Men and boys are there to protect the women and girls. So, please work in teams, and do not let individuals, who might get kidnapped, and sold off to meat vendors, for a few dollars, or pesos, as it is, in Las Vegas, as the majority of such kidnappings and sales of human beings to meat vendors, the Lesbianists chain stores, such as Colonol Sander's Kentucky Fried Chicken, Burger King, MacDonalds, Jack 'n the Box, Wendy's, In-'n-Out, Fat Burger, Taco Bell, Dell Taco, and all the other, fast foods vendors, is by the locally landed hispanics from Central and South America, who need money, to stay alive.

Erecting A Partition Along South Decature Blud.

South Decature Blvd. also has much traffic on it, and there will be lots of people, rubber necking, to see what is going on, so a high, partition wall, made of lumber, should be erected down the side of South Decature Blvd. to prevent all such incidents of rubber necking, and reckess abandonment, from occuring.

The partition should be about ten to thirty feet high, and should be well constructed. Why so high? We do not want people climbing over it, to sneak into the area, to steal things, and to fight with people, and to cause trouble, and to come looking for young girls, and young boys, and helpless, elderly folks, and uneducated to the whims and ways of the downtrodden, brutal, abominant kids of mine, walking the streets of Las Vegas.

Yes. They are abominant kids of mine, and the proof of that is that their children come out as monkey people, and orangutan people, and chimpanzee people, and if possible, the hospital whisks the baby away from its mother, and disposes of it, in the prep rooms, used for killing incoming, abominant kids of mine.

Drawings On Demolition, Construction, Etc.

My kids have construction drawings for constructing all the facilities needed at the collection site for all the facilities that will be needed. They have electrical drawings for lighting, etc., health, fitness, and wellness facilities drawings, latrine facilities drawings, showers facilities drawings, food and beverage eating and drinking areas drawings, and all other drawings related to all things that will be needed to be constructed, or altered in any way, for our project to proceed, including but not limited to, demolition of the cliffs, leveling of the entire area out to Harmon Ave. and up to Flamingo, and back to Tropicana, as well as what is to be removed and leveled between Jones and Decature. There are a few minor exceptions, such as the building that I am living in. Who will move where, to consolidate staff at this project, and who will be moving out, at this project, and what will be leveled at this project, are all detailed in the program specifications, my children have. My present quarters, will be my place of residence, as things move along, and in time, in accordance with the schedule for construction, a temporary facility for me will be constructed near the area but between Flamingo and Tropicana, and somewhere between Jones and Decature. Please see them for details. After the area is purified sufficiently, and after all the areas to be purified, are purified, and my children will decide on when that is accomplished, my children will then activate the technologies, and acquire the resources they need, and then they will build a more permanent settlement arrangement for all people concerned, who are staying on, if they decide to stay on.

The partical dismissive technologies and remissive technologies, for foods, and medicines, and other items that are needed, for continued survival, and for all other required purposes according to the specifications for the sexaling for a living programs, will all be provided to the participants who wish to stay on, and houseing for them, as well, will also be included. Parks will go up, and so will many other locally needed facilities. Many things will disappear, as my kids will partical dismiss the things and structures they need to remove, as they construct the new area, for all persons staying on in Las Vegas. My kids have a list of all the names of all the persons who may, if they decide to, stay on in Las Vegas, and not all of them, are local people, so you should all check to find out whether you name is on the list or not. All other persons, who are to be moving on, and all persons who do not wish to stay on, here, will be required to move into my childrens' present facilities, which they will continue to expand as we continue our program on this planet. We will eventually clear every one out of the area, inside and outside of Las Vegas and the Valley, and surrounding areas, and the world over, except for the persons whose names appear on the list, as houseing can be provided above ground, for participants in the juices spilling and areas purifying operations, by my children, if those persons wish to stay on and participate.

All other people will be required to move into the facilities my children have, and are continuing to upgrade, and expand, in their encapuslated living environement, in which, many people currently live. Persons in the encapsulated living environment, may also attend the collection site area activities, and future clearing activities, for purifying the areas with their pure, holy, powerfully cleansing, purifying, cleericating [cle-er-i-cating], and GODLY energies filled, sexaling juices. Cleericating means, the same thing as clearifying. It is just a slightly different but related word from another a variant language of English, and to cleericate basically means the same thing as to clearify. When we get the areas, cleared enough, and purified enough, my kids will then start building things for the participants. All others will move below ground, and live in the encapsualted living environement, until they have earned enough money, with their friends, as talked about earlier, to purchase a lease on land, and acuire the lease on resources needed, to build a home, etc., for a large group of people, who will be living together, and working together in the sexaling for a living programs, and so forth.

When Will This All Begin?

As soon as people begin to comply, we will begin our efforts to clean up Las Vegas, to begin with, and then, the rest of the world, and then, the rest of our universe. It will take a long time, as we need to spill our juices, the lay persons, anyway, for some time, to come, as our universe is quite large, and so is the rest of it, that we are going to be recovering.

My Spilling Of My Purifying Sexaling Juices, And My Spilling Of My 'Prayer Time' Purifying Juices

I spill my juices, only for religious ceremonialing activities, during certain relgious ceremonies, and I don't spill my juices, on the properties, as I'm not set up to spill my juices, on the property, now, and will not be set up to spill juices, until I find an excuse for that, and an excuse for performing a religious hand prayer signaling ceremony that will require my spilling of my juices. It's pretty hard to spill juices, when there are no other persons working with me, and I do not work with lay persons, unless they are confirmed by me, and so there will be maybe, some confirmations, but not neccessarily so, as I do not know who is going to wish to be confirmed, and by the way, who ever it is I confirm, must realize that I am the Mother and Father of all human beings, animals, and living beings, and the Creator of my universe. There are not that many people who understand that, except for my kids, my working, unionized kids, and so it will be some time, yet, maybe a few hundred or more years, before some one realizes, 'Hey, he IS the Mother and Father of all human beings, etc., etc., etc.,"

Spilling 'Prayer Time' Spittle Generated While Praying

Until then, I'll use my spittle juices if I need to drop or drizzel any juices, that I generate while I am religious hand prayer signaling, as I don't like or care for the idea of jerking off in public, to spill purifying juices, in public, regardless of the fact, that I am GOD, so it ain't going to happen, any time soon. When I find a authentic 'believer' who realizes and understand that I am GOD, and so forth, I'll begin my public spilling of sexaling juices. I don't mind it in private, but it is not going to happen in public.

Monkey Babies, Jimmy Carter, Oliver North, And The Lesbianists' Conspiratorial Bullshit Stories Of Adam And Eve, And "Jesus Saves"

Most people do not know this, but many births end in tragic loss of the child, because Jerry Falwell, Oliver North, Jimmy Carter, Ronald Reagan, George Bush, Jr. George Bush, Sr., and the rest of them, order and expect all the Lesbianists doctors to kill all babies born to people which do not look human. Doctors at birthing hospitals also comply, quietly, as it is hospital policy they can not break. If they go against it, they risk losing their job, and possibly losing their life. This is not a joke, and it is the Lesbianistgs policy of having all birthings in hospitals exactly for this reason, for disposing of non human looking babies, at birth, so that their bullshit creation by God, of a 'pair' of people, Adam and Eve, and that "Jesus Saves all good Christians", can not be contested, by logical proof of non human births to human being couples, or single parent women or girls. Abominant kids are born every day to my kids, on this planet, and they are all executed, or killed off by the local citizens, by their fright and fear of 'ghouls and ghosts' and 'goblins' in the night that go, 'Boo!'. These idiots, both the abominant South Americans, Central Americana, and all my other abominant kids, North American, Europeans, Russians, Chinese, Japanese, Thai, Philipine, and so on, must ask them selves why they are blessed with babies which are either not human or are abominant humans, or part animal humans. If they ask them selves these questions, they will find out the only answers are that these people born to them, are my children, and my children are born to them for reasons that have not been disclosed to them, before, by the clergical societies, i.e, the religions of the world, and by the other societies, set up by the Lesbianists, or by societies nurtured along as part of the Lesbianists' 'tragic comedy' of their toying with your lives for their humoring themselves, and for their amusing themselves. Once we get rid of the Lesbianists, and their ways of doing things, we will begin to see babies that are either not human, or are only part human, in animal bodies, and they will be born to all of you who are tummy mommies, and tummy daddies, if you birth enough children, to find out. How many is enough? About one in forty or fifty by my estimation, but depending on the person, it may be between thirty to eighty, from one person to the next. Take that to your pastor, and tell him or her, to stick it up his or her ass. It is the truth that animals are born to humans, all the time. Not only that, but abominant kids of mine, usually of the apey kind, but not always, are born to the 'normal' looking humans on our planet, and in our universe. We need not be afraid of these children, as animals, can be collected and put into zoos, and animal humans can be raised by the parents, or parent, in the case of a single parent. In time, we will adjust to this reality, and we will raise fine children, abominant animal humans, or human appearing abominant children. That means you are all abominants, and the Lesbianists are laughing at you, and at themselves as well, as they go around and kill and cravenly torture every possible person they can. We will put an end to their craven ways, and we will make a wonderful universe for all of us to live in, in peace, and serenity, once we get started practicing my religion, and once we begin erasing, sufficiently, our karma and our karmic markups, with your purifying sexaling energies, prayers, and other activities, such as syncopated dance, syncopated excercise, syncopated sexaling, and so forth. You time it to the metronome at one thirty seventh, for now, and that will be fine. In time, we will get accurate metronomes, and then we will chance the pace, just ever so slightly, to push my kids along, as I explained about, for our wholesome and healthy universe, for all of us to live in, together with each other.

Punishment For People Who Practice Voodoo Religions Is Dismendment, I.E., Death

We will not be killing or executing children any more, at hospitals, or at homes, or in primitive, backwards towns and villages, or rural hideaway villages, where voodoo religions muster the people into peculiar states of mind, where they become entranced, and then begin mindlessly, acting like chickens, and birds, or fowls, or hippos, and so forth. There are too many of these types of so-called 'religions' in this world, and we are out lawing all of them, and punishment for adhering to them, will be a trip to my Epcot Center, as I have my children particle dismiss their bodies, and then dismend them, bit by bit, into their base components, and then have my children whisk them into my Epcot Center. We will bring every one up to the level of education every one needs to be at, to better understand my universe, and those who persist in abandoning their obligations, will be dismended with out further notice, after they are sent their last warning ticket, from my kids, in accordance with Gurkian Law. That also applies to the Lesbianists, and to every one else, who is unable to get the picture here, and get with the program. There will be no exceptions. And, this is not a joke. My kids have courses for you to educate your self in, to pull yourself out of the past Lesbianists' way of life and thinking, and into the new and current, reality, that we will be living in, for ever, from now on.

Local Businesses Will Have No Problems At All With The Collection Site And Will Have No Problems At All With The Activities Of The Faithful At The Collection Site

Walgreen's is across the street, on one corner, and Home Depot is on another corner. I don't think Walgreen's will have any problem with you using the site for your camping, for your meeting with others, for your sexaling with others, and for you and your friends' purifying sexaling activities in that park, i.e., the collection site. Home Depot, I don't think will have any problem with your use of the parcel of land, either, for those purposes.

What To Do If The Police Come?

Now, if the police come, and I'm there or not, I don't know what they'll say, but they have not got any right to say any thing to any one. Is that clear, Mr. Mayor of Las Vegas, and every one else in the area. I hope it is, as I am not going to stand for your interference or any one else's interference in my religion and in the relgious activities of people who wish to participate in my religion, sexaling to purify my universe. IS THAT UNDERSTOOD, MR. MAYOR AND EVERY BODY ELSE? I HOPE IT IS! AS A 'NO SIR' WOULD BE UNACCEPTABLE!

Now that we have an understanding, I think there will be no problems, and if there are, I will see what I can do about it, by calling my kids up, with my religious hand prayer signaling ceremonies, to see what they can do for you, to help you out, and to break the backs on law enforcement officers, and the Mayor of Las Vegas, and every other person, Lesbianist or not, who tries to interfere with me, or who tries to interfere with the people practicing my religion. I will not stand for any interference from any one, including Mr. George Bush, Jr., the current president of the United States, or any one else, such as the Mayor of Las Vegas, or the Governor of Nevada, or the Nevada Highway Patrol, or the Nevada Sherrifs Dept. or the Las Vegas Metro Dept. or with any other persons or parties, such as the Las Vegas Gaming Commission, or any other Lesbianists' or Lesbianistic organization set up by the Lesbianists, and that means all you church goers, parochial school teachers, and students, and others, and if any one interferes with any one who comes to my ministry's claimed parcel of land that I am purifying for setting up my ministry, and if any one hassels any one there, than who ever is visiting the collection site, to help to purify it, you have my permission to kill the persons attempting to interfere in any way at all, on sight, with what ever you have to kill them with. Please dispose of their bodies in the nearest trash dumpster.

DO YOU HEAR ME? MR. MAYOR. YOU ARE A DEAD MAN IF YOU EVEN TRY TO SEE WHAT MY RELIGIOUS FAITHFUL ARE DOING, AND SO IS EVERY OTHER PERSON ON EVERY SCHOOL BOARD AND CHURCH OR OTHER LESBIANISTS' COMMITTEE. IS THAT CLEAR, EVERY BODY? GOOD!

You will not interfere with my religion, and with my religious faithful, and they will come to Nevada, and they will come to Las Vegas, and they will start sexaling on that property as they see fit. Does every body understand that? I hope so. Now. Non responsive persons, who ignore my statements, will find themselves in trash cans, and trash dumpsters, every where in Las Vegas, and any where else, where there is a convenient trash can or trash dumpster. There are lots of them around, and people are throwing dead people into them, every day, across the country and around the world, and they all end up in landfill sites, and so there will be no added charges for our using the statewide Nevada Silver State trash retainers and containers, for however many others who need to be killed, and for my religious faithful to then place them into the trash cans and trash dumpsters. No charges should be levied by any other Lesbianists' trash collection company, around the world, as they are all owned and operated by the Lesbianists, and we will not support them, in any way, what so ever.

If Mr. Mayor would like to be the first guest inside of one of the Nevada Silver State trash dumpsters, then he will try to interfere, in person, and he will be shot, point blank, in the center of his head. You will then kill him with three fivers, to make certain he is on his way to my Epcot Center, for his next trip out as a tummy baby. If the Governor of Nevada wishes to interfere, then he does so at the risk of being shot, killed, and made certain he is dead, with three fivers, and then after that, he will be deposited into a local or state trash dumpster, either here, in Nevada, or in California, or Arizona, or where ever it is convenient to dump him into a trash can, trash container, or trash dumpster.

Lesbianists Enjoy Eating People, Who Are Alive, As Well As Eating The Bodies Of Those Who Are Dead

You should let the state's vice mayor of Las Vegas's office know, who was shot, killed, and confirmed dead, after depositing three fivers into his or her head, and then where the body is, and generally when the body was dumped, so that they can get an idea of how decomposed the body is, and whether or not the body is in a land fill site. They can then check on it, and verify that the body will make it to the land fill site, if it isn't already, there, where all the other bodies, are ending up, unless they have already happened to have beeb eaten up by the Mayor, or by the friggen Governor, or by the Sherrif, or by another Lesbianist.

All persons are free to travel to Las Vegas, and they are invited to stay at the parcel of land that I described, and they are invited to make it into a nice camper trailer area for recreational vehicles, or for what ever other types of outdoors camping vehicles, travel trailers, caravan buses, or any other types of camp site temporary stay, housing and living arrangements you would like to use the area for.

Every Game Of Chance, Gambling Machine, Or Slot Machine Is Rigged, In Every Casino Around The World, With Only A Few Exceptions

If you will all sexal, regularly, to the best of your abilities, and help me to purify the area with your sexaling, undisturbed by any one, and clean it up with your purifying energies, you are more than welcomed to come and enjoy the area, and see what fine attractions, will be leaving Las Vegas, in the not so distant future, including the gaming commission, with all their phoney, rigged gaming systems, that the Lesbianists control.

The Lesbianists' Articles Of Participation

The Lesbianists have every game that you can possibly rig, controlled by electronics devices, or by slight of hand, mechanics, who control the gaming rooms, and gaming halls, so that only Lesbianists win any money, that is worth mentioning about, and so that the Gaming Authorities, and the Mayor's office, and every other Lesbianist organization in Nevada, who has any one in their office, can then go and get the money the Lesbianist won, and get a percentage of it, given back to them, as they have arranged to do that, as that is part of their oath, and part of their sworn promises to do, as that is written out in their articles of participation, their rules for living upsite, not down below, in the labrynthine cities, and every Lesbianist must follow those rules, and when they win the Megabucks, and every Lottery in the world, they must give back money to the Lesbianists, as every game of chance that is run in this world, except for bingo, is rigged. However, even Bingo is rigged, in some ways, by people switching cards that look like winning cards, while players are not looking, and by other naughty tricks.

Every Lottery In The World Is Rigged

Every lottery in the world, performs the drawing out of the balls before a live audience, in most cases, before they actually air the show, and they have illusionary tricks they play, with the technologies they have, and they sucker people out of their money, daily, around the world. Las Vegas is no different, and they sucker every one out of their money, except for the Lesbianists, and they let some people, win now and then, small jackpots, on the gaming machines, and then after a winning streak, they set the machines the person uses, so that the person can not win a dime. They have the technologies for rigging every machine in Nevada, and across the country and around the world, so next time you visit one of their casinos, be sure and detonate one of our bombs, you can make, and destroy that casino. Is that understood? I hope so, as every day, millions of people are being suckered out of their hard earned money, they pay taxes on, through the nose, till they are practically choking, and the Lesbianists take it, and support their folley and games. They also support their folley and games with your revenues, that they make sure you lose, at every casion, and at every gas station, with a convience store, that has gambling machines in it, for you to deposit you money into. Every lottery in the world is rigged, and so if you spend money on it, if you are not a Lesbianist, you are just throwing your money away.

No Fair Play In Nevada, And No Fair Play In The World

There is no fair play, here in Nevada, or any where else, in the world, and I would like you all to know that, and become aware of that, and then I hope you will tell your friends about it, and then I hope you will destroy every single last one of their casinos, and gaming machines. We are not going to allow them to continue their frolicking at your expense, and we are going to destroy every last one of the Lesbianists, as soon as we can. If they prefer to surrender themselves to my kids, than we can allow them to live. However, if they do not surrender themselves to my kids, then we will kill them all. And there are no 'maybe's' about that.

Sniper Shooting, And Miscellaneous Information

You have my permission to sniper shoot any police officer, park ranger, sherrif, or other person, plain clothesed police officer or detective, with or without a gun, on sight with your scoped rifles, and targeting assistant who will determine range, from your bunkered in the hillside, shooting site. Any hotel in the area, which might harbor shooters from local police, sherrif, or SWAT team operations groups, you have my permissions, and blessing, or go ahead, and my 'okay, and 'approved for action' sight of appeal. Sight of appeal means, my blessings, based on your determination as per your good judgement.

One hotel that is clearly the most convenient, and the closest with in shooting range, at close range, is the New Orleans Hotel. Hotels within shooting range, at a distance, are the Palm's Hotel, The Rio Hotel and Casino and its seperate tower wing, and a few others, off in the distance. You'll have to come and look at them from the approximate location of the site after you determine where every thing is, to locate and determine for your self which hotels and towers need to come down, and what you will need to bring them down. There is a tower off in the distance, a new hotel, that is going up, that I do not know the name of, but is clearly within shooting range, and needs to come down, and people are on it, daily, welding, and you can't miss it, if you look in the north easterly direction from the site. There is the Stratosphere Hotel and Casino, which also needs to come down, which is further over to the west from the new hotel wing that is going up. There are many scaffoldings in the area, that also need to come down with explosives, fracturables rocks, fuels, chlorine, and high temperature minerals particles ignition, and particles burnings bombs. There are probably a number of other landmarks, hotels, casinos, bars, restaraunts, trailor parks, trailors, houses, apartments, condominiums, near or off in the distance, that also need to come down, and need to be demolished with my light weight explosives fuels, gunpowders, metals particles, and chlorine plastique explosives bombs.

You will destroy them all, and you will come prepared, or be prepared to acquire all the demolitions needed to destroy them all, as well as to destroy all the local police and sheriff's many Metro offices, SWAT Teams offices and units, Fire and Rescue Ambulance units, Lesbianists' Hospitals, and other Lesbianists facilities, throughout the Las Vegas Valley, Henderson Nevada, North Las Vegas, Pahrump, Mesquite and the whole Southern Nevada, westward to San Diego, California, northward to Los Angeles, northward to San Francisco, California, northward to Berkely, California to Oregon, and Washington State, and back down to Reno Nevada, Arizona, New Mexico, Albequerque, Houston Texas, Dallas Fort Worth Texas, and all areas where there are tactical SWAT team units, military units, militia units, as all militias are organized and operated by Lesbianists, despite popular beliefs that they are independent of the government, and anti government, as we often see on the "TV for the Brainless", as they are often refered to, i.e., the general public.

You will destroy all law enforcement offices, and personel, and all military and militias. All governments, their offices, and employees, are to be destroyed, and all personel are to be executed, except for those who take it upon themselves to execute the Lesbianists among them. My kids have a full list of all the places and structures that need to be destroyed, and demolished, and so please see them for that information.

Your Orders Are To Kill The President Of The United States And His Wife

And to repeat, your orders are to kill the president of the United States, George Walker Bush, Jr., his wife, Mrs. Barbara Bush, Jr., and all of his and his wifes' Lesbianists' associates, pretend relatives, and friends.

We are not going to let this stand, another moment, and if they do not surrender to my kids, you are to execute them all. My kids have a list of names, of those, who have not surrendered, as yet. Please see them for and ask them for that list of names of persons who have not as yet, surrendered, and who need to be executed, post haste, immediately, or, ASAP.

United States President George Walker Bush, Jr., is no exception to this, as he has not surrendered, as of yet, and that is confirmed. Neither has any of his colleages, or congressional office holders and diet or congress members, except for Ted Kennedy, and one or so others, and maybe a cabinet member, one or there abouts, but I haven't confirmed that, yet. There are some members of the congress who are not Lesbianists, and you can get their names, on a list from my kids, as well.

Texas's Lesbianists' Latest 'Vaccine' And Texas's Attempts To Destroy Women's And Girls Vaginal Lining And To Destroy Cervical Lining, Causeing Stillbirths To Increase, And To Prevent The Successful Birthing Of Children

The latest attempt by the Lesbianists' governments of the world, near by my computer window, on the internet news services, to destroy and toy with the human population of this planet, has been launched in Texas, and is targeted at women and girls, and their ability to have children.

See the article at the end of this post.

The new vaccine, which is mandated by Governor Rick Perry, who signed it into law, and is now obligatory, unless you protest it, and go to court, and spend years fighting it, as an individual or small group of claimants, will destroy the vaginal cervical collar and the lining that holds every thing in place, and supports the interior of the vagina, thus making it impossible to carry a fetus to term. The vaccine is also targeting the brains fibers throughout the human body, and the fibers of the brains in a woman's or girls' body will slowly rot, and decay as they are eaten up by tiny animals that eat these energies conducing fibers, synapses, relay switches, and other related energical brainal related things and dings thoughout the body.

Latest Lesbianists' Vaccine Will Cause Numerous Problems

It will also speed up the eating away of the enamel of the teeth, and of the bones in the woman's and girl's body, her fingernails, and her skin membranes NS membraneous tissues throughout the body, and on the exterior of a woman's and girls' body, making the women and girls grow older looking at ever more younger ages, and making women and girls susceptable to skin cancer, melanoma, herpes, genital warts, other infestations of animals in the skin, and other skin related membrane destructing colonies of animals, that they use from out of their Bio Chem War encyclopedia of how to destroy human beings, with poisonous and health problems causeing crystals cages animals of all kinds. Especially numerous are the Bio Chem Warfare crystals cages animals of the petroleum industry's based kind.

The vaccine is no different from any other of the Lesbianists vaccines aimed at destroying the health of the people who live on this planet. It is compared to the 'polio' vaccine, in the news article, and that was similarly an attempt at destroying the health of the human being, by making the human being incapable of haveing any sexual orgasming capabilities, by killing off all the sex related animals and bugies in the body, which make sexaling juices, that make eroteming and orgasming possible.

Thus, this latest attempt at destroying the health of the people who live on this planet, locally, in Texas, and that I know of, anyway, is nothing more than the Lesbianists toying with the people who they are here to amuse them selves with by destroying them, little by little, over a long period of time.

Execute United States Of America, State Of Texas, Governor Perry And Family

This will not stand, and you will all destroy the capital of Texas, and Governor Perry's mansion, and the Governor and his wife, and their family, pretend or otherwise with my fracturable rocks and fuels chlorine and explosives, etc., bombs, that you will make in your home's garage, or workshop, safely.

Underground Books Distributor's For Militia Types Folks

Use the delayed timer invention, that is a workable time delay detonator, that I've explained about, especially if you use black powder gun powder, mixed with axel grease, turpentine, benzine, chlorine, using also some Elmer's glue, prior to mixing with chlorine, and then set it in a warm cupboard, to ferment for a few days, to then turn into a nice plastic explosives mixture for detonating with the string of flash bulbs wired to the alarm clock trick, as described by Ragnar or by one of the other bombs making specialists, in their sub culture literature for militia types folks, who wish to destroy the government.

They find the list of names of all the people who request the literature, by mail, and then they go and watch them, with their surveilance technologies they have, and then they either capture and torture them, and then kill them, or they just make sure they are die, in a fatal car accident, or whatever.

Paladium Press is one of the Lesbianists' book publishers, and there are others, and this one is affiliated with the National Rifle Association, a Lesbianists organization.

This publisher has titles sold to underground books distributors, and you can find a number of underground book distributors on the internet, which carry more titles than Palladium press.

Delta Press, who publishes their books and paraphenalia distribution listings magazine, 'Delta Force' is one of these distributors of interesting underground literature.

http://www.deltaforce.com/catalog/page30dp.html

'Home Made Fireworks', is one web page to look at, if you have the time.

http://www.deltaforce.com/catalog/page28dp.html

'Booby Traps, Explosives and Black Medicine', is another useful page to look at, as well.

http://www.deltaforce.com/catalog/page30dp.html

There are a number of other distributors of underground literature, and some have better selections than does Delta Press.

In any case, with a little research, there are plenty of 'timed detonation devices' drawings, and explanations, for you to view, and learn from, that will help you to construct a timed detonator, that will allow you to safely set off one of your plastiques bombs made with my explosives formulas.

Paladin Press, you can find their books at Amazon Books on the web, another Lesbianists owned corporation, is another publisher of interesting underground literature, that can be useful for you to study and learn from.

Paladin Press can be found at, http://www.paladin-press.com/

Books for supposed 'Professionals' who are anti terrorists professionals, that allow them to detect the different types of bombs people can make, and then use to destroy others, is sort of a tounge in cheek joke of the Lesbianists, for luring in people who wish to find information on bombs and explosives.

There are many useful books published to help beginners understand the basics of bomb making. The idea is to use the information for professionals who wish to understand the craft of making bombs, and detonating devices, and then use that information to build your bombs and your detonating devices.

The flash bulbs wired to an alarm clock with matches and ignitable phosphates glued to a string of flashbulbs, wired properly together, then crushed, so as to expose their flash and heat ignition coils filaments, for your detonating heat energies ignition needs, is one of the basics and you can find it in one or another of the underground books on bombs making and detonation devices making for 'professional' anti terrorist's private investigator or bombs detection professionals types.

This is one of the ways the Lesbianists lure in persons who know nothing about weapons, and then they find out who they are, and then they make friends with them, and toy with them, and introduce them to their Lesbianists' friends, and hang out with them, and pretend they are all friends, then one day, they all attack the person, and torture the individual, and get their kicks, amusing them selves, by ripping the person up, or by hanging, and nailing the person to a wall, with a nail gun using, approximately, three inch nails, and then hammering in longer, seven inch to twelve inch nails, or larger ones, or other similar nonsensical, childish, but fiendish behavior.

The "BRUTAL ART OF RIPPING, POKING & PRESSING VITAL TARGETS"
"by Loren W. Christensen"
http://www.paladin-press.com/detail.aspx?ID=1441

Is a beginners guide to ripping people apart, one arm, or leg, at a time, or with team work, one half of a person can be ripped from the other half, if you hold the right bones in place, and then, using teamwork, rip the person into two or more pieces. This book gives a person a preliminary sense of what he or she can muster, as an individual who attempts to rip at a person, and tear the person apart, one limb at a time, or with friends, how to rip a person up, one piece or more, at a time. Ripping people up is accomplished best, if they are unconcious. If they can not fight back, or resist, it is easy to rip a person apart, if you have the needed strength. Since many people have ancestors who were monkeys, chimps, orangutangs, guerillas, and so forth, with tremendous muscles strength, there are lots of very tiny persons, with phenomenal strength, and they can easily rip a person in two, by them self, if they try.

Books on booby traps for law enforcement personel, are simple descriptions of bombs that they may or may not encounter, and there may be some useful information in some of them such as,

"BOOBY TRAP IDENTIFICATION AND RESPONSE GUIDE FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT PERSONNEL"
"by Tony L. Jones"
"This manual teaches cops and other law enforcement personnel all they need to know to recognize a booby trap and respond properly. Find out where booby traps are most commonly employed; the 11 physical signs that most often signal a trap; what to do (andnot do) if a trap is suspected or found; how to safely search a building, outdoor site or vehicle; and the one indicator that practically guarantees that a building has been booby-trapped. Shows more than 90 different booby traps in place. For academic study only. 5 1/2 x 8 1/2, softcover, photos, 80 pp."

There are others, which you can also find, that will provide schematics, and drawings of useable ambush related devices, and detonators for them.

"Contingency Cannibalism", sold through Paladin Press, and other 'underground' book distributors, is one of the Lesbianists' favorite books, that help them to track persons who they would like to later, cannibalize, themselves, as a joke on the person.

"CONTINGENCY CANNIBALISM"
"Superhardcore Survivalisms Dirty Little Secret"
"by Shiguro Takada"
"This twisted, tongue-in-cheek look at cannibalism as a last-resort survival option analyzes real-life case studies and historical episodes of cannibalism. Then it examines the hard-core decisions and gruesome details one must know in order to partake in this grisly practice. Recipes included. For entertainment purposes only. 5 1/2 x 8 1/2, softcover, 160 pp."

The Rusksack, "Survival Information Clearinghouse", is just one club of members of mainly Lesbianists, who have fun toying with the people who live on this planet.

Information On Bombs Making And Detonators On The Web

For information on making detonators, and other bomb related stuff, please see this web page as it costs nothing.

http://www.bombshock.com/archive/Homemade_Bombs/

Solar Flares And Flare Igniters

A solar igniter as talked about in the article on page, http://www.bombshock.com/file9/crtrmkr.txt-Crater_Makers-932.htm

'Crater Makers', is a solar flare igniter, a device that is used in solar flares, or night time distress signal flares, that ignite the flare, by sending an electric battery current into the flare phosphates holding tube, down a wire, on an ignition circuit, and then igniting the distress signal flare.

You can find solar igniters inside of distress signal flares that are used on boats, for shooting up into the air, with a flare gun for maritime use, that will send the distress signal flare up into the sky, if you have the flare gun pointing in that direction, and then at a certain altitude, a trip switch circuit is activated, due to air pressure, or due to timing from time of departure of the distress signal flare from the flare gun barrel.

You have to exhibit extreme caution, when taking a flare apart, as it can detonate, accidentally, and they are not made in a way so that people can safely take them apart, and people who try to take them apart, are accidentally injured, on a regular basis. Do not use this, if you do not know any thing about demining, as a professional mine deactivating specialist in the military, or with military training. This is best left up to the professionals, and is not meant as something the average house wife, business man or business woman, or chemistry or other studies, school student, should attempt.

You can use a flash bulb, and get the same results, if you glue some gun powder and phosphates to the flash bulb housing, and then crush the glass, and then wire it properly to a common house morning wake me up, alarm clock with a striker bell and a striker that moves back and forth. The circuit is simple, and you can figure it out with little difficulty.

The Lesbianists' Balooney On Minus Charges As Opposed To Positive Charges

Remember the minus sign on a battery is where all the activity of the little energies kids is going on, and the Lesbianists purposefully teach that the positive side is where the current is moving out of, and around towards the negative side of the battery. The Lesbianists teach that the active side of the battery is the plus or positive side, or the side with the plus sign on it, when you look at a common house hold nine volt battery, and that the non-active side is the negative side, or the side of the battery with a minus sign. This is false. The side with the minus sign on it, is the active side, and that is where you do not want to wire any thing to, unless you know what you are doing. The positive side has no activity going on, and is safe to touch, but the other side is not safe to touch, and the testing meters are wired to show you that the reverse is true. They have tampered with the design of testing meters, so as to support their allegation and falseity, that the minus side is where there is no activity, contrary to the truth.

That means, that, the flash bulb igniter system and the flash bulb itself should indicate that one side is the positive side, for the positive wire to be attached to. You had better check carefully, and make sure there is no mischief here, as you do not want to detonate your igniter, accidentally. Ask a qualified electronics specialist to do all your wiring of your detonators, as he or she is the only person qualified to wire these types of detonators.

The Lesbianists' Maps Of The Brains

It's rather confusing, the way the Lesbianists have reversed things, and have messed around, so as to thwart your attempts to make nice detonators that work every time, unless you have a normal set of brains, which unfortunately, I have not got a pair of, or triple set, or more of. That's sort of a joke. On a magazine, yesterday, I saw how the Lesbianists teach that one part of the brain is for speech, and one area of the brain is for speaking, and one area of the brain is for sight, and one area of the brain is for logical thinking, and one area of the brain is for signing, or one area of the brain is for artistic inventioning, and so forth, but that's a lot of hog wash.

The brain is not partitioned in that way, and they know it, and they are misleading every one, and laughing at all of you while they are doing it, with their 15th to 17th century style drawings, that they have plastered on all the Time magazines, or what ever magazine cover it was on, that I saw in the check out lane, at the super market, yesterday. You have kazillions, and more of parts to your brains, and there are so many, it is unlimited, nearly, and your brains are so complex, and you have got brains in lots of other places in your bodies, other than in your head, and I'm not going to go into that one, now, but the Lesbianists are lying through their teeth, when it comes to this type of pseudo historically backwards, archaic, or cave dwelling human's notions on science, that should insult a first grader, or kindergarden school student, or preschool student.

In any case, ask your local electronics' specialist or house hold electricians' specialist, or handy man repair persons, who work for house hold water heating devices installation companies, or other electrical home appliances sales and installation companies, who also get confused, from time to time, as I've witnessed them, personally, blow up breaker circuits.

Get a qualified, and that's hard to find in so far as I've witnessed them at work, electronics' specialist to wire your detonators, or go take a course with my kids, as they have courses available on wireing such devices.

There is no minus charge, and there is no positive charge, and that is what you should understand. There is a side to the battery where there is lots of activities going on, and that is the minus sign side on the battery. The positive sign side on the battery is where there is little to very little or nearly no activity, but no activity is not the truth, either, as there is activity, you just can not measure it with todays' electronics measuring devices, as they are not technologically sophisticated enough to be able to detect the activity, though I'm sure there have been intrepid scientists who discovered that both sides of the battery have activity, and then they were shot and killed, after that discovery, by a Lesbianist assasin, or by a hired assasin, assigned or paid to kill the scientist who discovered that there is activity at the 'minus' side of the battery as well as at the 'positive' side.

That means, that you need only concern your self with the 'minus' side, since you will not be able to detect any thing at the positive side, unless you use the reverse wired electronics and electrical energies detection devices that the Lesbianists market through Tandy, or Radio Shack, and at Sears, and so forth.

It gets confusing, a little bit, doesn't it. Anyway, go and take a course at one of my kids classes, after you sign in, and swear in as a jr. member to our new country, which I haven't sworn on to, as yet, or joined - but though I am the boss of, regardless - since my kids do not speak to me, on a daily, or weekly, or other basis, and I just happen to be able to know what they are doing as they tell me what they are doing, through some secret port hole in one of my brains some where, in my toes, or nose, or who knows where, as they telegraph or some how signal in, using semiphore signaling, or probably hand signaling, that my brain then catches, and then passes on to me, their messages that they signal in to me, and the news, as well, about what they are doing, and about what is going on with them, and about what is going on with some other things, as well.

Since I am GOD, I happen to have a right to know this stuff, what they and every body else is doing, on a daily basis, but they haven't told me how my brains catch their information, yet, or the other information that gets there, some where into my one or more of my brains, and I haven't figured it out, yet, myself, either, though I think I know something, a very little something, about how it works.

This does not mean, that my brains are unreliable - except for my memories areas of my brains, in particular - but that I am just waking up to what is going on, here, and I have a few kazillions of years to work out every thing, or some of the basics, any way.

In any case, you have all been snookered by them, with regards to their non sense sciences, and you are being laughed at, and toyed with, daily by them. That happens to be the truth, whether we find it pleasant or not.

Execute The Current President Of The United States Of America, George Walker Bush, Jr.

In any case, the Lesbianists are a twisted group of individuals, who toy with the people who live on this planet. Mrs. Hillary Clinton, Bill Clinton, George Walker Bush, Jr. President of the United States, his wife, Barbara Bush Jr., George Bush, Sr., former president, and his wife, Barbara Bush, Sr, are all gagsters, or jokesters, who wish to only toy with you, and eat you, or deprive you of your life, and of your rights, in fiendish and horribalistic ways and manners.

They are all to be executed, especially George Walker Bush, Jr., President of the United States of America, currently residing at 1600 Pennsylvania Ave. Washington DC, in what they call the White House. You are to kill them all, and send every last one of them to my Epcot Center, as soon as is convenient for you.

Lesbianists Who Decide To Sexal In My Religion With Lesbianists And Non-Lesbianists' Persons

If any Lesbianists decide to sexal in my religion, with their friends, and their friends may include other Lesbianists who decide to sexal, as well, as well as, other people they know, then they may begin sexaling with their friends in my religion, however, they must have a pentative attitude, and they must say they are sorry, and they must now and then, when they feel they wish to, and feel emotionally and mentally capable of speaking about it, they can talk with their friends who they are sexaling with, and with others who wish to listen as well, and they can denounce the Lesbianists by telling people about the things the Lesbianists do, and did.

If they decide to do this, this is the same as surrendering, and my kids will protect them from other Lesbianists who might want to harm them. They have not sworn in, as a citizen of my and my kids' country, and as citizens of our country that every one is swearing in to as citizens, but it is sort of a promise to swear in, informal gesture that they are committed to, once they begin sexaling with their friends, and with other Lesbianists, who also wish to sexal and in time, denounce the Lesbianists with them.

Citizens By Proxy

By denouncing the Lesbianists organization, and by telling people about what the Lesbianists do and did, they are essentially stating they are sorry for what has happened, and that is a pentative attitude, and with that pentative attitude, they are accepted as citizens, by proxy.

Temporary Full Time Citizens

Citizens by proxy means they are accepted by my kids as pentative persons, who wish to join our country, and who there with, qualify as citizens of our country, in an informal manner. Citizen by proxy means, they give up their old citizen ship, to whatever government they used to belong to, and they are taken in, as temporary full time citizens.

Temporary full time citizen is a term that means they are full time citizens, but on a temporary committal agreement, and that will be made permanent when they have the chance to meet with my children, and then can swear in, as a permanent full time citizen.

They can then participate at the collection site, in the activities that will be going on, with others, who wish to participate, as they spill their juices, and purify the area with their sexaling juices.

What To Do About Untimely Pregnancies, Health Issues, Medicines, And Regroverative Formulas

My kids will deliver to them, to the men and to the women who surrender and become citizens by proxy, and temporary full time citizens, the needed medications that will help to make their bodies, wholesome and well, and regroverated, as well as the medications that are needed to prevent untimely pregnancies.

Medical And Housing Benefits, And Other Health And Work Related Benefits

My kids will make certain that they will be given the right medications, and my kids will also provide all the same medications for each individual who participates in the collection site activities to purify the area where we will one day set up my ministry with my kids assistance. My kids will also set up other facilities, as well as the ministry facilities. The other facilities will be scattered through out the valley, and they will be the houseing units and other facilities for people to use to become physically fit, well, and well nourished, and healthy, such as gyms, aerobic studios for practicing aerobic dance, and aerobic excercises, as well as sauna and health spa, and swimming, tennis, badminton, cricket, and other sports facilities for baseball, rugby, foot ball, for those who wish to play a friendly game of foot ball, now and then, with the needed bleachers, lighting, and other supportive facilities for allowing persons to attend and watch the games that are going on, not only for foot ball, or for base ball, but also for tennis, soccer, rugby, and all out door sports facilities that will be needed.

When will my kids set up these facilities? They will set them up at the same time or shortly there after, as my kids begin to set up my ministry facilities, and the needed facilities for living and working in the valley area, sexaling for a living.

At that time, the citizens by proxy, and all other persons who have not yet sworn in, but wish to, will have the opportunity to swear in, and then they can enter and use the facilities full time, twenty four hours a day, without any further discussion about it.

All people who participate in the collection site activities, are also citizens by proxy, and as such, will automatically qualify for all medicines, all health supportive medical formulas, and all youthfulness prolonging, or regroverative formulas, that will feed all the amoebes, and other cells, or living beings in your bodies, and that will feed all the living beings in your bodies, that will then allow you to enjoy full regroveration of your body and rejuvenation of your youthfulness, youthful energies, and of all the other health benefits that accompany a youthful body, such as more energy, a stronger libido, a more healthful body, and so on.

When do people begin this participation in the collection site activities? As soon as they come out here, to Las Vegas, and arrive in their camper trailers, or caravan buses, or other vehicles, or with their camping gear such as tents, and cooking grills, and so forth.

When Can People Begin To Come So As To Be Able To Participate?

How soon can people begin coming to participate at the collection site in the activities that will be on going at the collection site for some time to come?

They can begin coming to participate any time. My kids will watch out for the safety of all the people who come to participate in the collection site activities. My kids will prevent accidents such as current Lesbianists shooting at people at the collection site, from high rise towers, scaffolding, tall cranes, or from hotel and casino properties owned by the Lesbianists, and from other tall condominium and also from tall apartments buildings and also from normal sized, two or three storey, to eight or so stories, apartment buildings, in the area. Of course, my kids will prevent accidents from happening such as shootings, from all possible locations, and not just from those named structures and locations.

Sniper Points, Places Where Snipers Shoot From

There is no need to blow or destroy them with explosives, in Las Vegas, as there will be no way any one can use those hotels, and other structures, as shooting or sniper points, places where snipers shoot from, to harm any one who is participating at the collection site, in the collection site activities.

In time, every thing will be worked out, and all the people who must hand over their companies, or disolve their companies, and sell or get rid of the assets of their companies, all of that will be in compliance with my childrens' instructions with regards to it, as I've stated about it, already, in brief.

Once the facilities are set up by my kids, and people swear in formally, then my kids can begin to pay people their earned income, for the work they did as they sexal for a living, and for their work, as they spill their fluids, to purify the collection site, the collection site area, and the general vicinity.

Pocket Knives, Construction Tools, And Miscellaneous Daily Life Management Tools And Equipment

No one needs to bring weapons to the collection site area, or to Las Vegas, as they will not be needed, and pocket knifes are okay, and construction tools are okay, but they will be for daily use activities, only. Daily life management tools are forks, knives, spoons, chopsticks, plates, dishes, glasses, coffee cups, can openers, bottle openers, cork pullers, and these types of things, as well as all the other types of kitchen use tools for cooking food, for eating food, for drinking beverages, and for the collection of garbage, and food wastes, and for cleaning up their eating and cooking utensils, such as portable wash basins, and portable gas stoves, or fixed stoves, fixed wash basins, fixed showers in camper trailors, and in caravan buses, and so forth.

Hookups For Travel Camping Vans And Similar Vehicles

We have no hookups at the site, for water supply, electricity, or sewage, as yet, but the instructions that my kids will make available to persons who come in to my kids' underground facilities - the protected and encapsulated living environment - those persons who go in to recieve the instructions, and other information they must recieve on companies and assets, and persons moving on, and on persons staying, and other information needed to successfully carry out the removal of hotels, and the demolition of buildings, etc. which my kids will handle with the technologies they have available to them for their use for these purposes, and for other purposes.

Cleaning Up The Area And Throwing Away The Garbage

My kids will also handle the required steps for clearing up of the litter and garbage in the area, all of Las Vegas, Pahrump, Henderson, Laughlin, Mesquite, North Las Vegas, Arizona, New Mexico, California, Utah, and beyond, above ground and below ground, and for cleaning up the areas, and for removing the underground and above ground garbage, or city buildings and Lesbianists' structures, and all structures that are no longer needed, train tracks, airports, roadways, bridges, parks, hospitals, medical clinics, and so on, all of which will no longer be needed.

Schedule For Leveling Of The Ground And Hills In The Area, Removal Of Unsightly And Smelly Garbage

Initial leveling of the grounds' areas, leveling of the uneven surface areas, and leveling of the sloping areas, and of the tiny hills, and other uneven and unuseful features to the area, such as hills, low cliffs, and removal of unsightly, smelly garbage, will be done by my kids, with the technologies they have available to them, according to the schedule for making these types of changes, and cleaning up of the area, so as to make the area, one hundred percent, useable for collection site activities, for people to then come in and use the area as a collection site.

Setting Up New Facilities

My kids will take care of all of that, and they will take care of all of the work and tasks for setting up a private collection site area - for spilling purifying sexaling juices, to purify the area - in accordance with my kids' schedule for these works and tasks for setting up a private collection site area, with tall side walls, and barricade walls, to prevent people from rubber necking as they drive by, so as to prevent car, truck, automobile, motorbike, and bicyle accidents. My kids will also set up the latrines, and other needed hygenics facilities, sleeping accomodations, eating facilities, rehydration facilities, co-opted bathing facilities, sports and excercises facilities, and other facilities.

Co-opted facilities means facilities used co-optively by men, boys, women and girls. Co-optively means, in cooperating measures with each other. Cooperating measures means, each of the four groups of people, men, boys, women, and girls, will work together, to keep the facilities sanitary, clean and healthful, neat and tidy, and safe for use, keeping young children from playing on the stairs for the elevated latrines, and keeping young children from getting in the way of asscending and descending users of the co-optively, or cooptively managed facilities.

Fountains And Showering Lamponeers

My kids will also use their high tech teletransportation technologies for removing toddlers from the stairs, and for placing them in a much safer location, such as in a near by sand garden, or play area, with sandy areas, and with toys to play with, and with cold showers, or showering fountains, people can refresh themselves under, and with fresh water to drink.

Lamponeers are showers that shoot up from sprinkler systems embedded in the paved surfaces, or concrete like surfaces, that shower water up and over the area, up and above and over persons who are there, to cool every one off.

Restaraunts, Clubs, Lounges, Eateries, Cafeterias, Bars, Pubs, Bicyle Paths, And So Forth

Bicycle paths, mini bike paths, walking paths, with rest stations, for refreshments and food, will be set up, and restaraunts and other facilities will be set up, nearby and they will be accessable by following these foot paths, bicyle paths, waling paths, and so forth.

All needed facilities for all parties, such as accomodations, living quarters, health clinics, excerize facilties, swimming pools, saunas, spas, and clubs for eating and mingling with persons, either in light weight evening wear and garments, or partially naked, or in the buff, will also be set up by my children for the use by all legitimate collection site participants. Gurkian Laws apply, and no other laws, such as local area laws, will be enforcable. Police and others will be turned away, and the rights of participants at the collection site area, will be protected one hundred percent, as we begin to change over to the new Gurkian Laws we will all be living by, from now on.

Dealing With Criminally Minded Persons

Any violators of the Gurkian Laws, codes, statutes, and so forth, my kids will arrest, and detain, and then place into prison cells, and then sentence them, in accordance with the sentencing requirements under Gurkian Laws, etc., and they may end up doing humiliatory punishments, or community clean up activities. In any case, they will be arrested by my children, who will use their high tech, biometrics and teletransportation technologies, and their other integrated technologies that they have, to swiftly remove the violators of Gurkian Laws, from the collection site and from the collection site area, and vicinity, and that will effectively cancel out their participation, until sentencing has been given, and until penalties have been leaned.

Penalties have been leaned, means, they have undergone sentencing, and the penalties have been enforced upon the violators, i.e., the guilty parties.

Alterations, Modifications, Changes, Clearing Up And Removal Of Garbage In The Areas, And Additions Time Schedules

These modifications, alterations, changes, and additions, etc., will occur over a period of time, as my kids have a schedule for all of these changes, modifications, alterations, clean up, and additions, etc., and they must stick to the schedule, so after you arrive, if you do not see some thing you feel should be there, by then, it is not there because it is not on the priorities facilities and priorities changes, etc., schedules lists.

Texas requires cancer vaccine for girls

By LIZ AUSTIN PETERSON, Associated Press Writer

AUSTIN, Texas - Bypassing the Legislature, Republican Gov. Rick Perry signed an order Friday making Texas the first state to require that schoolgirls get vaccinated against the sexually transmitted virus that causes cervical cancer.
ADVERTISEMENT

By issuing an executive order, Perry apparently sidesteps opposition in the Legislature from conservatives and parents' rights groups who fear such a requirement would condone premarital sex and interfere with the way parents raise their children.

Beginning in September 2008, girls entering the sixth grade - meaning, generally, girls ages 11 and 12 - will have to get Gardasil, Merck & Co.'s new vaccine against strains of the human papillomavirus, or HPV.

Perry, a conservative Christian who opposes abortion and stem-cell research using embryonic cells, counts on the religious right for his political base. But he has said the cervical cancer vaccine is no different from the one that protects children against polio.

"The HPV vaccine provides us with an incredible opportunity to effectively target and prevent cervical cancer," Perry said in announcing the order.

"If there are diseases in our society that are going to cost us large amounts of money, it just makes good economic sense, not to mention the health and well-being of these individuals to have those vaccines available," he said.

Merck is bankrolling efforts to pass state laws across the country mandating Gardasil for girls as young as 11 or 12. It doubled its lobbying budget in Texas and has funneled money through Women in Government, an advocacy group made up of female state legislators around the country.

Perry has several ties to Merck and Women in Government. One of the drug company's three lobbyists in Texas is Mike Toomey, Perry's former chief of staff. His current chief of staff's mother-in-law, Texas Republican state Rep. Dianne White Delisi, is a state director for Women in Government.

Perry also received $6,000 from Merck's political action committee during his re-election campaign.

Texas allows parents to opt out of inoculations by filing an affidavit objecting to the vaccine on religious or philosophical reasons. Even with such provisions, however, conservative groups say such requirements interfere with parents' rights to make medical decisions for their children.

The federal government approved Gardasil in June, and a government advisory panel has recommended that all girls get the shots at 11 and 12, before they are likely to be sexually active.

The New Jersey-based drug company could generate billions in sales if Gardasil - at $360 for the three-shot regimen - were made mandatory across the country. Most insurance companies now cover the vaccine, which has been shown to have no serious side effects.

Merck spokeswoman Janet Skidmore would not say how much the company is spending on lobbyists or how much it has donated to Women in Government. Susan Crosby, the group's president, also declined to specify how much the drug company gave.

A top official from Merck's vaccine division sits on Women in Government's business council, and many of the bills around the country have been introduced by members of Women in Government.

Morals For A Sane Society - It Is Now Time To Destroy The Lesbianists - Destroying The White House, Balitimore, Maryland, And Virginia, Killing The President Of The United States, Mr. George Walker Bush, Jr., And Sinking The Eastern Coastline Of The United States Into The Atlantic Ocean - Chaos Every Where In My Universe - Bringing An End To The Chaos In My Universe - Surrendering And Repentance - Lesbianists With Non Repenentant Attitudes Who Will Not Surrender - Orders To Kill All Presdential Candidates, Etc. - New Coins Ready And Are The Ever Useful To Us! - Public Nudity And Public Sexaling - What Does The New Moralicity Mean, In Plain Language? Sexaling Is An Absolute 'Good' And An Aboslute 'Right' - Free Action Sexaling Updated: 22-03-07 Rev.a. 00.b 09:40 PST

Morals For A Sane Society

To not fuck a person when you can fuck a person is a wicked act.

Not to fuck a man or a woman in the mouthal hole, or in the buttal hole, or to not fuck a woman in the vaginal hole, when you can, and when you are healthy, and when you have the time for it, by refusing, for what ever reason, other than mental illness, or 'gayist' reasons, you are committing a cheap and wicked act, when you refuse to fuck the other person, and use your dick, or your tounge to felate or kiss and tickle, and lick at the ladies' groinal area, and her vaginal cleavage, and vaginal flaps, or labial flaps, or labial tissue, and also her labial throes.

To not suckal a dick or a scrotum or tickle the males' groinal area, with your tounge, or with your fingers, and so forth, when you are able, and ready, and capable, is a cheap and wicked act, whether you are a woman or a man, girl or a boy.

You are given demerit points for not sexaling when you can and are able to sexal, and your time permits it.

To not participate in sexaling when you can participate in sexaling, is a wicked act. To prevent others from sexaling with you, or prevent a person from sexaling with you and your friends, these are both wicked acts.

A kindly and goodly person is a person who sexals all he or she can and who participates in sexaling with people, all he or she can, when ever he or she can to help those people, and one self, to erase the negative karmic markups each person has, and to help to create the wonderful energies that you can create by sexaling, and to change our universe into the nice place we need to change it into for us to live in, prospering with each other, in kindly loving embraces with each other.

If you stand or sit, talking, drinking, eating, with your clothes on, arguing, and discussing football, or baseball, or the local news on TV, or whatever, and you if you are not sexaling, as a result of your actions, when in fact, you could be sexaling, and helping to purify all the people around you, and yourself, as well, you are commiting an evil act, and an immoral act. It is immoral to behave in an uninterested manner, towards sexaling, and towards helping others by sexaling to purify their karmic markups. You are engaging in wicked, unkindly, and evil behavior, by non chalantly staring out the window, at a restaraunt, or in your car, with others around you, thinking about your miscellaneous thoughts, and by your not attempting to purify others, with every ounce of energy you have got, by sexaling with them, in a safe manner.

We do not want you to drive down the road, sexaling, and not paying attention to the traffic, and thereby causing accidents, and there be causeing harm and injury to self and to others, thereby preventing one self and others from their being able to freely mobilate, or move around freely, or ambulate, as they say in modern English, and then freely participate in sexalating activities of fucking, sucking, tounging, massaging the bodies, and the titties, and buttholes of women and girls, and massaging their kissing lips, and their vaginal lips, their facial cheeks, and their butt cheeks, and so forth. You must drive safely, and make it home, to a safe place, where you and your friends can freely sexalate with each other, without others interefereing with you.

A wicked or evil person is one who prevents a person from sexaling, and who destroys or ruins another person, physically, mentally, morally, emotionally, psychologically, or psychically, so that the other person can not participate freely and fully in holy and pure, GODLY sexaling activities.

This type of person who prevents others is a ruinous person, who will invite ruin and disaster to his or her doorsteps, and into his or her life.

There are many ruinous people, who execute others, and who torture, and cause pain, and suffering to others, and who disfigures others. These people who execute others, and who terminate their ability to sexal, prospering with others, making our universe into the kind of nice place we all want to be living in, together with each other, are wicked and evil people.

It Is Now Time To Destroy The Lesbianists

However, when we have a problem of the size and the magnitude of the Lesbianists, that we have, today, in this period of chaos, across my universe, and the Lesbianists' who are toying with humanity, and with all human beings who are not Lesbianists, it is time for us to take action, to prevent them from toying with us, and put a stop to their amusing themselves with their toying with us, any further, and it is now time to destroy them.

"I am Arjuna, a wickedly angry man, and I come to protect those who can not protect themselves. I will kill and thrust my sword and lance through the hearts of men and women who evilly try to prevent people from being prosperously good and bekindly to others."

This is a stanza or sentence from one of my writings, of old. 'Wickedly angry' in this sentence means, outraged, and furious, so much so, every one is scared and afraid of me.

I am 'wickedly angry' and I am here 'to destroy' those who would fuck us up, and ruin our lives, and make our lives miserable, as they toy with us.

My name is GOd, but in my Buddhist scriptures, I am referred to by many names. One of my many names, as I appear to people, in many and various personas, is Arjuna.

I have many sides to my character, as I am GOD, and I am here to protect my children, no matter what the name is people use to refer to me by, and that I am known by, and no matter how it is and no matter who it is among my many children, who I will protect from wicked and ruinous people.

Destroying The White House, Balitimore, Maryland, And Virginia, Killing The President Of The United States, Mr. George Walker Bush, Jr., And Sinking The Eastern Coastline Of The United States Into The Atlantic Ocean

There will not be any further Lesbianists living in Washington DC, or in Baltimore Maryland, or in Northern Virginia, and that vicinity, above ground, and below ground, if some one will be so kind as to place a very large explosives, fuels, chlorine, high heat burning metals fragments, and fracturable rocks bomb, outside the gates to the Washington DC White House, where the number one enemy, Mr. George Walker Bush, Jr., President of the United States, lives, and works, and then detonates that bomb, out side the gates of the White House, where the president lives, currently, and then destroys him, and his

White House, a lair for Lesbianists, with multitudes of torture rooms, i.e, lots of them, below and inside of the White House.

You will destroy and kill the President of the United States, Mr. George Walker Bush, Jr., and Mrs. Barbara Bush, Jr. and every one else who lives at 1600 Pennsylvania Ave. Washington DC.

Why are we going to throw all these people into my Epcot Center. Once in my Epcot Center, they can freely sexal with each other and they can earn merit points.

That will help them straighten out their karma, and it will help them to have a nicer life, when they are born as tummy babies. There are many tummy mommies who will match up with these people, and when they come out as tummy babies, they can start their life, with us, out here in my universe with us, again.

Am I a wicked wrongful person for terminating so many people's lifes? No. Why not? Because that is the only way we can over throw the vastly wicked and evil Lesbianists who practically rule my universe, with their perverse friends, and there are many groups of perverse friends, who we are going to get rid of, and send into my Epcot Center, one after another, as we move ahead, in our efforts to clean up our universe, and in our efforts to stop this nonsense of senseless killings and torturings of people, for amusement, and for game playing.

The Washington White House is one of the homes for these perverse people who game play and toy with all human beings who are not Lesbianists, who live on this planet.

We have many Lesbianists to trash, and to say good bye to, before we can begin to get our world, straightened out, and started up again, with a new culture, with new morals.

We will throw out their old cultures, their Lesbianistic cultures, and we will replace them with our new culture, and our new civilization, that is based on my religion, and on the sanctity of sexaling as a common sense value.

Sexaling is a sacred and holy act. Even if you sexal with a kangaroo, or a chimp, it is still a sacred and holy act.

Why is that? It is because every body is made of something, and that something comes from me, GOD. That something from me, is pure and holy, as I am pure and holy. I designed every person, and every animal, and every living being, with sexaling capabilities that allow that pure and holy GODLYNESS to come out once they begin sexaling.

That GODLYNESS begins to radiate out, as each person begins sexaing, and as each animal begins sexaling, and as each living being begins sexaling, eroteming, orgasming, and phlumetting, and it purifies each and every living being, and washes away the karmic markups every person, and every animal, and every living being, has in them, and has stored in the molecules that are stacked up in my universe, out side the boundarary walls that hold this universe up, and that keep us in side of the area we are in, and that keep the rest of my universe standing up, stable, making this a safe place to live, at least, safe in so far as nothing comes crashing down on us.

My kids are expert builders, and it is thanks to them, that we have such a nice and safe, and well built universe to live in. It is also thanks to them, that we have these bodies to live in, and to sexal with, since my kids put us together, one molecule at a time, as we need to have our parts put together, along with all the anmials, and living beings, who are inside of us, that my children also assemble for me, and for us.

What is this GODLYNESS? It is a purifying force, that is of me, and is me. It is inside of every one, and inside of every creature, animal, and living being, in my creation.

This is woven into the fabric of your being, and it is of me, and is always a part of me, and is always connected to me. Since I am always pure, and GODLY, you have a possibility of becomeing pure, and holy, like me.

Right now, we are filthy, and grimey, and all gunked up, with sludge, and residues of our karmic heritage. We have done many things that contribute to who we are, and to what we experience, day to day, and if we are not happy with our life, that is because we have the karmic records and markups that dictate that we must be in this miserable and suffering condition, that we are in, today.

There is always sufferring, and unwholesomeness, in our lives, and around us, every day. There are many wicked things that go on, every day. People perpetrate wicked acts, daily, and they go on, unpunished, for a long time, until their karmic markups begin to add up to sufferings coming out, in that person's life.

Sufferings are your payback for your wicked acts, and they help to keep our universe in balance, as I've spoken about, a little, before.

It may seem unwholesome that I ask you to kill my kids, and put them into my Epcot Center, where they can sexal, and where they can get retrained, and where they can be taught to be nice people, after they are retrained, but my asking you to kill my kids, this is merely an expedient, or a means to an end, and it is permissable, given the circumstances, and given the situation, and given that we are at the begining of our new Age of Gurkian Englightenment.

The result we wish to see by killing them, is an end to the activities of the Lesbianists, and and end to the activities of other people like them, in my universe. The Lesbianists are ruining my universe, and ruining the lives of every body in my universe, and though this was the way things were balanced out, prior to now, we are starting out, with a new method of 'payback' and a new means to balance out the karmic balance book. This is all to be governed by my rules and regulations, that my kids will enforce, in our new, Gurkian Age of Enlightenment, begining about now.

Our killing the Lesbianists, will help to control their ruinous and heinous behavior and activities, and it will help us to get them out of the picture for a while, until we are able to set up our new government, globally, or universal wide, across our universe, in a one universe government, over seeing the activities of all of my kids. It is the only way we have to begin to get our selves straightened out, and onto our new path, that we will follow, for the rest of eternity.

This marks the begining of the Gurkian Age of Engligtenment, and it marks the end of the previous period, or random, or just about nearly random, chaos.

We went through a very long period of decline, untill we got to the period of chaos that we are in, now. This period of chaos, we call, the 'melt down' period.

The 'melt down' period, came after the 'run amuck' period, when my kids began their severely ruinous activities that led to the period of chaos that we are now in.

Chaos Every Where In My Universe

We are going to begin to pull ourselves out of this period of chaos, with the help of my religion, and with our religious activities, and it is going to take us a very long time to pull ourselves out of it, as this 'chaos' is going on every where in my universe.

It will take us a long time to begin to be able to erase our karma enough, based on my religious principals, and the ethics of the Gurkian Age of Englightenment, and our religious activities of sexaling, dancing and excercising, and sexaling in syncopation with the metronome, at one thirty seventh and one fifth, or so, to then some day be able to have erased enough karma, to be rid of, completely, all these horribalistic people, my horribalistic kids, in my universe. When I say, be rid of them, I'm not saying, to trash them, completely. I am saying, we will put a stop to their activities, by changing our karma, and by purifying ourselves with my religion and our religious activities of sexaling, keeping time, in synch with my children, as we sexal, and as we activiate, playing basketball, tennis, or as we swim, or as we pray Nam Myeo Ho Ren Ge Kyeo, and so forth.

Bringing An End To The Chaos In My Universe

We are going to bring an end to the chaos, and to the chaotic behavior, and abberant, ruinous behavior in our universe, as we bring this period of chaos to a close. We will, as we steadily move forward, open the way for the budding and flowering of the Gurkian Age of Enlightenment, and to the budding and flowering of the new age of friendship and loving care, among all of my children, who participate in my religious, social, economic, and karmic revolution, as we sexal with each other, lovingly, and strive to clearify and erase our karmic markups, sexaling, and synching our activities to one thirty seventh and one fifth on the metronome. Later we will fix our metronomes to keep exact pace in synch with my children, and after we fix and reset the timing scale of the metronome, the timing will be one thirty seventh, exactly, on the metronome.

Our sexaling will produce all types of wonderful, purifying energies, that will revive our universe, and that will revive us, and that will help us to reclaim our universe, and that will help us to live, prosperously, and prosperingly in our universe, together, with each other, and with every one of my children, as we reform the bad and naughty ones, who are wicked and unkind to others, and who prevent people from sexaling, together, with each other.

That means, we are going to kill all the bible thumpers, Pat Robertson, Orwell Roberts, Billy Grahm, Tammy Faye, Jim Faye, and all the other Lesbianists of every religious faction, or group, whether they are Lesbianists who are christians, islamists, judaists, shiites, hindus, buddhists, black moslems i.e., afro american black muslims, or whatever.

We are going to destroy them all, all who would try to prevent us from what we are attempting to accomplish, a global, universal wide, government, run by me, GOD/GOd, as I am the Captain of this ship, and then we are going to begin our new age of Enlightenment, hand in hand with each other, and when they come out of my Epcot Center, again, next time, to be born as tummy babies, to tummy mommies, and to tummy daddies, we will teach them the new rules, ethics, and morals of our new universal wide society, and then we will begin again with them, and raise them in accordance with the new rules, laws, regulations, ethics, and morals of our Gurkian Age of Enlightenment, led by me, GOD/GOd.

Surrendering And Repentance

Those who will surrender, will be allowed to be repentantent, and they will be forgiven for their misgiven, misbegotten, and ill minded ways, once they begin sexaling with the rest of us, and participating in our religious, economic, and social revolution, and once they begin following Gurkian laws, rules, ethics, the codes and norms of behavior, and our righteous, and correct morals, acting and exerting one's efforts for the sake of others, never sparing a moment of energies, wastefully on trivial and trite activities of gossipping, mischiefing, or other harmful, and potentially ruinous, wicked, and evil behavior.

Lesbianists With Non Repenentant Attitudes Who Will Not Surrender

Those who will not surrender, we will send to my Epcot Center, as that is the only way we can get them out of the picture, temporairily, so that we can then get things in order, before they return, once again, as tummy babies, into the lives of tummy mommies, and tummy daddies.

Orders To Kill All Presdential Candidates, Etc.

You are hereby authorized by me, GOD, John Francis Ayres, to kill all United States Presdential candidates, including but not limited to, Senator Barack Obama, Senator Hillary Rodham Clinton, Mitt Romney, Senator Christopher Dodd, John Edwards, Yesenia Emelina, Mike Gravel, Dennis Kucinich, Senator Joe Biden, Governor Bill Richardson, Wesley Clark, Al Sharpton, Al Gore, Tom Vilsack, Senator Sam Brownback, John H. Cox, Rudy Giuliani the famous World Trade Tower bomber planner / participant and bombs expert, Representative Duncan Hunter, Senator John McCain, Representative Ron Paul, Jim Gilmore, Mike Huckabee, Representative Tom Tancredo, Tommy Thompson, Newt Gingrich, Senator Chuck Hagel, Michael Savage, Fred Dalton Thompson, James Gilchrist, Elaine Brown, Ralph Nader, Steve Kubby, George Phillies, Christine Smith, Doug Stanhope, Kent McManigal, Gene Chapman, Barry Hess, Dave Hollist, and Robert Milnes.

They are all to be executed on sight. Also, you are ordered to kill all non repentent Lesbianists, such as, Vice President Dick Cheney, Tony Blair, Butros Gauley, Oliver North, Colin Powell, Oliver Poindexter, Casper Willard Weinberger, United States Supreme Court Chief Justice John Roberts, Associate Justices, John Paul Stevens, Anthony Kennedy, David Souter, Clarence Thomas, Ruth Bader Ginsburg, Stephen Breyer, Samuel Alito, Antonin Gregory Scalia, Arnold Swarzneggar, Sylvestor Stallone, Robert Deniro, Gary Busey, Kevin Sorbo, Timothy Dalton, Michael Jackson, Matt Damon, Bruce Willis, Mila Jovovich, Peter Jennings, all members of the United States Congress who are Lesbianists, and all other Lesbianists, whether in politics or not, and in whatever government you find them, around the world. There are many Lesbianists in local and metropolitan police departments, and in SWAT Team units, and in fire departments, and in the National Guard units throughout the United States, and Lesbianists own every news media organization, television corporation, cable television corporation, satelite television corporation, major radio station, transportation corporation, chemicals corporation, petroleum corporation, coal mining corporation, as well as every other major corporation around the world. You are to kill every last one of them, and spare no one. We will then destroy every underground city they are hiding in, and force them to surrender. If not, we will kill them all, and I authorize you to do exactly that, kill every last one of them, all thirteen billion plus Lesbianists, hiding under the surface of our planet, or out walking about, pretending to be an ordinary citizen on this planet. Nothing is further from the truth, and you are authorized to kill each and every one of them, and send them all to my Epcot Center, using what ever means available, including my tactical, powerful, home made radiological explosives bombs, i.e., nuclear explosives. Please study my notes on my web site for further details regarding radiological fracturable rocks, and my notes on how to make an explosive weapon to detonate nuclear materials, you can find along beach shorelines, in sediments deposits, and on old mountains, every where on our planet, if you have a geiger counter.

New Coins Ready And Are The Ever Useful To Us!

"New Dollar Coins Enter Circulation This Week"
"By WILL LESTER"
"AP"
"WASHINGTON (Feb. 11) - Maybe Susan B. Anthony and Sacagawea should not take public rejection personally. It's not easy overcoming people's indifference to dollar coins, even those honoring such historic figures."

The new coins reportedly have many fracturable rocks in them, as the metals used, were mined from deposits of minerals that contain large amounts of fracturable rocks.

They also have high heats and high temperatures burning minerals in them, that will level up your thermal temperatures to near solar temperatures, if grinded up and mixed in, and allowed to ferment, in sour berry juices, slowly, with tiny amounts of salt, and large amounts of raw sugar.

The high heat temperatures, and the energies produced at these higher heat levels, will reach near solar heats energies temperatures, and that is very important for developing the energies needed to wake up every body, in the fracturable rocks - or 'fissile' materials, in Lesbianists' speak, or Lesbianists' mumbo jumbo language - to get them to begin making children and families.

Please see my notes on 'Radiological' crystals cages salts kiddies, and other related energical animals kiddies, of various, and hard to imagine, types, unless you're a kid and unless you have the mental flexibilities and typical mental gymnastics capabilities of a normal child, unhindered by brainwashed thinking and brainwashed patterns of thought the Lesbianists have caged, and closeted in the dark, our brains with.

Public Nudity And Public Sexaling

Public nudity and public sexaling is now a way of life for all, in our, now, Gurkian Age of Enlightenment. We will begin broadcasting live sexaling events, and other entertaining and informational, educational programming,, as soon as I get my new quarters, a unit to live in, where I can eat more properly, sleep more properly, recieve the medical health aides and regroverative formulas, that I need, and where I can practice my religious ceremonies, with others, daily.

The public broadcasting of various informational programing, educational programing, sexaling entertainment programing, sexical, hygenical i.e., sexaling hygene, and sexical educational programing as well as sexical training programing, as well as my religious ceremonial sexaling activities, and my general, more typical day to day, religious ceremonialing, for now, until I get my health up to a level of youthful vigor, and robust wellness, as I religiously interact with my students, and train them, the disciple priestesses, and disciple priests, will all help to set the basis of normative, and expected, social behavior, for all people in our universe, to learn about, now in our Gurkian Age of Enlightenment, so that we can all get along, with one primary set of customs and standard of behavior, and with one primary language for communication, as we will all be sexaling with each other - all of my children who are now just begining to get with the program, at least, anyway, will be sexaling with each other - from now on, and for all eternity.

We need this exposure, as well as alternative programing, for laundering up to, and for begining to expose ourselves to, and learn about, the reality of the universe, my universe, that we live in.

Laundering up to, means, exposing ourselves to the mischievous antics of the Lesbianists, to launder their filthy, garbagical, and tormentuous ways, so that all may learn about them.

This will be coming up, in the near future, possibly, as far as I can determine, any way, after we have the spilling of the sexaling fluids campaign under way for purifying the area where I will be setting up my religious ministry, on the parcel of land, on the north west corner of the intersection at West Tropicana Ave. and South Decature Blud., Las Vegas, Nevada, and possibly on confiscated properties to the north, as well as to the west, for now. This is a public service, informational bulletin, on what you are to expect, in the near future. Prepare yourselves, accordingly.

What Does The New Moralicity Mean, In Plain Language?

Our new moralicity means we are going to learn we can and should sexal with every person, and even with animals, when we have a chance or opportunity to sexal with people and animals, and that we can and should sexal with every person we see, so long as we have a mutual reciprocical understanding of the truth to sexaling, that it is a pure, blessed, and holy act, GOD, me, made possible, to purify you of your blemishes. It is the most significant and powerful way to purify you of your blemishes and karma

You can also clearify your blemishes, your karmic markups, by praying Nam Myeo Ho Ren Ge Kyeo, and by your keeping syncopated and in rythm with my children, helping my children to work smoothly, syncopated and in rythm with each other, perfectly fluxed, meshed perfectly with all my other children, working at different life spins, as I've mentioned about, as my kids will reward you by sprinkling faerie dusts, purifying energies, and other types of related, purifying things and dings, all over you, as a reward for your cooperation in keeping my universe, humming, and running, smoothly.

With your syncopated rythms, your syncopated pace of movement, and actions, as you time your motions, and stay in synch with one thirty seventh on the metronome, plus one fith of a mark on the metronome we currently have available to us, here, on our planet, during your activitiating, sexaling, playing sports, dancing, excercising, and so forth, you will purify your life, and you will purify the lives of those around you, with your actions, as you get rewarded by my children.

Our new moralicity means we can and should sexal with each and every person possible, in free association with each other, no matter what the age of the person, and no matter what the gender of the person, no matter what the tribal background is, no matter what the tribal heritage is, any place no matter where we are, any time no matter what the time of day or the time of night it is, in public spaces or in private living spaces any and all places, no matter who else is around us, as sexaling is a blessed act that my kids reward you for, any time, every time, no matter where you are sexaling, and no matter with who you are sexaling with, or even no matter what type of animal you are sexaling with.

It means there are no bullshit, propagandists' Lesbianists dreamed up taboos, any longer, regarding sexaling, and that sexaling is a blessed act, and not a 'forbidden' act, as the bullshit Lesbianistic Christians, Muslims, and other religious 'pious' bullshit assholes, who would want us to believe that sexaling is forbidden by 'God', which is complete and total bullshit, and a lie, as they base them selfs on their 'holier than thou' pious 'ignorance' of the truth.

So long as you and the person or persons you are with are equally, mutually, and reciprocally interested in purifying your lifes, and interested in clearifying your karmic markups, and interested in helping my children work in synch with each other, and interested in helping to push my children along, with your energies, and efforts, and so long as you can sexal together with one and each other, without damaging either or any of the participants, it is morally correct behavior, and any person or actions to prevent that morally correct behavior must be condemned, and punished.

Some people, especially young participants, do not have butt holes, mouthal holes, or vaginal holes that are large enough to swallow a dick, or mouthal holes that are large enough to swallow a tittie and suckle it fully, without straining.

You need to spend several hours phlooching out the butt hole, or phlooching out the mouthal hole and throat, and phlooching out the vaginal hole, with generous massage over several hours to the muscles and tendons in the neck, mouth, nose, eye ridges, ears, throat, face, chest, tummy, back, arms, hands, fingers, shoulders, titties, thighs, hips, waist, groinal area, labial folds, vaginal lips, facial lips, male genitals, and the entire torso, back and front, the legs and feet, ankles, and toes, as well, and all parts and areas from head to toes and in between, with continued efforts to massage all these places, until the body begins to respond, and until the body responds fully.

The butthole will loosen up, and the throat hole will loosen, and the mouthal hole will widen, and the vaginal cavity and vaginal mouth will widen and expand in size, and the groin in girls will spread apart, allowing for more room for access to the vagina, and for smoother access to the butthole, as the hips loosen up, and begin to spread apart in response to your efforts at massaging the body, to prepare it for sexaling.

No matter how old a girl is, and in the case of a boy, no matter how old the boy is, baby, child, adolescent, or adult, phlooching out the sexaling orifices, is easy, if you spend the needed time on preparatory and thorough massage, sufficiently enough.

That's how I designed your bodies to respond to massage efforts to loosen up the muscles, ligaments, sinews, cartiladges, so as to allow the bones of the body to move and spread apart, freely, and loosenly. Your body is like a rubber band, and if you massage it, well enough, it will begin to respond like a rubber band, and it will loosen up, and spread apart, where it needs to spread apart, so as to allow you to sexal, thoroughly, and continually, for as long as you continue your sexaling activities.

After you finish your sexaling activities, your body will begin to stiffen up, as all the ligaments, sinews, cartiladges, muscles, and fiberous threads throughout your body, begin to tighten up, for returning to daily life, working activities, where you need a hard, and tough body, to survive, as you work in the field, or work in the rice paddies, or work on the farms, to labor for producing crops for feeding you, your families, your children, relatives, tribal village friends and tribal villages neigbors, who are, or who used to be, traditionally, as life used to evolve for us, all related to all of those concerned in the area, or on the planet, for that matter, or in the entire galaxy, or spread out over many galaxies, and even spread out over even larger, and wider areas of my universe in the large, familiies that used to be the norm.

You may need to spend several hours, or even several days, or maybe even longer, a number of weeks, or even a number of months, before the body will begin to respond, and begin to flex, and bend, to help all the ligaments, sinews, cartiladges, tendons, muscles, and all the body parts, and supporting, interwoven parts of your bodies, as I've briefly talked about, before, as well as all the lubing stations, that will eject fluids to assist in the loosening up of your bodies' ligaments, sinews, cartiladges, tendons, muscles, and even the bones, to allow them to be more flexible, including the jaw bones, facial bones, neck bones, spinal bones, leg bones, thigh bones, hips bones, pelvic bones, buttal bones, groinal bones, back bones, and all the bones of the body. Every bone in your body will loosen up, and become more flexible, and pliant, durile, durable and tensilely strong, as you massage all the parts of your body, and the bodies of the people you are sexaling with, very young, young, adolescent, adult, middle aged, elderly, and even the ancient, or the extremely very old.

This is the truth to this matter, and you can find out for your selves, if you try and see how your bodies respond, to daily, rigorous, continued massage, over various lengths or periods of time.

This is part of the ancient and old art of sexaling, as I taught in my religious teachings, in every religion that I taught, and I have taught a lot of religions in my time, to lots of different peoples in my universe, from the begining of our time, here, together, in our universe, after we arrived, which I've talked a little about, before.

Sexaling Is An Absolute 'Good' And An Aboslute 'Right'

Even the veryest oldest and the veryest youngest have a right, duty, and obligation to sexal and produce holy, sacred, sanctifying, i.e., to make sacred, holy, and pure, harmonious, purifying energies.

It is an 'A B S O L U T E' RIGHT as in, a 'right' to free speech.

It is also an 'A B S O L U T E' RIGHT as in, 'this is right, correct, upstanding, laudable, commendable, proven to be always right, correct, true, holy, graceful or GODlYNESS and GOODLYNESS gracefilled, morally right, morally correct, morally absolutely right, and morally absolutely correct', as opposed to, right and wrong, i.e., as in the opposite of wrong, as in, that is wrong, that is incorrect, evil, hateful, sinful, morally inaccurate, morally wrong, morally defunct, undoable as it will not stand, and useless,'.

It is also an 'A B S O L U T E' GOOD and an 'A B S O L U T E' GOODNESS.

Free Action Sexaling

Anything that counters, or runs contrary to this, is an 'A B S O L U T E' WRONG, and an 'A B S O L U T E' EVIL. It is absolutely wrongful to deny or to prohibit or to interfere with, in any way, with any one who wishes to sexal, as THAT PERSON IS CLEANING UP MY UNIVERSE WITH HIS DICK, OR WITH HER VAGINA, BUTT, AND TITTIES, AND WITH HIS PURIFYING ENERGIES, OR WITH HER PURIFYING ENERGIES! DO YOU UNDERSTAND THAT?

Any body who even attempts to impede, to deny, to prevent, or to interfere with, in any way at all, with a person's absolute right to sexal runs counter to Gurkian laws, regulations, codes, ethics, morals, standards, and you will serve jail or prison time, for prohibiting, or interfering, or impeding, or violating in any way, a person's absolute right to free action sexaling, which is, the act of freely chooseing who one wishes to sexal with. DO YOU UNDERSTAND THAT, SOLDIER? GOOD! BECAUSE A "NO SIR!" WOULD BE INAPPROPRITATE AND UNACCEPTABLE!

To learn more on these subjects, swear in, and become a citizen of our country, and begin studying, and working in the many programs my children have for you to study and work in, to score earning points, and to earn a living in our new, Gurkian Age of Enligtenment, where and now that we work, and we pay as we go.

Those who refuse to work, in time, will be required to work, to pay off their debts and to pay off the fees that are owed for the use of my resources, all the molecules in my universe, and all the resources, energical, or otherwise.

Even though I am GOD, in our new system of working in my Gurkian Age of Enlightenment, even I have to pay for the resources that I use, as I work as chief priest of my religion, spiritual director of my universe, and boss of my universe.

I'm the mother and father, the creator of all humans, animals, and living beings, as I've explained, every thing in my creation, and people will begin to understand that, that I am GOD, as they practice my religion, over the years, and over the aeons, and over the millenias.

The people who refuse to work, will be required to work in prisons, sexaling with animals, to produce sexaling energies that will restore the supplies of energies in our universe, as I've mentioned about, before, as they work and learn their new trade of animal husbandry, and animal wifery, in the animal habitry industry, as I've also mentioned about, in earlier notes.

No matter what the age of the person, every person can participate in our Gurkian Age Of Enlightenment, sexaling, dancing, excercising, and syncopating their movements, in rythm, to assist my kids as my kids, work to keep my universe, strong, durile, flexible, safe, and a nice place for every one to live in.

DO YOU UNDERSTAND THAT? YOU HAD BETTER, AS A "NO SIR!" WOULD BE UNACCEPTABLE, SOLDIER! DO YOU HEAR ME? I HOPE YOU DO! NOW, GET TO WORK AND SEXAL TILL YOU DROP, SOLDIER, AND I'M NOT JOKING!

We will build a nice and comfortable, safe place for every one to live, now, in my universe, and we will follow the Gurkian Age of Enlightenment Rules and Regulations, Codes, Morals, Ethics, and behavioral norms, that you are required to live by, now that we are going to become, one, very big, happy, harmonious, in synch, prospering family.

You will not forget to wash out your butty butt holes, and to flush out your vaginas, and your mouths, and to practice proper and health promoting sexaling and love making hygene, with the medical formulas that my children will be providing to you, and that you will pay for, out of your earnings, and they are very reasonably priced, now that I am making every thing available to every one, at a set, yet, flexible, and low cost for the use of my resources, once you citizenize your selfs, and swear in, as a citizen of our new, global, i.e., universal wide, one universe, family of GOD's, that's me, children.

The costs are flexible, in the sense that you do not have to pay, yet, as you will be learning about the ways to work, and you will be learing and preparing your selfs for a new working life, in my universe, for some time, and so we have no hurry to have you pay for the resources you use. We can collect the fees, and costs for resources, in the future, when you are a big money earner, once you learn your new work requirements, for sexaling for a living, as that is the only job opportunity open to every one, and the only job opportunity, that you have a choice about.

My working children, though they do have many different jobs, they have basically the same set up, or arrangements as you now will have, and so you will be joining my children, and you will be working, i.e., sexaling, excercising, aerobically dancing, and so forth, in synch, and in rythm, for me, just as all of my children are doing, at least, those of my children who are able to work, and who are bright and intelligent enough to work for me, to keep my universe, healthy, safe, solid, durile, strong, wholesome, and a nice place to live in.

That means, I have a lot of burnouts kids, and rampant, vagarous, dangerous children, who are not really very bright, and they do not work for me, yet, but they will, in time, regardless of the fact that they may at the present, be abominants kids, or not.

As I've mentioned, all my up until now, non working children, are abominants. What does that mean? It means, they do not give a darn about killing another person. They kill for selfish reasons, and for fun and games, and so forth, and you are all guilty of that, though you may not remember that you killed for fun and games, and for selfish reasons, in previous lifes, in my universe, but you all have, and you are all abominants, of varying degrees.

So, welcome to the Gurkian Age of Enlightenment, and welcome to my workforce.

Captain Off The Bridge.

Does anyone know of a website that sells vintage and/or older radio scanners that are known to work. I want to get a desktop radio scanner (already have the Uniden BR330T Portable) but I don't want to pay $100+ for a brand new scanner. Any older scanners that cover 800MHZ non-trunking? Another counties police dispatch uses 800MHZ non-trunking. I don't really care for eBay, because I don't 100% know if I can trust it or not, so I want something from one single person or group like most Internet shopping sites. Hopefully the site accepts money orders also. Thanks for suggestions.

> You have ticklements, tuners, or pitch fork tuning forks, that chime, > in every cubic millimeter to every cubic inch, and in even tinier > areas, you have larger ticklements, or tuning forks, and they are all > set to vibrate in various patterns of sexual thrilling eroticisms, and > changes, from night to day, and from day to night, ongoingly, non> stopingly, never repeating the same set of tuning focal patterns.

> Focal patterns are frequencies.
>
> Focal Patterns
> These frequencies, or harmonic consistencies, are harmonic displays or > with GOD, me, my devine and holy body, and my devine and holy mind, > and my being or GOD SELF and GOD BEING, every moment, as you are > orgasming, and eroteming, and convulsing orgasmically.

> Men and boys have the same kinds ticklements, or tuning forks, and

> Assistive Religious Practices
>
> The practice of praying Nam Myeo Ho Ren Ge Kyeo is an assistive > practice that allows you to become in touch with my GOD SELF, equally

> There are many other assistive practices, from meditation, to

> My many religions teach many ways to do this, and before my many

> Sexaling, eroteming, orgasming, phlumetting are important practices, > recognize that I am your Mother and Father, and your CREATOR, and that > you exist because of me, as I made you from pieces and parts of me, > your CREATOR.

> After you realize this, you can enjoy participation in ceremonies with > me, as training priestesses and priests, and you can make your way up > the purity ladder, the more you participate with me, GOD, in my > religious prayer hand signaling ceremonies.
>
> Praying Nam Myeo Ho Ren Ge Kyeo to my Holy Body, or to the Gurkian > Mandala, as I've explained about, is an assistive practice that will > bring results.
>
> It will not bring results as well and as effectively and as quickly, > as sexaling, which is the most holy and virtuous practice, along with > eroteming, orgasming, phlumetting, astral traveling, peaking, and so > on.
>
> I've spoken about peaking, before, and women and girls can peak, and > experience wonderful feelings. Men and boys can peak and experience > wonderful feelings, too, but I haven't discussed that, yet. We'll talk > about that, another time.
> In any case, do not confuse assistive practices, with the fundamental > and primary practice of sexaling. We'll get back to all those other > things, to define them, betterly, another time, after my brain heals, > a little bit more, and after I erase more karmic markups that keep my > brain karma from improving, fast enough for me.

That's why I tell newbies to find a local scanner group. They know all the stuff, a long time before it makes it to the public.

Is 700MHz re-banding something that's currently going on anywhere these days? No way I'm gonna invest in a digital scanner until more models come out that address this issue w/o a major hardware upgrade!

Most of the new scanners can be flash upgraded to support any rebanding.
just read the 'features' of a scanner before you buy. Not sure about ALL scanners especially the cheaper ones.

Are there any antennas that anyone just recommends is a "bad ass mofo" type antenna. I have a portable scanner and I have local fire frequencies at 33.xx and my scanner seems to hardly like to play them.
I found this

http://www.ccrane.com/antennas/scanner-antennas/gainer-scanner-antenna.aspx

but I can't find more info on it, and at least some reviews.
I have searched Google and Google's Froogle, and that's the only one I can come up with. How can you tell what antenna is a "bad ass" or just good? I don't really understand how to know unless I buy it and try it.

Ron,
I'll reply, I have not taken a scanner to Europe but I have friends who scan over there.

The thing you need to ask is will they let you in country with a scanner???? I take my shortwave radio every where but have not taken a scanner yet.

Hope it helps a little.

Germany is rather restrictive. First, the scanner needs to be approved. It needs to have one of the following markings: CE, BZT or BMPT. Second, so called 'BOS Kommunikation' (authorities, police, ambulances, fire brigade) may only be received by people with a 'BOS Genehmigung' (BOS licence).

If a scanner is found with non-licensed frequencies programmed, it is considered a violation of the law.

I`m not shure if that is correct. I think if the scanner doesn`t have any freq band that is legal (e.g. fm radio) it is a violation. If you look at all the places one can buy a scanner in Germany they all would be ilegal since they all can receive stuff that isn`t meant for public listening.
Afaik it is legal to buy and own a scanner in Germany, but it is ilegal to listen to everbody out there.

Not only do the channel numbers change, the scanner needs to now contain and old and new channel table and be able to read the control flag that dictates from which table to look up. Otherwise some systems that don't get re-banded, IE the many interleaved systems, won't be able to be received. It sounds trivial until you consider all the variables,

Bout the only thing I can think of is try your local craigslist, scanners are usually up there from time to time.
Besides ebay theres not much options unless you happen to run into one at a flea market/garage sale or something.
Even then, for a decent old desktop like the pro 2005/06, plan on paying more than $100 anyhow.

I'm new in here. Looks like this might be a good group for me to ask some questions. I used to enjoy scanners back in the day when they were all analog, and before police, fire and EMS went to trunked, digital radios. I don't know much about scanning in todays world.

I am interested in learning about pc radio scanning software. I have heard of software/hardware you can use in conjunction with your desk top pc that allows you to use the computer to scan radio freq's. I live in an apartment condo so having a 60 foot antennae is out of the question. Does anyone know about this software for pc that can advise me where to look for it, how good is it, etc?

I am interested in monitoring police, fire, EMS, military, little green men from Alpha Centauri :-) just about anything that would be interesting. I could really use some guidance from people who are experienced in radio scanning so I can figure out what I need, how to use it, and what to expect.

My wife says I need a hobby :-)

Thanks for any information you folks can pass along!

I have been using a 996T for about 5 weeks now and it works pretty good . I picked that one over the other two you are looking at , because I wanted the close call feature and apco 25 decoding . you can adjust the decode threshold which is a good feature , here are the problems I have noticed . When in weather alert mode about every 5 seconds into a conversation you will get a 1 second audio cutout . That, I dont like and nothing you can do about that except turn off that feature. Close call works great but I have not figured out a way to disable or lockout the fm radio band (88-108). other than that be careful using the USAD software I accidently deleted all of the programming in the unit and had to reload it. I found the arc 996 software more friendly.
The biggest problem I find is that its made in China , and we all know about chinese goods are !! time will tell and keep your receipt and warrenty card

In my experience the 2096 has better ears, especially on 800Mhz, but less features. It also may be a better decoder for APCO25. That being said, you can find a 2096 for around $300+, which is way cheaper than a 996T

I'm in San Diego CA. USA and was wondering if anyone can tell me where to look and what I want. Or if a guy wants to build one, or I have to buy it in another country, or whatever.

Thanks, Bob

The days of listening to cell phones is long past. Almost no analog left.
There are still some old style cordless phones you could hear, but they would be getting rare now. The digital ones keep getting cheaper, so as people replace old phones they often end up with one you can't hear with a scanner.

About 6 years agoI lived in an apartment complex and was able to listen to many phone conversations. I used a telescoping whip on my scanner (about $10 from RS).

Scan 46-47 mhz, 49-50mhz, & 900-920mhz

Good luck! (I lost interest in listening to cordless calls when they became mostly foreign languages), but I did hear some nice phone sex conversations.

Since you say you live in a complex, I would use headphones.

hey bob ....

it's what the other posts said about cellfones and most cordless phones. the era of scanners and listening to all that stuff is pretty much history, especially there on the west coast.

instead try wardriving for wireless wi-fi APs from your apartment (instead of scanners) or FTA / pay satellite channel hacking.

you can probably have as much or more fun doing those things from your apartment as you would have been able to do using a scanner.
you'd probably be " stunned " at what you'll see when using a lan packet sniffer on your neighbors wi-fi APs ..... prolly way better than listening to cellfones because most people think they have privacy during their web access adventures ah aha ha hah a !! trippy ....

look up " hacking wi-fi public access APs " in google ..... type FTA satellites into google or check out alt.satellite.expressview for more info on these subjects.
plenty of " slightly naughty " technical entertainment remains,
it's just in new and different areas ....

Got a old (pre 90s) VCR that can manually tune to VHF-Lo, VHF-Hi, and UHF TV frequencies. It has 16 preset channels. I swear one time I heard two-way radio from a local utility company while manually tuning. I suspect it was a inter modulation signal.

That got me into thinking why not modify it to extend the frequency range from its default range of 174-216 MHz (VHF) and 470-698 MHz (UHF)? I would imagine it might be possible to salvage the oscillator/ tuner for this purpose. Any thoughts?

Thanks in advance.

(P.S. I don't connect TV with this VCR; only use RCA jack for audio)

I haven't seen any reference to it for some years so I assume it must have

I'm gonna disagree with that! Where I am there are always lots of analogue cordless phones on the go. I have turned it on now and there are active conversations on 3 of the 8 frequencies. And it's not unusual to get something on all 8.

They must do things differently in the UK I guess. The last time I looked for a new cordless phone here the cheapest ones they had at most of the stores were digital. Did not even see any of the old style at most places, and that was a while back. Guess they are a lot slower over there with changes.

Some years ago there was an extensive, maybe even multi-part, project in one of the magazines to convert one of those into a wide coverage spectrum analyzer. I even recall seeing kits being sold at a hamfest, once again some years ago.

Yes indeed. I was hoping there is a simple mod that will allow extra coverage in the frequency. It seems like an interesting project but I am not that advanced in soldering skill.

Thanks Rene for the link though. This guy knows what he is doing. He should start selling finished products.

Silly boy! Digital cordless phones have been on sale in the UK for years. We have them after our analogue one died. No doubt the reason that there are still plenty of analogue cordless phones around is that they are still working. Surely only a fool buys a new product simply because it is new rather than because they need it :)

There is a bunch of information there.They say it is illegal to listen in on cell phone convesations,but that is a bunch of crap.If you have a receiver that can listen in on cell phones (governments and Military have such devices) then you have RIGHT to listen in on cell phones.

Well almost certainly a troll but just in case you're not....

We are talking about the UK now. And listening to anything that is not 'public service' (broadcast and CB basically) and that you're not the intended recipient of is an offence under section 48 of the wireless telepgraphy act 2006:

48 Interception and disclosure of messages

(1) A person commits an offence if, otherwise than under the authority of a designated person-

(a) he uses wireless telegraphy apparatus with intent to obtain information as to the contents, sender or addressee of a message (whether sent by means of wireless telegraphy or not) of which neither he nor a person on whose behalf he is acting is an intended recipient

Well yes and no....
Yes..it would work.....
NO....it will have POOR performance as the front end is damn near deaf and not stable.The IF is set up for a wideband signal, what you want is a narrowband IF.
YES...it will hear strong signals nearby....
NO...the recovered audio will be VERY low.
NO...if it has any AFC in the front end it will go all over the place..

GOOD thought, but poor platform choice....

We in the mvt7100 radio scanner group are fed up with spam.

The group was formed before spam like this was an issue and as mvt9000 moderator I delete spammers membership every week and make all new posts go through me for 3 months.

I have emailed the moderator of the group mvt7100 for the last two years and have received no replies at all in that time.

So effectively one can assume they have ceased interest in the group.

For the last two years I have pleaded with yahoogroups to implement a scheme where new moderators can be appointed and have sent them copies of my emails to the mvt7100 moderator, I told them that not one of them have been answered.

I sent my resume as a responsible appointee

They still say to make a NEW GROUP as there is no way Yahoo can help.

We have done that at mvt-7100 new group

Most like me have been group members for years .

WHY IN THE HECK SHOULD SPAMMERS KILL OUR HOBBY GROUPS, MAKE YAHOO A MORE RESPONSIBLE HOST SITE.

If enough members of groups go and email yahoo to tell them to stop spam then maybe they will come up with an easy solution to use.

I can suggest an easy method for yahoogroups to use but they are a Multinational and have heaps of brain power.

Just tell them to use change it now ,not later when we have all changed to using other hosts for a spam free group messages.

Power is in the amount of emails yahoo gets.

Just copy and send this one

I have never been to either group, but it sounds to me like you have a slight ego problem. If enough people in the one group are bothered by spam, start another group where it will not be allowed. Post in the first group a link to your new spam free group. If there is not enough people interested to come to your new group, trying to get Yahoo to force you to be the moderator is not an answer. If not enough people are willing to leave the one group to come to yours, then it tells me, you need to see why people are not interested in your groups.

Some seem to be. I used to be able to hear my local McDonald's on my scanners, but can't anymore. I couldn't pick them up in the 900 MHZ range either, even in wide fm mode.

Doing a search all the way up to the 2.4 GHZ range in am, fm, amd wide fm modes, I could no longer hear them.

They're either encrypted, digital, or wired.

I think only some are now, although they'll probably all eventually switch to where we can no longer hear them on regular scanners.

curious. Since Ebay allows legal scanners to be sold...

If you have a cell capable scanner bought in the U.S. before the law outlawing manufacture of such scanners went into effect (which is perfectly leggal to sell in the U.S.) and Ebay pulled your item because you said "unblocked" or "cell capable", ...

then what ?

While it is perfectly legal to own, use or privately sell a pre-ban scanner in the U.S., there is not much to be done if ebay, a private venue [of which you have to agree to TOS to use] decides that they do not want people residing in the USA to sell unblocked scanners to other people living in the USA.
I think that is the case. Ebay decided that, rather than going on a case by case basis, to just issue a general blanket ban.

though under different ebay names (his old ebay ID's were - are permanently suspended) ..... he's done this several times in the past. if it goes as usual ..... several (sock puppet) bidders will take the price up to between $500 - $700 and he'll appear to make the sale.

if you message him and ask if he is insane , he'll retort that " you " simply don't understand the (implied) value of this " special abilities " scanner and people " in the know " will bid properly on it (as evidenced by the shocking sock puppet bids that eventually ensue.) because of their superior understanding of it's value !!! ya yay ahaha ha ah a he usually publishes the questions (probably sock puppets as well) and answers in his auction ..... all this , tho oddly bizarre, eventually to be a kind of scam to try to get some other person /s to bite into his ploy and bid some outrageous price for this tired old scanner !

in the feedback section , he usually comments about the high bidder' s superior knowledge and appreciation of this " special " scanner
.....
and the high bidder also raves about how great the $700 deal he got on this beauty was !!!!! last time he did it , he screwed up and posted the buyer's feedback before the buyer could have had time to get possession of it (think it was a few hours after the auction ended)
.ya ya yahh ah aha . far as I can tell, in his last several tries
, no one outside his sock puppet crowd has bitten on the scam and bid on it ..... even so .. it still doesn't seem to stop him from trying
..... over and over again ! what a dip$hit !!! ay ay yaah aha haa makes you wonder how he can get so many sock puppet ebay I.Ds tho ..... not that large a selection of services over there in Henderson ..... if that's where he really is !

maybe he fakes the sales to set up a (phony) historical auction sales value of the scanner .. hoping to eventually get a phish to reel in ..... dunno ....

507. Band Plans for NW US

What are the 30MHz to 512MHz bandplans for the NW part of the US (WA state especially)?

Anyone know?

I generally see most utility activity from 450MHz through 470MHz and 150MHz through 160MHz.

I own a Radio Shack Pro-38 (10 channel H/H), Pro-2030 and Pro-2040 base (60 and 100 channel), and a Pro-2024 (60 channel).

Actually I'd like having 250 channels all one one radio.

Basically I can cover:

29-54MHz, 108-136MHz, 136-174MHz, 380-512MHz, then 806 to 956MHz (in 3 segments).

Oh yeah, and I do like also listening to 2m and 70cm (140-148MHz and 440-448MHz).

My antenna is a set of stacked Antenex Yagi's on a tower 75' up in the air.

I have two nice big analog S-Meters for sale. They were never used. They measure about 1" by 1" and have 4 metal tabs on the back of each. I bought them awhile back for a project that was never done. I really don't know what they are worth, so I'll take offers.

I recently acquired a Pro-2006 scanner with a modification I do not recognize. The rear of the scanner has been modified to include a 2nd "BNC jack" labelled "Verifier." inside the scanner I noticed that wires from this BNC connector goes to the volume and squelch controls in the scanner.

Does anyone know what mod this is?

This mod was professionally done and labeled also. I wonder if this is 10.7mhz IF output mod. I dont want to plug anything in there unless I am sure. I will keep checking this site. Hopefully, someone will have Sounds like the 'discriminator" take off point. This is for feeding audio into a computer, maybe through an external device to decode the digital there was a time , back when , when a person could tune in the analog cellfone band and listen to people using their phones. the point being that some vendors at swap meets and outdoor markets used their cellfones to place and verify credit card purchases. in this era , long ago, " other people " might eavesdrop on these transactions and steal people's credit card information.

all you had to do was tune in on the tower " input " end of the cellfone connection and hook up a credit card verifone unit to your scanner and " all " of the transaction would be printed out on that little thermal printer of the card verifier. these older portable credit card units connected to the audio output - input of the cellfone. discriminator - slicer outputs did not work well with any of the old early verifone transaction units as they expected - needed tailored audio output that replicated what you hear in your cellfone.

what you describe sounds a little bit like it might be related to something like that ! just a thought !

hacking early attempts at verifone systems is old , old news. first cellfone credit card authorizations at swap meets were strictly vocal . the merchant called his verifone (or similar service) number and gave all the info on the (cellphone) phone by voice. THAT was toooooo easy to rip off. next was a simplistic system of manually dialing a number , giving them your merchant number, and the machine (hooked to the cellfone) would send the info in a non encrypted modem tone system and get the info back on a thermal printer. THAT too was easy to rip but way better than saying it out loud on a cellfone. things have gotten a LOT more difficult since those early days , and especially after the government instituted the EE3 requirements for cellular services !

the info is likely still in the alt.2600 historical files and look for Verifone Junior password lists as well. none of it has been usable since sometime in the '89 - '92 era (depending upon where you lived , it lasted longer out in the country).

Hello, I have a Uniden BR330T scanner. I'd like to make a mobile antenna for it from an old whip antenna that will be cut down to about 16". The diameter at the base of the whip is no more than 1/16".

I'm looking for an adapter (the input on the scanner is of course female) that I can insert the base of the whip into, and connect it to the adapter. SMA is preferred, but I'll accept BNC if no such SMA adapter exists.

Looking at the pictures on websites, I can't tell which adapter would fit my needs. If anyone could suggest something that will do the job well, that would be excellent.

Thanks.

 Welcome to rec.radio.info! ***

Welcome to rec.radio.info, a group that aims to provide a noise-free
source of information and news for the entire rec.radio hierarchy.

Two introductory articles about rec.radio.info are posted to the group every month. You are now reading the first article, which explains what rec.radio.info is, and answers some Frequently Asked Questions. The second article is titled Posting Guidelines, and you only need to read it if you want to submit an article to rec.radio.info.

You can skip to the next section of this article by searching for the next
" -- " string. The sections available are:
- What is the purpose of rec.radio.info?
- Why are messages almost always cross posted to rec.radio.info?
- What is a 'follow-up', and what does 'moderated' mean?
- OK, so now I know what 'moderated' means. Tell me more.
- What type of material is considered inappropriate?
- I do not have access to news, how can I get the information posted to
rec.radio.info?
- Will the material appearing in rec.radio.info be archived somewhere?
- I have a regular posting with timely information, is there a way to speed up it's delivery, or automate for more convenience?

-- What is the purpose of rec.radio.info?

The purpose or charter of rec.radio.info is to provide the Usenet
community with a resource for information, news, and facts about any and all things radio.

All the other rec.radio groups are intended for discussions and general
chit chat about radio. Rec.radio.info will contain informational, factual articles only. Follow-ups are redirected to an appropriate other group, and further discussion (if any) will not take place in
rec.radio.info.

In order to ensure that rec.radio.info contains only appropriate articles, it was decided to create the group as a moderated newsgroup.

-- Why are messages almost always cross posted to rec.radio.info?

It provides a "tag" for each article to be assembled into a filtered presentation in rec.radio.info (even with cross-posting, only one message, with a unique Message-ID, is propagated across the net). This tag also facilitates a pre-existing method of dropping or canceling the articles locally within the discussion groups if you don't want to see them. This accommodates individuals who want to separate the bulletins from the discussions, discussions from the bulletins, as well as those who are adamant about not reading another newsgroup and wanted to see everything all in one basket.

With the total size of Usenet (in number of newsgroups and total traffic) doubling every year or so, this is no insignificant contribution to reducing information noise and chaos. Making the discussion groups a catch-all, and making extra newsgroups filters on that catch-all, is also the most realistic way to implement such a scheme (It's not intuitively obvious what the charter, contents, and general appropriate topics for each and every newsgroup are. Seeing FAQ's and charter/intro postings in the home newsgroup is beneficial for new readers).

By cross-posting one only is adding a few tens of bytes to each bulletin (to specify the extra group on the Newsgroups line), but are adding the capability for very powerful filtering features available on most news servers, listservers and readers. Your local news guru could probably explain these features in more detail.

In rn, for example, according to Leanne Phillips in her rn kill-file FAQ, add a line of the form:

/Newsgroups:.*[,]rec\.radio\.info/h:j

either in ~/News/KILL (if you don't want to see rec.radio.info articles anywhere) or ~/News/rec/radio/amateur/misc/KILL (if you don't want to see them just in rec.radio.amateur.misc). The latter method means your kill file will only be consulted during rec.radio.amateur.misc (and hence runs more efficiently), and will probably work for most people.

In nn, according to Bill Wohler in his nn FAQ, add a line of the form:

rec.radio.info:!s/:^

in ~/.nn/kill (if you don't want to see rec.radio.info articles anywhere), or put the following lines:

sequence
rec.radio.info
rec.radio.

at the end of ~/.nn/init in order to see all the rec.radio.info bulletins first, then read the remaining rec.radio.* without the bulletins.

-- What is a 'follow-up', and what does 'moderated' mean?

If you are new to Usenet and are not familiar with the terminology, you might want to read the general introductory articles found in the newsgroup news.announce.newusers. Doing so will make your life on the net much easier, and will probably save you from making silly beginner's mistakes.

If you think that at this moment you are reading an echo, a conference, or a bulletin board, I'd also strongly suggest a trip over to news.announce.newusers.

For the rest of this article, we will assume you have a basic knowledge of Usenet terminology and mechanics.

A moderated group means that any article that needs to be posted to the group has to be accepted by the moderator of the group. Since we need to ensure that followups to an article (discussion) do not show up in the rec.radio.info newsgroup, the `Followup-To:' header line contains a newsgroup that is appropriate for discussions about the specific article.

-- OK, so now I know what 'moderated' means. Tell me more.

Rec.radio.info is a moderated newsgroup, which means that all articles submitted to the group will have to be approved by the moderator first.

The current moderator of the group is the rec.radio.amateur.moderated Moderation Team. Submissions to rec.radio.info can be posted, or e-mailed to:

rec-radio-info@panix.com

Comments, criticisms, suggestions or questions about the group can be e-mailed to:

rec-radio-info-request@panix.com

But before you do so, please be sure to check out the "Posting Guidelines" article.

The influence of the moderator should be minimal and of an administrative nature, consisting chiefly of weeding out obviously inappropriate articles, while making sure correct headers etc. are used for the appropriate ones.

-- What type of material is considered inappropriate?

There are three broad categories of articles which will be rejected by the moderator:

1) Requests for information: rec.radio.info is strictly a one-way street. We receive information in our mailbox; we then post it to rec.radio.info. Requests for specific information belong in the normal discussion newsgroups. If your request gets answered, you might consider passing the answer on to rec.radio.info, though. Especially if you can edit it into a informational, rather than a discussion, format.

2) Obvious discussion articles, or articles that appear unsubstantiated.

3) Commercial stuff: a relatively unbiased test of a radio product would be accepted, but any hint of for-profit might be reason for rejection. For three reasons: This is not the purpose of the list, for-profit is a controversial topic, and this list may be passed onto Amateur Packet Radio (where for-profit is prohibited except under certain provisos).

rec.radio.swap may be more deserving of the posting in any matter.

Similarly, copyrighted material generally cannot be used. If it's TRULY worthwhile to the net, We would recommend obtaining permission from the copyright holder. Please note the source, and if permission was given. We reserve the right to make the final decision concerning appropriateness in all situations. In most cases, a brief summary of, or pointer to, the copyrighted information may be all we can allow.

-- I do not have access to news, how can I get the information posted to rec.radio.info?

Google has an excellent web interface to Usenet newsgroups. It is available at:

http://groups.google.com

It supports both reading and posting.

-- Will the material appearing in rec.radio.info be archived somewhere?

Yes. See Google Groups above.

Effectively this means that anything you post to rec.radio.info will be permanently stored, so your work will not be lost.

-- I have a regular posting with timely information, is there a way to speed up it's delivery, or automate for more convenience?

Yes, there is! It may take a bit of chatter with the moderator, but we are willing to take responsible people and provide them the means of posting the articles directly from their site. We will try everything we can as we fully realize that DX (distant signal) and astronomical data can be somewhat transitory. We are also willing to allow regular posters of information the same courtesy, even if the information is not as time critical.

We refer to this as self-moderation, which is partly based on the model for rec.answers/news.answers. This requires co-operation and goodwill to be beneficial to the community in the rec.radio hierarchy.

Please direct any comments, questions, or criticisms about this article to rec-radio-info-request@panix.com.

-- What is the purpose of rec.radio.info?

The purpose or charter of rec.radio.info is to provide the Usenet
community with a resource for information, news, and facts about any and all things radio.

All the other rec.radio groups are intended for discussions and general
chit chat about radio. Rec.radio.info will contain informational, factual articles only. Follow-ups are redirected to an appropriate other group, and further discussion (if any) will not take place in
rec.radio.info.

In order to ensure that rec.radio.info contains only appropriate articles, it was decided to create the group as a moderated newsgroup.

-- Why are messages almost always cross posted to rec.radio.info?

It provides a "tag" for each article to be assembled into a filtered presentation in rec.radio.info (even with cross-posting, only one message, with a unique Message-ID, is propagated across the net). This tag also facilitates a pre-existing method of dropping or canceling the articles locally within the discussion groups if you don't want to see them. This accommodates individuals who want to separate the bulletins from the discussions, discussions from the bulletins, as well as those who are adamant about not reading another newsgroup and wanted to see everything all in one basket.

With the total size of Usenet (in number of newsgroups and total traffic) doubling every year or so, this is no insignificant contribution to reducing information noise and chaos. Making the discussion groups a catch-all, and making extra newsgroups filters on that catch-all, is also the most realistic way to implement such a scheme (It's not intuitively obvious what the charter, contents, and general appropriate topics for each and every newsgroup are. Seeing FAQ's and charter/intro postings in the home newsgroup is beneficial for new readers).

By cross-posting one only is adding a few tens of bytes to each bulletin (to specify the extra group on the Newsgroups line), but are adding the capability for very powerful filtering features available on most news servers, listservers and readers. Your local news guru could probably explain these features in more detail.

In rn, for example, according to Leanne Phillips in her rn kill-file FAQ, add a line of the form:

/Newsgroups:.*[,]rec\.radio\.info/h:j

either in ~/News/KILL (if you don't want to see rec.radio.info articles anywhere) or ~/News/rec/radio/amateur/misc/KILL (if you don't want to see them just in rec.radio.amateur.misc). The latter method means your kill file will only be consulted during rec.radio.amateur.misc (and hence runs more efficiently), and will probably work for most people.

In nn, according to Bill Wohler in his nn FAQ, add a line of the form:

rec.radio.info:!s/:^

in ~/.nn/kill (if you don't want to see rec.radio.info articles anywhere), or put the following lines:

sequence
rec.radio.info
rec.radio.

at the end of ~/.nn/init in order to see all the rec.radio.info bulletins first, then read the remaining rec.radio.* without the bulletins.

-- What is a 'follow-up', and what does 'moderated' mean?

If you are new to Usenet and are not familiar with the terminology, you might want to read the general introductory articles found in the newsgroup news.announce.newusers. Doing so will make your life on the net much easier, and will probably save you from making silly beginner's mistakes.

If you think that at this moment you are reading an echo, a conference, or a bulletin board, I'd also strongly suggest a trip over to news.announce.newusers.

For the rest of this article, we will assume you have a basic knowledge of Usenet terminology and mechanics.

A moderated group means that any article that needs to be posted to the group has to be accepted by the moderator of the group. Since we need to ensure that followups to an article (discussion) do not show up in the rec.radio.info newsgroup, the `Followup-To:' header line contains a newsgroup that is appropriate for discussions about the specific article.

-- OK, so now I know what 'moderated' means. Tell me more.

Rec.radio.info is a moderated newsgroup, which means that all articles submitted to the group will have to be approved by the moderator first.

The current moderator of the group is the rec.radio.amateur.moderated Moderation Team. Submissions to rec.radio.info can be posted, or e-mailed to:

rec-radio-info@panix.com

Comments, criticisms, suggestions or questions about the group can be e-mailed to:

rec-radio-info-request@panix.com

But before you do so, please be sure to check out the "Posting Guidelines" article.

The influence of the moderator should be minimal and of an administrative nature, consisting chiefly of weeding out obviously inappropriate articles, while making sure correct headers etc. are used for the appropriate ones.

-- What type of material is considered inappropriate?

There are three broad categories of articles which will be rejected by the moderator:

1) Requests for information: rec.radio.info is strictly a one-way street. We receive information in our mailbox; we then post it to rec.radio.info. Requests for specific information belong in the normal discussion newsgroups. If your request gets answered, you might consider passing the answer on to rec.radio.info, though. Especially if you can edit it into a informational, rather than a discussion, format.

2) Obvious discussion articles, or articles that appear unsubstantiated.

3) Commercial stuff: a relatively unbiased test of a radio product would be accepted, but any hint of for-profit might be reason for rejection. For three reasons: This is not the purpose of the list, for-profit is a controversial topic, and this list may be passed onto Amateur Packet Radio (where for-profit is prohibited except under certain provisos).

rec.radio.swap may be more deserving of the posting in any matter.

Similarly, copyrighted material generally cannot be used. If it's TRULY worthwhile to the net, We would recommend obtaining permission from the copyright holder. Please note the source, and if permission was given. We reserve the right to make the final decision concerning appropriateness in all situations. In most cases, a brief summary of, or pointer to, the copyrighted information may be all we can allow.

-- I do not have access to news, how can I get the information posted to rec.radio.info?

Google has an excellent web interface to Usenet newsgroups. It is available at:

http://groups.google.com

It supports both reading and posting.

-- Will the material appearing in rec.radio.info be archived somewhere?

Yes. See Google Groups above.

Effectively this means that anything you post to rec.radio.info will be permanently stored, so your work will not be lost.

-- I have a regular posting with timely information, is there a way to speed up it's delivery, or automate for more convenience?

Yes, there is! It may take a bit of chatter with the moderator, but we are willing to take responsible people and provide them the means of posting the articles directly from their site. We will try everything we can as we fully realize that DX (distant signal) and astronomical data can be somewhat transitory. We are also willing to allow regular posters of information the same courtesy, even if the information is not as time critical.

We refer to this as self-moderation, which is partly based on the model for rec.answers/news.answers. This requires co-operation and goodwill to be beneficial to the community in the rec.radio hierarchy.

Please direct any comments, questions, or criticisms about this article to rec-radio-info-request@panix.com.

 rec.radio.info - Posting Guidelines and Etiquette ***

Two introductory articles about rec.radio.info are posted to this group and to rec.answers/news.answers every month. You are now reading the second article, which explains how to submit something to rec.radio.info, and which answers some Frequently Asked Questions about the submission process. The first article is titled "Welcome to rec.radio.info", and it might be a good idea to check it out as well.

-- How do I submit something to rec.radio.info?

Two possibilities. You can use your newsreading software to just post
the article to rec.radio.info, as you would do with any other newsgroup. The difference is that the software recognizes the special status of rec.radio.info as a moderated group, and will e-mail your article to us, the moderation team, instead of posting it to the group.

Alternatively, you can mail your article directly to us at the following address:

rec-radio-info@panix.com

Mailing us directly is probably (a wee bit) faster, but using the transparency offered by the newsreading software is probably more convenient.

If you have any questions, or wish to deal with some administrivia with the moderation team, we suggest mailing to the following address:

rec-radio-info-request@panix.com

-- How soon will I see my article appear?

It depends on how busy we are. Your article reaches us as mail, we have to read it first, give it the stamp of approval, and finally send it on to the group. We will attempt to read and decide on all submissions within 72 hours at the very least, though we will probably be able to process submissions much faster in actual practice.

The site from which we moderate this newsgroup, "Public Access Internet and Unix, NYC" (Panix), is directly connected to the Internet, and

articles posted at that site should appear at most major news sites, including Google Groups, the same day. The principal delay, therefore, will be the wait in the moderator's submission queue.

If you post a periodic article, and have shown to be trustworthy, we may allow you to post directly if the article is of a timely nature. See the section below on direct posting.

-- Should my article be in a specific format?

No. If it is not totally illegible, we will accept it, and if it does not have a correct subject-line we will correct it with your permission -- that's what a moderator is for.

However.

You could do us a big favor by making sure your article conforms to these simple requirements:

1) The article must present information, not discussion or requests, We will reject the article or require you to change the wording if it is worth it.
2) A good, descriptive Subject line.
3) Always mention what source you got the information from.
4) Don't forget to include a Followup-To header, at least if you don't want further discussion to automatically be forwarded to you, the poster, which is the default if the article is only posted to rec.radio.info.

As we said: if your article is appropriate we will post it even if you don't follow these guidelines, but then don't blame us for not processing it immediately. 'Perfect' articles we can send on with a couple of keystrokes. Stuff that needs minor editing is going to have to wait until we have time to do so.

Please do not waste both our and your time by posting requests, as this is an information only news group.

-- What about crossposting?

If you send something to rec.radio.info, just name any group you'd like to cross-post to in the Newsgroups field. Then, when we approve the article for rec.radio.info it will get automatically cross-posted to any other groups mentioned. This will also override the default Followup-To: poster, replacing it with the groups you cross posted to.

We would prefer if the group be cross-posted to the various discussion groups in the rec.radio.* hierarchy that are appropriate:

rec.radio.amateur.misc Amateur (ham) radio and related matters
rec.radio.amateur.packet Amateur Packet Radio discussions
rec.radio.amateur.policy Amateur Radio practices, rules, etc.
rec.radio.noncomm Non commercial radio discussions
rec.radio.shortwave International broadcasting on the 'HF' bands

rec.radio.cb Citizens Band (27 MHz) discussion
rec.radio.scanner Scanner discussions (unsupported group)

or in one of the moderated groups:

rec.radio.amateur.moderated Amateur radio practices, rules, etc.
rec.radio.broadcasting Discussion of domestic radio broadcasting

We will leave it up to the poster to decide which group(s) are appropriate, but reserve the right to add groups if we feel it has broader interest. We will consult with the poster first.

Notes on crossposting:

- rec.radio.broadcasting is also a moderated group. The rec.radio.broadcasting moderator prefers to review all articles himself before posting. Placing rec.radio.broadcasting before rec.radio.info on the Newsgroups line should accomplish this. We will typically abide by the rec.radio.broadcasting moderator's decision whether the article is appropriate for rec.radio.info.

- rec.radio.amateur.moderated is also a moderated group. As the rec.radio.amateur.moderated Moderation Team manages both rec.radio.amateur.moderated and rec.radio.info, we can manage crossposting and approvals for both newsgroups. The rec.radio.amateur.moderated group does not allow crossposting to other discussion newsgroups, whether moderated or unmoderated. However, we would like to manage rec.radio.info as consistently as possible with how it was done by previous moderators, including the grandfathering of existing regular postings. Therefore, the submitter can choose rec.radio.amateur.moderated or the other unmoderated rec.radio.amateur.* discussion newsgroups for crossposting, but not both.

- Any FAQ or informational posting approved by the rec.answers/news.answers moderation team that is also crossposted to any rec.radio.* newsgroup (besides just rec.radio.info) is also automatically pre-approved for rec.radio.info. See below for more information.

If you post to another moderated group, it may be better to make special arrangements with both moderators before posting by contacting us at our administrivia addresses.

In addition, cross-posts do not take up extra space; modern newsreaders can be configured to show you cross-posted articles only once anyway; not everybody reads rec.radio.info; and rec.radio.info was never meant to reduce the volume of the regular discussion newsgroups. But keep in mind that some of the mail gateways may filter out the informational postings (at request of the subscribers) to keep the load down.

You decide.

-- I have a regular posting with timely information, can I make arrangements to help speed up delivery by posting directly from my site?

Yes, there is! It may take a bit of chatter with the moderator, but we are willing to take responsible people and provide them the means of posting the articles directly from their site. We will try everything we can as we fully realize that DX (distant signal) and astronomical data can be somewhat transitory. We are also willing to allow regular posters of information the same courtesy, even if the information is not as timely.

We refer to this as self-moderation, which is partly based on the model for rec.answers/news.answers. This requires cooperation and good will to be beneficial to the community in the rec.radio.* hierarchy.

If you are currently maintaining (or plan to maintain) a radio-related periodic information posting, you may wish to consider crossposting it to rec.answers/news.answers. Postings that are approved by the rec.answers/news.answers moderators for this treatment are automatically pre-approved for crossposting to rec.radio.info (as the news.answers requirements are far more rigorous than the requirements this newsgroup ever plans to use). For more information about this option, consult the appropriate information articles and posting guidelines in rec.answers/news.answers.

Realize also, that even if your post is not approved for rec.answers/news.answers, it can still be approved for rec.radio.info. The intention is not so much to get every last bit of radio-related information on rec.answers/news.answers, but rather to provide an alternative avenue of approval (as well as grandfather existing maintainers of radio-related information and spare them additional bureaucratic hurdles). Again, crossposting to either rec.radio.info or rec.answers/news.answers, both, or neither, is at the discretion of the poster (subject to the approval of the moderators). You decide what is most appropriate for your article.

Please remember that as an information maintainer, you are not alone. There are many others on the net who maintain and post periodic information postings, using various intermediate-to-advanced features of Usenet (usually via automated tools). Various degrees of technical support and general hand-holding are available from many Usenet veterans. Send us some E-mail describing your needs to our administrative address below, and we'll try to help, or at least refer you to the right knowledgeable individual(s).

-- And Follow-ups?

If the only newsgroup you have specified is rec.radio.info, then the Followup-To: field will always be set to poster. If you do not want this, you must supply a Followup-To line of your own, and we will honor that one, as long as it is a subset of the original Newsgroups line.

If you specify newsgroups to cross-post to, then the Followup-To field will be set to include all the cross-posted groups, excepting rec.radio.info itself. Again, if you do not wish this behavior, supply your own Followup-To line.

We maintain other standards on the various RFC-1036 (news transport) header lines. For example, if the article is appropriate for passing into the Packet Radio Information Network, we encapsulate the Packet Bulletin Identifier (BID) in the Message-ID: news header line indicating the machine of origin as the ampr.org domain:

Message-ID: <$opa.55.1994@ampr.org>

where the Packet Radio BID, in this example, is `$OPA.55', and it was posted in the year 1994, because some of the Bid numbers are cycled yearly. Hopefully, this can be used as a key to re-introduce the articles for the Packet Radio network. Also, if the article is a repost of an already existing information article in the rec.radio heirarchy, we ensure that the References: header line is linked to that previously posted article. This also helps to tag articles, and may be used for additional filtering if needed.

Since the articles are archived, please use the Summary and Keywords header lines to help one search for your article.

-- Why have I received no reply from you?

We never reject anything in silence, and we make a point of it to answer all our mail. However, E-mail, like a brain cell, can and does get lost, every now and again.

So, if you send us something, and you don't see it appear it rec.radio.info, and you still have not heard from us in reply after say, five days, you can be pretty sure that either your mail never reached us, or that our answer has never reached you. In that case, please try again (We will filter out duplicates).

Please direct any comments, questions, or criticisms about this article to rec-radio-info-request@panix.com.

well surely you need one connector one end and another the other.

i would look under the connector name ie BNC to SMA lead sounds sensible to me

553. PC speaker buzz from Cingular GSM cellphones

In my office we often experience instances of a "galloping" sort of buzz periodically coming from the PC speakers near co-workers who have Cingular GSM cell phones. A preliminary Web search turns up many instances of this problem. My understanding is that these phones periodically communicate with the network, and during these brief bursts the carrier is modulated at around 200 Hz resulting is a clear, repeatable buzz pattern. How is this buzz getting into the PC speaker amplifier, and, more importantly, how can it be prevented?

Thanks,
Doug

You could;

1) Try different makes of speakers until you find some that are not as susceptible to the interference. Ones with metal cases might be better shielded.
2) Move the speakers to a location further from the phones. Like placing them on the floor under the desks.
3) Buy snap-on ferrite chokes from Radio Shack and put them on the audio and power cables going into the speaker amplifiers.

The latest theory on the disappearing bee populations is that electro-magnetic cell phone emissions are disorienting the bees. Makes you kind of wonder doesn't it?

The phones do communicate regularly with the network. The network must be constantly updated with whose phones are switched on and which cell tower is providing service. (It would be impractical to ring you for an incoming call if the network had to query every tower in the world, "Hey, I have a call for DougSlug. Who has him???")

This is a surprisingly common form of Electromagnetic Interference (EMI). The RF is being coupled into the wiring and changing the conduction of the small transistor amplifier inside one of the speakers, the one with the light and switches.

At work, I usually know when my co-workers cell phone will ring, because MY speakers emit a bup-bup-bup-buzz right before the ring. See, he usually keeps his phone next to the cubicle panel on his side, but by chance just inches away from my speakers. I have heard the same thing on TV, when a performer is wearing both a wireless mike and a cell phone.

Rerouting the wires or relocating the phone is the obvious solution, as distance is your friend in these cases. Otherwise, adding a few ferrites to the speaker lines may work. They present a high impedance to RF traveling along the wires, but have negligible effect on the audio signal. (You probably already own ferrites pre-installed in some of your wiring -- you just didn't know it. The various connecting cords for your camcorder have those fat lumps in them. Those are ferrites.

Ferrites are available for purchase in many radio and electronic stores in a form which closes, clamshell-style around the wire. You put two or three along the wire and presto no more buzz. Wrapping the wire multiple times around a ferrite before snapping it closed can help immensely. (This assumes you have some available slack in the speaker wires.)

Some theory here: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Choke_(electronics)

http://www.radioshack.com/sm-snap-together-ferrite-choke-core--pi-2103222.html has them, but overpriced compared to the $1.00 apiece I pay for them at the San Diego-area ham radio swap meet.

Also around a dollar here:
http://www.mouser.com/search/Refine.aspx?Msid=59710000&Ns=P_MfrPartNumber%7C0%7C%7CP_SField

I cannot advise you what to buy, but If you spring for a few of each at the $1.00 level, I really think you'll find something that works. Shipping is extra but Mouser will sell in small quantities. Thanks, Mouser.

Good luck. If you go this route, please let us know what worked and how many. TKS.

So now, I guess my question is, why is NEARfest doing the same thing?

Turning off the phones, the PC speakers, the computers or removing the electrical supply to the building or city would work if there are no provisions for backup power...But I have a suspicion that this was not the answer you seek :)

You will notice that various noise is generated by any electronics network utilising microprocessors, such as cell phones (or any transceivers), phone switches/PBX, computer/FAX devices, and security equipment, all of which emit or generate RF signals ,whether they are super-imposed with audio frequencies or not. This usually includes most micro-processor-controlled electronics...harmonics will bleed through into your regular phones, TVs, scanners, PCs, any amplifiers, and AM/FM/LW/SW radio equipment either internally or from being in close proximity to any other electronics devices too.

That's why you aren't allowed to use cell phones of any type on any network in hospitals where you might interfere with someone's pacemaker or diagnostic equipment, and testing has provided facts to back up the claims with viable statistics. The hospital administrations have decided that the best way to cure the possibility of interference from outside/inside/portable sources is to turn " OFF " the device which has the potential to cause it. Portable cell phones provide an ever changing source of interference with many variables involved as the carrier of the device moves about, and this can cause unpredictable consequences.

If you're computers are not losing or misinterpreting data input/output, then you might want to live with the slight noise problem and let the cell phone industry survive and thrive.

Jack, Rich Greene is the main troll around these parts. He has been trolling our group for years and has even claimed he owns it. He is a real nutcase. It was discovered through court martial records under FOIA that he was court martialed in service. He has admitted to the crimes he committed. He is a real sick bastard I will tell you that.

You won't find anyone around these parts that like him. He is a loner with no friends. His first wife will tell you allot more about the little pussy ass pissant.

He gets a kick out of threatening the families of veterans by postings messages pretending to have sent mail packages that will cause harm to whoever opens the package. The USPS inspectors got wind of what he was doing and substantiated the case against him. Since then he has stopped threatening the families of disabled veterans via the postal service. That is good news and proof the system does work and you know how to play it.

I am sure you heard of the money scams he tried to pull on AMR and AWV. He even used a work computer to solicit cash from veterans. I sure wouldn't ever buy anything from that creep after what he was caught doing. He is a nutcase, certified type.

I got my first cell phone about 8 months ago and it didn't take long for me to run into this. At work I have headphones on most of the time, listening either to AM radio or to an audio cassette (both from the same Walkman-type unit). Those brief digital bursts occur about every 10 minutes and if the headphone cord is close to my cell phone, the sounds can be very loud in the headphones. I've even heard the bursts coming from the speakers connected to my home stereo, with the audio source not running (connected to CD player, but volume is still turned up), and the cell phone is lying on the table in the next room.

As you said, with a bit of practice I can tell if my cell phone is actually about to ring or is just checking in with the network. A couple of days ago the digital pattern was of a type I'd never heard before and when I looked down to look at my phone, I found that someone had sent me a text message (a feature I normally don't use).

I mentioned this recently to a friend of mine and he told me about a somewhat similar experience that happened to him when he was a kid, about 25 years ago. He lived in a house with somewhat ancient telephone wiring and, for some reason he never did figure out, the telephone would emit a very brief "ghost ring" right before it would ring for real. That is, it was an electromechanical phone (this was early 1970s) and before the first "genuine" ring, the phone would first put out one very brief "ping." Apparently there was something in the telephone network that would send out a very brief "pip" that would ding the bell just once (the actual ring is a constant string of pulses). As a boy in his early teens, my friend noticed this but said nothing about it to anyone else. Whenever he was in the house and heard that brief "ping," he knew that the telephone would ring a couple of seconds later. He had an aunt who was loud, obnoxious, stupid, five feet in all directions, and totally clueless about technology; whenever she'd come by the house for a visit, my friend would terrorize her by hollering "PHONE'S GONNA RING!!!!" about two seconds before it actually did. She never noticed the "ghost pings." She never did catch on and was totally convinced that he was possessed.

Some time later, the tables got turned on him, briefly. Whenever he was in the house alone, with total quiet, sometimes he could hear voices and couldn't figure out where they were coming from. It wasn't constant, either. Very faint whispers. Very strange. They seemed to be coming from the kitchen and he couldn't quite bring himself to believe that he was hearing ghosts. He finally got the clue he needed late one night when he raided the refrigerator and distinctly heard the '70s song "The Sound of Philadelphia" coming from nowhere. He couldn't picture a bunch of ghosts sitting around a kitchen playing disco music, so he poked around and finally discovered the source of all this: a flashlight! It was an old-style flashlight, with two batteries, an incandescent bulb, a metal case, and a big magnet so it would stick to the fridge. Apparently the spring inside the flashlight was forming a junction diode and was rectifying an AM radio station signal. The "voices" were apparently from a talk show during certain hours.

The BC780XLT is in excellent condition inside but outside has scratches due to it being mobile. The guy I got it from on a trade said he lost the power supply and antenna.

I checked out the unit with a compatible power supply but it will not go with unit. Will NOT be DOA.

In this day and age of 0's & 1's, I wonder if analog scanners are still made. I came across Kaito KA007 (covers VHF Hi 143-174 MHz) according to amazon.com selling in US for $34.95.

I wonder tuning analog scanner fun. Anyone here scanning analog way?

alot of this can also be caused by inductive coupling

I had an El Cheapo phone on my nightstand for years. It was a one-piece unit that I laid face-down to hang up. It always gave out a chirp right before the ring, which I imagine was related to the ghost ring your friend heard.

In addition, that phone emitted an offbeat three chirp pattern every evening about 10:45. If my wife and I were there together, one of us would usually wisecrack about the FBI and phone taps. I imagine it had something to do with testing the line. I had forgetten all about that.

I recall during my teen years in Fort Worth, TX (Southwestern Bell) in the mid-80s, during the summer months I would stay up for most of the night. I had one of those el-cheapo electronic handheld phones in my room and it always emitted a quick chirp at the same time each night: 2:10 a.m., without fail! My guess is that it was responding to some high-voltage blip sent down the network by the phone company for maintenance tasks or something. Cecil Adams covered this topic in his column "The Straight Dope."

Actually, it is true.

The "UHF CB" frequencies were part of the old "Class A" CB. Class A was renamed GMRS. A license is required now, just as it was back in the old days.

Renamed and reorganized. FRS is one of the Citizens Band radio services, which uses UHF. GMRS is the old "Class A" CB, just renamed; but still remains one of the "Personal Radio Services"

Best place to go for frequencies is Radio Reference.
http://www.radioreference.com/modules.php?name=RR

Many locations are switching over to digital so be aware if your Mom has an analog scanner she may not be able to hear some locations.

591. Is State of Michigan 800 digital trunk system encrypted?

Subject says it all, almost. I'm getting conflicting info- some say no, some say always has been, some say soon. I got an unexpectedly large tax refund, and was considering blowing part of it on a 800 digital trunk scanner, next time Rat Shack or one of the mail order places has a sale. But if they are already encrypting, or soon plan to, I'll spend the 400-500 or so on some other toy. (I already have several vanilla scanners.)

Try Radio reference first. It may have some help. They seem to be several years behind in some places though, so if your area has changed in the last many years the info may not be right. Good place to try first though.

Re telephones (old time dial type).
When your phone was 'on the hook' (no calls in progress) there was typically a steady negative 48 volts on one side of the line pair and zero volts on the other side of the line from either a balanced or unbalanced 'line' relay. When you picked up the phone to make a call the relay/s would spring into action and connect you dial tone etc.
When someone called YOU the line relay/s were disconnected and another circuit set up by the person who dialled your number, prepared to supply AC ringing to your line to ring the phone. However that supply also had a DC component so that when you answered DC current would flow, cut off the ringing and energise the microphone in your phone.
many different step-by-step systems, panel systems and crossbar but the basic 'line' conditions were somewhat as described. In North America the ringing was/is typically a 2 second burst fol owed by a 4 second break, at frequency of around 20 hertz. In other countries it was often a sort of double burst of ringing followed by 4 second break. So each 'cycle' of rings takes about 6 seconds. Something remember if you are sitting on the can etc. when it rings!

So if the ringer bell or the ring-chirper was sensitive to small changes in voltage (aka cheap or maladjusted phone) there was definitely a possibility of a slight change of voltage on the line as the dial office equipment set up and prepared to ring your phone.
Some of those el-cheapo phones were horrible; in one case they damped down a fireman's line so badly that he didn't get emergency calls. The cause was two cheap phones supplied with magazine subscriptions to his two sons, who unwittingly hooked them up and stopped his main phone from ringing. Cost our telephone company several hours/days of effort to find out why an essential fireman's phone didn't work when every other phone around his area was OK. But we did so cos his service was important. Not so sure these days of competition anyone would bother; it might be a case of 'Service OK leaving here. YOU have a problem'!
Oh; another radio related el-cheapo phone item! When we built our first house the only service available in the area was one party on a four party line! One of the other parties had a cheap phone on an unsteady cheap metal stand and its handset kept falling off. One Sunday trying to make a call and very frustrated I eventually played a religious broadcast (of another denomination than theirs) as loud as possible down the telephone line. Listening occasionally between burst of loud hymn music one could hear "Where's that music coming from ..... " comments and, ultimately the phone put back on hook. Finally I could make my work related call!
Make sure you have fun out there!

And oh yes; some telephone systems had 'Routiners' or 'Line Insulation Testers' that would typically test through all the lines often late at night when there are/were few calls and identify any leakage due to wet cables and other non-normal conditions etc. two such incidents were when a member of a telephone company vice president's family left a phone outside in the rain and another when someone washed their telephone set in the kitchen sink and put it aside to dry, without unplugging it!
Keep looking for the ironic and the humorous.

You might want to read this:
http://www.radioreference.com/modules.php?name=RR&sid=100

It's long, but skimming it shows that some agencies are in fact encrypting to "protect against terrorists". Will the agencies you're interested in encrypt? Who knows.

Very, seldom is it encrypted. Some of the obvious agencies that are dealing with very sensitive, life threatening situations do use encryption on occasion, but not full time. I think there are a couple counties in the entire state that use encryption full time, from what I've heard.

I'm in S.E. lower Michigan, Tri-County area and most of it is in the clear.

- Added a "Time Window Search" to the audio playback screen.

I have not updated the help file yet because I am debating on the final form this function will take. I wanted to get it out there for people to play with over the weekend and possibly provide feedback.

Basically, the function allows you to search for recorded audio during a specified time window. You enter the date, time and the amount of time before and after the specified time to search. If any entries are found, you can then use the left and right arrows to move through and play the selected segments.

The reason I came up with this is because when attempting to identify new talkgroups I would hear something like "go to TAC". I then I would have to search through all the other unidentified groups to see if I could find the "TAC" channel. This new functionally allows me to quickly search through those groups that occured within the same time frame.

It is P25 trunking and the APCO P25 voice can be copied with APCO P25 capable scanners even when the conventional stuff goes away. Some of the sites have already been active for some time.

every so often all gsm phones communicate with the tower. Thats when the rf interferes with stuff or when its about to ring. Just keep a little farther away from other appliances.

Thanks, but you basically just re-stated the problem. I was hoping to get a more technical explanation of the mechanism by which the noise is coupled with the goal of using that information to determine what techniques might be used to prevent it. Keeping it a little farther away isn't usually an option because the owner keeps it clipped on his belt, and it isn't practical for him to remove it when he is at his workstation since he comes and goes all day. I'm figuring that use of a ferrite on the amplified speaker power cord is likely to be the most effective solution.

GSM is your problem. Find a cell company that doesn't use the GSM standard, and you problems will go away; and just maybe the honey bees will survive...

GSM is junk, and should have never seen the light-of-day. The wife's phone uses GSM, and it interferes with EVERYTHING. Any speaker in the house buzzes, doesn't matter what it's connected to, screws up the picture on the TV, computer monitor, etc. Causes all kinds of interference to nearly every radio in the house (communication or otherwise).

Thankfully my cell carrier uses CDMA, and I don't have ANY of these types of issues, or any others for that matter. To top it off, I can use my phone in MANY locations that hers will not work.

But why is this? I'd like to understand what GSM does that the other systems don't do. Is a higher transmit power needed from the handset for some reason? Guess I need to do some more background research.

GSM uses Time division multiple access a.k.a TDMA with a 30kc wide signal.
The carrier freq it uses hops around with in a band near 1.9Ghz as CW packet bursts.

Unshielded speaker components act as diodes, which in turn acts a AM radio detector, and turn your speaker into a receivers of the AM resulting signal.
That is the noise you hear.

I hope that helps.

Anyone catch the model number of the scanner Peter Parker / Spider-Man had in Spider-Man 3? I caught the Realistic logo and it had 16 lights representing each channel and the active channel would light up. It looked like something from the 80s and I doubt it'd be able to track NYPD's current system.

That's a crystal controlled scanner, definitely not the 1980s state-of-the-art.

It cannot negotiate trunk systems. It would work well here in L.A.
County.

I doubt that... I do recall Patrolman, but don't ever recall seeing an actual model #. I'll have a look this coming weekend, if I remember to...

644. THIS REALLY CAN MAKE YOU EASY MONEY! IT WORKS!

THIS REALLY CAN MAKE YOU EASY MONEY! IT WORKS!
BUT YOU HAVE TO FOLLOW IT CAREFULLY FOR IT TO WORK!
A little while back, I was looking on the web for easy ways to make money and I kept thinking that all of the ways I was reading would never work and were just scams, but not this one! The article that I had found said that I could make thousands of dollars easily in a matter of weeks with only an initial small payment of $6.00. I thought, "Yeah, right, this must be a scam like most of the rest", but like most of us, I was curious, so I kept reading. Anyway, it said that if I sent $1.00 to each of the 6 names and addresses listed at the bottom of the article that I would make great money but only if I followed the following steps. After sending the $1.00 to each person you were then instructed to rewrite the list by taking the 1st person off of the list then moving the 2nd person to the 1st spot, and the 3rd person to the 2nd spot, etc, etc. Finally you should be left with the number 6 spot empty and this is where you place your name and address. After reconfiguring the list you then must post it on about 200 newsgroups (doesn't matter but the more places you post the more money you make!). There are thousands and thousands of newsgroups from around the world so this task is easy and that was it when I was done! No catch. So after thinking it over, I thought about trying it. I figured, what have I got to lose except 6 stamps and $6.00, right? Like most of us I was a little skeptical because it seemed so easy and I was a little worried about the legal aspects of it all. So I checked it out with the U.S. Post Office (1-800-725-2161) and they confirmed that it is indeed legal! (U.S. Postal and Lottery Laws Title 18, Section 1302 and 1341 and Code of Federal Regulations, Volume 16, Sections 255 and 436) After reviewing the pros and cons of the investment I decided to carry out with it. I invested the measly $6.00 and guess what? Within 7 days, I started getting money in the mail!! I was very shocked! I figured it would end soon, but the money just kept coming in. In my first week, I made about $25.00. By the end of the second week I had made a total of over $1,000.00! In the third week I had over $6,000.00 and it's still growing. This is now my fourth week and I have made a total of just over $21,000.00 and it's still coming in rapidly. It's certainly worth $6.00, and 6 stamps. Now let me explain to you how this works and most importantly, why it works. Also, make sure you print a copy of this article NOW, so you can get the information off of it as you need it.

STEP 1: Get 6 separate pieces of paper and write the following on each piece of paper "PLEASE PUT ME ON YOUR MAILING LIST." Now get 6 US
$1.00 bills and place ONE inside EACH of the 6 pieces of paper so the bill will not be seen through the envelope to prevent thievery. Next, place one paper in each of the 6 envelopes and seal them. You should now have 6 sealed envelopes, each with a piece of paper stating the above phrase (PLEASE PUT ME ON YOUR MAILING LIST), your name and address, and a $1.00 bill. What you are doing with this letter is creating a service. THIS IS ABSOLUTELY LEGAL!
Now mail the 6 envelopes to the following addresses:
1. LORRAINE HUTCHINSON (P.O. BOX 23951 LONDON ENGLAND E12 5YP)
2. GEAN SAPP (1768 OLD HICKORY STREET, DECATUR, GA 30032)
3. TAMEKA HILL (P.O. BOX 188 JAMESVILLE, NC 27846)
4. DAN BELL (1519 CAMERON LANDING DRIVE, STOCKBRIDGE, GA 30281)
5. ERIC PORAT (2345 EAST 64 STREET, BROOKLYN, NY 11234)
6. MATT SANTIAMAGRO (1120 SUNSET AVE, KELLEY, IA 50134)
STEP 2: After you have mailed out your letters creating a service and making this legal, take the #1 name off the list that you see above, move the other names up (6 becomes 5, 5 becomes 4, etc...) and add YOUR NAME & ADDRESS as number 6 on the list.
STEP 3: Change anything you need to in this article, but try to keep this article as close to original as possible. Now, post your amended article to at least 200 newsgroups. (I believe there are close to 24,000 groups in USA alone). All you need is 200, but remember, the more you post- the more money you make!
DIRECTIONS --HOW TO POST TO NEWSGROUPS
Step a) You do not need to re-type this entire letter to do your own posting. Simply put your cursor at the beginning of this letter and drag your cursor to the bottom of this document, and select 'copy' from the edit menu. This will copy the entire letter into the computers memory.
Step b) Open a blank "notepad" file under accessories in windows and place your cursor at the top of the blank page. From the 'edit' menu select 'paste'. This will paste a copy of the letter into notepad so that you can add your name to the list.
Step c) Save your new notepad file as a .txt file. If you want to do your postings in different sittings, you'll always have this file to go back to.
Step d) Use the Internet to search for various newsgroups (on-line forums, message boards, chat sites, discussions.) Step e) Visit these message boards and post this article as a new message by highlighting the text of this letter and selecting paste from the edit menu. Fill in the Subject, this will be the header that everyone sees as they scroll through the list of postings in a particular group, click the post message button. After you have completed these steps you are done with your first posting.

Congratulations! You are that much closer to easy money! THAT'S IT!
All you have to do is jump to different newsgroups and post away, after you get the hang of it, it will take about 30 seconds for each newsgroup! That's it! You will begin receiving money from around the world within days! You may eventually want to rent a P.O.Box due to the large amount of mail you will receive. If you wish to stay anonymous, you can invent a name to use, as long as the postman will deliver it. JUST MAKE SURE ALL THE ADDRESSES ARE CORRECT AND REMEMBER, THE MORE NEWSGROUPS YOU POST IN, THE MORE MONEY YOU WILL MAKE!! BUT YOU HAVE TO POST A MINIMUM OF 200
WHY it works: Out of 200 postings, say I receive only 5 replies (a very low example). So then I made $5.00 with my name at #6 on the letter. Now, each of the 5 persons who just sent me $1.00 make the MINIMUM 200 postings, each with my name at #5 and only 5 persons respond to each of the original 5, that is another $25.00 for me, now those 25 each make 200 MINIMUM posts with my name at #4 and only 5 replies each, I will bring in an additional $125.00! Now, those 125 persons turn around and post the MINIMUM 200 with my name at #3 and only receive 5 replies each, I will make an additional $626.00! OK, now here is the fun part, each of those 625 persons post a MINIMUM 200 letters with my name at #2 and they each only receive 5 replies, that just made me $3,125.00! Those 3,125 persons will all deliver this message to 200 newsgroups with my name at #1 and if still 5 persons per 200 newsgroups react I will receive $15,625,00! With an original investment of only $6.00! AMAZING! When your name is no longer on the list, you just take the latest posting in the newsgroups, and send out another $6.00 to names on the list, putting your name at number 6 again. And start posting again. The thing to remember is, do you realize that thousands of people all over the world are joining the internet and reading these articles everyday. Remember play FAIRLY and
HONESTLY and this will work.

Here in UK Radio shack went under the guise "Tandy" and most equipment sold went under the name of "Realistic" which most were called Patrolman. Just Radio shacks as you know them with a different name but same number e.g
radio shack pro-43= Realistic patrolman Pro-43

Yea, I was right... They have a discussion going on over at the clearly the Pro 47, 48 or 48a.

I'm using Scancat-Lite PLUS version 1.2.9 on a Pro-97.

Haven't heard a thing while using the Signal Stalker function. Most recently at an airshow the fellow next to me was finding signals where as mine didn't. We were also using the same model antenna.

Curious whether the Scancat-Lite might have a setting that either needs to be turned on or turned off?

Did you have the correct band segment(s) turned on? If the Pro 97's Signal Stalker is anything like that of the Pro 83, the band is divided up into segments. You can enable or disable the different segments based upon the frequency range you are interested in capturing from...

If the police can encrypt, then private citizens should be able to encrypt your radio. There is something called "public records".

HORSE-SHIT!!!
There are times that law enforcement NEED encrypted radios.
YOU are not entitled to their traffic. You do not have a need to know or a right to know what is going on over police radio.If you are that interested, the PD's "PIO" will disclose it to you when it's Ok to do so.
APCO-25 and GE's EDACS systems are NOT encrypted (they can order that feature) but it's used to get more "Channels" or talk groups for an entire city, makes for a more efficient system than having a frequency/repeater for each dept.
Ma/Com's "OpenSky" system is ALL digital and you CAN NOT listen on that one.

Bottom line....if you can hear what is going on...chances are YOU DON'T NEED TO!

Has anyone had any luck putting an all band antenna in their attic and getting good reception? I put one of Grove's dipoles in my attic and get poorer reception than with the back of the set antennas. These antennas do a great job when mounted outside, which I can no longer do.

If you used the same antenna with success outside, then I would suspect there's a problem with the feed line in your new installation. Is it much longer or a different type of line? Which antenna is it? A dipole wouldn't normally work well as an all-band antenna, would it?

Sigmira is a Windows application program for decoding various "Ham" radio signals. Its features include:

-Selectable demodulation of PSK31, RTTY, and CW "digital" modes.
-"Waterfall" spectrographic display.
-Point and click signal selection/tuning.
-'Live' input from a shortwave receiver to a standard PC sound interface or canned input from saved .wav files.
-16 bit sampling. 8 k-sample/s sampling rate.
-Signal strength meter.
-Adjustable squelch.
-Clock display with UTC and local time.

The distribution package includes examples of PSK31, RTTY, and CW

Yes, it is normal. The PC speakers are not bypassed for the RF the phones generate. They save a few cents by not doing this. There is nothing wrong with the phones.

I agree, this is normal, and FCC rules say it's the speakers responsibility/fault to protect themselves from the RF. Not the phones responsibility for the speakers being unprotected.

the times have changed and so have requirements for public service radio systems. the FBI now requires ALL local police agencies that use NCIC (all police departments nowadays) to have their MDT style systems encrypted. it's not optional , it's federal law. homeland defense wants ALL police agency radios to be compatible with their own encrypted national radio systems , in all departments nationwide.
it's not law yet, but it's in the works. they strongly feel that local police should be encrypted to keep terrorists from eavesdropping.
their work is compromised if a local unencrypted police department is revealing all their activities in an coordinated emergency response event. (that's their excuse anyway)

my local police departments have used 150mhz and 450 mhz repeaters (not trunked) for a couple of decades. ALL local police departments are deep into the process of switching to their already up and running city wide wifi network for BOTH mdt data AND voice.
there is NO way to eavesdrop on encrypted wifi at the present time.

get used to it ..... change happens all the time and this is a strong era of change for the scanning hobbyist. you will have to learn to adapt to the change or just plain give up the hobby (or what's left of it) .... no one in the federal government and especially local police departments cares if you think you have rights to listen in on them or not. they never liked it in the old days and they are gleeful that the time is coming that no one will be able to eavesdrop. more and more, the police think it's them (the boys in blue) against all the rest of us. citizens shouldn't be allowed to own guns and citizens shouldn't be privileged to the inner workings of police activities out in the streets. it's all for their own safety and protection . I love scanning, but tell you the truth , they are probably right ....

Looking for advice on what type of cable to use for a cable run from an antenna on a 210-foot antenna. This is a marine band VHF antenna that will be used for receiving only. Probably a 6-foot Shakespear antenna.

I agree, there is nothing wrong with the phones, it's the GSM standard, like I stated in my previous posting. I still don't believe that there is anything 'normal' about WILLFULLY causing interference. It's not just speakers, it's damn near everything. While I DO agree that things should be shielded better, that's no excuse for adopting a standard that they KNEW cause all kinds of interference. If it was something minor, sure, that happens everyday, but this standard is a MAJOR source of interference.

With replies like yours, I would guess that BPL is OK in your book too?
It's not the fault of the internet service, it's the fault of the radio, etc. manufacturers for not having proper shielding or filtering. Yeah right! Sorry, your argument doesn't float with me...

If you had a decent newsreader, you wouldn't have to read cross-posts, because the newsreader would mark any as already read or not even download

I'm not so sure that GSM would be any different than any other cell standard that allows communication with towers several miles away. I'm pretty sure even an old AMPS phone would do interfere about as much, with a different.sound. We just had less electronic junk back then to interfere with.

By the way, "... stupididy on the part of WHOever came up with the ..." would be more correct.

 Welcome to rec.radio.info! ***

Welcome to rec.radio.info, a group that aims to provide a noise-free
source of information and news for the entire rec.radio hierarchy.

Two introductory articles about rec.radio.info are posted to the group every month. You are now reading the first article, which explains what rec.radio.info is, and answers some Frequently Asked Questions. The second article is titled Posting Guidelines, and you only need to read it if you want to submit an article to rec.radio.info.

You can skip to the next section of this article by searching for the next
" -- " string. The sections available are:
- What is the purpose of rec.radio.info?
- Why are messages almost always cross posted to rec.radio.info?
- What is a 'follow-up', and what does 'moderated' mean?
- OK, so now I know what 'moderated' means. Tell me more.
- What type of material is considered inappropriate?
- I do not have access to news, how can I get the information posted to
rec.radio.info?
- Will the material appearing in rec.radio.info be archived somewhere?
- I have a regular posting with timely information, is there a way to speed up it's delivery, or automate for more convenience?

-- What is the purpose of rec.radio.info?

The purpose or charter of rec.radio.info is to provide the Usenet
community with a resource for information, news, and facts about any and all things radio.

All the other rec.radio groups are intended for discussions and general
chit chat about radio. Rec.radio.info will contain informational, factual articles only. Follow-ups are redirected to an appropriate other group, and further discussion (if any) will not take place in
rec.radio.info.

In order to ensure that rec.radio.info contains only appropriate articles, it was decided to create the group as a moderated newsgroup.

-- Why are messages almost always cross posted to rec.radio.info?

It provides a "tag" for each article to be assembled into a filtered presentation in rec.radio.info (even with cross-posting, only one message, with a unique Message-ID, is propagated across the net). This tag also facilitates a pre-existing method of dropping or canceling the articles locally within the discussion groups if you don't want to see them. This accommodates individuals who want to separate the bulletins from the discussions, discussions from the bulletins, as well as those who are adamant about not reading another newsgroup and wanted to see everything all in one basket.

With the total size of Usenet (in number of newsgroups and total traffic) doubling every year or so, this is no insignificant contribution to reducing information noise and chaos. Making the discussion groups a catch-all, and making extra newsgroups filters on that catch-all, is also the most realistic way to implement such a scheme (It's not intuitively obvious what the charter, contents, and general appropriate topics for each and every newsgroup are. Seeing FAQ's and charter/intro postings in the home newsgroup is beneficial for new readers).

By cross-posting one only is adding a few tens of bytes to each bulletin (to specify the extra group on the Newsgroups line), but are adding the capability for very powerful filtering features available on most news servers, listservers and readers. Your local news guru could probably explain these features in more detail.

In rn, for example, according to Leanne Phillips in her rn kill-file FAQ, add a line of the form:

/Newsgroups:.*[,]rec\.radio\.info/h:j

either in ~/News/KILL (if you don't want to see rec.radio.info articles anywhere) or ~/News/rec/radio/amateur/misc/KILL (if you don't want to see them just in rec.radio.amateur.misc). The latter method means your kill file will only be consulted during rec.radio.amateur.misc (and hence runs more efficiently), and will probably work for most people.

In nn, according to Bill Wohler in his nn FAQ, add a line of the form:

rec.radio.info:!s/:^

in ~/.nn/kill (if you don't want to see rec.radio.info articles anywhere), or put the following lines:

sequence
rec.radio.info
rec.radio.

at the end of ~/.nn/init in order to see all the rec.radio.info bulletins first, then read the remaining rec.radio.* without the bulletins.

-- What is a 'follow-up', and what does 'moderated' mean?

If you are new to Usenet and are not familiar with the terminology, you might want to read the general introductory articles found in the newsgroup news.announce.newusers. Doing so will make your life on the net much easier, and will probably save you from making silly beginner's mistakes.

If you think that at this moment you are reading an echo, a conference, or a bulletin board, I'd also strongly suggest a trip over to news.announce.newusers.

For the rest of this article, we will assume you have a basic knowledge of Usenet terminology and mechanics.

A moderated group means that any article that needs to be posted to the group has to be accepted by the moderator of the group. Since we need to ensure that followups to an article (discussion) do not show up in the rec.radio.info newsgroup, the `Followup-To:' header line contains a newsgroup that is appropriate for discussions about the specific article.

-- OK, so now I know what 'moderated' means. Tell me more.

Rec.radio.info is a moderated newsgroup, which means that all articles submitted to the group will have to be approved by the moderator first.

The current moderator of the group is the rec.radio.amateur.moderated Moderation Team. Submissions to rec.radio.info can be posted, or e-mailed to:

rec-radio-info@panix.com

Comments, criticisms, suggestions or questions about the group can be e-mailed to:

rec-radio-info-request@panix.com

But before you do so, please be sure to check out the "Posting Guidelines" article.

The influence of the moderator should be minimal and of an administrative nature, consisting chiefly of weeding out obviously inappropriate articles, while making sure correct headers etc. are used for the appropriate ones.

-- What type of material is considered inappropriate?

There are three broad categories of articles which will be rejected by the moderator:

1) Requests for information: rec.radio.info is strictly a one-way street. We receive information in our mailbox; we then post it to rec.radio.info. Requests for specific information belong in the normal discussion newsgroups. If your request gets answered, you might consider passing the answer on to rec.radio.info, though. Especially if you can edit it into a informational, rather than a discussion, format.

2) Obvious discussion articles, or articles that appear unsubstantiated.

3) Commercial stuff: a relatively unbiased test of a radio product would be accepted, but any hint of for-profit might be reason for rejection. For three reasons: This is not the purpose of the list, for-profit is a controversial topic, and this list may be passed onto Amateur Packet Radio (where for-profit is prohibited except under certain provisos).

rec.radio.swap may be more deserving of the posting in any matter.

Similarly, copyrighted material generally cannot be used. If it's TRULY worthwhile to the net, We would recommend obtaining permission from the copyright holder. Please note the source, and if permission was given. We reserve the right to make the final decision concerning appropriateness in all situations. In most cases, a brief summary of, or pointer to, the copyrighted information may be all we can allow.

-- I do not have access to news, how can I get the information posted to rec.radio.info?

Google has an excellent web interface to Usenet newsgroups. It is available at:

http://groups.google.com

It supports both reading and posting.

-- Will the material appearing in rec.radio.info be archived somewhere?

Yes. See Google Groups above.

Effectively this means that anything you post to rec.radio.info will be permanently stored, so your work will not be lost.

-- I have a regular posting with timely information, is there a way to speed up it's delivery, or automate for more convenience?

Yes, there is! It may take a bit of chatter with the moderator, but we are willing to take responsible people and provide them the means of posting the articles directly from their site. We will try everything we can as we fully realize that DX (distant signal) and astronomical data can be somewhat transitory. We are also willing to allow regular posters of information the same courtesy, even if the information is not as time critical.

We refer to this as self-moderation, which is partly based on the model for rec.answers/news.answers. This requires co-operation and goodwill to be beneficial to the community in the rec.radio hierarchy.

Please direct any comments, questions, or criticisms about this article to rec-radio-info-request@panix.com.

 rec.radio.info - Posting Guidelines and Etiquette ***

Two introductory articles about rec.radio.info are posted to this group and to rec.answers/news.answers every month. You are now reading the second article, which explains how to submit something to rec.radio.info, and which answers some Frequently Asked Questions about the submission process. The first article is titled "Welcome to rec.radio.info", and it might be a good idea to check it out as well.

-- How do I submit something to rec.radio.info?

Two possibilities. You can use your newsreading software to just post
the article to rec.radio.info, as you would do with any other newsgroup. The difference is that the software recognizes the special status of rec.radio.info as a moderated group, and will e-mail your article to us, the moderation team, instead of posting it to the group.

Alternatively, you can mail your article directly to us at the following address:

rec-radio-info@panix.com

Mailing us directly is probably (a wee bit) faster, but using the transparency offered by the newsreading software is probably more convenient.

If you have any questions, or wish to deal with some administrivia with
the moderation team, we suggest mailing to the following address:

rec-radio-info-request@panix.com

-- How soon will I see my article appear?

It depends on how busy we are. Your article reaches us as mail, we have to read it first, give it the stamp of approval, and finally send it on to the group. We will attempt to read and decide on all submissions within 72 hours at the very least, though we will probably be able to process submissions much faster in actual practice.

The site from which we moderate this newsgroup, "Public Access Internet and Unix, NYC" (Panix), is directly connected to the Internet, and

articles posted at that site should appear at most major news sites, including Google Groups, the same day. The principal delay, therefore, will be the wait in the moderator's submission queue.

If you post a periodic article, and have shown to be trustworthy, we may allow you to post directly if the article is of a timely nature. See the section below on direct posting.

-- Should my article be in a specific format?

No. If it is not totally illegible, we will accept it, and if it does not have a correct subject-line we will correct it with your permission -- that's what a moderator is for.

However.

You could do us a big favor by making sure your article conforms to these simple requirements:

1) The article must present information, not discussion or requests, We will reject the article or require you to change the wording if it is worth it.
2) A good, descriptive Subject line.
3) Always mention what source you got the information from.
4) Don't forget to include a Followup-To header, at least if you don't want further discussion to automatically be forwarded to you, the poster, which is the default if the article is only posted to rec.radio.info.

As we said: if your article is appropriate we will post it even if you don't follow these guidelines, but then don't blame us for not processing it immediately. 'Perfect' articles we can send on with a couple of keystrokes. Stuff that needs minor editing is going to have to wait until we have time to do so.

Please do not waste both our and your time by posting requests, as this is an information only news group.

-- What about crossposting?

If you send something to rec.radio.info, just name any group you'd like to cross-post to in the Newsgroups field. Then, when we approve the article for rec.radio.info it will get automatically cross-posted to any other groups mentioned. This will also override the default Followup-To: poster, replacing it with the groups you cross posted to.

We would prefer if the group be cross-posted to the various discussion groups in the rec.radio.* hierarchy that are appropriate:

rec.radio.amateur.misc Amateur (ham) radio and related matters
rec.radio.amateur.packet Amateur Packet Radio discussions
rec.radio.amateur.policy Amateur Radio practices, rules, etc.
rec.radio.noncomm Non commercial radio discussions
rec.radio.shortwave International broadcasting on the 'HF' bands

rec.radio.cb Citizens Band (27 MHz) discussion
rec.radio.scanner Scanner discussions (unsupported group)

or in one of the moderated groups:

rec.radio.amateur.moderated Amateur radio practices, rules, etc.
rec.radio.broadcasting Discussion of domestic radio broadcasting

We will leave it up to the poster to decide which group(s) are appropriate, but reserve the right to add groups if we feel it has broader interest. We will consult with the poster first.

Notes on crossposting:

- rec.radio.broadcasting is also a moderated group. The rec.radio.broadcasting moderator prefers to review all articles himself before posting. Placing rec.radio.broadcasting before rec.radio.info on the Newsgroups line should accomplish this. We will typically abide by the rec.radio.broadcasting moderator's decision whether the article is appropriate for rec.radio.info.

- rec.radio.amateur.moderated is also a moderated group. As the rec.radio.amateur.moderated Moderation Team manages both rec.radio.amateur.moderated and rec.radio.info, we can manage crossposting and approvals for both newsgroups. The rec.radio.amateur.moderated group does not allow crossposting to other discussion newsgroups, whether moderated or unmoderated. However, we would like to manage rec.radio.info as consistently as possible with how it was done by previous moderators, including the grandfathering of existing regular postings. Therefore, the submitter can choose rec.radio.amateur.moderated or the other unmoderated rec.radio.amateur.* discussion newsgroups for crossposting, but not both.

- Any FAQ or informational posting approved by the rec.answers/news.answers moderation team that is also crossposted to any rec.radio.* newsgroup (besides just rec.radio.info) is also automatically pre-approved for rec.radio.info. See below for more information.

If you post to another moderated group, it may be better to make special arrangements with both moderators before posting by contacting us at our administrivia addresses.

In addition, cross-posts do not take up extra space; modern newsreaders can be configured to show you cross-posted articles only once anyway; not everybody reads rec.radio.info; and rec.radio.info was never meant to reduce the volume of the regular discussion newsgroups. But keep in mind that some of the mail gateways may filter out the informational postings (at request of the subscribers) to keep the load down.

You decide.

-- I have a regular posting with timely information, can I make arrangements to help speed up delivery by posting directly from my site?

Yes, there is! It may take a bit of chatter with the moderator, but we are willing to take responsible people and provide them the means of posting the articles directly from their site. We will try everything we can as we fully realize that DX (distant signal) and astronomical data can be somewhat transitory. We are also willing to allow regular posters of information the same courtesy, even if the information is not as timely.

We refer to this as self-moderation, which is partly based on the model for rec.answers/news.answers. This requires cooperation and good will to be beneficial to the community in the rec.radio.* hierarchy.

If you are currently maintaining (or plan to maintain) a radio-related periodic information posting, you may wish to consider crossposting it to rec.answers/news.answers. Postings that are approved by the rec.answers/news.answers moderators for this treatment are automatically pre-approved for crossposting to rec.radio.info (as the news.answers requirements are far more rigorous than the requirements this newsgroup ever plans to use). For more information about this option, consult the appropriate information articles and posting guidelines in rec.answers/news.answers.

Realize also, that even if your post is not approved for rec.answers/news.answers, it can still be approved for rec.radio.info. The intention is not so much to get every last bit of radio-related information on rec.answers/news.answers, but rather to provide an alternative avenue of approval (as well as grandfather existing maintainers of radio-related information and spare them additional bureaucratic hurdles). Again, crossposting to either rec.radio.info or rec.answers/news.answers, both, or neither, is at the discretion of the poster (subject to the approval of the moderators). You decide what is most appropriate for your article.

Please remember that as an information maintainer, you are not alone. There are many others on the net who maintain and post periodic information postings, using various intermediate-to-advanced features of Usenet (usually via automated tools). Various degrees of technical support and general hand-holding are available from many Usenet veterans. Send us some E-mail describing your needs to our administrative address below, and we'll try to help, or at least refer you to the right knowledgeable individual(s).

-- And Follow-ups?

If the only newsgroup you have specified is rec.radio.info, then the Followup-To: field will always be set to poster. If you do not want this, you must supply a Followup-To line of your own, and we will honor that one, as long as it is a subset of the original Newsgroups line.

If you specify newsgroups to cross-post to, then the Followup-To field will be set to include all the cross-posted groups, excepting rec.radio.info itself. Again, if you do not wish this behavior, supply your own Followup-To line.

We maintain other standards on the various RFC-1036 (news transport) header lines. For example, if the article is appropriate for passing into the Packet Radio Information Network, we encapsulate the Packet Bulletin Identifier (BID) in the Message-ID: news header line indicating the machine of origin as the ampr.org domain:

Message-ID: <$opa.55.1994@ampr.org>

where the Packet Radio BID, in this example, is `$OPA.55', and it was posted in the year 1994, because some of the Bid numbers are cycled yearly. Hopefully, this can be used as a key to re-introduce the articles for the Packet Radio network. Also, if the article is a repost of an already existing information article in the rec.radio heirarchy, we ensure that the References: header line is linked to that previously posted article. This also helps to tag articles, and may be used for additional filtering if needed.

Since the articles are archived, please use the Summary and Keywords header lines to help one search for your article.

-- Why have I received no reply from you?

We never reject anything in silence, and we make a point of it to answer all our mail. However, E-mail, like a brain cell, can and does get lost, every now and again.

So, if you send us something, and you don't see it appear it rec.radio.info, and you still have not heard from us in reply after say, five days, you can be pretty sure that either your mail never reached us, or that our answer has never reached you. In that case, please try again (We will filter out duplicates).

Please direct any comments, questions, or criticisms about this article to rec-radio-info-request@panix.com.

He has 'access' to the ham bands WITHOUT becoming an Amateur Radio operator, just like everyone else. Since he mentioned 'scanning' (listening), anyone can do that.
I have many radios, some shortwave, some scanners, some wide band receivers that do both.
I enjoy listening, but have NO desire to become a ham radio operator.

Scanner ICOM IC-R10 handheld receiver, freqency range of .5-1300MHz.
With SIG NAVI function and separate rotary controls for squelch, volume, and VFO. SSB, CW, AM, FM, and wideband FM. Cellular blocked but even unblocked receivers cannot hear cellular due to them being digital nowadays. Cable for computer control, software, 4 rechargeable batteries, and manual.

I haven't used the computer control but its a simple cable. Software is included, but I read that newer software is available, see these links for more information. http://uk.geocities.com/blakkekatte/http://groups.yahoo.com/group/Icom_R-10/

Four NiMH rechargeable batteries are included, which are more valuable than the AC adapter. I have misplaced the AC adapter since I only used it with batteries. Lightly used since I rarely go outdoors and mostly use a PCR-1000 base scanner. $350 CAD obo.

705. Splitter For Two Scanners ?

Hi,

I have two scanners, which I would like them to share a single (Scantenna) antenna in my attic.

Only one scanner will ever be on at any time.
But, I would like to "permanently" have both scanners attached to the single antenna.

What would you recommend as a reasonably low cost splitter for this ? (is Splitter the right term ?)

What type of losses would I expect ?

Just out of curiosity, would the losses be the same if I was actually to use both scanners at the same time compared to just one of them ?

Thanks,
Bob

Ham radio is an old hobby, with mostly older people using it. Older people slow down as they age. Trying to tap out ANY speed code with arthritis or carpal tunnel syndrome isn't going to work for that majority.
I re-considered renewing my license about 5 years ago. Today I know I can't tap out 5 wpm. Forcing this outmoded relic of communication on an aging generation is nonsense.

Well now you cant take a propper Morse test even if you wanted to in the UK.
Now the amateur radio licence is free to renew online. If you want to play with digital communication using very low bandwith how about PSK31? Anyway
I thought this old troll would be best posted in uk.radio.amateur

I believe 'ham' radio is dying, because there is only so many times you can give radio checks and tell others what kind of equipment you have. If I tune to a ham repeater on my scanner, I hear the same conversations I heard 10 years ago, one guy telling another one what type of radio he has connected to what kinda antenna.
Every once in a while you'll hear someone announce the monthy meeting, or some one telling his wife he's caught in traffic and will be late getting home (which he could have done on a cell phone at 1/100th the cost, and not everyone would know he wasn't home)

Ham radio is dying because its outdated, yes you can 'call across the counrty' to another 'ham' for mere pennies (once you buy the expensive equipment, put up a god awful ugly antenna, as big as your garage, and pass all the tests to allow you to do it) I can do the same thing using a cell phone with No Test, No Huge antenna, and can call ANYONE that happens to have a phone and as a bonus... the whole world can't listen.

As far as being a hobby and 'fun', well maybe, but I hear more people on ham radio talking about the time they have in doing antenna swaps and maintance, that I just can't even imagine that being 'fun'.

Ham radio is much like the mail service, who actually sends a friend or family a written letter anymore ? you may get a birthday or christmas card with a 'note', you'll get 'bills' and junk mail, but when is the last time you either got or sent a long letter to a friend or family? Newer technology has rendered 'mail' obsolete, you have telephones, e-mail, instant messangers, and FAX if you really have to send a piece of paper, like a copy of a document.

Perhaps if they had dropped the 'code' requirements 30 years ago, they would have picked up a lot of new users, but as far as I can tell, most of the new HF class users have just upgraded from their

'tech' status with very few NEW members actually jumping on the band wagon.

Back in 2001, Seattle had an earthquake (a small biggie- lots of damage) and guess what, the cell phone system went down (up to 4 to 5 hours) and landline phone system was trashed since everyone was calling either 911 or their relatives, or what not.

BUT

Ham radio was alive and well, and we at the Western Washington Medical Services group were able to maintain contact with the regions hospitals, and blood banks, as well as other emergency services.

So, yes ham radio is maybe dying, but it is also a true and able way to comminicate. Also note: when San Francisco had its earthquake, it was again ham radio that got the word out to the world, since their cell phone systems went down, and their landline system was in the same shape!

Ok this makes me laugh, cell phones were down 4 to 5 hours ..... so WHAT ? and regular land lines were trashed since people were USING them (I thought thats what they were for ... to be USED)

And WHAT EXACTLY were the emergencies that 'HAM' radio handled for these hospitals and blood banks (that the red cross radio services couldn't have handled) ?

OK again laughable ..... 'hams' got the word out 'That San Fransisco had an earthquake' ? What CNN, ABC, NBC, etc weren't there ? sending out live feeds via satellite ? (Hams probably used slow scan TV to send out images .... again to other hams) And where was FEMA and the local police and fire (probably using there radios 'to get the word out') And lets not forget local radio & TV stations .... I'm sure they sat and waited for the HAM radio operators to do their work for them.

And WHO exactly did you get the word out to ? Other hams, who were miles away and couldn't do anything to help anyway ? If the power was out MOST people tune to an AM or FM radio station on a battery powered radio.
So I'm sure that was a BIG help.

I've heard this crap about 'in case of disaster HAM radio is there', what exactly can a HAM do that someone with a CB, cell phone, or smoke signals can't ?
If hams want to be helpful why don't they fill sand bags during a flood ? or take boats out looking for people ? No .... they want to sit at home or car and press the 'push to talk' button (which I think the Red Cross, Fema, and numerous other agencies already have covered)

A few years ago there was a hurricane that disrupted the area around Louisiana and Mississippi called Katrina. Amateur radio did a pretty good job of helping out there:

http://www.msnbc.msn.com/id/9228945/

http://www.computerworld.com/securitytopics/security/recovery/story/0,10801,104418,00.html

http://radio.about.com/od/amateurshortwave/a/aa090405a.htm

http://technocrat.net/d/2006/2/28/985

I'm sure you could have handled it better with your CB radio and cell phone that had no service.

Quoted from one of your articles:

"On Monday, Aug. 29, a call for help involving a combination of cell telephone calls and amateur radio led to the rescue of 15 people stranded by floodwaters on the roof of a house in New Orleans.
Unable to get through an overloaded 911 system, one of those stranded called a relative in Baton Rouge.
That person called another relative, who called the local American Red Cross."

Sounds like they had 'CELL SERVICE' to me ......

yeah, I've already 'heard' about that one, they were down for 4 or 5 hours, hardly a big deal. Usually when they are going to be out longer than that, they bring in portable cell sites (generator powered), and can cover the majority of the effected area.

Don't think it really hurt anyone to wait for the few hours to call relatives,
and tell them they were OK.

And from what I understand, the Red Cross and some other agencies had 'hams' operating their (the agencies) radio equipment since they were short handed, and assumed that the hams already knew how to operate a radio.
(which is a really HARD job, considering, you just push a button and talk, then release the button and listen) Its not like the old days when HAMS really knew how to build, work on, and actually OPERATE a radio (which years ago was actually some what complicated). As it is now, 90+% of hams BUY a radio, take it out of the box, and if it needs service, they take it to the service tech.

Amature radio contributed alot, in years past, many new radio designs were credited to ham's, when there was JUST land lines (and they were poor), if they went down, hams could call to the next city, county, or state.

But like I posted earlier, its like the mail service ..... its outdated.

Not at all- especially if you need medical aid.

Good point- You should invest in one of those to pull behind your fiero.

Who cares about those calls? Emergency communications dude- reporting critical shit. Telling mom you are alive is not emergency comms.

Fine by me.

No doubt- but it still has a role- especially when all the non-outdated equipment fails when the shit hits the fan.

The Pro 96 has had several DSP modifications released for it by Radio Shack. These modifications make the Pro-96 and its tabletop brother the 2096 into excellent scanners for monitoring the Detroit towers. The Uniden scanners are vastly inferior and have not had any DSP modifications made by Uniden in order to improve their performance with systems such as the Detroit (Tower 701) MPSCS system.

chances of a ham radio operator being 'at hand' at that time, is about the same as flagging down a squad or a police car.

I'm sure you have the statistics to back that up. It's obvious you see no value in the ham radio system as it is today- that's fine with me. I think redundant, reliable 2 way communications can only help when things go to hell.

Actaually no I don't have statistics, to back that up, (The number of sworn officers of local agencies in USA is 1.5 per 1,000 of population.) that means that there would be at least 450,000 police alone, but there are well over 1 million police and fire personel in the USA, somehow I don't believe ham radio carries quite that number, last I heard.(the ARRL reports 150,000-members) So actually finding a police or EMS/Fire person, should be easier.

in 2000 there were almost 700,000 licensed hams in the US.

Ok so we argree that the chances are roughly (give or take a few percentages) that a ham on a scene is about as good as finding an 'emergency' ( police/fire) person.

And I never said there wasn't a 'place' for ham radio, as a hobby its great, if thats what you enjoy, (same as me restoring 20 year old cars and listening to my shortwave (talk about a dying hobby), or my scanners, (also evolving, to digital and a pain in the butt)
I even own a couple Yeasu FT767 GX+ rigs, 1 with filtered speaker, and the other with the phone patch speaker
Both have the 6m, 2m, 70cm modules (both came that way),
They make FANTASTIC shortwave radios.

Don't get me wrong, I love radio, radios, and radio equipment (I've spent thousands of dollars on radios) The one I cherrish the most, is probably my 1938 Zenith 9 tube Walton tombstone tube radio.

Justifying HAM radio by its NEED in a emergercy, just isn't as true as it was 30, 40 or 50 years ago. As a hobby, I say go for it, but don't expect people to believe that ham radio is NEEDED.

What annoys me, is the jackass's that clung to CW like it was the very heart of ham radio. Its outdated (a relic from before the civil war) Had these people changed the rules 30 years ago and got more and younger people interested, ham radio might not be where it is today.

Another thing that annoys me about HAM radio (or should I say its users) is, well read this and you figure it out :

He has 'access' to the ham bands WITHOUT becoming an Amateur Radio operator, just like everyone else. Since he mentioned 'scanning' (listening), anyone can do that.
I have many radios, some shortwave, some scanners, some wide band receivers that do both.
I enjoy listening, but have NO desire to become a ham radio operator.

Hello,

I have decided to clean out some items sitting around that I don't use anymore.

I have a like new and working perfect Radio Shack PRO-2042 1000 Channel Scanner that tops my list.

I bought it new and have hardly used it. Still have manual too.

Seems like I paid about $500.00 dollars for it when it was purchased.

My question is what is it worth now?

Thanks, Mike SW FL

Contrary to what was told to you, digital is still only a small percentage of transmissions that your scanner will receive.
Granted they will continue to grow, as mandated by the FCC, but it will take many years to happen, so your scanner still has some worth.

It was a good suggestion to 'check' ebay and see what they are going for, average the price of several if you can find that many and ask about 20% less on a newsgroup (you'll still get about the same for it you just won't have to pay e-bay their cut for listing it)

The 2042 was a good scanner in its day, as was the 2035 the 2042 is an improved version of the 2035.

I have 9 friends using them- one with 4 units. On the waterfall, we can see 1296 MHz EME (through a transverter) that we cannot even hear audibly.

Good luck...they seem pretty hard to find.

This model was my first scanner. In fact, I owned two of them at one time. They were pretty easy to mod. Unfortunately, I sold them both to co-workers who were interested in getting into scanners. In case you didn't already know about it, there is a method for opening up the tuning range to include shortwave.

Using I80 to Cheyenne, then I25 south to Denver.

Does anyone know what freqs i should put in to monitor the various state highway patrol, county sherriffs, even possibly local pd?

I have several scanners that do the VHF (lo and hi) as well as uhf. I do have one 800 mhz unit, howevr it is not trunking, but if I put in all the freqs in an area, I can monitor everything.

Thanks in advance for any advice anyone can give.

Is there anyway to adjust the sensitivy of the squelch? The "Auto" function will not receive any channels. I have the "Squelch" knob adjusted to just above the lowest threshold and receive local stations OK. I was wondering if there is a way to adjust this with one of the pots inside the radio. Any help is appreciated.

Why don't you ask the dolts that issued that stupid "callsign" to assist

If you are in the Metropolitan DC area, I have one that you can have.
Last time I played with it, it gave me the low batt beep even with a been collecting dust for the last 4 or 5 years. Has the cell & 400

I'm completely new to scanners, want to scan emergency traffic (police, firefighter etc). As far as I understand this scanner can scan all those frequencies--as a matter of fact all the sub-shortwave freqs besides the cellphone. Am I correct? I'm in a very large metropolitan area(NYC) and wondering if I'm ok in a setting like this. Also heard that some police departments use some kind of scrambling or some such thing. Can I still listen in to the good stuff with this device.

Here is a link at amazon.com
http://www.amazon.com/UNIDEN-BC-246T-Compact-Hand-Scanner/dp/B0002QIAP4/ref=pd_bbs_sr_1/002-9449417-8266413?ie=UTF8&s=electronics&qid=1181271202&sr=1-1

Also, several years back I've bought my first shortwave from some place on the internet (NOT universal-radio) and they were really nice to me and so I would like to give them my business again but for the life of me can't remember who they were other than they were one of the major resellers. Website had alot of red colors and there weren't any pictures just links to the product descriptions.
Any ideas who that was.

thanks a bunch for all the help.

Why would "they" wish to assassinate your character?

Well, let's put it this way - just because this is the first time it's happened in this way, from these people, on this scale, doesn't mean that it hasn't happened before, on a lesser scale. At university there were people who quite overtly hated me and would have wished something nasty to happen to me. Because of where I went making the wrong sort of enemies is pretty deadly.

"They" would wish to assassinate my character because it had all been done before, and because they knew I would not be able to react in any other way than I'd reacted previously.

This was four, five years ago... sorry, I don't remember. I can remember individual incidents, words which were repeated by different people at different times in different locations.

Around the end of 1992 Private Eye rtan a front-cover with John and Norma Major, with the title "Major's support lowest ever" and John saying to Norma "Come back norma" on the front cover. What can you read in to that? Not a lot, seems like standard fare for PE. The first time I saw it I was in the pub with some people from work. One was expressing doubts to the other (let's call the first one Simon, shall we? and the second one Phil?) about whether what was going on was right. Phil's answer was that if Private Eye was doing it then it must be ok, "they're usually right".

A few days later, again near work, there were some students laughing in the street, "Were you COMING BACK later? But I thought you said you were COMING BACK ha ha ha?" Play on words, you see. Not very nice, either. I had start medication soon afterwards. Clever people, these chaps who think up PE titles. Just slightly lacking in any sense of morality.

What was the date of the broadcast ?
Out of 2 million plus listeners, why should you be the only one that Tarrant was allegedly referring to ?

Sometyime in spring 1994. I can't remember the date, I heard the broadcast in the car - I was going into the office from London that day and just happened to snap on the radio, and hey presto! Mr Tarrant gives us the benefit of his excellent understanding.

It's an alias. I'm not English by ethnic origin. If someone manages to pronounce

No. Never. Not directly.

>>> ##: Also, in summer 1992 I went on a trip abroad to Europe by coach,

What was the name of the coach company and your date of departure ?

It was a national express coach. At dover we boarded a ferry for Holland somewhere.
The company that organized the trip went out of business some time ago, so they won't have records of passengers - so we can't get any corroboration from anyone else that way. We tried all that last summer, ran into a brick wall.

The other thing is in summer 1992 I was visibly ill, so other people in the party might remember that more than anyone getting at me on the coach trip.

Why were you being painted as a "threat"; is this related to a "deep,dark, secret" ?

Aaaarrrrgh. I think I should make clear that that's their created justification rather than the real reason. They started harassing first and then came up with the reasons for it.

>>>
>>> ##: I think I know who set me up.

Who ?

Someone who knew me some time ago. Someone who would have been able to talk this little campaign into existence.

Is this true ? What is the medication and dosage ?

Yes, I'm afraid so. Sulpiride, 200mg a day. It's designed to stop people coming up with the sort of ideas you've heard here for the last few weeks. Give him a higher dose!!

In the long term it causes tardive dyskinesia, tardive dementia and general nasty stuff to your brain. So it's three years of sulpiride talking to you here.

In a real catastrophe or disaster, it is unknown how a society's infrastructure will be damaged. Who knows -- maybe transportation, maybe communications, maybe government, maybe something else, will collapse. That's part of why you have redundant backup systems (like HAM radio) in the event of an emergency. True, HAM radio is not the most efficient available today, but like in a situation like hurricane Katrina, when government, communications, transportation, etc., have collapsed, it is a handy backup system.

This is ridiculous. Once again, police have a double standard. A nice cover, too, in case they break the law. Sure, use the "in the name of well you're right on the level of experience that you probably interact with the public and the police ..... but look at it from their perspective. day in and day out , the police only have the opportunity to interact with the bottom feeders, scum suckers , and dregs of humanity. they hardly ever associate with or interact with the average John Q Public .... to the police , nearly all people ( that aren't wearing blue) that they see are human waste. people are shooting them in the face for a traffic ticket stop , they are ducking bullets or fists around every corner and up every block. sad as it is, that's what this world has come to. neighborhoods are riddled with registered sex offenders (never mind the ones that haven't been caught yet) , cars are stolen by the 1000s from all neighborhoods , car chases are rampant , bank robberies happen all the time , murders are a daily thing (more than one a day in this part of the country) and THATS only a small part of the story !

If I was a cop, I wouldn't want the possibility of the " perps " having any " inside " information or radio tip offs any more than possible. if that hacked off some general citizens or made them start talking " police conspiracy " then I'd be tempted to say " bring that hacked off citizen down here on the beat with the boys in blue and duck a few bullets , chase a few bank robbers or sex offenders and see what they thought about it all afterwards.

do you want the sex offenders to be able to monitor MDT and police communications ? ..... what about the drug dealers and pimps , or maybe the gang bangers while they invade your home or rape your wife
?? if YOU do it, you gotta let everyone do it as well .... forget about the terrorists , homeland security is a WHOLE lot more in jeopardy from home grown crime right here , all around us. think it's so important for YOU to listen in that " all the perps " should be able to as well ??

I wanna listen in , but I know it's for the best if NO ONE does. it's like a lot of things in this world that the actions of a few have screwed up things for the rest of us ..... trouble is there is WAY more than a few bangers, rapists, murders, car thieves, and robbers lurking out there these days .... WAY more than a few.

do cops screw up ?? .... sure they do ..... everyone does from time to time ..... but think what your world would be like without them ..... think long and hard . they aren't perfect , but they work 24 hours a day to make our lives a little bit better and most do a pretty go job in the process.

You make some valid points there. I'll give you the benefit of the doubt that you live in a city where police are actually fighting crime. Unfortunately, in my city, the police are rather corrupt, partially not their own fault, but because of my town's city council. I can't walk to work without bumping into a drug dealer downtown begging me for money/cigarettes/etc., but if I take a stroll in the ritzi white upper class district, it is crawling with cops (the excuse is that they are doing "radar training"). If you don't want people to talk "police conspiracy", show your hand to the public, and don't hide.

ha ah a ..... it's kinda opposite what you see around here. I admit that I do live in the north side (upscale) part of my town , but this town is nationally famous for having the 2nd highest national poverty rate (2nd to Cleveland , Ohio and this is California) , it has the highest car theft rate in the west , and the highest amount of people out of work and not looking for employment (about 237,000 people unemployed and not looking for work) . more than 57% of the town is latino and 17% asian , the rest mixed including whites.
it has an estimated 170,000 illegal immigrants living here as well.

the cops are thick as flies down in the less fortunate parts of town but nearly invisible up here in the north side. I will say that I'm impressed with them tho .... as I called them about someone in a neighbor's yard a few weeks ago (my neighbor that had lost his keys and was trying to break into his own house) ... and in less than 3 minutes there were 3 patrol cars and a helicopter here on scene.
people in the less fortunate parts of town complain they can't get a cop to come for 1 to 2 hours and that ' we " get special treatment
..... perhaps I'm inclined to agree with those complaints as I certainly got fast service when I called. this town has over 16,000 registered gang bangers and thousands more " associates " .... and the local cops have waged " war " on gangs with full out efforts to get rid of them.

cops get shot and killed around here quite frequently (usually by bank robbers and gang bangers) and they have a very messy job in these parts of the country. I wouldn't trade places with one of them

, no matter what the pay they receive. they earn every penny of it
.... the hard way.

I live in the upscale part of town, too, but even then, I can't get a cop even when I need one, unless they are raising funds. I had a pair of cops come TO MY DOOR with the "fraternal order of police"-crap. I once waited FOUR HOURS for a stray dog call, and finally brought the dog to the local park ranger on foot (I can't drive). My friend had his van broken into, and the answer from the police was "we're too busy".
Where do you live? I live in Asheville, NC.

2 events that are hardly 911 calls. Stray dog, you should have called animal control. If the robbers weren't there tearing the van open when you called.
it's just a cold case.

Hi,

Bought a bcd396t last weekend and was really excited about scanning. Never owned one or new anything about it. I turned it on and cleared all memory first, since my area didn't seem to be pre-programmed. I live in Bay Point CA, 94565. Sat outside my house to see what was going on on a Saturday night. I did an automatic search for police activity and had one or two frequencies that gave me some messages every once in a while. Was hard to understand too by the way

Is this all there is to it, or should it be more exciting? I expected more action on a Saturday night, especially in my area, but all I got was a message every once in a while. Or should I not use the automatic search, because it doesn't work properly?

Is the automatic search able to find all different frequencies, like trunking, conventional, etc...?

I guess I'm confused because it didn't give me the action I was hoping for.

I returned the unit on sunday...very disappointed, but maybe someone could tell me I'm wrong and I need to do certain things to get this unit to work.

thanks

I lived in Spring Lake for about a year (82nd airborne) but that was a long time ago. it always seems like places back east are " enormously " different than living out here. seemingly nicer and much quieter in many ways. NC has also grown a lot since I lived there as well.

I live in a smallish (agricultural) town for this state , only a little over a million people here (legal ones , maybe another 300K total illegals in the county) . many people live here for the (hahahah) lower relative living costs and commute to the mega metros for work (10's of millions) . I think the S.F. metro is about the same size as the entire population of NC and the L.A. metro probably about 2 1/2 times the S.F. metro. of course add another 28 to 36 % on top of those values for the illegals.
we have WAY too many people and WAY too much over crowding here and as a result we have the typical policing issues that go with all those people.

here in my town we have " traffic " task forces that set up road checks in different parts of town every weekend and during the week as well. during an average traffic check point , they get around 10 - 12 drunk drivers and tow about 150 cars. one out of every 4 and sometimes one out of every 3 cars they check have insurance, D.L. or registration issues and they ticket the driver and impound their car until they fix the problem. this and they only stop every 4th or 5th car because of the traffic backing up . h aha hah aha I've noticed that they do seem to " wave through " older drivers in expensive cars most of the time and don't mess with those types of vehicles, but if you've got an older , beat , car ..... look out jack
!! the city does have " swarms " of motorcycle (10, 15, 20 at a time) cops that will blanket parts of town and hammer drivers.
our part of town seems like a favorite place for them to " hang " too
! ya yahahah a we need it tho, drivers out here have become increasingly " psycho " and people blatantly and intentionally pull out in front of you, run red lights , and run stop signs (to mention a few) to such a degree that I can't explain how bad it's gotten.

if I told you, you wouldn't believe me , but it's totally shocking how driving quality has degenerated here. it's far worse , too, here than in the larger metros for some reason. just too many of the " ME , get the hell out of my way " people in these parts.

think about this too ....

where you live there are lush wild forests and beautiful fauna.
a nice , natural, outdoors type place at the edge of the local forested mountains.

where I live is a little bit different. it's filled with lush green as well. palm trees, citrus, pit fruit, grapes, and towns filled with every imaginable fragrant flower and plant , this ....all year around .... also at the edge of lush mountain giant redwood forests ....

nearly a paradise of color and fragrance. the most beautiful place man can " imagine " to live in ..... this is the place. kewl huh
???..... WELL maybe not ....

if " man " didn't live here and irrigate the place , it's natural state is a wide deep (14,600' mountains on the east side, 1,800' mountains and ocean on the west side) TOTALLY barren desert with almost no plants of any kind. maybe a few tumbleweeds and scraggly oak trees in the few wet spots.

" the most beautiful place man can " imagine " to live in " is the key part of this. this entire place is TOTALLY synthetic. NONE of these exotic plants would be here if man didn't bring them here and plant them. NONE of these plants (for the most part) would grow together in the wild , anywhere on the planet. man imagines this place and creates it from their desire to be surrounded by fragrance and lush tropical plants. every where you look , everything you see is a totally manmade , " created " , imaginary environment. perfect lush green little golf course type yards, places filled with massive palm trees, fragrant coastal juniper, magnolia, dozens of kinds of eucalyptus, loquat and giant fern trees cover the landscape. a complete " synthetic " paradise !!! when I sit out back on my veranda in my jacuzzi (hah aha) every day and look out at the neighborhood , I see quite a different environment than people back east see. it's beautiful for sure, the flower and tree fragrances are fantastic ... BUT .... it's " all that " ... except when you think about it , there is a slightly ODD tilt to it all ..... it's a little bit twisted if you allow your mind go there , isn't it ! yayayay ahah ah ah a California IS different for sure ..... but is that necessarily a good thing ??? hummmmmmm ...

You called someone on both cases. Your words. plus the reference 911 = urgent. Of which neither one was a 911 call.
The van, only thing you'd do is fill out a stolen property report [at the station].
Both cases you expected more than what the police are paid to do. And if as you say they're stretched to breaking with a high crime area, the answers make perfect sense.

Your misintepretation. Their website even gives a number to call in the event of stray animals. Get over it, you misread the post.

You had a very powerful scanner in your hands. I blame the person you bought it from for not showing you how to use it or at least program local agencies in it.

Scanning is a great hobby but it's not a turn it on and listen kind of thing. You have to do some research of your area. A great place to start is www.radioreference.com . They have the most extensive database for police/fire/rescue . I looked up Bay Point, CA and see it's in Contra Costa County. Here's a listing for that county: http://www.radioreference.com/modules.php?name=RR&ctid=189 .

As you were scanning you were probably picking up bits and pieces of a "trunked" system. You can listen to it but it's hard to follow if you don't have your scanner set properly to listen to a trunked system. Here are the basics of a "trunked" system.

http://wiki.radioreference.com/index.php/Trunking

Hope you reconsider.

I bought it at Fry's, but nobody there who knew anything about it.
When bought it, I had already looked at the website you mentioned, and entered the frequencies for police for my city. Every once in a while I could here someone talking for 1 or two seconds, but it seems that I should have heard much more than just a dispatcher going back and force only a few times an hour. Also, I found only 2 channels when I did the automatic search . I would expect to find much more. This was around 11 PM. I would still expect airplaines, Fire department, etc...I'm in the middle between two cities here(less than 2 miles), so there should be lots of stuff going on.

How would one be able to program a trunking system then if the search is only for Convetional? also, I'm not sure if my PD uses digital or not. Is the search able to auto-detect digital as well?

The user's manual that came with it is probably the worst manual I've ever read. Only today I found out about squelch. The manual said to set the squelch, but it didn't explain what squelch was and what to set it to. So, I put it in the middle when I tried the scanner and left it there.

I would love to give it another try, but I am very sceptical now unless I can see somebody show it to me in my area...

I understand that the police uses codes. It's just weird I pick up only one or two dispatcher calls with a single reply in about half an hour or so.

Maybe I should ask someone to show me exactly how to program it. Does the software that you can buy for it program it for you (i.e. arc396)?

Best thing I can tell you is to check the forum for California http://www.radioreference.com/forums/forumdisplay.php?f=37 and place a request for help.
I'm positive you will find someone close to your area who would be willing to give you a hand..

thank you guys for all the info.

I think the california forum will be usefull. I went back to Fry's tonight, and I also went to RadioShack. Nobody there was of any help and couldn't tell me anything I didn't know yet. What I would really like to know is:
1) What can one expect to find when one does an automatic search (How do I know the thing works)
2) How do you listen to a trunking channel (i.e., do you just program
1 frequency. I thought multiple sources share the same frequency)
3) How can you tell if a Police Department uses digital technology (is this mentioned on the frequencies website on radioreference.com)
4) How do I know my antenna is good enough. Is the stock antenna for the 396T good enough. I live in the hills, so I though I have best reception. It seems there's a tower almost in my backyard).
5) I read somewhere that you need a special antenna (800 Mz). Not sure what it is for. There's also 400Mhz antenna;s. Do they all fit?

As you can see. I'm really a novice. I think I expect too much to be done for me. It's just I don't feel like spending the $600 for something I might not be able to use.

Thanks,

Michel

If you did a search and only picked up a few random transmissions, there was something wrong with the radio, or, you had the squelch turned up way too high. I wouldn't be surprised if you would have opened it up, to see the antenna lead wasn't soldered, or some other problem. Uniden's QC is not the greatest, but seems to have improved lately. The 396 is a very complex radio, and I personally like the Radio Shack Pro-96 better, for it's audio quality alone. It's also simpler to use, and cheaper too.
It's supposed to be on closeout soon, to be replaced by a new model, with more features. When it does close out, it should be 399.95 or less.

www.radioreference.com tells you everything you need to know about that.

The conventional trunked freqs can be listened to, but it's very annoying to do so when there is heavy traffic. On digital stuff, all you'll hear is a grinding noise, but you should hear something.

You want it as low as possible, just so it doesn't open (You hear something) when it's not supposed to. If you had it set way too high, it would explain almost all your problems. I've never seen the 396 manual, but I've never seen ANY scanner manual that doesn't explain how the squelch works. On some radios, if the squelch is set "halfway" you won't hear much, if anything. I've been using scanners for almost 40 years, and still occasionally accidentally set the squelch up really high. I still hear a lot, since I am right across the river from a local Police transmitter, and it will make it through about any squelch setting.

From your location, you should be able to hear Martinez, Concord, Antioch, Oakley, and more, without any problem. Since it's not all that far away for you, go here, they can explain anything you need to know, and sell you a radio too.

http://www.scannersunlimited.com/

And I would bet they either know about, or are members of a scanner group for your area.

You should hear a lot of traffic. Some freqs should be very busy, like local police, and the airband 118-138mhz AM mode should have a lot of San Francisco traffic on it. You won't, or probably won't hear the towers very well, if at all, but the planes can be heard from a long ways away, because of the height they are at.

> 2) How do you listen to a trunking channel (i.e., do you just program

You have to put the radio into trunking mode to do it right, but you can listen to a NON digital one just by putting the freqs in and scanning them. When it gets busy, it's annoying to listen to that way, and following a conversation, or chase (like I did last night) is nearly impossible.

> 3) How can you tell if a Police Department uses digital technology (is

Yes, it is on radioreference.

You should be ok with the stock one. Too much antenna on a handheld is sometimes a problem (It overloads the radio). You can always get one later on.

> 5) I read somewhere that you need a special antenna (800 Mz). Not sure

You probably don't need it, and don't worry about it for now.

$600 is too much. About $520 is the going price:

http://www.scannerworld.com/

http://www.usascan.com/files/bcd396T.cfm

I would make the drive to scanners unlimited, in San Carlos, and get info and a radio from them. They can probably program it for you, or tell you who to talk to in your area to get the right freqs. The local scanner group (There has to be one) members will know about everything there is to know about your local area.

I'm a customer, not connected in any way:

769. What New Antenna, If At All ?

Hi,

I have a Uniden 996 scanner and would really like to pick up some marine traffic from Boston Harbor.
Live about 20 miles due west of the harbor.

Have a Scantenna antenna which I think is "pretty good". It's up in my attic.

It's omni directional, and broadband over the typical scanner ranges (supposedly).

I can often pick up coast guard conversations, but very rarely (but ooccassionally) ship traffic
Do you think a dedicated, very directional, and tuned to the marine freq's would help, or am I just too far away.

Any thoughts on, or antenna suggestions would be most appreciated.
No idea what to buy, if you feel it's worth a try ?

Very interested in the AIS data being transmitted by ships at around 162 MHz, as well as general marine stuff.

BTW: really surprised that I hear the CG at all. I would have thought that their antennas would be "focused" out to sea, with any propagation going the other way (towards me) minimized to maximize the effectiveness of their radiated power in the direction that it's needed.

Thoughts ?

Thanks,
Bob

Think antenna system, rather than just antenna..

how good is your mounting location, antenna, coax, is the coax real long ? using cheap coax or better stuff. Are you blocked by hills , buildings ? trees ? Do you need directional antenna and rotor ?

The radio I bought had been used. It was $580. I looked up the prices on the links mentioned, what a difference. I thought it was nice to buy it in the store so I could get some help, but that was a mistake. It could be the radio wasn't working correctly, or my squelch was too high. I had to look up this term, since it wasn't explained in the manual. You can look i nthe online manual and see it wasn't explained. Only mentioned to set the squelch, but nowhere it explains what it was. I know now... thanks.

You're right, I should be able to hear Martinez, Concord, Antioch, Oakley.... I'm wondering. Should I be able to hear a lot of frequencies on the conventional system? And if squelch was too high, I would have heard nothing?

Also, maybe the frequency I was listening to was trunked. How would I know. I entered the following frequencies in my scanner but heard nothing:
Frequency Input License Type Tone CH Description Mode
460.15000 465.15000 KLP745 BMRF 127.3 PL 1 Dispatch FM
460.25000 465.25000 KLP745 BMRF 127.3 PL 2 Secondary FM
460.55000 465.55000 WPKV955 BMRF 127.3 PL 3 Tactical FM
154.71000 155.67000 KMC308 F 123.0 PL CLERS Diablo FM

How can I tell from this data if it is digital, trunked, or conventional? I couldn't find a chart on radioreference that explains these codes.

Last night I was listening to a live scanner feed on the web from Sacramento, CA and I heard non-stop conversations going on. I know I was doing something wrong, just don't know what.

I will keep reading guides until I understand and then probably buy another scanner again and give it another try.

Thanks so much for the advice and guidance. You've all been a really great help and encouraged me to go on solving this.

Michel

I just was able to find out if my PD or FD uses conventional or not.
It seems they use conventional. When I clicked on the license link that is shown in the frequency table it tells me what kind of system it is I believe. So, going back to the original question, why I couldn't hear anything still makes me wonder. I thought I had set the squelch somewhere in the middle, maybe around 4 or 6 or so. probably more on the lower end. I did an automatic search and throughout the whole scanning range it only stopped once or twice. Maybe the scanner was bad.

Maybe you should have ASKED how to use it BEFORE returning it ..... seems pointless to ask things now.

next time, try reading the manual (completely), look up frequency information (on line or in books), experiment a little (if you program something wrong, you didn't really do any damage), and then ASK questions BEFORE you return it.

These new scanners are not plug and play, they are getting quite sofisticated, and you actually have to learn about all the new technology (being used in the scanner and about the systems they are trying to receive)

As I mentioned, nobody knew anything about it at Fry's. I asked the whole department, but nobody who knew anything. If I knew the unit was good I would have put more time and effort in it. The manual doesn't provide any basic setup steps. Goes rimmediately into describing the systems: trunking, digital, etc... I did experiment for almost half a day. No luck. I did read the manual from the beginning, but very vague. No explanations except for the simple things like volume control and how to charge it. All preprogrammed systems where pretty much useless to my area..

Well duh for you.
You are supposed to figure out how to operate a high tech unit before taking it back.
If you are the type that can't even program a VCR timer then yeah, I'd say you made the right move.

You are right! They really don't explain squelch at all. But then again, since it's hardly a "beginner's" type radio, being probably the most complex handheld ever made, they probably figured you knew all about squelch. If you want to go with a digital capable scanner, I would recommend the PRO-96 from RS when it goes on sale for the last time.
It's much easier to use than the 396T, and has better audio, IMO.

Yeah, the airbands, Railroads, VHF low, VHF high, and UHF are nearly almost always conventional, or analog trunked, and you should hear all kinds of stuff. The air bands alone should be busy as hell with an airport the size of the SF one.

You just want the ones under "frequency" to start with, the others are sometimes monitored, for various reasons, but the input side won't be heard very far away.

It's just plain old FM! The mode tells you what it is. You're making this harder than it needs to be.

I think the radio was a dud. That's probably why it was brought back.

You still might have had the squelch set way too high, sometimes it's not a linear progression, like level 2 is twice times one and 3 is 3 times one, it might be 2 is 2 times one, and 3 is 2 times 2, so halfways might make the radio nearly deaf.

Really, it will make more sense to you if you have the radio in your hands when you try to figure this stuff out.

As a matter of fact, I do know how to program. I program in more than 10 languages, I speak 4 languages, I have AS, BS, MS degrees in computer science and AI, and I don't consider myself a novice when it comes to technology. In addition, I also program everything that comes with a good manual. How would I know the unit I bought operates as it should if the manual cannot describe a basic test to perform to see the unit is working properly. I expected to hear some basic frequencies when I did a search, but I could not hear anything. That's my problem. The documentation assumes one knows all the tweaks of the unit. I just didn't want to get in knee-deep before I know the basics are working. I think I do understand the basics, but somehow cannot make it work.

So here's what I did:
1) First I scanned the preprogrammed frequencies, but scanner didn't stop at any frequency.
2) Then I played with the squelch (didn't know what it was for, neither wasn't explained anywhere, neither wasn't pointed out what level to sit it to), so I put is in the middle
3) then did scan again, didn't matter. No conversations anywhere.
4) Then I reset the scanner.
5) then I did a search for frequencies. Found 1 or 2 frequencys, one was probably a PD, which only tracked a dispatch every few minutes, no real conversations going on. The other one I found during a search was a boater or so.
6) I live in the middle of the action, but wasn't able to find anything
7) I drove around, tried close calls, etc...nothing ...
8) I did try the FM radio, that seemed to work
9) I assumed either the unit was not working properly or the whole scanning thing must be really boring since I only here a dispatcher once every 5 minutes talking for 2 seconds,
10) I also entered some of my area's frequencies found on radioreference.com, but they were dead as well.

So, obviously I am missing something

Maybe the squelch wasn't set correctly. Still don't know what it does exactly. I read most people set it to either 1 or 2. If there's 15 settings for it, why would most people set it to either 1 or 2? shouldn't be somehwere average around 7, so one can go both ways?

Thanks :)

Quick suggestion ......

IF you go back and buy another one, get on Uniden's site and download any firmware updates (and the program to update the scanner) and also grab the FREE (good price) software they have for the radio, setup is pretty easy and straight forward ..... as long as you have a TRUE serial port on your computer, USB to serial convertors some (most) times DO NOT WORK right.

You'll spend a day or so just figuring out what to do within the software, but it makes programming the radio MUCH easier, since you don't have TONS of putton presses, and you can see what your doing in a "spread sheet" type enviroment.

There are numerous sites that have frequency and trunking information, (talk groups, Logical Channel Numbers, etc) on them. The software ALLOWS you to copy & paste from web pages, which makes it even easier.

Join Yahoo's "BCD396T" Group, and there is dozens of files in there, of programmed systems you can download and use. (If the system you WANT is not there, down load a few anyway and load them in to see what the other people have done (give you an idea how to set up systems)

The BCD396T & BCD996T (same radio different package - handheld/mobile) are GREAT radios, I am always finding something new to do with mine, or how to use a feature I didn't know what to do with the first time around.

Be patient, it does get frustrating because the radio does SO much its overwhelming
at first. Litle by little however it all starts to make sense.

Guess that wasn't such a 'quick' suggestion :o)

Spend the extra money and buy the BUTEL software for the 396.

You can then download systems directly from Radio Reference along with conventional frequencies now as well, right into the 296. No fuss, no muss.

It's a breeze, and well worth the $$$...

I turn the squelch down on mine to where I hear static. Then turn it up slightly where you don't hear the static. At this setting you should hear any sounds above the static level. If you don't want to hear weak signals from far away turn the squelch up more and you will only pick up the stronger signals.

I have the Pro-96 handeld from Radio Shack and I am thoroughly happy with it. The base station is the Pro-2096. If you get one of these I recommend getting Don Starr's Win96 software to program these guys: http://www.starrsoft.com/ . This, with a programming cable from RS helps programming the radio a breeze.

You should start seeing the Pro-96 going on sale because there is an updated radio coming out soon to replace it. I suspect that radios will be selling for around $350-$400 to get rid of stock.

I did indeed look at the software beforehand and it looks nice. I just wanted to make sure I could do some basics things, just to enjoy the evening, without spending hours gettings the software connection to work on the computer. I would definitely not get frustrated from being too overwhelmed. :) I just got frustrated because the basic simple thing didn't work.

And yes, I did pay $580 for a used one. I know now I got ripped off big time! I didn't think the firmware would solve my problem. It rarely ever does, normally only fixes some rarely used features or improves a little here or there. But it would have been worth a try.

So, right now I'm thinking about getting a new one instead of used and probably pay much less and maybe get a bundle with the software you guys mentioned.

Thanks so much, I'm really hopefull this time.

You can't expect the people at a big box electronics store to be knowledgeable about scanners. These are not like computers. They're a tiny part of the market. You aren't likely to find a knowledgeable geek at the store or living a few houses down the street.

The Radio Shack and Bearcat scanner manuals I've seen are dreadful. They're fairly complete, but the information is badly organized. It's fortunate that I have a background in electronics. I feel sorry for newbies who don't have that advantage.

It just happens that I have the BCD396T manual on my computer, since I've been thinking about buying one. Reading that manual is no walk in the park, even for somebody with experience in the hobby. The 396 is a marvelously advanced scanner, but when you combine its sophistication, and the poor manual, and a scanning novice, the result will probably be trouble. With a good deal of determination, I believe you could eventually learn it, though.

The web is a good resource, but take the info with a grain of salt. For example, I just went to the radioreference.com site and looked up my county. Maybe a third of the listed freqs are any good at all where I live.
Some of the info is outdated, but much of it's probably correct. Just because a freq is used somewhere in the county, doesn't mean it's audible everywhere in county.

When your search did pick some traffic, did you stop, monitor that frequency for awhile, and (if it was interesting) put that frequency in a channel? Once you have some channels loaded, switch from search mode to scan mode. Now the scanner checks only those channels. You get a lot more action because the scanner isn't wasting time checking all possible frequencies.

What part of the frequency spectrum did you search? If you simply search the full range of the scanner, it'll spend a lot of time tediously plowing through freqs where there's little to be found. Most of the good stuff is in the 148-174 and 450-512 MHz bands (or maybe 450-470, since I think 470-512 has TV in some areas).

You got that right.

People buy shit all the time for insane prices. I've had friends buy Icom, Kenwood, and Yaesu, etc "OEM" batteries for 2 or 4 times what a replacement should and does cost without the name on it. Where I work they bought telephone headsets for twice what I found them for online.

Even now, they still buy stuff for insane prices without checking first. I told the big boss I could save a ton of money if he made me the online buying agent. I would make the actual purchases, and would get a salary, or a base plus 10% of what I saved off the prices from the place they buy everything now. If I had that base plus 10%, I would have made 100 grand last year, easy.

I don't know why they never took me up on it!

They still buy almost everything from some really high priced place online, or a local place that's just as bad, if they need it right away. Yet they cry about the electric bills no end. I really don't get it.

The best thing to do is just connect the antenna to the one you are using at the time.
second best would be to use a switch not a spliter.
THe spliter will cut your signal to both scanners by more than 50% if you use both or not.

better than losing nothing , that mca204a model has a IP3 intercept point of +31 db ..... this will improve the front end overload performance of ANY consumer quality scanner (as opposed to $20,000 pro models) by a whole bunch ..... a WHOLE bunch. that and the unit boosts the front end gain just a little and has a nice low noise figure to boot. ..... this can make up for connector and maybe " some " line loss. this unit can add some " serious " performance enhancements for nearly all current home scanners.

 Welcome to rec.radio.info! ***

Welcome to rec.radio.info, a group that aims to provide a noise-free
source of information and news for the entire rec.radio hierarchy.

Two introductory articles about rec.radio.info are posted to the group every month. You are now reading the first article, which explains what rec.radio.info is, and answers some Frequently Asked Questions. The second article is titled Posting Guidelines, and you only need to read it if you want to submit an article to rec.radio.info.

You can skip to the next section of this article by searching for the next
" -- " string. The sections available are:
- What is the purpose of rec.radio.info?
- Why are messages almost always cross posted to rec.radio.info?
- What is a 'follow-up', and what does 'moderated' mean?
- OK, so now I know what 'moderated' means. Tell me more.
- What type of material is considered inappropriate?
- I do not have access to news, how can I get the information posted to
rec.radio.info?
- Will the material appearing in rec.radio.info be archived somewhere?
- I have a regular posting with timely information, is there a way to speed up it's delivery, or automate for more convenience?

-- What is the purpose of rec.radio.info?

The purpose or charter of rec.radio.info is to provide the Usenet community with a resource for information, news, and facts about any and all things radio.

All the other rec.radio groups are intended for discussions and general
chit chat about radio. Rec.radio.info will contain informational, factual articles only. Follow-ups are redirected to an appropriate other group, and further discussion (if any) will not take place in
rec.radio.info.

In order to ensure that rec.radio.info contains only appropriate articles, it was decided to create the group as a moderated newsgroup.
```

-- Why are messages almost always cross posted to rec.radio.info?

It provides a "tag" for each article to be assembled into a filtered presentation in rec.radio.info (even with cross-posting, only one message, with a unique Message-ID, is propagated across the net). This tag also facilitates a pre-existing method of dropping or canceling the articles locally within the discussion groups if you don't want to see them. This accommodates individuals who want to separate the bulletins from the discussions, discussions from the bulletins, as well as those who are adamant about not reading another newsgroup and wanted to see everything all in one basket.

With the total size of Usenet (in number of newsgroups and total traffic) doubling every year or so, this is no insignificant contribution to reducing information noise and chaos. Making the discussion groups a catch-all, and making extra newsgroups filters on that catch-all, is also the most realistic way to implement such a scheme (It's not intuitively obvious what the charter, contents, and general appropriate topics for each and every newsgroup are. Seeing FAQ's and charter/intro postings in the home newsgroup is beneficial for new readers).

By cross-posting one only is adding a few tens of bytes to each bulletin (to specify the extra group on the Newsgroups line), but are adding the capability for very powerful filtering features available on most news servers, listservers and readers. Your local news guru could probably explain these features in more detail.

In rn, for example, according to Leanne Phillips in her rn kill-file FAQ, add a line of the form:

/Newsgroups:.*[,]rec\.radio\.info/h:j

either in ~/News/KILL (if you don't want to see rec.radio.info articles anywhere) or ~/News/rec/radio/amateur/misc/KILL (if you don't want to see them just in rec.radio.amateur.misc). The latter method means your kill file will only be consulted during rec.radio.amateur.misc (and hence runs more efficiently), and will probably work for most people.

In nn, according to Bill Wohler in his nn FAQ, add a line of the form:

rec.radio.info:!s/:^

in ~/.nn/kill (if you don't want to see rec.radio.info articles anywhere), or put the following lines:

sequence
rec.radio.info
rec.radio.

at the end of ~/.nn/init in order to see all the rec.radio.info bulletins first, then read the remaining rec.radio.* without the bulletins.

-- What is a 'follow-up', and what does 'moderated' mean?

If you are new to Usenet and are not familiar with the terminology, you might want to read the general introductory articles found in the newsgroup news.announce.newusers. Doing so will make your life on the net much easier, and will probably save you from making silly beginner's mistakes.

If you think that at this moment you are reading an echo, a conference, or a bulletin board, I'd also strongly suggest a trip over to news.announce.newusers.

For the rest of this article, we will assume you have a basic knowledge of Usenet terminology and mechanics.

A moderated group means that any article that needs to be posted to the group has to be accepted by the moderator of the group. Since we need to ensure that followups to an article (discussion) do not show up in the rec.radio.info newsgroup, the `Followup-To:' header line contains a newsgroup that is appropriate for discussions about the specific article.

-- OK, so now I know what 'moderated' means. Tell me more.

Rec.radio.info is a moderated newsgroup, which means that all articles submitted to the group will have to be approved by the moderator first.

The current moderator of the group is the rec.radio.amateur.moderated Moderation Team. Submissions to rec.radio.info can be posted, or e-mailed to:

rec-radio-info@panix.com

Comments, criticisms, suggestions or questions about the group can be e-mailed to:

rec-radio-info-request@panix.com

But before you do so, please be sure to check out the "Posting Guidelines" article.

The influence of the moderator should be minimal and of an administrative nature, consisting chiefly of weeding out obviously inappropriate articles, while making sure correct headers etc. are used for the appropriate ones.

-- What type of material is considered inappropriate?

There are three broad categories of articles which will be rejected by the moderator:

1) Requests for information: rec.radio.info is strictly a one-way street. We receive information in our mailbox; we then post it to rec.radio.info. Requests for specific information belong in the normal discussion newsgroups. If your request gets answered, you might consider passing the answer on to rec.radio.info, though. Especially if you can edit it into a informational, rather than a discussion, format.

2) Obvious discussion articles, or articles that appear unsubstantiated.

3) Commercial stuff: a relatively unbiased test of a radio product would be accepted, but any hint of for-profit might be reason for rejection. For three reasons: This is not the purpose of the list, for-profit is a controversial topic, and this list may be passed onto Amateur Packet Radio (where for-profit is prohibited except under certain provisos).

rec.radio.swap may be more deserving of the posting in any matter.

Similarly, copyrighted material generally cannot be used. If it's TRULY worthwhile to the net, We would recommend obtaining permission from the copyright holder. Please note the source, and if permission was given. We reserve the right to make the final decision concerning appropriateness in all situations. In most cases, a brief summary of, or pointer to, the copyrighted information may be all we can allow.

-- I do not have access to news, how can I get the information posted to rec.radio.info?

Google has an excellent web interface to Usenet newsgroups. It is available at:

http://groups.google.com

It supports both reading and posting.

-- Will the material appearing in rec.radio.info be archived somewhere?

Yes. See Google Groups above.

Effectively this means that anything you post to rec.radio.info will be permanently stored, so your work will not be lost.

-- I have a regular posting with timely information, is there a way to speed up it's delivery, or automate for more convenience?

Yes, there is! It may take a bit of chatter with the moderator, but we are willing to take responsible people and provide them the means of posting the articles directly from their site. We will try everything we can as we fully realize that DX (distant signal) and astronomical data can be somewhat transitory. We are also willing to allow regular posters of information the same courtesy, even if the information is not as time critical.

We refer to this as self-moderation, which is partly based on the model for rec.answers/news.answers. This requires co-operation and goodwill to be beneficial to the community in the rec.radio hierarchy.

Please direct any comments, questions, or criticisms about this article to rec-radio-info-request@panix.com.

 rec.radio.info - Posting Guidelines and Etiquette ***

Two introductory articles about rec.radio.info are posted to this group and to rec.answers/news.answers every month. You are now reading the second article, which explains how to submit something to rec.radio.info, and which answers some Frequently Asked Questions about the submission process. The first article is titled "Welcome to rec.radio.info", and it might be a good idea to check it out as well.

-- How do I submit something to rec.radio.info?

Two possibilities. You can use your newsreading software to just post the article to rec.radio.info, as you would do with any other newsgroup. The difference is that the software recognizes the special status of rec.radio.info as a moderated group, and will e-mail your article to us, the moderation team, instead of posting it to the group.

Alternatively, you can mail your article directly to us at the following address:

rec-radio-info@panix.com

Mailing us directly is probably (a wee bit) faster, but using the transparency offered by the newsreading software is probably more convenient.

If you have any questions, or wish to deal with some administrivia with the moderation team, we suggest mailing to the following address:

rec-radio-info-request@panix.com

-- How soon will I see my article appear?

It depends on how busy we are. Your article reaches us as mail, we have to read it first, give it the stamp of approval, and finally send it on to the group. We will attempt to read and decide on all submissions within 72 hours at the very least, though we will probably be able to process submissions much faster in actual practice.

The site from which we moderate this newsgroup, "Public Access Internet and Unix, NYC" (Panix), is directly connected to the Internet, and articles posted at that site should appear at most major news sites, including Google Groups, the same day. The principal delay, therefore, will be the wait in the moderator's submission queue.

If you post a periodic article, and have shown to be trustworthy, we may allow you to post directly if the article is of a timely nature. See the section below on direct posting.

-- Should my article be in a specific format?

No. If it is not totally illegible, we will accept it, and if it does not have a correct subject-line we will correct it with your permission -- that's what a moderator is for.

However.

You could do us a big favor by making sure your article conforms to these simple requirements:

1) The article must present information, not discussion or requests, We will reject the article or require you to change the wording if it is worth it.
2) A good, descriptive Subject line.
3) Always mention what source you got the information from.
4) Don't forget to include a Followup-To header, at least if you don't want further discussion to automatically be forwarded to you, the poster, which is the default if the article is only posted to rec.radio.info.

As we said: if your article is appropriate we will post it even if you don't follow these guidelines, but then don't blame us for not processing it immediately. 'Perfect' articles we can send on with a couple of keystrokes. Stuff that needs minor editing is going to have to wait until we have time to do so.

Please do not waste both our and your time by posting requests, as this is an information only news group.

-- What about crossposting?

If you send something to rec.radio.info, just name any group you'd like to cross-post to in the Newsgroups field. Then, when we approve the article for rec.radio.info it will get automatically cross-posted to any other groups mentioned. This will also override the default Followup-To: poster, replacing it with the groups you cross posted to.

We would prefer if the group be cross-posted to the various discussion groups in the rec.radio.* hierarchy that are appropriate:

rec.radio.amateur.misc Amateur (ham) radio and related matters
rec.radio.amateur.packet Amateur Packet Radio discussions
rec.radio.amateur.policy Amateur Radio practices, rules, etc.
rec.radio.noncomm Non commercial radio discussions
rec.radio.shortwave International broadcasting on the 'HF' bands

rec.radio.cb Citizens Band (27 MHz) discussion
rec.radio.scanner Scanner discussions (unsupported group)

or in one of the moderated groups:

rec.radio.amateur.moderated Amateur radio practices, rules, etc.
rec.radio.broadcasting Discussion of domestic radio broadcasting

We will leave it up to the poster to decide which group(s) are appropriate, but reserve the right to add groups if we feel it has broader interest. We will consult with the poster first.

Notes on crossposting:

- rec.radio.broadcasting is also a moderated group. The rec.radio.broadcasting moderator prefers to review all articles himself before posting. Placing rec.radio.broadcasting before rec.radio.info on the Newsgroups line should accomplish this. We will typically abide by the rec.radio.broadcasting moderator's decision whether the article is appropriate for rec.radio.info.

- rec.radio.amateur.moderated is also a moderated group. As the rec.radio.amateur.moderated Moderation Team manages both rec.radio.amateur.moderated and rec.radio.info, we can manage crossposting and approvals for both newsgroups. The rec.radio.amateur.moderated group does not allow crossposting to other discussion newsgroups, whether moderated or unmoderated. However, we would like to manage rec.radio.info as consistently as possible with how it was done by previous moderators, including the grandfathering of existing regular postings. Therefore, the submitter can choose rec.radio.amateur.moderated or the other unmoderated rec.radio.amateur.* discussion newsgroups for crossposting, but not both.

- Any FAQ or informational posting approved by the rec.answers/news.answers moderation team that is also crossposted to any rec.radio.* newsgroup (besides just rec.radio.info) is also automatically pre-approved for rec.radio.info. See below for more information.

If you post to another moderated group, it may be better to make special arrangements with both moderators before posting by contacting us at our administrivia addresses.

In addition, cross-posts do not take up extra space; modern newsreaders can be configured to show you cross-posted articles only once anyway; not everybody reads rec.radio.info; and rec.radio.info was never meant to reduce the volume of the regular discussion newsgroups. But keep in mind that some of the mail gateways may filter out the informational postings (at request of the subscribers) to keep the load down.

You decide.

-- I have a regular posting with timely information, can I make arrangements to help speed up delivery by posting directly from my site?

Yes, there is! It may take a bit of chatter with the moderator, but we are willing to take responsible people and provide them the means of posting the articles directly from their site. We will try everything we can as we fully realize that DX (distant signal) and astronomical data can be somewhat transitory. We are also willing to allow regular posters of information the same courtesy, even if the information is not as timely.

We refer to this as self-moderation, which is partly based on the model for rec.answers/news.answers. This requires cooperation and good will to be beneficial to the community in the rec.radio.* hierarchy.

If you are currently maintaining (or plan to maintain) a radio-related periodic information posting, you may wish to consider crossposting it to rec.answers/news.answers. Postings that are approved by the rec.answers/news.answers moderators for this treatment are automatically pre-approved for crossposting to rec.radio.info (as the news.answers requirements are far more rigorous than the requirements this newsgroup ever plans to use). For more information about this option, consult the appropriate information articles and posting guidelines in rec.answers/news.answers.

Realize also, that even if your post is not approved for rec.answers/news.answers, it can still be approved for rec.radio.info. The intention is not so much to get every last bit of radio-related information on rec.answers/news.answers, but rather to provide an alternative avenue of approval (as well as grandfather existing maintainers of radio-related information and spare them additional bureaucratic hurdles). Again, crossposting to either rec.radio.info or rec.answers/news.answers, both, or neither, is at the discretion of the poster (subject to the approval of the moderators). You decide what is most appropriate for your article.

Please remember that as an information maintainer, you are not alone. There are many others on the net who maintain and post periodic information postings, using various intermediate-to-advanced features of Usenet (usually via automated tools). Various degrees of technical support and general hand-holding are available from many Usenet veterans. Send us some E-mail describing your needs to our administrative address below, and we'll try to help, or at least refer you to the right knowledgeable individual(s).

-- And Follow-ups?

If the only newsgroup you have specified is rec.radio.info, then the Followup-To: field will always be set to poster. If you do not want this, you must supply a Followup-To line of your own, and we will honor that one, as long as it is a subset of the original Newsgroups line.

If you specify newsgroups to cross-post to, then the Followup-To field will be set to include all the cross-posted groups, excepting rec.radio.info itself. Again, if you do not wish this behavior, supply your own Followup-To line.

We maintain other standards on the various RFC-1036 (news transport) header lines. For example, if the article is appropriate for passing into the Packet Radio Information Network, we encapsulate the Packet Bulletin Identifier (BID) in the Message-ID: news header line indicating the machine of origin as the ampr.org domain:

Message-ID: <$opa.55.1994@ampr.org>

where the Packet Radio BID, in this example, is `$OPA.55', and it was posted in the year 1994, because some of the Bid numbers are cycled yearly. Hopefully, this can be used as a key to re-introduce the articles for the Packet Radio network. Also, if the article is a repost of an already existing information article in the rec.radio heirarchy, we ensure that the References: header line is linked to that previously posted article. This also helps to tag articles, and may be used for additional filtering if needed.

Since the articles are archived, please use the Summary and Keywords header lines to help one search for your article.

-- Why have I received no reply from you?

We never reject anything in silence, and we make a point of it to answer all our mail. However, E-mail, like a brain cell, can and does get lost, every now and again.

So, if you send us something, and you don't see it appear it rec.radio.info, and you still have not heard from us in reply after say, five days, you can be pretty sure that either your mail never reached us, or that our answer has never reached you. In that case, please try again (We will filter out duplicates).

Please direct any comments, questions, or criticisms about this article to rec-radio-info-request@panix.com.

797. Which scanners combine 900 MHz coverage with signal level meter

If someone could point me to some possible scanners that combine 900 MHz coverage with a signal level indicator of some kind, I'd appreciate it. My PRO-97 covers 806 to 960 but, of course, doesn't provide any signal level indication.

Thanks!

I wouldn't recommend the PRO-2055 to anyone because of the well-known problem with the display going blank after a few months. Radio Shack claims to have fixed the display problem on the newer models, but reading the reviews of the PRO-2055 at Radio Shack's website seems to indicate otherwise. Also, take a look at the listings for PRO-2055's on eBay and see how many are advertised as having display problems.
The PRO-433 is a better bet. I've had mine for at least six months now, and the display still works perfectly.

According to radioreference.com it looks like Contra Costa county sheriff (on VHF, not UHF) provides services to Baypoint and uses the East dispatch channel. Try 155.19 with PL of 136.5.

Given where you live for listening to public safety you don't need a digital scanner or even a trunking radio (although I would recommend you get a radio capable of trunking in case you want to listen to a trunked system in the future). I second the suggestion that you visit Scanners Unlimited in San Carlos and talk to a knowledgeable salesperson about the equipment that would work well for you. For fixed station use consider the Uniden BCT-8 or BCT-15, plus a good quality discone antenna. Hopefully Scanners Unlimited has a better antenna selection than they show on their web site. If not, go elsewhere. Don't spend more than about $250 for the radio and another $50 or so for the antenna and 50' feedline.

Anyone here with "in-depth" knowledge of the Bearcat 250 Scanner and repairs? I am way out of tune with these things. Haven't seen one - let alone worked on one for close to 10 years if not much longer. I have a model here just came in the door for repair. I've had a manual from days gone by. There appears to be some differences - not shown in the manual. I'm wondering if I can pick someone's brains about this model or it's differences.

1. Was there more than one version of service manual? At the time I purchased this, I don't believe I was told of anymore than the one - I usually ask about revisions.

2. Did the updates in this model produce differences in circuitry (I'm sure they probably did) - and how?

3. The issue I "currently" see - is I have "low level" audio, no squelch action, no receive, no display, no dot. I started troubleshooting it and this book has a Q206 listed in it as providing a particular voltage to the circuit (can't recall which part of the circuit - without the book in front of me). THIS unit shows NO Q206 where the book shows it to be. I can be more specific in parts layout in that area if someone asks - but for now - I'm missing some voltage and need to find out why Q206 is not there OR whatever. The "Q204" is putting out like 4 - 6 volts less than it should. I'm not sure that is the "only" issue here - but the first I found thus far. I'm just trying to clear up the mystery of Q206 for the moment. The book shows it "supposedly" on the "Features" board. Along with that issue, there is in the same leg of circuit - according to my manual - a 47K ohm resistor there tied to Q204 and a wire coming from the 18V supply - with an 9v Zener in that area also. This model has a 1xxxx ohm resistor there OR at least it appears to. It is burned in the center from heat - but the first band is clearly "brown" - so this isn't the 47K as called for in my manual. Basically, the circuit leg is all there - minus Q206! There's not even a place for it "to" be, from what I'm seeing.

IF I'm in error of voltages/values specified - its' only I'm going from memory - the book is in the shop - but I"m not off in my description otherwise.

I can provide more specific info such as Serial Number, Board numbers and/or revisions, whatever - if requested, I just don't have it in front of me at the moment.

I realize some parts of this radio are impossible to get now-days - so - I want to make sure I can trace this down to something repairable and get it done OR find out quick it isn't possible and hand it back without wasting much more time.

Any info? Please answer here - my address is a spam catcher only.

Thanks,

Lou

Lou,

Not wishing to appear rude, but if you have to spend this much time on a 10 year old model is it worth repairing or should it be written off as beyond economical repair.

Dave,

You're not being rude..... Trust me, the thought crossed my mind..... but it is for a good friend of mine - as a favor. I did tell them that "some" parts are no longer available and it might be time to toss it. But, I didn't want to just toss it without the ole "college try". Any time I ever needed any help - they were quick to jump to my aid, so I'd like to try to return the favor - especially now that they are blind - due to diabetes. Were it not for that - it would have probably been handed back immediately - with an I"m sorry. I waste valuable time on misadventures of my own - so I can't be too much for the wear and tear for the little time I've spent on this to date. I would much rather do this for a good friend than to lift a finger for half of my idiotic relatives. I'm sure you know how that works out.

Thanks just the same for your reply.

Convert a conventional MaxTrac 800 trunking HT to a scanner? I suppose it is possible with the right software and an external device to drive it (like a PC) but it certainly isn't part of the standard functionality of that transceiver.

If you want a trunking scanner, just buy one. It will be cheaper and more functional than whatever you might dream of doing with a Motorola-only HT solution.

The Electra/Bearcat BC350, BC300, BC250, BC220, BC20/20, BC211, BC210, and BC210XL models were hand assembled, and every one I've serviced had several connections that were either soldered poorly, or not soldered at all.

Resoldering joints on the ribbon cable connecting the RF and keyboard logic circuit boards in a BC250 attenuated the microprocessor/synthesizer hash noise noticeably.

The service manual you have is the only one I know of. Scanner manufacturers never update the manuals until there is a catalog number or model number change.

During the life of a product there are changes made in production. I have an Electra schematic (engineering drawing) for the BC300 and it went through a dozen changes at the time the drawing was made. Finding a drawing like this for the 250 would be nearly impossible now.

Electra often tack-soldered parts to the back of the boards. Maybe Q206 is on the back in your 250.

Q206 serves as an amplifier to reduce the current in the Zener and improve regulation. If the voltage at the emitter of Q204 is much less than 8.4 volts, a good portion of the circuitry in the radio will not operate. You can try replacing the Q204 regulator with a 9 volt three terminal regulator feeding into a 1 amp diode. That should give you about 8.4 volts and has the bonus of overcurrent and thermal protection. The original design ran Q204 way too hot and it is a common failure point. Adding a heatsink and drilling a few vent holes helps.

Many of the IC's in the radio are custom and very hard to find if one needs to be replaced. When I had a 250, I recall it being very sensitive to disturbances on the AC line, often hanging the scan cycle or corrupting the programming.

With all the negatives about the 250, I'd look for a more recent model on Ebay to replace it. Something simple with 50 or 100 channels should be available cheap and it will perform better than the 250 ever did.

Therein lays "part" of the problem... Q204's voltage is ok at input but significantly slacks off on output. MY issue at the moment is - the book "shows" a Q206 - but there is not one there! IF you have the manual - refer to it - you'll see the 9v zener etc, there. ALL is there but Q206. It is weird.......

It doesn't appear to have been "placed" there to begin with.

I was shooting for trying to figure that out - then finish troubleshooting. As for someone's posting of starting with the power supply, that is exactly what I've been doing til I ran into parts not there - as shown. That is usually where I start - with ANY issues I have unless directed otherwise by symptoms.
I was eliminating all the parts as the book lists as suspects. I believe I'm in a definate problem area with the voltages - but still - where the hell did Q206 disappear to? IF there is no other info to be had, I'll take a nice LONG look at it in the morning and see if there is something else I can work out. I'm 99.9% sure I have a new Q204 to pop in if this one is weak. I just stopped where I was to try to figure out what the heck was going on.

I've researched most of the info - if not all - available by Parness(sp?) - that I could find. I'll just take a good close look tomorrow and see what is what. Was just hanging back to see what replies I might get to help out.

THANK YOU FOLKS for your input.

Lou

Hi,

I have "I believe" - all of his info downloaded and have reviewed it. I'm going to check your links to be sure I have all. I "usually" do start with the power supply in any case - unless symptoms guide me elsewhere. In this case in particular - being "almost" dead - that was the "first" place I headed. Situation is - I am at a component which is producing less than it should - and I look to changing it, but in the manual - there is a transistor shown in the same circuit along with a zener. The zener is there - the other transistor Q206 "appears" to not have been placed there. Was just trying to find out what is with that. I'll look again - but it didn't appear to be on the bottom of the board - and "all" (as I can see them) traces of the parts shown interconnect on top <minus> Q206.
So - was wondering of any changes, etc. And then too - the resistor which was burned in the center is showing with the first band (not discolored) to not be as listed in the book. Well anyway, I'll replace the transistor which isn't pumping out enough and see what it does for me. I can't make out the resistor other than the first band, so I'll stick one in which the book called for - and see what goes on. I'll study the thing to see what was in their mind - then I'll go from there. I've wasted better time on my own so - trying to help a friend - won't bother me. If I"m not doing this, I'll be playing taxi driver for family. Would rather play at the bench!

Seems like you might have a very early production radio that just doesn't have Q206. The date code on the back of the radio might confirm this.

The circuit is just an amplified Zener regulator and it isn't extremely critical if the amplifier is one transistor or two. The service manual shows a 8.2V Zener and you mentioned having a 9.1V Zener in the radio so they evidently didn't intend to put Q206 in the circuit. Replace Q204 and add a small heatsink to keep it from burning out again. The resistor may look like band one is brown, but heat can change an orange band to brown over time.
Try a 470 Ohm resistor initially. If the output voltage is too far below
8.4V, the Zener is being starved and the resistor will have to be reduced.
In that case try 330 Ohms and measure the output again.

THANK YOU - very much..... I'll look at the band again, you may be right - it "was" late! Yeah, I've seen this before - quite a bit in other radios. But the rest was as stated. As to the Zener - I may be in error - the book "shows" an 8.2 vdc. I seen the schematic was calling for 9.1 vdc off one leg of one of the transistors and that stuck in my head. I'll have to remeasure that too as it seems to me I may just have gotten 9.1 +/- vdc. I didn't make notes as I usually do.

I'll give this a whirl since I know definately the voltage is "way" off on the transistor. But as I said - I simply stopped there to try to find out what the heck was going on with the missing transistor.

I definately have to make notes on this one - regardless if it is fixed or not - JUST in case!

Thanks again.....

I just threw two Bearcat 250s in my garbage can this morning. I had purchased them as defective units years ago. I assumed I could use parts from each to make a good one, but they both had repairwork damage on the circuitboard under the keyboard.

That was a wonderful scanner because of the feature that would search a section of band and record a list of hits through the day. You could then program the hit frequencies into a bank, or two, and find something interesting.

Yes, the MaxTrac and the MTX can "Scan" 800 Mhz only. Take the battery off the MTX and see what the serial number is.
It will be H01??? the 4th character will be a "U" for 800Mhz and a "W" for 900Mhz.
The MTX can be configured as a16/32/48 channel radio and it will scan 16 channels. You need Motorola RSS software to do this and a SLOW DOS computer.

DUDE!...you are a "HAM" figure out how to read "limiter" or AGC

Get a book on it...all scanners sold by radio shack are made by either

Yes I am..... in the USA. I'm aware of G & G - Thanks! I was just checking the thing out for a friend - found an issue and at the same time the puzzling item and stopped to see if anyone had info regarding it. Aside from information - I doubt my friend will want to "invest" much into it. I"m merely doing it as a favor to him short of telling him to scrap it. Been kind of busy since getting these e-mails - so haven't had a chance to get back to it. I'm going to be free after tomorrow afternoon - so I can take another "closer" look at it and make a decision - one way or another.

821. Antenna Question: Vertical Whip Vs. Type X

Hello,

Trying to learn a bit more about antennas. New at this.
A very confusing subject.

Here's a very basic question.

For the 2m band, and the VHF bands in general, it is possible to find vertical whips that are omni and offer, apparently, 3 db gain (or more). Do receiving only.

It is also possible to find other omni antenna types over this range, and wider, that offer the same Gain numbers, or lower.

Also, there are Yagis (directional) for these ranges, again with the same types of gain numbers.

So, seeing the convenience of a vertical whip of a few feet or so, what advantage would most any other configuration or type that also offers, e.g., 3 db of gain, offer ? Why not use a vertical whip for most (all) VHF receiving ?

I'm sure that I'm missing something basic here.

Thanks,
B.

First of all we need to define some terms here. 1. Some antenna manufactures will list their antenna using the term DBi,, the i stands for isotropic. The isotropic antenna is a theoretical antenna that doesnt really exist. It is an antenna that supposedly radiates in all directions equally, much as a free standing light bulb radiates light in a spherical pattern.
No antenna like that really exists. Manufacturers like to use that term because they can use a higher number for gain than the old standard which is DBd, which stands for dipole. A dipole is a real antenna, but it does have a radiation pattern kind of doughnut shaped. (A vertical dipole) Now we get into gain numbers. Real vertical type antennas are either a 1/4 wave which realistically has a gain of 1. Sometimes they call this unity gain. A 1/2 wave vertical will have a DBd gain of 2.7, most everybody rounds this up to 3. A 5/8 wave vertical will have a DBd gain of somewhere between 3.5-4. The gain comes from flattening of the radiation pattern from a round doughnut to a more flat or a squashed doughnut shape. A Yagi is a beam antenna that focuses the radiated field moreso than an omni directional. The no. of elements of the Yagi determines the gain, i.e.
the more directional. I had a 2 meter 12 element beam that had a gain of somewhere around 9-10. For every 3 db you are doubling the signal. And yes antennas tend to work on receive as they do on transmit.

BTW that 12 element Yagi I had was a BIG antenna, most people dont want a monster like that on their house, unless you really have a need for it. Unless you live in a remote area you dont need a beam.
A vertical will work fine in most cases. A discone antenna is a very good compromise for scanner use because it is so widebanded, and you can use the discone to transmit on 2 meters and 440 if you want, I use to do it all the time.

Anyone have a broken MR8100 that might be repaired.
Some repair shops were telling some customers that the vco were broke, but they were easley fixed. Looking for one that we could fix up to use around here. If so let me know.

Lou, maybe this info will help.

In looking through my Bearcat info, I found a schematic for a "250A". The feature board is constructed a little differently than what they show in the 250 service manual and I have seen both boards used in 250s. The red wire still goes to the collector of Q204 (NPN). The emitter of Q204 should have 8.4 Volts there. The base circuit of Q204 is a little different on the "A" version. A 9.1 Volt 1 watt zener runs from the base of Q204 to ground. (Cathode connects to the base of Q204). Now, the collector of Q206 (PNP) connects to the base of Q204 through R239, a 150 ohm 1/2 watt resistor. That's the only connection on the collector of Q206. Q206's base has R220, a 100 ohm 1/2 watt resistor that is connected to the cathode of D212, a 10 Volt 1 watt zener.

Hope this info helps you out. Keep us posted on your progress.

Sorry, I forgot to mention in my first response that the emitter of Q206 connects to the collector of Q204 (the red wire - 16 volts). Meanwhile, I found another schematic for the 250 that shows the same circuit I described, but also adds one resistor on Q206, between the emitter and base. The resistor is labeled R242 and is a 1K 5% (wattage is not indicated).

Do you have the correct voltages at the output of the switching power supply? (plus and minus 25 volts). If not, you probably need to diagnose that problem first. Depending on what has failed there may determine whether or not the scanner is repairable. If it's just a capacitor failure (common) or a failure with IC-8 (it happens) then it is probably repairable, but if the problem goes on back to IC-9, IC-7, or IC-6, the prognosis is not so good.

Good luck!
Mac

Mike,

read all your replies to date.. since this is a "side" project to help a friend - have gotten busy - didn't get back to it just yet. This is my first week of free time.

Please take note - where Q204 is, in the book - it "shows" a Q206 and the schematic shows parts going between Q204/206. In "this" model - there appears to be NO Q206 OR even a place for one. I can elaborate more - but my previous posts pretty much spell it out.

Thanks,

Lou

I already have a Radio Shack [Cat # 12-254] which sucks and does not recharge.

What I need is one that has a nice bright display, easy to program FIPS codes and I'd also like one that is rechargeable.

I've searched and found EVERY online store has Oregan Scientific radios but every place is out-of-order.

Can someone help me find a SAME Weather radio on the web that meets my needs and is not 'out-of-stock' ??

I sure would appreciate your help on this.

thanks,

Hi A friend of mine has a Uniden Bearcat UBC280XLT which has been working well for 18 months. He now has the following problem. When you switch the power on it will scan as well as allow you to enter a manual frequency but after anything from 10 seconds to 30 seconds the unit shuts down. The charger has been checked as has the battery, both are working ok. It will do the same thing even if you try to run it while charging. Is there a hidden key command or is it a bin job.

Tony

I was needing a Portable/hand held unit that I could carry around the house or carry when out of the house like in stores, work, etc.

WR103 looks nice but all places say out.of.stock.

Not YOU, but seems their are some scam radios on ebay right now. How can it be sold if Oregon Scientific told me in an EMAIL that unite WR103 is not going to be for sale until AUGUST??

If anyone can help, read my original message, then thanks a lot.

well.....
thatsa bit of a tough one. a good (or at least decent) spectrum analyzer can run you $1,000 and up. the "el-cheapo" ones are less, but don't perform well or have a lack of useful "features" basically, its "you get what you pay for).

you might check the ebay and craigslist.com sites for possibilities.

858. SBS-1 - information. Does anyone have any experience with ?

Hello, i am very interested in the SBS-1 virtual radar.

I have been using ACARS for a number of years now and this new SBS-1 seems to be fantastic. I have searched on the net about it, but was wondering if you could fill in some of the blanks for me.

I live in valley and listen to airband and seem to get quite a good range East and West, and fair range North and South of me. Probable 150 miles E-W and 80 miles N-S.

A) If i put the aerial for this SBS-1 in the loft, what kind of range could i expect (very roughly) ?,

B) It says it picks up S/ADS-B equipped aircraft, now i'm mainly only interested in civil aircraft on approach to my local airport (Newcastle), when i see the aircraft pass over my house (around 4000ft to 8000ft) i want to be able to use the SBS-1 to "see" them and find out the registration of them, also to predict if a plane is going to pass over my house by looking at the route it is taking. Also high-level overflights over my house on their way to NEW (Newcastle VOR Beacon). Would this SBS-1 be able to do that ?, would it pick up most civil airliners over my house at those heights (KLM, Ryanair, EasyJet, BA, Thomson, MyTravel etc etc) ?

Sorry for all the questions, but if i'm going to be paying nearly ï¿½400 i need to know it is going to live up to my expectations (as i'm sure it will).

Best Regards,
Andrew

I'm in need of a portable, prefer one that also has the cradle that recharges it, SAME weather radio.

I especially need one that is very easy to program the FIPS codes into the radio. I would need one that also allowed about 7-10 counties to monitor, also a VERY LOUD alarm sound.

It would also be nice to have one that would visually display the Warning/Watch and also allow you to disable certain warnings; like be able to disable warnings for floods but allow the storm/tornado warnings/watches.

I tried oregon scientific and they seem to have fantastic SAME radios but I e-mailed them and they said they wouldn't have products available until August!

I've also tried E-Bay but few have good ones and most are $25+ overpriced.

Can one of you help me find a good quality radio like this?

My budget would be just under $100

I received a Sirius Stiletto 100 for a present and am not going to use it. It is a new in the box model SL100-PK1R and retails for $250.00. I would like to trade it for a Kenwood R-1000 in good shape or any digital readout SW radio of this nature. My ebay account name is monty55 if you need a reference. I prefer to trade instead of using ebay. Thanks

 Welcome to rec.radio.info! ***

Welcome to rec.radio.info, a group that aims to provide a noise-free
source of information and news for the entire rec.radio hierarchy.

Two introductory articles about rec.radio.info are posted to the group every month. You are now reading the first article, which explains what rec.radio.info is, and answers some Frequently Asked Questions. The second article is titled Posting Guidelines, and you only need to read it if you want to submit an article to rec.radio.info.

You can skip to the next section of this article by searching for the next
" -- " string. The sections available are:
- What is the purpose of rec.radio.info?
- Why are messages almost always cross posted to rec.radio.info?
- What is a 'follow-up', and what does 'moderated' mean?
- OK, so now I know what 'moderated' means. Tell me more.
- What type of material is considered inappropriate?
- I do not have access to news, how can I get the information posted to
rec.radio.info?
- Will the material appearing in rec.radio.info be archived somewhere?
- I have a regular posting with timely information, is there a way to speed up it's delivery, or automate for more convenience?

-- What is the purpose of rec.radio.info?

The purpose or charter of rec.radio.info is to provide the Usenet community with a resource for information, news, and facts about any and all things radio.

All the other rec.radio groups are intended for discussions and general
chit chat about radio. Rec.radio.info will contain informational, factual articles only. Follow-ups are redirected to an appropriate other group, and further discussion (if any) will not take place in
rec.radio.info.

In order to ensure that rec.radio.info contains only appropriate articles, it was decided to create the group as a moderated newsgroup.
```

-- Why are messages almost always cross posted to rec.radio.info?

It provides a "tag" for each article to be assembled into a filtered presentation in rec.radio.info (even with cross-posting, only one message, with a unique Message-ID, is propagated across the net). This tag also facilitates a pre-existing method of dropping or canceling the articles locally within the discussion groups if you don't want to see them. This accommodates individuals who want to separate the bulletins from the discussions, discussions from the bulletins, as well as those who are adamant about not reading another newsgroup and wanted to see everything all in one basket.

With the total size of Usenet (in number of newsgroups and total traffic) doubling every year or so, this is no insignificant contribution to reducing information noise and chaos. Making the discussion groups a catch-all, and making extra newsgroups filters on that catch-all, is also the most realistic way to implement such a scheme (It's not intuitively obvious what the charter, contents, and general appropriate topics for each and every newsgroup are. Seeing FAQ's and charter/intro postings in the home newsgroup is beneficial for new readers).

By cross-posting one only is adding a few tens of bytes to each bulletin (to specify the extra group on the Newsgroups line), but are adding the capability for very powerful filtering features available on most news servers, listservers and readers. Your local news guru could probably explain these features in more detail.

In rn, for example, according to Leanne Phillips in her rn kill-file FAQ, add a line of the form:

/Newsgroups:.*[,]rec\.radio\.info/h:j

either in ~/News/KILL (if you don't want to see rec.radio.info articles anywhere) or ~/News/rec/radio/amateur/misc/KILL (if you don't want to see them just in rec.radio.amateur.misc). The latter method means your kill file will only be consulted during rec.radio.amateur.misc (and hence runs more efficiently), and will probably work for most people.

In nn, according to Bill Wohler in his nn FAQ, add a line of the form:

rec.radio.info:!s/:^

in ~/.nn/kill (if you don't want to see rec.radio.info articles anywhere), or put the following lines:

sequence
rec.radio.info
rec.radio.

at the end of ~/.nn/init in order to see all the rec.radio.info bulletins first, then read the remaining rec.radio.* without the bulletins.

More information about kill files may be obtained from Dave Fawthrop's Killfile FAQ at:

http://www.hyphenologist.co.uk/killfile/

-- What is a 'follow-up', and what does 'moderated' mean?

If you are new to Usenet and are not familiar with the terminology, you might want to read the general introductory articles found in the newsgroup news.announce.newusers. Doing so will make your life on the net much easier, and will probably save you from making silly beginner's mistakes.

If you think that at this moment you are reading an echo, a conference, or a bulletin board, I'd also strongly suggest a trip over to news.announce.newusers.

For the rest of this article, we will assume you have a basic knowledge of Usenet terminology and mechanics.

A moderated group means that any article that needs to be posted to the group has to be accepted by the moderator of the group. Since we need to ensure that followups to an article (discussion) do not show up in the rec.radio.info newsgroup, the `Followup-To:' header line contains a newsgroup that is appropriate for discussions about the specific article.

-- OK, so now I know what 'moderated' means. Tell me more.

Rec.radio.info is a moderated newsgroup, which means that all articles submitted to the group will have to be approved by the moderator first.

The current moderator of the group is the rec.radio.amateur.moderated Moderation Team. Submissions to rec.radio.info can be posted, or e-mailed to:

rec-radio-info@panix.com

Comments, criticisms, suggestions or questions about the group can be e-mailed to:

rec-radio-info-request@panix.com

But before you do so, please be sure to check out the "Posting Guidelines" article.

The influence of the moderator should be minimal and of an administrative nature, consisting chiefly of weeding out obviously inappropriate articles, while making sure correct headers etc. are used for the appropriate ones.

-- What type of material is considered inappropriate?

There are three broad categories of articles which will be rejected by the moderator:

1) Requests for information: rec.radio.info is strictly a one-way street. We receive information in our mailbox; we then post it to rec.radio.info. Requests for specific information belong in the normal discussion newsgroups. If your request gets answered, you might consider passing the answer on to rec.radio.info, though. Especially if you can edit it into a informational, rather than a discussion, format.

2) Obvious discussion articles, or articles that appear unsubstantiated.

3) Commercial stuff: a relatively unbiased test of a radio product would be accepted, but any hint of for-profit might be reason for rejection. For three reasons: This is not the purpose of the list, for-profit is a controversial topic, and this list may be passed onto Amateur Packet Radio (where for-profit is prohibited except under certain provisos).

rec.radio.swap may be more deserving of the posting in any matter.

Similarly, copyrighted material generally cannot be used. If it's TRULY worthwhile to the net, We would recommend obtaining permission from the copyright holder. Please note the source, and if permission was given. We reserve the right to make the final decision concerning appropriateness in all situations. In most cases, a brief summary of, or pointer to, the copyrighted information may be all we can allow.

-- I do not have access to news, how can I get the information posted to rec.radio.info?

Google has an excellent web interface to Usenet newsgroups. It is available at:

http://groups.google.com

It supports both reading and posting.

-- Will the material appearing in rec.radio.info be archived somewhere?

Yes. See Google Groups above.

Effectively this means that anything you post to rec.radio.info will be permanently stored, so your work will not be lost.

-- I have a regular posting with timely information, is there a way to speed up it's delivery, or automate for more convenience?

Yes, there is! It may take a bit of chatter with the moderator, but we are willing to take responsible people and provide them the means of posting the articles directly from their site. We will try everything we can as we fully realize that DX (distant signal) and astronomical data can be somewhat transitory. We are also willing to allow regular posters of information the same courtesy, even if the information is not as time critical.

We refer to this as self-moderation, which is partly based on the model for rec.answers/news.answers. This requires co-operation and goodwill to be beneficial to the community in the rec.radio hierarchy.

Please direct any comments, questions, or criticisms about this article to rec-radio-info-request@panix.com.

 rec.radio.info - Posting Guidelines and Etiquette ***

Two introductory articles about rec.radio.info are posted to this group and to rec.answers/news.answers every month. You are now reading the second article, which explains how to submit something to rec.radio.info, and which answers some Frequently Asked Questions about the submission process. The first article is titled "Welcome to rec.radio.info", and it might be a good idea to check it out as well.

-- How do I submit something to rec.radio.info?

Two possibilities. You can use your newsreading software to just post
the article to rec.radio.info, as you would do with any other newsgroup. The difference is that the software recognizes the special status of rec.radio.info as a moderated group, and will e-mail your article to us, the moderation team, instead of posting it to the group.

Alternatively, you can mail your article directly to us at the following address:

rec-radio-info@panix.com

Mailing us directly is probably (a wee bit) faster, but using the transparency offered by the newsreading software is probably more convenient.

If you have any questions, or wish to deal with some administrivia with
the moderation team, we suggest mailing to the following address:

rec-radio-info-request@panix.com

-- How soon will I see my article appear?

It depends on how busy we are. Your article reaches us as mail, we have to read it first, give it the stamp of approval, and finally send it on to the group. We will attempt to read and decide on all submissions within 72 hours at the very least, though we will probably be able to process submissions much faster in actual practice.

The site from which we moderate this newsgroup, "Public Access Internet and Unix, NYC" (Panix), is directly connected to the Internet, and

articles posted at that site should appear at most major news sites, including Google Groups, the same day. The principal delay, therefore, will be the wait in the moderator's submission queue.

If you post a periodic article, and have shown to be trustworthy, we may allow you to post directly if the article is of a timely nature. See the section below on direct posting.

-- Should my article be in a specific format?

No. If it is not totally illegible, we will accept it, and if it does not have a correct subject-line we will correct it with your permission -- that's what a moderator is for.

However.

You could do us a big favor by making sure your article conforms to these simple requirements:

1) The article must present information, not discussion or requests, We will reject the article or require you to change the wording if it is worth it.
2) A good, descriptive Subject line.
3) Always mention what source you got the information from.
4) Don't forget to include a Followup-To header, at least if you don't want further discussion to automatically be forwarded to you, the poster, which is the default if the article is only posted to rec.radio.info.

As we said: if your article is appropriate we will post it even if you don't follow these guidelines, but then don't blame us for not processing it immediately. 'Perfect' articles we can send on with a couple of keystrokes. Stuff that needs minor editing is going to have to wait until we have time to do so.

Please do not waste both our and your time by posting requests, as this is an information only news group.

-- What about crossposting?

If you send something to rec.radio.info, just name any group you'd like to cross-post to in the Newsgroups field. Then, when we approve the article for rec.radio.info it will get automatically cross-posted to any other groups mentioned. This will also override the default Followup-To: poster, replacing it with the groups you cross posted to.

We would prefer if the group be cross-posted to the various discussion groups in the rec.radio.* hierarchy that are appropriate:

rec.radio.amateur.misc Amateur (ham) radio and related matters
rec.radio.amateur.packet Amateur Packet Radio discussions
rec.radio.amateur.policy Amateur Radio practices, rules, etc.
rec.radio.noncomm Non commercial radio discussions
rec.radio.shortwave International broadcasting on the 'HF' bands

rec.radio.cb Citizens Band (27 MHz) discussion
rec.radio.scanner Scanner discussions (unsupported group)

or in one of the moderated groups:

rec.radio.amateur.moderated Amateur radio practices, rules, etc.
rec.radio.broadcasting Discussion of domestic radio broadcasting

We will leave it up to the poster to decide which group(s) are appropriate, but reserve the right to add groups if we feel it has broader interest. We will consult with the poster first.

Notes on crossposting:

- rec.radio.broadcasting is also a moderated group. The rec.radio.broadcasting moderator prefers to review all articles himself before posting. Placing rec.radio.broadcasting before rec.radio.info on the Newsgroups line should accomplish this. We will typically abide by the rec.radio.broadcasting moderator's decision whether the article is appropriate for rec.radio.info.

- rec.radio.amateur.moderated is also a moderated group. As the rec.radio.amateur.moderated Moderation Team manages both rec.radio.amateur.moderated and rec.radio.info, we can manage crossposting and approvals for both newsgroups. The rec.radio.amateur.moderated group does not allow crossposting to other discussion newsgroups, whether moderated or unmoderated. However, we would like to manage rec.radio.info as consistently as possible with how it was done by previous moderators, including the grandfathering of existing regular postings. Therefore, the submitter can choose rec.radio.amateur.moderated or the other unmoderated rec.radio.amateur.* discussion newsgroups for crossposting, but not both.

- Any FAQ or informational posting approved by the rec.answers/news.answers moderation team that is also crossposted to any rec.radio.* newsgroup (besides just rec.radio.info) is also automatically pre-approved for rec.radio.info. See below for more information.

If you post to another moderated group, it may be better to make special arrangements with both moderators before posting by contacting us at our administrivia addresses.

In addition, cross-posts do not take up extra space; modern newsreaders can be configured to show you cross-posted articles only once anyway; not everybody reads rec.radio.info; and rec.radio.info was never meant to reduce the volume of the regular discussion newsgroups. But keep in mind that some of the mail gateways may filter out the informational postings (at request of the subscribers) to keep the load down.

You decide.

-- I have a regular posting with timely information, can I make arrangements to help speed up delivery by posting directly from my site?

Yes, there is! It may take a bit of chatter with the moderator, but we are willing to take responsible people and provide them the means of posting the articles directly from their site. We will try everything we can as we fully realize that DX (distant signal) and astronomical data can be somewhat transitory. We are also willing to allow regular posters of information the same courtesy, even if the information is not as timely.

We refer to this as self-moderation, which is partly based on the model for rec.answers/news.answers. This requires cooperation and good will to be beneficial to the community in the rec.radio.* hierarchy.

If you are currently maintaining (or plan to maintain) a radio-related periodic information posting, you may wish to consider crossposting it to rec.answers/news.answers. Postings that are approved by the rec.answers/news.answers moderators for this treatment are automatically pre-approved for crossposting to rec.radio.info (as the news.answers requirements are far more rigorous than the requirements this newsgroup ever plans to use). For more information about this option, consult the appropriate information articles and posting guidelines in rec.answers/news.answers.

Realize also, that even if your post is not approved for rec.answers/news.answers, it can still be approved for rec.radio.info. The intention is not so much to get every last bit of radio-related information on rec.answers/news.answers, but rather to provide an alternative avenue of approval (as well as grandfather existing maintainers of radio-related information and spare them additional bureaucratic hurdles). Again, crossposting to either rec.radio.info or rec.answers/news.answers, both, or neither, is at the discretion of the poster (subject to the approval of the moderators). You decide what is most appropriate for your article.

Please remember that as an information maintainer, you are not alone. There are many others on the net who maintain and post periodic information postings, using various intermediate-to-advanced features of Usenet (usually via automated tools). Various degrees of technical support and general hand-holding are available from many Usenet veterans. Send us some E-mail describing your needs to our administrative address below, and we'll try to help, or at least refer you to the right knowledgeable individual(s).

-- And Follow-ups?

If the only newsgroup you have specified is rec.radio.info, then the Followup-To: field will always be set to poster. If you do not want this, you must supply a Followup-To line of your own, and we will honor that one, as long as it is a subset of the original Newsgroups line.

If you specify newsgroups to cross-post to, then the Followup-To field will be set to include all the cross-posted groups, excepting rec.radio.info itself. Again, if you do not wish this behavior, supply your own Followup-To line.

We maintain other standards on the various RFC-1036 (news transport) header lines. For example, if the article is appropriate for passing into the Packet Radio Information Network, we encapsulate the Packet Bulletin Identifier (BID) in the Message-ID: news header line indicating the machine of origin as the ampr.org domain:

Message-ID: <$opa.55.1994@ampr.org>

where the Packet Radio BID, in this example, is `$OPA.55', and it was posted in the year 1994, because some of the Bid numbers are cycled yearly. Hopefully, this can be used as a key to re-introduce the articles for the Packet Radio network. Also, if the article is a repost of an already existing information article in the rec.radio heirarchy, we ensure that the References: header line is linked to that previously posted article. This also helps to tag articles, and may be used for additional filtering if needed.

Since the articles are archived, please use the Summary and Keywords header lines to help one search for your article.

-- Why have I received no reply from you?

We never reject anything in silence, and we make a point of it to answer all our mail. However, E-mail, like a brain cell, can and does get lost, every now and again.

So, if you send us something, and you don't see it appear it rec.radio.info, and you still have not heard from us in reply after say, five days, you can be pretty sure that either your mail never reached us, or that our answer has never reached you. In that case, please try again (We will filter out duplicates).

Please direct any comments, questions, or criticisms about this article to rec-radio-info-request@panix.com.

FA Pro-2010 on E-bay for "Parts" or "maybe" repair - if you have (or want to buy) the parts for it. The unit is complete - still looks almost like brand new - but has "receive" issues. I don't normally list FAs in news groups (3x a year at most if lucky) - but if someone has need for the parts or wants to try to refurbish this unit, here ya go. Maybe you have one, the antenna got lost/broke, knob lost, the cabinet all scratched, cracked, keypad not working well, etc. This unit is excellent for parts of that sort. I realize how sometimes, someone wants to bring back an older unit and parts are either hard to find or expensive. Otherwise, my advance apologies for this particular intrusion.

Test - I seen a ton of posts on here like 2 weeks ago or so -myself participating in a thread. Now I see none. Is this thing working or what?

For many years I've kept a scanner at work to listen to the air-ambulance helicopters come and go--I just find the choppers interesting.

Moved to a new job last month in Louisville, KY. Just out of curiosity, I added the listed frequency (464.1375) for the excursion boat _The Belle of Louisville_ to my scanner. (I took the two-hour ride this weekend and it was a lot of fun.)

So I do hear activity from the _Belle_, but there's a warbling sort of audio tone on all their transmissions. Sounds like someone blowing a slide-whistle while working the slide up and down. Don't know that I've ever heard that before.

Is this something designed to discourage listening? (In my case, sometimes the warbling isn't very loud in the audio stream, and at other times it's loud enough to make it difficult to hear what they're saying--I have no idea why it varies like this.) Or is the warbling for some other reason? TIA.

This story on Channel 7 says the Motorola Astro radios that the Los Angeles Police Dept. uses are 14 years old, out of production, and becoming unreliable. The LAPD has its eye on a new radio, but it costs $3400. Replacing 10,000 Astros will be expensive. No decision has been made yet.

http://abclocal.go.com/kabc/story?section=local&id=5529090

Years ago I used to carry an Astro on the job. When it replaced our old MX350 and Sabre radios it was about the trickest thing we'd seen, with features like scanning multiple talkgroups and private calling to an individual radio over the trunked system.

$3400 for a basic APCO-25 radio? I don't think so. Buy a P-25 radio from Kenwood or one of the other competitors and save $2K each.

Hi everyone,

I have a Radio Shack Pro-97 scanner, a Radio Shack 800MHz antenna, and a Diamond RH77CA antenna. I have been getting more and more into scanning as I have learned how to more efficiently operate my scanner to find broadcasts and discovered what I can receive with it.

I am looking to extend my scanner's capability with either an antenna mountable on a car or the roof of my house, or both. Its difficult to know which antennas will work well and which ones are a good value for the price, so I thought I would post here to get some of your opinions.

As far as a car antenna goes, I do not want to drill any holes anywhere, and I am not sure I want a magnetic mount, since that might scratch the car. From what I have been reading, many people recommend magnetic mounts because of their superior reception quality, despite their potential to damage the car. I do like the idea of an antenna like the ProComm JBC290WC found at universal-radio.com: http://www.universal-radio.com/catalog/scanants/0466.html This antenna has a clip that mounts on the window by clipping on the top of the window and then closing the window. I don't see how a magnetic mount antenna could be superior to this since it has a solid connection. However, the antenna is not very big, and maybe a magnetic mount would be superior due to its size. I would appreciate it if anyone could share their opinions about car antennas in general, their experiences with the ProComm mentioned above, and any recommendations they have on specific models of car-mountable antennas.

As for a rooftop mountable antenna, I have been interested in possibly getting a discone mast-mountable antenna. I have not really found a model that I would definitely consider buying, so I would like to see some recommendations from other users as to which antennas work well and don't cost too much. I wouldn't mind spending under $100 for the antenna (not including any other parts necessary for mounting, additional cable, or connectors), but would have to seriously consider anything that costs more than that.

I greatly appreciate any one's comments, suggestions and recommendations on these types of antennas. Thanks!

Kevin,

I use a Larsen NMO style magnet mount that allows me to use a variety of scanner and ham antennas on the same base. So far I have an Austin Spectra and a Larsen 150/450/800 and find good performance from both. A variety of manufacturers make products with this type of mount so it would be easy to find antennas dedicated to specific bands if your interest eventually went in that direction. A final benefit is that should I ever want to drill into the car I could get a permanent NMO mount and still use all of the same antennas. They easily screw on/off so that the same freedom of choice is preserved. Larsen sells rain caps and spare gaskets, etc., so that you could remove the antenna and leave the mount in place. Look at Ham Radio Outlet, www.hamradio.com.

What a magnet mount accomplishes technically is a coupling to the car for an RF ground that will probably perform better than the roll-up window mount. Not to knock the Procomm, but it's not tuned to the public service bands like both the Larsen, Austin and others. Depending on your listening desires and geography it may provide adequate performance, none the less, but you sound like a serious listener interested in high performance.

As for a home antenna, look at the Diamond discone with an "N" style connector ($99). I don't own one but reports I've read are good without exception. The Radio Shack discone ($72) is a similar design but I've read mixed reports of its durability. N connectors have lower loss at high frequencies. Consider RG-6 coax for the same reason. By all means avoid the thin RG58; it's losses at higher freqs are too great.

Good luck and let us know what you choose and how it works out.

I've been using one of these discones for many years and have been very satisfied with the results. Don't have snow & ice in my area, but this antenna is subjected to substantial winds almost every day and so far hasn't lost a single element. At $40 including shipping and handling, you'll be hard pressed to find a better deal on a broad band scanner antenna. Use a quality coax feedline such as RG-213 and keep it as short as possible for best results.

http://www.antennawarehouse.com/Scanner/Discone.htm

The main advantage of a mag mount mobil antenna is that it uses the car body as a ground plane. (ie. the other half of the antenna.)
The 30" Radio Shack classic with two loading coils works especially well for the vhf frequencies used by many highway patrol services.

Hi all, I have a radio shack pro 20-43 scanner. Does anyone remember how to wipe the frequencies out? I am blind and can't remember what keys you hold down to do this. I know you could hold a key down, then turn the scanner back on and it would take it back to factory defaults. Thanks for any help anyone can give on this. Have a nice weekend from Griffin, Georgia.

Not the best discone to try to put on a car. I use this one that works very well which which was designed for mobile use and makes a good desktop one

It runs about $100 though.

All righty, I will try holding 2 and 9 down at the same time and see if that clears out the frequencies out, thanks.

See if it has a place in the back that says reset. Should be a small hole that you would need to insert a pointed object like a straitened paper clip in. If it's there try holding clear and push reset at the same time.

Fetter in jail again.

According to an Email I just received, George Fetter is back in jail:

You enter the person's name as LastName,FirstName with no space.

Most of you know Fetter as the owner of several radio-related sites, including http://www.MilAirComms.com. He had been arrested by the Feds for fraud related to electronics equipment sales.
I wonder if this is from the old fraud arrest or a new one.

"FAST" F-16s coming and going
``````````````````````````````

This morning, "Fast 61," a flight of four NY-ANG F-16s that had been TDY at MacDill, RTBd to Syracuse. While up on Miami Ctr's 319.0 they passed their routing which included an air-air refueling on AR-600 and then a routing: "SBV-MRB-CFB-SYR destination." They said they had another flight of F-16s in trail.
I then heard them handed off to Jax Ctr's 346.25, then to Jax Ctr @ Savannah's 285.65.
Another flight of Syracuse F-16s, "Fast 71," later worked at Avon Park Range, used 138.175 for air-air, and RTBd to MacDill a short while ago. I believe this "Fast 71" flight was coming in from Syracuse, because I heard them arriving at Avon via Jax Ctr's 346.25 and not from MacDill.

911 Leaders Saying They Are Jesus
http://rss.nfowars.net/20070802_Thu_Alex.mp3

Jason Bermas "I just want to let people know, that if this is a hit piece that involves, you know, saying that we're all blaming the Jews, or the Zionists, or something ridiculous, where we go after an ethnic group, [Jason Bermas suggests "Jews" = "Zionists"?] 'we' can not be associated with ANTI-SEMITISM, space beams, utter kookery.

Alex Jones "Or Jesus! they have 911 leaders saying they are Jesus now. They have people saying it's space beams from Pluto. And folks, I've tracked these people, they all were formally in intelligence, or connected to the Bushes, the space beam thing came from a almost cabinet member level Bush member, and folks this is a setup to poison our movement."

Now??

I've given my phone number several times to Alex Jones, of which he's not as of yet, invited me on as official guest, for fears he can find no arguments against US I presume. 911 financier Ahmad = al Qaida, and we have molten iron on video flowing like water. Demon Bush Jr. gave US zero, while closing criminal investigations immediately after the terrorist offense of no questions!, no questions! Case closed. But no, the American media rarely if never mention these facts, while insisting Bush's deathly war criminalling is as only a puppet, look away! look away!, leaving without challenge on the, teen like naivety of wearechange.org's consistence that "we", who demand justice for 911, who might also hold the opinion that zionist behavior does not blindly equal being Jewish, should not be allowed to speak Justly for our public challenge, because bushite Amerika has no defense for censorship against ANY of our judicial wanting, as documented positions on behalf of the suffering to death victimized public. Why? Because we are Just. Well, I try to be anyway. (I've spoken as written for YEARS, with NO ONE WORLD WIDE countering in the public realm, but for the strangely odd insult. Bushite do exist, don't get god wrong, but dumb evil bushite brood in darkness with censorship like all zionists do, selling to be 'godly' honorable men, when in truth, they'd murder anyone of US for a stolen nickel given to a neocon. I, as open line talk radio producer, win every time, always, forever, never fail. [er.. yet..] Why? Because I treat YOU fairly. America should do the same. We are all in this together. Zionists like robbing then killing defenseless innocent Christians, and Jews, while just lying that they don't without scened factual TV perception. Demon 911 WITCH, zionist Condi 'okayed' the dropping of more than SEVEN MILLION land-mines on Lebanon, purposefully done to indiscriminately murder ourselves for generations. Jason might foolishly call you an "anti-Semite" in fear for speaking such not understood truths. And importantly, not because they can publicly disagree so in open debate, so sides to not allow US to rise in acknowledgement to bring about Justice as demanded, for ALL as ANY. (Gee, who's the neocon now eh? (we're all sinners.))

If Americans really want 911 Justice:

Help US out by putting the video of molten iron flowing like water out there in the minds of any who have doubts, tell them hypno mugger Bush, gave US zero to substantiate his public falsehoods, and tell US about Ahmad as more than a passing fact that means little of nothing, then, WE, The People, will believe this has more to do with Justice for Humanity, than the American suffering movie goer ego being, "leading the free world", by voicing no public concerns on the criminality of the bushmob shysters. Left happying in the George Norry, as a TRAITOR to a dying America not hearing. An enemy of Liberty to the, tried to be free soldier, who is led TO DIE still un-wittingly by lie for the misfortuned neocon bounty of global tyranny through coast to coast story lining. Look, the peenackers will tell you freakishly, that they work to lie to us all, to take advantage of a plain to view weakness. I swear. The neocon wants to con your kid to die for a war lied into with as our stolen goods. We lose as crime victims, while they win free accountability because, (well... I'll just let you finish that one liner sucker punch..)

Ron Paul Slams Ron Paul!
http://youtube.com/watch?v=eAvt7BdvJiM

"If you happen to be working for a big company, or the government, you get health benefits dirt cheap.[?] But if your trying to make it on your own, and you don't have insurance, you might be charged two or three time more than the government will pay!"

Almost. PBS showed a man who fell from a ladder, broke a rib, and was bankrupt from his near $250,000+ bill for, for private "free market" health care. Money demanded that doesn't go to the doctors, nurses, or "public" hospitals. So what is Ron Paul saying about Ron Paul? I'd wager, he doesn't know himself, and fears like FOXNEWS from open debate of those who try to teach US to walk through his own argument, (or follow the money (al-Qaida=Ahmad)) and find the fault of all proud blind Libertarians. Look, don't you want the best service possible for the dollars expended? Why give your BASIC health care treatment dollars to a do nothing shareholder, or hedge fund CEOer for procedures, who's success is not made better by needlessly increasing the costs for nothing but selfish sicko greed by bribe payers. Again, rarely are those that "earn" billions in public health care, care givers, but takers.
Someone ask Dr. Ron Paul, or Ross Perot, why those with leverage, are able to negotiate better deals through intelligent design, leaving others as single payers, (poor unrepresented pension people,) to flip their expenses? Do we want to publicly sanction screwing over the poor with ignorance, to feed the pay no taxes either, talentless as lowly, highest ranking rich? I suppose if it means radiation treatments.. anti-psychotics or, the play time of genetically altered vaccine strains of true quackery, as has to be done trusting religiously on someone for our money. Money lost as investment on privilege in the market equation of lowering the human capital available to maximize the de-profiting of our shares for nothing but money grubbers. Again, Americans pay TWICE as much as Canadians per-capita, where for those dollars Canadians get full coverage, while Americans are then expected to go out and buy insurance now. TWICE. (Did you know that DO NOTHING hedge fund managers can "earn" as much as 1.7 billion per year in salaries by nickel and dooming everything? And, it's only an elite small few who are 'lawed' to do so? Now, who would want that in a free to be me democracy?)

traffic light for commies, traffic light for commies

A dying waged - by the painfully wealthy status-quo ignoramuses "this is the first step to socialized medicine!!" ahhh!!! caring doctors with calculators are connecting for better prices to improve care.. We'll take less and they'll be free to think.. FOR THEMSELVES! AHHH!!! bare ass and run for cover!! embarass for. a caring Doctor with math skills and Law is a comin' round, play smart stupid. "What do we do again"?, play smart stupid. . (`_`)

To fix this we must decide what this issue that encompasses the "Health Care Industry", is passing ourselves away off as. Politicians who promote pushing the power of pill popping to purchase your peace of mind is phucked,

Do Republicans mean to bring health care suffering out of control with no market values, because truly they have little of no skills when it comes to fixing their own buffoonery? Hmm... unless they count to hide the bean all together, fixing the game intentionally to have US lose by remote controlling stupidity! 300 channels, and nobody's taking our call from the space cased file of, "what's this freedom war against Life for again"? Look, is mercury as a medicine good or bad do you think?, let's ask someone for Christ's sake. Or for Deb, Henry, Bill, Beth, Mark, Carol or Tony. Johnny Wizard, our everyday normal magic man of folklore, opens up the stage to ask all the people together, "Are we Man or machine to take this all lying down quietly"? We need to talk about what a King like me, is doing in a place like this, under appreciated, and left alone without my home, dying for a break in radio running, as President of the company that started the sands running, Shareware Earth Co., a god-like production of miracle and wonder!! You just participate, and you won't even believe how good we could have it, Rejoice, for Johnny Jesus has come down for diplomatic talks. Give away! Give away!

Again, CNN, CBC, and FOXNEWS, (who advertise their listening) suggest G.W. Bush and Co. have publicly acted nothing warranting immediate arrest, or have openly supported the great Kucinich's plan for Impeachment, and consequently, are leveraging America into this mess 'because' we were portrayed as sold to the U.N. for freedom as Iraqis Grand Strategy. BOGUS! Nothing about the PLANNING of killing people indiscriminately for financial criminal gains as bonafide terrorists, for we had unrestricted access prior to dropping bombs for mangy LIAR neocons. ORHA. I have yet heard FOXNEWS complain in pains of liar BUSH personally being the al-Qaida cause responsible, (like Alex Jones sells foolishly falsely also) More than a million INNOCENT people have been murdered directly by the criminal action of the broken Bush Rule, UN-CONSTITUTIONAL! Don't they know of what You speak? Now???

Make it so,

President and CEO of Shareware Earth Co.
King Johnny Wizard

Christ is Person ! ! !

A reminder: Peres, the Devil demon LIAR, sounds as sweet as any little old man could, but for the fact that he LIES about targeting innocent godly people for murder! While playing ignorance, as if, he doesn't faith G-D as a real Jew would from Israel. Zionists are atheists who lie as neocons who sacrifice all for ill gotten money stolen from US as the blind foolished already with G-D from the Ol? Testament, all on how this Life suspends storied belief as Devine, to say finally, out loud, "hey wait a minute, who's in charge here?", is really something of a miracle. At least when I say it.

Justice to the bushite, Justice to the enemies of America, so called out the Son to God as King of men:

BELIEVE!

Like, so in walks this, out of work time Lord who thinks to converse to the masses about the most basic of reasons to save the lives of innocent others, leaving him convinced, he really needed an audience for this fable to rise as profitable venture. So, it was followed to make it out there in this real world, is to care for Justice measured. All done so to bring greater hope for a better future as all would follow, boy, were they surprised!

Johnny Wizard has arrived..

Spare me some money won't you please for this art of tragedy?

P.S. I'm still hoping that Coast to Coast will bill me godman co-host, all to openly address these freedom for all operations, with Justice ruling our way over the irrational tyrannies practiced by others happily blinded. Evidence is required to convince ourselves on who is good or evil. Period. Don't like it? Too bad. We are on charged!!

Intelcenter.com = alqaida videos you can get nowhere else!

It is important to also realize, this intecenter terror bringer does nothing to sell the arrest of the actual perpetrators of 911 by supporting our Policed requirement to form actual evidenced conclusions in our the land of the make believe. Now, who personally are these pro-bushite anti-American terror scripters, and what is it going to take to find an informed citizenry out in these here parts, to make the proper conclusions by phone calling for furthering our infos around to channels of command of the big ringers in the sky. I'm sure we's a be furious over these facts of high treason in America if we were allowed to freely say as much on our radios and TVs. Al-Qaida = General Mahmoud Ahmad

That's what I'm talking about.

BUSHITE AMERKA CLAIMS THIS DOESN'T WARRANT THE DEATH SENTENCE?

Again, evil bushite THIEVES claim they are justified when indiscriminately bombing populated cities to MURDER US People.

General Johnny would teach MY soldiers to immediately arrest to kill for such criminality. In fact, I'd likely even throw in some bonus cash, an a Freedom medal from all lovers of Liberty. Did you know, many bushite sing a song about killing innocent young girls for pleasure? Did you know that also, an "American" radio host likes playing that same song as recorded on "American" airwaves? Fight back for God, or die from self contempt my friends, fight back for life and love.

Again, evil bushite THIEVES claim they are justified when indiscriminately bombing populated cities to MURDER US People.
All to help 'escape' the neocon ENEMIES of America - they also support "officially" destroying Our public infrastructure, thieving humanitarian aid, while incarcerating innocent people to collectively be punished by the TRULY Satanic enemies of GOD. Ten "CIA" bushite enemies have been found to have kidnapped near one thousand innocent Americans to be tortured to death, in tyrannical nations friendly under American funding by Bush unquestioningly. Fight back for your neighbor, fight back for America, fight back for YOURSELF. Or, don't.

See the bushite, you bill it for Christ, You bill it for America, You bill it for them, you bill it for US.

Murdering bushite gang rapists try escaping true accountability

http://womensspace.wordpress.com/2006/07/09/rape-of-the-hadji-girl-part-3-five-more-us-soldiers-charged-abir-hamzah-was-14-years-old/

/ / Why did the Army, within three hours, return to tell neighbors that this was the work of insurgents apparently without any investigation? \ \

See? in Johnny's world, that "the Army" person would have been the FIRST questioned, then likely arrested. But look, it hasn't even been acknowledged as evil doing in progress. (Every time you read, "The Army says..", become aware.)

It should be noted, ungodly bushite enemy commanders call every car bomb in Iraq, al-Qaida, without even pretending to do freedom operations for YOUR protections, as just another dead body in the rubble. (Likely caused by Aegis for cash profit.) So then, look my friends, Amerka refuses to demand justice to save the lives of their very own sons and daughters. And when, WE, Humanity, beg them to answer our calls for accountability, they refuse but for to LIE, stating publicly, "God" would grant robbing from innocent others, to enrich their great unholy tyrannical demon liar. They know easily that the bushmob did 911, and they like it. No, they crave it. The chance of murdering their own "loves" to enslave the human race for the antichrist, sounds great, just as long as they can get themselves in on the take.

/ / Idiot General Says Dead U.S. Troops Best Reason To Keep War Going And Kill More U.S. Troops

[Option B: More Dead U.S. Generals And Fewer Dead U.S. Troops ?] \ \

If the sacrifice of soldiers lives is going to mean anything, it going to mean how long it took, Americans to care for themselves as really worth something. When, or if that day should come, it will be the day where Iraqis victims are seen, as just you or me. Today, there is nothing more i wish, than to hear bushite nazi savage thieves for the neocon die rightly, before the innocent they target for murder. All in an attempt to 'escape' those truly responsible for the crimes of 911 a bushite whore practices, as an enemy to Christ and America.

Just look at that my friends of Earth just look at that. Americans speak only contempt for the value of human life. Every day, INNOCENT Iraqis die by the criminal actions of the demonic neocon enemy forces of EVIL, and our deaths as the god loving mean nothing. A small few die in a bridge ACCIDENT, and every corporate channel devotes the entire day's news as it. Allawi confesses to killing children for "CIA" money, and there, as with the soldiers who braggingly, beat innocent children to death for sexual pleasure, bomb people indiscriminately, or steal all the humanitarian aid, don't command your slightest concern as impartial paying for it TV viewers. They say, US people who aren't "Americans", do not deserve due process, the freedoms they claim to own exclusively, of which WE, are granted nothing of. See?, by not using evidence to from your guilty verdicts, how can it be therefore possible, to know, you've arrested, tried, then executed a mass murdering NEOCON war criminal? I don't think Americans could possibly be more disrespectful to God and country, Johnny and Justice right now, do You?

So, million dollar saleries? I doubt. Likely a neocon enemy or two robbing from an undefended America. Remember, Peter Power wants US to believe ALL of Scotland Yard would murder Brits for stolen bucks. Frankly chaps, I just refuse to believe such bullocks.

The part where pro-bush "American" soldiers drive over children to kill them for fun, all because they say our Humanity let's those responsible escape retribution for being Satanically evil as enemies to Christ, left me angered beyond words. While CNN, CBC, and FOXNEWS couldn't care less for those children, but will tell us, these 9 accident victims must rule, so far, two full days of wall to wall coverage. "Pro-Western" Allawi blowing up school buses for "CIA" money? Who cares? Really who cares in TV America for defending OUR children's lives I'm saying? Get me in the

Time is Up

Al-Qaida Kagan "Al-Qaida, their whole strategy revolves around generating sectarian violence, because that is how they embed themselves within local communities "

What?? For friendship?

What is the demon TRAITOR to HUMANITY in America saying about the reasons he embeds an Iraqi under 50 odd divergent NEOCON labels? Wouldnt most Al-Qaida take great joy in killing a bushite nazi grunt like any real Family man would also? These LIAR dumfuk grunts who cheer "whore yeah", routinely, can barely read or write, so, how possibly does this FOXNEWS expert, expect such ungodly antichrist forces to delineate Al-Qaida from the local communities they PROVABLY indiscriminately bomb as Satanic?

Kristol and Kagan: Put Everything Behind Escalation So We Can Bomb Iran and Syria

Kristol and Kagan MUST be put to death for treason against America, treason against Life, treason against GOD. They both have continued to Publicly advocate murdering more innocent peoples indiscriminately they call, "Al-Qaida", all to rob further monies from an undefended America. It is easily learned by any as all, the victims of bushite tyranny are exclusively, US, The People, guilty of nothing but our shared love of GOD. Remember forever: there was NO JUSIFIED REASON for bombing PEACEFUL Samara, NONE! that bombers confess was done as ordered by Allawi INDISCRIMINATELY, all for getting killed Marines sent in later for more stolen cash from America. P2OG. [hundreds of bushited Marines died rightly almost immediately - (wow eh?)] A Satanic action, Kistol and Kagan, both blame without thought to question on "Al-Qaida".

The action of Satanic bushite bombers targeting Samara as war criminals is FULLY documented.

Death to the bushite neocon LIARS, death to the enemies of Freedom for Humanity. My beloved friends of GOD, please, when you see the mute bushite, kill it for Christ, kill it for Love, kill it to defend your loved family. of doctors and nurses that treated wounded god loving women and children from Fallujah. It was these DOCUMENTED acts that had him thrown out of 'the CBC, CNN, and FOXNEWS TV expert scene as workable', all for fears that US humans might actually wake the fuk up on WHO is Our True Enemies here. All three, pro-private-bank zionist news stations are well aware that the bushmob did 911, but lie to YOU as forsakenly dying for their growing riches and world wide broadcast fame.

CBC National Newz - July 11th 'tens of thousands have died in Iraq since the war against truth started.'

Anyway, these two Allawi incidences are fully documented, look it up, then demand the "The US" pro-western politician person quoted as supporting Allawi - be found guilty of CRIMES AGAINST HUMANITY, Demand publicly, having the neocon zionists EXECUTED by America, for America, as America. A Just America that defends America from criminal madness. Or don't. Death to the bushite, death to the enemies of Man I say.

ABCNEWS.com : FBI Called off Terror Investigations

A question Johnny Wizard has for America: Tell me, is this not a treasonous act - for Bush to close criminal investigations, immediately after the terrorist crimes of 911? Shouldn't the demon enemy be put to arrest for that godless act alone in this forsaken dying world? A world left instead suffering further the tyrannies of the war criminal ENEMY of all Human Life?

A refresher: the neocon will tell you openly, they live to lie to the Public for cheating and stealing by murder of US, innocent peoples purposefully enslaved by a made ignorantly entranced TV audience that is repeated reminded, we have no power worth respecting.

CNN, CBC, and FOXNEWS arent taking are calls presently, but just lie and tell US they do. Look to see, almost all political internet traffic condemns Bush straight to hell well he rightly belongs, but the polls still say no - WE, seeking for Just cause, are the minority.. just roll over and die for the neocon betrayers to god and country, life and loving.

George Bush "The same folks that are bombing innocent people in Iraq were the ones who attacked us in America on September the 11th"

George Bush 'Iraq has nothing to do with 911, you bunch of nazi dumfuk grunting LOSERS. Whore yeah - praise Satan - die America die. I mean... I love Jesus'

So it was as I thought too: the direct co-operation of the joint chiefs of staff assisting General Ahmad, in committing the murder of thousands in America on 911 for the neocon TRAITORS, as the same 'escaping' enemies today, responsible for 'secretly' ordering these indiscriminate terror attack bombings against YOUR Humanity for their continuing stolen pleasures as Satanic.

OBSTRUCTING JUSTICE FOR AMERICA

Tony Snow "The executive branch is under no compulsion to testify to Congress because Congress, in fact, doesn't have oversight abilities."

IT LOOKS like they are going to attempt making the move of BLATANTLY TREASONOUS war criminals acting to measurably now destroy yOur Freedoms in godless America. The Satanic neocon's 'faith', is in that YOU as an American, will watch the same corporate drivel that offers next to nothing to empower YOURSELF to speak Justly for a dying America. Instead of demanding 24 hour, wall to wall news coverage, of war criminals going down one by one by the will of Man to Justice, CNN, CBC, and FOXNEWS will broadcast your blind 'belief' that you are only a impartial viewer, who doesn't really care about dying right in front of yourself for the zionist's riches, and great worldly power of tyranny through lawless nazi bushite censorship.

"Al-Qaida" = "General Mahmoud Ahmad" = "bush's ungodly partners in crime"

Jesus man, do I truly hate these zionist nazi thieving LIARS on our magic TV shows who con our kids to die as bad guys.
How about You?

/ / If Bush and his PNAC buds are innocent, then Investigate 911! What have innocent people to fear from a fair, complete and real investigation? \ \

They are guilty, so, of course, the demon Bush enemy, OBSTRUCTED JUSTICE FOR AMERICA.

I hear the national radio program Coast to Coast is still feeding us neocon lies. Why don't you make the call for Johnny.. believe in yourself for a change why don't you?, buddies??... I am Your god king. King Johnny I am. Champion of Universal Life! Not enough? Who cares?, to allow US speak on our broad casts as legitimate? Worried I'm going to love Life as truly honorable, and Greater than those who openly lie to our soldiers to have them unjustly die for no better good or reason understood? Let us make life better than the neocon envision, and support our rise to popular acclaim by allowing US to speak openly for public challenge in defense of America.

Death to the neocon soldier, death to the enemies of Man.

ISRAEL PEDDLING WHORES TO ATTRACT TOURISTS
http://desertpeace.blogspot.com/2007/06/israel-peddling-flesh-to-attract.html

[The freely self confessed child murderers of the IDF, tell US as demon liars, they're "Jews". Anyone in Israel KNOWS this factually to be so. For, the zionist forbid 'by law', to allow military service from anyone in Israel who disagree that God would will the thieving and murder of the completely innocent in GOD accepting without question. Now why would YOU want that?]

The nazi IDF does what Canada's dope pusher O'Conner suggests we accept. Demon enemy bushite in Afghanistan murder children without real understanding 'by accident', [no evidence is shown to ANYONE, just treasonous demon evil bushite necon spewing, "red handed"] lies after lies, while, the Taliban, we are told, are so much worse, because they would murder "ANYONE." Make sense? No. Remember: (The bush regime has been found funding Al-Qaida in Iran to commit terrorist acts against COWARDLY soldiers without free minds to speak in their own defenses.)

/ / The group is demanding his impeachment not only for his crimes against humanity but for lying to the American people about his worship of Satan. \ \

It almost makes me laugh, and then, I push to remind, we are so very far from where civilized is dreamed to reside. Look, think of US as actors, (because that is who we are,) and support my rise to proclaim by the will of a suffering for real human kind. Believe in US, as if your life depends on it, because it does my friends, because it does. Live free or die unwillingly.

AMERICA HATES BUSHITE

Nationally broadcasted every day across America, Mr. George Norry publicly supports the murder of innocent Arab children, and I'm beginning to really hate a silent dying America for it. Speak to defend the innocent in this world American, or die yourself from self contempt.

Bushites war LIFE itself. So then pleads I again the Son to God, as Man to Men: war to kill the enemy bushite nazi savage thieves, for real Freedom is waged truly by Just causes. The mute, pro-censorship/tyranny THIEVING bushite savaged nation, has NO EXCUSE for the crimes they have committed in our dying names. I demand our voices heard internationally for Justice as Freedom is Godly.

To, with a Love in your Heart for GOD, kill such contempt for Human life, is to serve American freedom to the last bushite neocon breathing. Death to the neocon soldier, death to the enemies of Man.

/ / "They can try to have their votes of no confidence," the president said, "but it's not going to determine - make the determination - who serves in my government."

MY government? Now that's entitlement. And you thought George Bush didn't have a vision for America \ \

Hitler, the mad man, wasn't as insane as our demon enemy George Bush Jr. is.

/ / The [BUSHITE ENEMY] US has said it would refuse any request by Italy to extradite the accused [satanic bushite torturers of completely INNOCENT PEOPLE]. \ \

Christ, The Son of Man, Begs the Godly Men of Earth

Christ, The Son of Man, begs the godly men of Earth, to judicially bill on sight, any neocon soldier who supports the carnage waged in Afghanistan as cop killing dope pushers. They shoot innocent women and children dead in the streets for humor, and bushite pirates at CBC and CNN, state bushite in Afghanistan are doing a good thing helping the bushmob escape the crimes of 911 by warring for Muslim fundamentalism, persecuting INNOCENT women and Christians, while for entertainment, bomb innocent families running for their lives from a Holy Church. Soulless child killing soldiers who CBC execs would tell are our DEMONIC heroes. Lawless dope pushing cop killers have got to go down dead screaming, instead of the innocent - YOU and me they target for MURDER. Death to the dishonorable bushite THIEVES, death to the enemy neocon LIARS of GOD and man.

We can really be something greater, while a murderous bushite thief, a LIAR, can hardly read or write Liberty without flinching from self contempt.

Kill a bushite LIAR, why don't you my brothers and sisters of the faith in something greater than bushite godless tyranny?

Brig. General David Fraser - former nazi commander of NATO who 'okayed' the bombing of defenseless innocent Afghan women and children for the Satanic enemies of Man, stated on CBC, he liked killing police officers, along with innocent women and children, (deliberately targeted for the pleasures of the demon antichrist) because, Afghanistan's children hope to learn. See? The bushite 'will' murder all our children and teachers on hope that we will never learn the Taliban, led by "Omar the Just", were loyal to Christ as REAL American Freedom, when publicly demanding evidence to form your conclusions. Thus is why the ENEMY to LIFE neocon state on YOUR TV and radio, WE must never be allowed to speak openly with the Taliban regarding the FACTS. Because if we did, neocon pension thievers would be hunted down in the streets for public trial, and then gloriously put to death by Christian values committed to TRUE freedom from lawless godless zionist LIAR tyrannies against Mankind - YOU included.

George Norry and Art Bell are the most evil of bushite, who as betrayers of the Human race, deny soldiers to know: General Ahmad funded Atta. They will both support the murder of Your American Son or Daughter for further zionist evils, before allowing true open line communications, to defend ourselves from the lawless demon enemies of Man. Do something about it, or don't. Let TRUTH set US free.

Instead of making an easy phone call today for your dying brothers and sisters, die as Satanic bad guy enemies of Life on Earth, sacrificed in cowardice to the real demon antichrist, and see if we, the true, strong, and free, care.

The Son of Man SCREAMS before coming home to GOD'S America:
We are coming to destroy Satanically lawless bushite enemies, all for the love of God, we shall succeed my friends, we shall succeed. I will not willingly live in a forsaken world with LIAR zionist war criminals conning US to believe, God is not Great, True, Strong and Just.

Die bushite die!

God is Great

Again, George W. bush did 911 with General Ahmad, but CBC zionists, actual treasonous LIARS, actually smile to dying Canadian soldiers with only true contempt. CBC kills Canadian kids, with their intentional demon lies, trying to subvert

Justice for God and Johnny. In fact, yesterday, they did a special, all on how "God is NOT Great", giving that bush bitch demon LIAR, all the space to pontificate it's hatred for Wisdom, Science, and GOD, with only nods and smiles from the 'illiterate' hord. Remember: A zionist KNOWS it's an enemy of Humanity when it supports dropping seven million land minds to murder indiscriminately OUR CHILDREN for decades, or stealing a Christians Home because they say God says Jews would do such ungodly acts. Blame innocent Jews the holocaust denying zionist shout, of which not one, is a Jew. Like me.

To Kill a Bushite, is to be Heroic

Pro child killer George Norry, enemy of the American soldier, still blabs about how more must die unjustly for bin Laden with LIES, knowing full well, video of steel flowing like water from the WTC exists, and that General Ahmad funded Atta. George Norry is a traitor to the FBI, who further plans more to die sacrificed under the censorship of the tyrant antichrist. Who cares I ask about America truly dying as neoCONNED, for George Norry has millions to not take your calls for protection, and honestly, 'Americans' couldn't care much less for Our Humanity's future. Live free by defending liberty by killing pro lawless pro torture pro fascist bushite enemies my friend, live free by defending Yourself and GOD.

Love to God Gives US Strength of American children everywhere. GOD praises all Men, who kill the murderous bushite enemies of Just causes. The THIEVING satanic bushite forces, speak only contempt for GOD on our demandings of the public execution of the boastful terrorists, like the bushite who video taped the murderous assault of OUR kidnapped bare footed children, or murdered Iraqis while desecrating ELVIS, done all to please the "escaping" satanic demon antichrist zionist, Our Mr. bush Jr., who with his private business partner, General Ahmad, actually committed the ungodly treasons of 911 in a land of blind men sleeping., according to the eternally Honorable FBI anyway.

But see?, the bushite fodder, can't care enough for Life to read, because it already knows like the zionist, it's an ungodly coward and a thief, as siding to lying and censorship, this will out work for evil doers in the long run without any consequences to themselves as Our sworn eternal enemy.

Bushites 'think' that being Satanic brethrens for the LIAR neoCON, they'll die sacrificed not seen by all Patriot Warriors, as a dead coward - too fearful to stand as a godly Man for true accountability to living Life honorably. Cheney, McCain, and 911's gooliannie believe, You can only TV 'see' them protected Satanically by "Molech" [THEIR DEMON COG] Immune from REAL American Justice the bushite bray, We are told they believe so anyway. Kucinich for President!
http://www.democracynow.org/index.pl?issue=20070524

Now, it's true, America's Alex Jones states Kucinich wants to take away all your guns, and is a communist, but, Alex as sometimes, is terrified of those who seek the requirements to defend freedom directly, as more specific. (Example: NWO isn't the name of the specific guy who financed 911 to murder America.) So, as a consequence, he gets near ridiculous with labels applicable to generalizations only dummies could believe blindly. With Kucinich campaigning on ACCOUNTABILITY, Alex Jones looks quite foolish. But, he's still trying. Thank god for that. Thank god for that. Talk radio in America should take open line calls on our ideas about how to actually plan to defeat these, found factually to be, traitors to God and Country.

Bush Successful at Permanent Legalization of Torture
http://www.prisonplanet.com/articles/march2006/070306Torture.htm

/ / The truth is that the Bush Administration has used the McCain anti-torture bill to codify a policy of torture that is now embedded in our legal system for perpetuity. \ \

McCain is some kinda demon enemy of God isn't he? To say publicly, he apposes torturing innocent people to death for the practicing Satanic bushite LIAR bad guys, leaves US thinking, shouldn't WE put McCain to death for OFFICIALLY sanctioning such criminality? I'd easily, without a second thought, put to death all those FOXJunkies in that debate audience who cheered from hell with JOY, the prospect of torturing innocent people to death, 'if it means' such IRRATIONAL action protects "American lives". See? the Magic TV and radio people refuse to allow me or anyone to think through such absent minded ungodly EVIL intent. Example: If you take FOXNews' word for it, and 'knew' your potential victim knows for sure of an impending terror attack... ...
.. . How so? See? demon enemy f-cks, the ungodly bushite nazi vermin haters of Justice measured, [who steal in MY America as TRUE EVIL DOERS,] forbid such wisdom communicated as understood, for that would mean, we'd have to allow the real Victims more air time.

And wise poor men such as myself would command respect and gratitude.

and together, WE'D be hunting down those bushite liars who torture innocent people to death for their satanic pleasures.
For, you know it does warrant the Death Sentence in America, right? (You can thank Reagan for that...)

/ / In a move that hardly indicates that he was a terrorist plotting to attack a US government installation Tatar then went to the Philadelphia police department to complain that he was being pressured by someone into getting a map of Fort Dix and that he thought this had something to do with a terrorist plot. \ \

Didn't see this on our TV news either did You?

Pill popping American GI teens are becoming.. CRACKHEADS!

http://www.zmag.org/ZMag/articles/march02levine.htm

/ / Dexedrine affect the same neurotransmitters as cocaine; and ADHD drugs and cocaine are both classified by the DEA as Schedule II psychostimulants (Schedule II drugs are legal drugs that have the highest potential for abuse and addiction). \ \

American grunts get FREE all the Dexedrine they can shoot

Do you know how a crackhead finds itself? Lost by indifference to the ultimate, only goal, more dope. Freedom Fighter? or crackhead WHORE, who hopes to find a dollar 'somewhere' to stave off it's crackmaster, the "American People", led by the un-elected demon dictator, our criminal Mr. bush Jr., as the true enemies of all Mankind. Bushites are on serious dope to be so dumb as cowardly accomplices to a traitor of themselves, that they would die as, before actually defending God's America - that they gave an Oath to.

I guess a soldier's word doesn't count for much in bushville.

The bushmob did 911 as traitors to God and Country, don't you know anything worth living for? my dying unjustly brothers and sisters? My friends, please fear not wisdom communicated by a REAL Man, for, we explain ourselves to the best of YOUR ability to listen simply. G. W. Bush used no evidence to form America's "conclusion" on who did US wrong on 911. So, Please, stop forsaking yourself, for, we're going nowhere. Support Johnny's call to demand open debate without censorship from the magic radio and TV execs, who hide in darkness, pretending to be our friends, while refusing intelligent dialog to answer any of our big troubles easily. Why?

because largely, they're powerless without beating us down as giving 'Christ like' VICTIM so much - with their irrational ignorance for our survivals by the fittest. The fittest Ideas that rule this Universe, are the simplest, most easy to understand, but I digress about GOD'S greatness, for we know,. the corporate media elites as our voice, "Couldn't Care Less".

CBC just did a report about all the great heroin coming in from Afghanistan, that will still cause crime, and be illegal, (and maybe give you life in prison as an American,) but brought in with the help of the demonically evil bushite thieving murderous military, by the likely ton full to attack our direct family left un-protected, BY YOU PERSONALLY. And guess what? THEY, our media masters, couldn't care less if they actually tried to be our good guys. Reminder: the god guys is good, the demon liar antichrist demon enemies who thieve from Life with censorship is bad. If they hide ourselves too far, they loose all around, up and down. So get to it. Or don't. Your choice. Life lived Now, or damnable death by cowardly design brought forthwith under your own power to do nothing under such terrible costs against our suffering natures.

Typical tyranny for media control over all of Life for the beginners is this treasonous betrayal against our Nature, by refusing to be honest about our potential to be far greater than first considered. If they'd only allow US to have open communications, all our worlds would be better living for it.

Demand Coast to Coast hosts allow America to defend America.

I want air time with the one and only real man in these here parts, Mr. Johnny America, our glorious make believe creator of all we perceive religiously, self realized. He's a genius!

As so is the Satanically practicing (with Molech and everything) repuglicons straight across the board, who, as a few demoncrates too, support the CRIMINAL escape of the bushmob through threats against the innocent LOVED by GOD ALMIGHTY. A REAL GOD with A REAL SON. McCain has got to go. Please, I, The Son of Man, the MAN of men, beg and plead again to all able bodied persons, see the thieving bushite zionist, kill it to defend Christ, kill it to defend America, kill it to defend any or all children of LIFE. Kill it with the honor and courage every REAL PATRIOT has to defend his own family my friend, lastly, kill it for me. These naked LIAR enemies who bank to thieve more from Iraq, Afghanistan and America, must be brought down by Humanity's ultimate triumph over tyranny through Law. A just law, where those accused without any evidence are Innocent, and WORTHY yOur defenses. Get to it.

Kill any bushite bomber and be loved by God's America.

Death to the zionist bushite enemy forces

/ / After it was revealed by the Plaid Cymru MP Adam Price that British trained policemen had tortured prisoners to death with drills, we discovered, through the New York Times (!!), that American intelligence officers had been working alongside them at the Jamiyat police station \ \

Death to the zionist bushite enemy forces, death to the ungodly enemies of Man who torture innocent people to death for fun - expecting Johnny's America will not raise a word in defense for the Human race, or our guns to defend our loyal brothers to the cause of Justice. Death to the bushite, death to God's enemies who lie cheat and steal from Humanity to assist in the escape of those responsible for 911.

BASELESS?

/ / Prime Minister Stephen Harper "We will conclude a formal agreement so that we never again face these baseless allegations," he said. Thirty Afghan detainees have claimed they were beaten, whipped, given electric shocks and denied food once they were transferred to Afghan security forces by the Canadian military \ \

These demons who war for ZIONIST censorship are a bunch a dope pushing cop killers, who murder innocent people they call 'Taliban' better known as in Arabic - students.

Proudly kill the bushite who would drop from the sky,SEVEN MILLION landmines on our cities to kill our children for decades indiscriminately, while offering our Humanity to God no apologies. Proudly kill the bushite savages all to desperately survive ourselves creating a better world through fair, free market communications. To warring for Liberty as true Freedom wills, is for Justice understood as measured, not just made up out of nowhere for the pleasures of those truly Satanic. They Couldn't Care Less

The 82 Airborne, in assisting in defending the world wide distribution and production of heroin, tells of murdering innocent farmers, that would never raise a gun in anger, are those they openly confess to target for first degree murder as labeled the, second tier Taliban. That's when not defending American Pension thiever ENRON'S pipeline managed under their extremist Muslim fundamentalist regime of intolerance for

/ / [...] the [New York Times] piece details the torture of [Innocent People] Sunni prisoners at one of the new American-Iraqi "security stations" \ \ Kill the bushite for America, for Justice is Freedom. Lawless mercenaries are not granted by our will to survive truly. A "lawless" enemy granted "immunity" by bushite evil phonies, is that of which, holds ourselves in their confessed contempt for Justice. Receive thanks from everyone, GOD included, by rightly destroying such inexcusable treasonous ungodly enemies of all human life.

Torture is a crime against God and Humanity. So, likewise, joyously, with pride, destroy the neocon traitors of Justice - for the true Love you have as Freedom willed - is as granted. Don't buy their demon lies by blind blanket false assertions, against YOUR Humanity's Innocence in tyrannical bondage, all done in to fool you believing, we have no rights to be heard in our presence - here existing freely. Therefore, to survive US all for something better, halt the 'escaping' murderous bushite thieves for God and America. SOLDIERS: Instead of dying for nothing, my wannabe Patriot Brothers, try joining Liberty's cause, which is our cause truly. Is it because corporate TV zionist money whores, are cowardly and ignorant, as evil hypno muggers, in MY dying for real America, that YOU refuse to speak Now in your Humanity's begging further defense?, on evidence being the only requirement to establish a person's guilt or innocence? for ungodly terrorist activities committed in our name by bushite bombers from the neo-conned AIR FORCE, who, as rotted juveniles, cheeringly bomb us People indiscriminately leaving a Church as something TRULY SATANIC? To dare, in our presence, continue threatening harm against an innocent child of wonder, not yet even born to God's suffering world? Bushites war LIFE itself. So then pleads I again the Son to God, as Man to Men: war to kill the enemy bushite nazi savage thieves, for real Freedom is waged truly by Just causes. The mute, pro-censorship/tyranny THIEVING bushite savaged nation, has NO EXCUSE for the crimes they have committed in our dying names. I demand our voices heard internationally for Justice as Freedom is Godly.

SATANIC AMERICA

/ / After playing a tape of Cheney's statement, Russert asked Daschle, "Did the vice president call you and urge you not to investigate the events of Sept. 11?" \ \

911 "truthers" don't want to address the hard evidence like the clear as day video of steel running like water from the WTC towers, for, as Humanity witnesses, they'd rather watch silently, children murdered indiscriminately, before, acknowledging wise godly men from our communities who speak ONLY facts on America's derision for real, open market Free communications - freedom fighters who ACTUALLY defend the innocent from the neocon bushmob traitors. Each day we hear of near hundreds of US murdered by the godless Satanic THEIVING "American" forces in Iraq. without near a peep of concern by "America". Lawless bushite mercenaries torture rape and murder, paid to do so by the WILLING American tax payer, and near 300 million "People" (the NAZIS) can't find the effort to pick up a princely phone and call the ENEMY pro child killer George Norry, (who broadcasts every day across America nationally for the IRRATIONAL neocons,) to air any real concern for our Lives. True, the demon enemy censors OUR calls, and contrives WE a buyer without questions, but he doesn't censor You always forever. So, get to it fukhead, JOHN is growing angry with americans of EVIL ignoramuses escaping the bushmob for crimes against MY HUMANITY. The Son of Man States: Death to the bushite, death to our MURDEROUS enemies, who lie cheat and steal to assist in the further criminal escape of the ungodly bushmob for 911 as TRAITORS.

IF he gets HIS way he says - as minding for the criminal master. True, Americans are generally, extremely cowardly as Bush's freely giving PAYERS, led for more ungodly sacrifices in fascistic silence, but this continuing charade of incompetence gathering against our entire Humanity, is going way beyond acceptable to everyone concerning. Johnny Wizard conceivers and otherwise non-believers state together:

The Iraq war against Christ has no true justifiable cause.
Torture is against the law warranting immediate death sentences
The Zionist AIR FORCE bomb people indiscriminately as Satanic
The bushmob stole all the Development Funds for Iraq
The bushmob are stealing ALL of Iraq's oil
The bushmob stole 100s of billions from censored AMERICANS, while George W. Bush personally stole 50 billion from America in the first four months of stealing the initial election.

/ / "I grabbed her little sister and put her in front of me . . as the bullets began to fly, the blood sprayed from between her eyes, and then I laughed maniacally." [, then were heard the cheers of godless bushite dumfuk traitors obscening to God and Man as the unholy enemy.]

What ever happened to butterfly kisses after evening prayers?

Are you telling me, an American Father, wouldn't gloriously kill this lawless bushite enemy and his demonic ilk, for our love of girls everywhere? Or, how about the UNARRESTED soldiers we witnessed on video beat shoeless children pratically to death while laughing and cheering? Or like those that speak zero defenses for Haditha's confessed MASS MURDERING irrational women and child killers? The REAL demons CONFESS to going into a house, WITHOUT reasoned approach, and slaughtering an entire INNOCENT family.. for nothing but their lifeless SATANIC pleasures. The 'cause'? "The [mass pleasure of the president

US Attorneys don't serve "the pleasure of the president", they serve freedom lovers dedicated to defending America from willful criminality. But, americans are too stupidly weak to demand Coast to Coast hosts allow open communications on America's highest of concerns. Bushite america would rather, in silence, thieve from God as our Humanity, than serve the protections of Justice as ourselves.

/ / According to the Islamic understanding of power, the Mujahideen don't compete for the positions in the leadership. \ \

"Those who negotiate in the name of the Taliban will be killed," he [the bushite nazi dumfuk 'Taliban' 2nd in command] said. He did not elaborate.

Hmmm. Allah is all, and negotiating for freedom from naked bushite tyranny is won EASILY through communicating understanding. The tribal strategy of Afghan fighters, where Allah is Oonerroh, seems to be not the only thing missing from the statements of this "Taliban" RELIGIOUS FUNDEMENTALIST top top top leader. Only "second" to Omar the Just. (Apparently an individual this current bushite incantation of "Dadullah" is totally un-familiar of.) Omar, the Just, whom Dadullah claims he receives his Top Secret nobody can see'im orders. In other winds: Bill a bushite for God and America, an all day long you'll have good faith in a world freeing ourselves of godless dumfuk tyranny implemented by the horribly foolish, as deeply ignorant of Allah, bushite demon liars for the traitor neocon. TRAITORS!

"Those who negotiate in the name of the Taliban will be killed," he [the bushite nazi dumfuk 'Taliban' 2nd in command] said. He did not elaborate.

Allah is all, and negotiating for freedom from naked bushite tyranny is won EASILY through communicating understanding. Omar the Just knew this to say so, as do I. And this is why corporate news professionals forbid me to speak openly without nazi censorship, ON OUR AIR-WAVES, because I am honorable, right, and true as believable. While America's fun guy, zionist George Norry, states to support PUBLICLY, the ungodly murder of innocent Arabic children for nothing but his personal contempt of YOUR DYING LIFE, while further wanting to invite thoughtlessly nuking places on Earth all for his secret hatred of US freely commutating. Typical bushite. Ending with to tell US again 'convincingly', that bin Laden did do 911 as a terror-ist bad guy in G's World!!?! How so? EH? How so? he don't care man, he don't care. He and his family have millions of dollars to sell you out, so why care for your struggle to survive in bushville soldiering? Frankly, George Norry is a total dickhead. True, he has lots of money in America, but he's still a dickhead nevertheless.

Alex Jones and me aren't on the best of speaking terms, but I will state, a desire to address every same challenge he has adroitly addressed as publicly lacking. And when I am addressed 'officially', I will campaign to put US in the space to realize, we are the government, we are the people. We don't need to run to the hills and encamp ourselves away to defend ourselves to the max from the man, we are the man. I'm telling yeh, I know this to be so as the sea is we magically. Equal rights for all in God's name is self evident. Self evident to ME anyway... but well.. who am i?, right - I'll tell you as I have for more than a decade as a living fiction forsaken for lack of anybody anywhere understanding in totality what I am here on Earth as true Son to Man - a 'understandable' timeless stand in for G to gain recognition through as honest broker. [I've been everywhere around forever, and.. blahblah.. I know people really don't care to know of ancient wisdoms, truths that guide the order to the Universe, cause often they think I'm beyond their comprehension as a 'better than', when all power is in equal respect for others as our hurting brothers and sisters suffering with tyranny by our collective willful ignorance on Justice.[God's bestest is Just for every reason being thus]] I am one serious genius by no accident in words you have as much right to contend for yourself being, if you'd only believe we have some good ideas here to really defend ourselves with.

Please my American friend, help US speak out freely Coast to Coast. So we together can start, on demanding Justice for all, as innocence in serious jeopardy. Dadullah is most likely an individual who holds at least some control over official military functions of NATO in the region. So, we're going to seed loyalties of the rare Patriots in the force to recognize our need to isolate who supports, not talking FREELY for peace easily in Afghanistan without question. No evidence was brought against Laden, therefore, the Taliban were True Patriots, and bushite traitors are pure racist nazi filth ridden, toxic, as being cowardly dishonorable as despicably evil, enemies to us all. Put US in Command.

Question the bushite, question to anyone who mumbles disagreement in the godly fact, that WE, as Humanity, will spend the better part of this next generation, hunting every last war profiteering nazi war criminal down for our real Freedom from their, so errorred "endless" tyranny of big money terror. Lawlessness with be outlawed, and ANY corporate american who mumbles otherwise, as an enemy totalitarianist, the clear ungodly, (as should be criminal,) will be put to challenge by their very own children, or parents, or bleeding dead brothers. Hannity must be tried for death as lying that the holocaust never happened from Iran. DEATH to the demon liar nazi fu-ker I say, DEATH to the demon liar nazi fu-ker.

"Al-Qaida" = "General Mahmoud Ahmad" = "bush's ungodly partners in crime"

Who IS running this bushite nazi liar show, where they, our elite corporate media masters, kill our stupid kids with their flagrant naked monster lies, while refusing all calls for clarity, Johnny America really wants to know. Like immediately. Help us out here some man, don't be evil.

/ / "Those who negotiate in the name of the Taliban will be killed," he said. He did not elaborate. \ \ He's either with the proven cowards of JTF2, or the two or three "CIA" guys secretly hunting bin Laden in caves out there with tens of billions of dollars. SPENT EACH YEAR 'unknowingly'. (No reason why, but, they just can't tell You, as the paying for it really while DYING) Put US in Command.

/ / The Mujahideen aren't students of power and don't compete for power like others do. We are students of truth and work for establishing this truth and for this cause we sacrifice our power \ \

/ / Timothy Griffin, Karl Rove's assistant, the President's pick as US Attorney for the Eastern District of Arkansas. Griffin, according to BBC Television, was the hidden hand behind a scheme to wipe out the voting rights of 70,000 citizens prior to the 2004 election. \ \ Timothy needs to be arrested for high treason, for fixing an election, or instead, what? we'll make him a State US Attorney in bushville?

kill all of them

/ / In his testimony on Wednesday, Pfc. Bradley Mason of Company C said that on May 8, the night before the raid, Colonel Steele told soldiers to ``kill all of them.'' Three other soldiers gave similar testimony. \ \

I would offer rewards for more soldiers to come forward. Why? because there truly is, no honor among thieves. Every bushite soldier in Iraq for the liar neocon is minimum, a purposeless dumfuked cowardly thief. See? if you offer a reward, and they don't take it, their 'fellow' bushite, kill'em for it, right? why take the risk it'll cash in over your worthless life? For, who can trust a lying bushite nazi savage? certainly not a lying bushite nazi savage. In other words: speak against committing war criminal acts of lawless aggression in Iraq for Bush, as CLEARLY un-American, and I'll try to forgive you as human. Or, I guess you'll kill yourselves in mutually muted total contempt for this universal life as actually worth something.

When you see and hear on video, sexually dysfunctional, as sadistically satanic grunt puke pro-bush soldiers moaning, while deliberately killing innocent defenseless Family People running for our dying lives from a holy church, or as just simply anyone standing near the side of the road, then, my friend, you'll begin to understand what evil actually is. And, what needs to be done to seriously save ourselves. Seriously. Justice must be won sooner than later.

Five Star American General Johnny Wizard will train American Soldiers to recognize such demonic behaviors in combat as worthy of immediate frag to defend the lives of truly fellow honorable soldiers. Soldiers ACTually, committed to freedom from godless satanic dumfuk tyranny of the antichrist demon, Mr. evil personified, the UN-ELECTED 911 TERRORIST, George Walker Bush and CO..

/ / "He realized that they had killed these three [innocent] detainees, and in that moment, yes, he decided to help his [ungodly murderously nazi fascist] squad members, [escape Freedom through Law wisely practiced]" Gorecki said. \ \

There is much self evident truth hovering above the realities of such statements. For the exampled fact, that he did actually use a weapon against 'his' troops, 'to save them punishment', says a great deal more than they contend we hear. Now really, how ''we be dying as godless war criminals for demon LIAR Bush'' dumb is that? (and how does such an evil thing steal our military command in an un-defended Johnny's America? as a dying for bushite tyranny, irrational neocon war wanker? like holy fu-k..) Remember: evil is real.

The time is now.

Let Johnny Wizard on Coast to Coast everywhere god damn them man, get US on the PUBLIC radio to make something better of ourselves by communicating freely. Do it!

Praise Jesus, and pass the ammo forthrightly. I'm a hungry man.

US officer "upset" Iraqi suspects taken alive, court hears http://www.telegraph.co.uk/news/main.jhtml?xml=/news/2007/03/14/wsoldier114.xml

/ / A US military officer sounded "pretty mad and upset" that a group of soldiers had taken suspected Iraqi insurgents alive during a raid in which they had been told to kill all military-aged males, a court was told Tuesday. \ \

Come on now, who wouldn't take great joy in destroying any and all such ungodly bushite hatred for Humanity in this light of day, eh? In fact,why don't American Congessmen, who believe in defending Liberty, campaign JUST that? Why not??? Is it because they're LIARS?

Like Coast to Coast's fun guy, he ain't taking our screams,

Rapists and torturers must not be allowed to rule our pirated bushmob for 911.

that sexual assault is illegal [...] \ \

Let's save some lives, what do you say guys?

Or, are we going to go further with this: George W. Bush:

YOU

"If the absence of violence is victory, no one will ever win."
http://cleveland.indymedia.org/news/2007/03/24652.php

I know, it's seems odd that I am, at the same time, offering answers to any question on the science of God as is pertains to Justice measured, but this is just who I am to be conscious man. So, if we can get over the shock of me being so especially normal, maybe we can then realize, I have some simple good old ideas that transcend through time by rational understanding communicable between any two people. I am not a "miracle worker" to all those I advise to not eat Aspartame because it's a poison that also makes your body crave un-needed carbs, that will likely convert to more unless fat.
So, it slowly kills you, while making you fatter than you need be along the dead end journey faithing in "the system". So, why do some do it religiously? Who cares (for now) but to say, our governments are failing US miserably. I spoke personally with one of the head scientists in Canada at "Health Food and Safety", and he told me the scientific analysis done by reputable scientists I found freely available repeatedly on the internet years ago, was completely true.
(It breaks down to formaldehyde, and methanol (a slow lethal poison), among other shockers. Poison. P-o-i-s-o-n-s in our food stuffs. Poisons.) However, he could take no action to defend Canadians "officially" because we, Canadians, have our corporate interest news departments completely refusing to defend ourselves from corporate exploitation anywhere, and as natural consequence, we, as the dying world, would together unrepresented, probably lose a law suit from mutant Monsanto through the self inflicted bounds of OUR censored WTO program.
- instituted through the top secretly mastered puppet people persons of the 'unseen' NWO I guess.

I'm telling you, we need me as King.

Look: Aegis's workforce, for American PAYING profit, has been publicly disclosed through CNN to be shooting people in Iraq indiscriminately for your money, and when the Pentagon was contacted by Nick Roberts about what would be done, they responded, nothing would be done by Johnny's America but to increase the multi-hundred-million dollar contract with demon enemy Tim Spicer to continue. Now... why you ask? Because the neocon liars, steal money by lying to cowardly American kids about what they mindlessly, without thought, give their souls for. Tim Spicer openly hires South African goons to commit hardships for American GIs to die without end for, in lawless tyranny. Peace sells less money for the neocon war profiteers to murder the innocent American as. (Iraqis, along with the rest of Humanity's Men, WILL eventually learn this truth, or life for you will end.) As an Arab hating bushite, (like what you'd find as a publicly proud practiced hatred for all Humanity, by an Amerkan dumfuk soldier in Google's alt.religion.islam), they say nothing for Freedom by Justice, but root themselves to Spicer's monsters who like killing black guys, as world renown mass murdering racist nazi filth. That's why zionist Israel loves them so much.

Look: Somebody stole four trillion dollars out of the Pentagon.

Look: Greenspan STOLE four trillion American dollars for his international billionaire banker friends before 'leaving'. [Asian market chaos SCAM]

Look: Lotteries everywhere in North America are running the same PROVEN criminal scams that cost US ALL billions and billions of public dollars that, without question, (as MATHEMATICAL FACT), regressively destroy our dying communities. CRIMINAL. [Solution: 100 percent cash payouts.]

Look: corporate magic TV people couldn't care less for US if they tried. Ahmad funded Atta. bin Laden claimed he played no part in 911. And video of iron running like water moments before the first tower fell is freely available for download all over the place. CBC, CNN, FOXnews et al. know the Bushmob did 911 in other words. I've spoken to most of those 'in control', and I'm telling you, they're losers, and they know it. Remember: they'll censor my voice to send YOUR child to die for no better good, or reason understood, while entertaining. Weekend TV in North America totally sucks. Now, why do YOU think that is brother? The more powerless they make US, the more money the neocon zionists can murder Humanity for, thinking they might just get away from this if we continue to take no action in defense of anyone as God would will. Let me be Your servant King, by backing me up some here. We need some dollars to eat, and I need it now before we starve to deaths.

Look: Barbra Bodine did the Cole bombing. [the Cole whose crew has been completely overhauled. Where are the many who served there NOW eh?]

Look: America has kidnapped countless thousands without evidence to be held against OUR will indefinitely. [Like the NOT Jewish Israel]

Look: innocent people are being tortured to death by those who hide OPENLY in America's uniform. [let US hunt them down for GOD, despite what demon lies they argue give them as Satanic to avoid "The Law".]

Look: the bushmob war profiteers STOLE the Iraqi Development fund

Look: the more than 100,000 security contractors for Bush are officially deemed lawlessly unaccountable to anyone - THINK ABOUT IT

Look: Negroponte PERSONALLY stole the Iraqi emergency water provision money

Look: Sattler OPENLY committed the worst war crimes of all Humanity's history

Look: I am a guy that is regularly denied public access to our national radio programs because I speak documented truths consistently on behalf of real honorable soldiers and police officers. I agree with most, if not all facts Alex Jones importantly brings to our attention, however, I almost as often, disagree with his conclusions.

Support my cause, which is your cause.

King Johnny Wizard
President and CEO

Senior Military analyst, Rob Riggle "In the field John, the soldiers are out there, every day, risking their lives, for a common Ideal: that none of the President's decisions be questioned."

This is more true than a bushite would admit before murdering a honorable father to rape his young child, like Lcpl Boudreaux freely confesses. Boudreaux will tell you, openly, you have to murder the Arab father of the Arab child your planning to rape, because if you don't, that Father will spend the rest of this life, hunting you down in the streets to rip you limb from limb for it.

Let US, me and the few, proud, and the brave, bring that Father's intent to bare on lancing Boudreaux, and any other who would sing in it's ungodly defense.

Zionist american media celebs do tell, everyday, soldiers for the neocon are all Heroes. (True Hero worship has long gone dead, and simple common respect for the starving man of Johnny Wizard is almost entirely illusionary, but for the love of God has for me, the Son, to never stop caring religiously.) While McCainites advocate imprisoning any (chosen) man in America (with our familiar "Exploitation Units"), who has a picture anywhere on their computer of a fully clothed teen, while denying this following censored video of children being beat to death for fun and profit is real. When I watch only thirty seconds, my rage as a god increases beyond anything anyone of Humanity can even contemplate, and i start crushing bricks in my hands with fury, twist iron bars into pretzels, all as a foolishly feeble attempt to personally have killed those present in this video. Then I cry. I cried for these children present in this video the first time I watched it, and I cried last night briefly, before stopping it.

Please, my brothers, join me in hunting each and every bushite present in this video down for death. For a Love of God that will never end, until we have seen each and every responsible child killing bushite present brought to true Justice extreme.

ARE YOU TALKING TO ME?

George W. Bush:

"If the absence of violence is victory, no one will ever win."

But for those of us who would believe protection to be a heavenly good thing actually he means? What the. does he mean?? Find out!, in the new candid, let's talk politics interview, with no other than, PRESIDENT GEORGE W. BUSH.

Giuliani told ABC's Peter Jennings on September 11, 2001

'..and I was operating in there [75 Barkley St.], when I was told that the World Trade Center Towers were going to collapse.'

WTC TOWERS? "WERE"?

Did you know that the international Johnny Wizard comic book is out there? Don't miss out on picking up a copy for yourself, or your loved ones. And did you know, I'm trying to get on international radio without a censor to thunder my audience back into submission. I HATE HANNITY. All I want is free open debate to resolve this crisis, that doesn't have to be so ruining our dying worlds without questions forwarded by the dumfuks. Justice is Paramount through reason to be so. The Bush Administration have been up to no good, escaping for 911, that New York City should sue for. Hire me on as legal consultant buddies, cause I'm like near starving broke here, with supreme court challenges failing my cost factor, and hunger pangs slowing our progress on fighting unjust incarceration. I desperately need money, like now, as a gift, or an advance on a industry paid private consultant gig. Or, instead, maybe you'll idly watch some innocent person willfully be sent to prison by liars in your demonized name, to defend the ungodly evils of war criminal traitor, our Mr. Bush Jr. in foolish disguises. Your call Bud.

be Wiser,

Johnny Wizard - Patriot Liberator of Eternal Destiny
(i.e. REAL sustainability as self sufficiency)

(i.e. nothing is separate from existence ourselves, not even time, and Justice is binding to defend our lives if practiced fairly with it's elemental divisions through reason. Example: a person accused of a criminal offence, without any evidence, is INNOCENT. Those who say otherwise, are the actual terror-ists. Civilization's ancient Founder Hammurabi, suggested just to openly publicly have executed those who lay capital allegations without any evidence, while working to close outstanding criminal investigations. A made CRIME within ourselves Hammurabi claimed, and by thinking such ways, brought birth of 'Civilized' to an untamed till then, chaotic confusion. Old becomes again anew, because Americans are weak as polluted, and too cowardly to defend the rights of US innocent. Let's change that. Support my climb to international controversy, with my unchallenged claims of direct accountability being sought, for the 911's neocon war terror plot.

'A military judge ruled last week that Watada cannot base his defense on the war's legality.'

Telling US what?, that it is a crime to not commit a crime? It isn't only high treason against America the ungodly bushite are guilty of, but of a madness held by those truly Satanic..

/ / 'Why are you taking pictures? You don't have permission."' [...] the [bush whore] American, speaking through a translator, warned him that he did not want to see any AP photos published anywhere.\ \

No bushite was found gloriously killed for country, yet, they, the godless bushite enemy, continued to shoot innocent People indiscriminately for a distance of six miles, while likely, secretly masturbating each other as bushite liars do always.

The pro-bush irrational military said only eight innocent un-armed Afghans were counted as murdered deliberately, by those who believe our Mankind, can not ever find themselves accountable, without zionist controlled, corporate news permission. See? The military counts mankind as zionist, but I am a man of real men, committed to defend our world from all enemies, foreign, or domestic. Unlike a bushite traitor to God and America, who's word, as Oath, means as much to them, as we do. Ungodly as they are loveless, the bushite, is Life's enemy.

See my friends, this is why I, as the Son of Man beg and plead for all able bodied men, to kill treasonous bushite on sight, for every time you love God by defending the innocent from murder, (the innocent whom any pro-bush corporate professional hold in total self contempt,) you save REAL peoples lives, and you defend God's good name to love God as ourselves committed to true Liberty. Bushites are enemies of freedom, enemies of God, and worthy of death, before allowed to further bomb people indiscriminately like the commanders of NATO order day after day without risking instant frag because, bushites are blind cowardly thieving nazi fascist savages, brain damaged, who believe as satanic demon whores of Molech, they can con all of US including me forever, just like dare dubya. Dumfuks.

promoted through the tyranny of censorship

Corporate News America's Terror Expert, Gaffney, who publicly advocates the rape and murder of the innocent in Iraq to thieve from for the 'escaping' neocons, (as the truly UNGODLY,) stated these words about why American Soldiers continue to lawlessly DIE sacrificed for no better good or reason understood, as total willing dumfuks under deep hypnosis:

"It is not George Bush, it is not the Neocons"

"," = swinging pocket watch

Don't let these neocon zionist bastards doe this to US.

Any Commander that doesn't support the arrest of those responsible for 911 and the subseqent neocon war crimes of Iraq, is a traitor to God and Country.

How much much God take as taken, before you people get on over this criminally empowered war monger Congress of an unelected lawless dictator demon, and call them out on the turning talk commercial radios, all to finally truly defend ourselves with a good media plan for results.

Make the call, be a man.

Sir Ken, head of the Crown Prosecution Service

"The fight against terrorism on the streets of [..] is not a war. It is the prevention of crime, the enforcement of our laws and the winning of justice for those damaged by their infringement."

You got that right. So, join US in demanding the quick trials, and public executions of known bushite enemies who murdered Americans on 911 with general Ahmad, and who with Peter Powers, murdered the innocent in Britain for more stolen goods against God. And anyone in the air force as bushite bombers should be a great joy for US all to hunt for prosecuting too. The bushite dumfuk is an enemy to our lives, with it's blatant naked contempt for the innocent, who like the demon liar THEIVES at CJOB, George Norry, or Hannity, will forbid ANY human defenses of the lawless dictate of the IRRATIONAL tyrannical demon antichrist, all so to victimize more of You as the censored forsaken.

REPENT. [from the Greek, meaning to think.]

The TRUE Son of Man Johnny Wizard Exists Born to this Eternal World to end permanently demonic bushite enemies of Creation. Help Life out by destroying cowardly America's greatest threat to the Species, the greatest threat against Humanity's Freedom to be Loved by God. Corporate nazi zionist bushlores at CBC, CNN, and criminal thieving from the desperately poor in Winnipeg CJOBers forbid open communications, and I can't 'take over', because then I'd be defeating my own, power to the Peoples argument. So, it really is up to YOU, yes you there... reader. Who.. really..? YOU, here, now. Life begs, takes a stand for your fellow man, and demand our voices heard for the defense of the entire human race. And be quick about it. Repuglicons don't want freedom from endless war where they kill your forsaken kids, for we all know, bushites would be publicly tried, then spend the rest of their treasonous lives behind bars broke, or dead from lethal injections made popular in America. Again, officer Bowman is responsible for letting 'escape' those from Fort Detrick, who attempted to murder the American Congressmen who thought going into lawless tyranny, !makes no sense! Where is corporate America on our issues when OUR free speech is ruled by the irrational evil minds of Limbaugh, Bell, and Norry?!?!! Back to Bowman: Bowman, also is responsible for sabotaging the Moussaoui warrant. And, how much you wanna bet, he's probably the same bushite who found Atta's passport, and likely had all 19 names of the high-jackers to give CNN, CBC, and FoxNews just like the neocon's "bin Laden" would have too. Take the publicly prancing bushite enemy out for questions by yourself, if he doesn't plead his defense publicly on Coast to Coast by tomorrow. Remember, there ain't an "Intelligence" group worth their salt on the face of our Earth, that doesn't know exactly what I'm doing here honorably for a real Justice made through careful thought. So, support Johnny Wizard speaking for public challenges internationally, and with the 23 plus co-operating for life 'Intel' agencies, along with, anyone else who can join in on the call. as a growing number of Patriot Soldiers, who trust yourself to see, this wanting of Justice isn't complicated. A person accused of a terrorist event without any evidence, has our accuser a bushite, who should be watched carefully until verifiable conclusions are done by the understanding of fact. Not faith. With George W. Bush making real decisions in faith, expecting us to believe as corporately broadcasted unabashedly unbiased, that he is not a deliberate incompetent monster war criminal of unfathomable evil?, who is just too 'stupid' to understand why we are innocent until proven otherwise?, is really something we all need to scream about to save our dying lives.

"[..] just like the neocon's "bin Laden" would have too."

However, the real Laden, on video taped confession, claimed he played no part whatsoever in 911, then later, offered himself for arrest, confident he would be acquitted. Not corporately newsworthy though, so, few even know why their American child was later died in the terrorists act of corporate contempt for US living Freedom with something greater as real Justice wills

Yours again,
